giuen thanks, gaue it to them: and they all dranke of it.

24 And her sayde vnto them, This is my shed for many.

25 Verily I say vnto you, I wil drinke no more of the fruite of the vine, vntill that day, that I drinke it newe in the kings domme of God.

26 And when they had sing a psalme, they went out to the mount of Olives.

27 * Then Iesus saide vnto them, All ye shall be offended by me this night: for it is writen, I will smite the shepheards, and the sheepe shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am risen, I will goe into Galilee before you.

29 And Peter saide vnto him, Although all men should be offended, yet would I not I.

30 Then Iesus sayde vnto him, Verily I say vnto thee, this day, even in this night, before the cocke crowe twice, thou shalt denie me thrise.

31 But he saide moze earnestly, If I should die with thee, I will not denie thee: likewise also said they all.

32 * After, they came into a place named Gethsemane: then he sayde to his disciples, Sit ye here, till I haue prayed.

33 And he tooke with him Peter, and James, and John, and he began to be afraid, and in great heavynesse,

34 And sayd vnto them, My soule is very heauie, euen vnto the death: tary here and watch.

35 So he went forwarde a litle, and fell downe on the ground, and prayed, that if it were possible, that houre might passe from him.

36 And he sayd, Abba, Father, all things are possible vnto thee: take away this cuppe from me: neuertheless, not that I will, but that thou wilt, be done.

37 Then he came and found them sleeping, and sayd to Peter, Simon, sleepest thou?
couldst not thou watch one houre?

38 Watch ye, and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit is ready in deede is ready, but the flesh is weake.

39 And againe he went awap, and prayed, and spake the same wordes.

40 And he returned, and founde them a sleepe againe: for their eyes were heauie:
neither knew they what they should an-swere him.

41 And he came the third time, and sayde vnto them, Sleepe henceforth, and take your rest: is enough: the houre is come:
behold, the Sonne of man is deliuered into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise vp: let vs go: lo, he that betray-eth me, is at hand.

43 * And immediatly, while he yet spake, came Iudas that was one of the twelue, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves from the hye priests, and Scribes, and Elders.

43 And alsoone as he was come, he went straightway to him, and said, P. Master, and kussed him.

44 Then they laide their handes on him, and tooke him.

45 And one of them that stood by, drew out a sword, and smote a servant of the hie Priest, and cut off his eare.

46 And Jesus answered & said unto them, He be come out as unto a thiefe with swordes and with staves to take me.

47 I was dappil with you teaching in the Temple, and ye rooke me not: but this is done p the Scriptures should be fulfilled.

48 Then they all forsooke him, and fled.

49 And there followed him a certaine pong man, clothed in linnen vpon: he bare bus dy, and the pong men caught him.

50 But he left his linnen cloth, & fled from them naked.

51 So they ledde Jesus away to the hie Priest, & to him came all the hie priests, and the Elders, and the Scribes.

52 And Peter followed him a farr off, even into the hall of the hie Priest, and sate with the servants, and warmed himselfe at the fire.

53 And the hie Priest, and all the Council fought for witnessse against Jesus, to put him to death, but found none.

54 For many bare false witnessse against him, but their witnessse agreed not together.

55 Then there arose certaine, & bare false witnessse against him, saying,

56 We heard him say, I will destroy this Temple made with hands, & within three dayes I will builde another, made without hands.

57 But their witnessse yet agreed not together.

58 Then the hie Priest stood by amongst them, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? What is the matter that these beare witnessse against thee?

59 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the hie Priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou Christ the Sonne of the Blessed?

60 And Jesus said, I am he, and ye shall see the Sonne of man sit at the right hand of the power of God, and come in the cloudes of heauen.

61 Then the hie Priest rent his clothes, and said, What haue we any more neede of witnessse?

62 He haue heard the blasphemie: what thinke ye? And they all condemned him to be worthy of death.

63 And some began to spie at him, and to couer his face, & to beate him with fistes, and to say vnto him, Prophecie. and the sergeants smote him with their roddes.

64 And as Peter was beneath in the hall, there came one of the mapdes of the hie Priest.

65 And when she sawe Peter warming himselfe, she looked on him, & saide, Thou wast also with Jesus of Nazareth.

66 But he denied it, saying, I know him not, neither wor I what thou sapest.

67 Then he went out into the porch, and the cocke crew.

68 Then a mapde sawe him againe, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

69 But he denied it againe: and anon after, they that stood by, saide againe to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art of Galilee, & thy speech is like.

70 And he began to curse, and sweare, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speake.

71 Then the second time the cocke crew, & Peter remembered the woide that Jesus had said vnto him, Before the cocke crowe twice, thou shalt deny me thrise, & waping that with himselfe, he wept.

2 And anon in the dawning, the high Priest held a counsel with the Elders, and the Scribes, & the whole counsel and bound Jesus, and led him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

3 Then Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Jewes? And he answered, and said vnto him, Thou sapest it.

4 And the hie Priest accused him of many things.

5 Wherefore Pilate asked him againe, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witnessse against thee.

6 But Jesus answered, no more at all, so that Pilate marvelled.

7 Nowe at the feast Pilate did deliuer a prisoner vnto them, whome soeuer they would desire.

8 Then there was one named Barabbas, which was bounde with his fellows, that had made insurrection, who in the insurrection had committed murder.

9 And the people cried aloud, and began to desire that he would do as he had done vnto them.

10 Then Pilate answered them, and saide, Will ye that I let loose vnto you the king of the Jewes?

11 For he knew that the hie Priestes had deliuered him of envie.

12 But the hie Priestes had moued the people to desire that he would rather deliuer Barabbas vnto them.

13 And Pilate answered, and said againe vnto them, What wilt thou that I doe with him, whome ye call the king of the Jewes?

14 And they cried againe, Crucifie him.

15 Then Pilate said vnto them, But what evil hath he done? And they cryed the more feruently, Crucifie him.

18 And began to salute him, saying, Hail, King of the Iewes.

19 And they smote him on the head with a reede, and spat vpon him, and bowed the knees, and did him reuerence.

20 And when they had mocked him, they tooke the purple off him, & put his owne clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him.

21 And they compelled one that passed by, called Simon of Cyrene (which came out of the countrey, & was father of Alexander and Rufus) to beare his crosse.

22 And they brought him to a place named Golgotha, which is by interpretation, the place of dead mens skulles.

23 And they gaue him to drinke wine mingled with mycke: but he receiued it not.

25 And it was the thirde houre, when they crucified him.

26 And y title of his cause was written as foure, THE KING OF THE IEWES.

27 They crucified also with him two theues, the one on the right hande, and the other on his left.

28 Thus y Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was counted among the wicked.

29 And they that went by, rapped on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Hee thou that despoilest the Temple, and buildest it in three dayes,

30 Haue the selfe, and come downe from the crosse.

31 Likewise also euen the hie Priests mocking, sayde among themselves with the Scribes, He saved other men, himselfe he can not save.

32 Let Christ the king of Israel now come downe from the crosse. that we may see, and beleue. They also that were crucified with him, reuiled him.

33 And now when the first houre was come, darknesse arose ouer all the lande vntill the ninth houre.

34 And at the ninth houre Iesus cried with a loude voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lamma sabachthani: which is by interpretation, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, saide, Beholde, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ran, and filled a sponge full of vineger, & put it on a reede, and gaue him to drinke, saying, Let him alone: let vs see if Elias will come and take him downe.

37 And Iesus cried with a loude voice, and gaue vp the ghost.

38 And the baile of the Temple was rent in twaine, from the top to the bottome.

39 Nowe when the Centurion, which stood ouer against him, saw that he thus crying gaue vp the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Sonne of God.

40 There were also women, which beheld a farre off, among whom was Marye Magdalene, and Marye (the mother of James the lesse, & of Ioseph) & Salome, 41 Which also when Iesus was in Galile, followed him, and ministered vnto him, and many other women which came by with him vnto Ierusalem.

42 And now when night was come (because it was the day of the preparation, that is before the Sabbath)

43 Ioseph of Arimathea, an honourable Councillour, which also looked for the kingdom of God, came, & went in boldly vnto Pilate, & asked y body of Iesus.

44 And Pilate maruelled, if he were already dead, & called vnto him the Centurion, and asked of him wher he had bene any while dead.

45 And when hee knewe the truth of the Centurion, he gaue the bodie to Ioseph, 46 Who bought a linnen cloth, and tooke him downe, & wapped him in the linnen cloth, and laide him in a tombe that was hewen out of a rocke, and rolled a stone vnto the doore of the sepulchre.

2 Therefore early in the morning, the first day of the weeke, they came vnto the sepulchre, when the sunne was yet rising.

3 And they sayde one to another, Who shall rolle vs away the stone from the doore of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they sawe that the stone was rolled away (for it was a very great one.)

5 So they went vnto the sepulchre, & sawe a young man sitting at the right side, clothed in a long white robe: and they were afraide.

6 But he said vnto them, Be not afraide: for I am Iesus, which hath bene crucified: he is risen: he is not here: behold the place, wher he put him.

7 But go your way, and tell his disciples, and to Peter, that he will goe before you into Galile: there shall ye see him, as he said vnto you.

8 And they went out quickly, & fled from the sepulchre: for they trembled, & were amazed: neither sayd they any thing to any man: for they were afraid.

there was a certaine Priest named Zawife was of the daughters of Aaron, & her name was Elisabeth.

6 Both were faine before God, and walked in all the commandementes & ordina-

7 And they had no child, because that El-isabeth was barren: and both were well stricken in age.

8 And it came to passe, as he executed the Priests office before God, as his course came in order,

10 And the whole multitude of the people were without in prayer, while the in-11 Then appeared unto him an Angel of the Lord standing at the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and feare fell upon him.

13 But the Angel said unto him, Feare not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall beare thee a sonne, and thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt haue ioy and gladnesse, and many shall reioyce at his birth.

18 Then Zacharias said unto the Angel, Whereby shall I knowe this? for I am u She would be refused of all doubtes, to the end that they might more surely embrace the promise of God.

x It shal be a secret operation of the holy Ghost.
y He must be pure and without sinne, which must take away the sinnes of the world. z Notwithstanding that Elizabeth was married to one of the tribe of Levi, yet shee was Maries cousin, which was of the stocke of Dauid. For the Lawe which forbade marriage out of their owne tribe was only that the tribes shoulde not be mixt and confounded, which could not be in marrying with the Leuites: for they had no portion assigned vnto them.

¶ How the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he taried so long in the Temple.
¶ And when he came out, he could not speake vnto them: then they perceived that he had seene a vision in the Temple: for he made signes vnto them, and remained daime.
¶ And it came to passe, when the dayes of his office were fulfilled, that he departed to his owne house.
¶ And after those dayes, his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid her selfe fūe moneths, saying,
¶ Thus hath the Lord dealt with me, in the daies wherein he looked on me, to take from me my rebuke among men.
¶ And in the sixth moneth, the Angel Gabriel was sent from God vnto a citie of Galilee, named Nazareth.
¶ To a virgin affianced to a man whose name was Ioseph, of the house of Dauid, and the virgins name was Marie.
¶ And the Angel went in vnto her, and said, Hail thou that art fauourably beloved: the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.
¶ And when he saue him, she was troubled at his saying, & thought what manner of salutation that shoulde be.
¶ Then the Angel saide vnto her, feare not, Marie: for thou hast found fauour with God.
¶ For loe, thou shalt conceive in thy wombe, and beare a sonne, and shalt call his name IESVS.
¶ He shal be great, and shall be called the Sonne of the most High, and the Lord God shal giue vnto him the throne of his father Dauid.
¶ And he shall reigne ouer the house of Iacob for euer, and of his kingdom shall be none ende.
¶ Then saide Marie vnto the Angel, How shall this be, seeing I knowe not man?
¶ And the Angel answered and sayd vnto her, The holy Ghost shall come vpon thee, and the power of the most High shall ouershadowe thee: therefore also that which shall be done in thee, shall be called the Sonne of God.
¶ And beholde, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a sonne in her old age: and this is her first moneth, which was called barren.
¶ For with God shal nothing be impossible.
¶ Then Marie said, Behold the serant of the Lord: be it vnto me according to thy word. So the Angel departed from her.
¶ And Marie arose in those dayes, and went into the hill country with haile to a citie of Iuda, and entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

¶ And it came to passe, as Elisabeth heard the salutation of Marie, the babe spang in her bellie, and Elisabeth was filled with the holy Ghost.
¶ And she cried with a loud voice, & said, Blessed art thou among women, because the fruite of thy wombe is blessed.
¶ And whence cometh this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?
¶ For loe, as soon as the voyce of thy salutation sounded in mine eares, the babe leaped in my bellie for Ioy.
¶ And blessed is she that believed: for those things shall be performed, which were tolde her from the Lord.
¶ Then Marie said, My soule magnifieth the Lord.
¶ And my spirit reioyced in God my Saviour.
¶ For he hath looked on the poore degree of his seruant: for behold, from henceforth shall all ages call me blessed.
¶ Because he that is mightie hath done for me great things, & holy is his Name.
¶ And his mercie is from generation to generation on them that feare him.
¶ He hath shewed strength with his arme: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
¶ He hath put downe the mightie from their seates, & exalted them of low degree.
¶ He hath filled the hungry with good things, and sent away the rich empty.
¶ He hath hypoiden Israel his seruant, being mindful of his mercie.
¶ As he hath spoken to our fathers, to wit, to Abraham and his seed, for euer.
¶ And Marie abode with her about three monthes: after, she returned to her owne house.
¶ ¶ Now Elisabeths time was fulfilled, that the child was deliuered, & she brought forth a sonne.
¶ And her neighbours, and cousins heard tell how the Lord had shewed his great mercie vpon her, and they reioyced with her.
¶ And it was so that on the eight day they came to circumcise the babe, & called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.
¶ But his mother answered, and saide, Not so, but he shalbe called Iohn.
¶ And they said vnto her, There is none of thy kindred, that is named by this name.
¶ Then they made signes to his father, how he would haue him called.
¶ So he asked for writing tables, & wrote, saying, his name is Iohn, & they marvelled all.
¶ And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake and praised God.
¶ Then there came on all them that dwelt neere vnto them, and all these words were noped abroad throughout all the hill country of Iuda.
¶ And all they that heard them, lapse for his increase them liue.

80 And the childe grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the wilderness, till the day came, that he should shewe himselfe vnto Israel.

81 And when the eight dayes were accomplished, that they should circuncise the childe, his name was then called Iesus.

82 And when the daies of her purification after the Lawe of Moyses were accomplished, they brought him to Ierusalem, to present him to the Lord.

83 As it is written in the Lawe of the Lord, Every man childe that hath opened the wombe, shall be called holy to the Lord:

84 And to give an oblation, as it is commanded in the Lawe of the Lord, a pair of turtle doves, or two pong pigeons.

85 And behold, there was a man in Ierusalem, whose name was Simeon: this man was iust, and feared God, and waited for the consolation of Israel, and the holy Ghost was vpon him.

86 And when he had seen him, he praised God, and said, Now let me see thy face, for as much as I have seen thee, my eyes are fulfilled, as it is written in the Lord's word, that I should see thy face, and mine eyes shall see thy face.

87 And he said unto her, Thyselfe also shalt be called holy, for as much as thou hast seen him, thy heart is fulfilled, as it is written in the Lord's word, that I should see thy face, and mine eyes shall see thy face.

88 And when she had said these things, she was returned, and waited for the consolation of Israel, and the holy Ghost was vpon her.

5 To be taxed with Marie that was giuen him to wife, which was with child.

6 And so it was, that while they were there, the dayes were accomplished that she should be deliuered.

7 And she brought forth her first begotten sonne, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a cratch, because there was no rowne for them in that time.

8 And there were in the same countrey shepherds, abiding in the field, & keeping watch by night because of their flocke.

9 And lo, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and the glorie of the Lord shone about them, and they were fowle afraid.

10 Then the Angel said vnto them, Be not afraid: for behold, I bring you tidings of great ioy, that shall be to all the people:

11 That is, that vnto you is borne this day in the citie of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a signe to you, Ye shall finde the childe swaddled, and layde in a cratch.

13 And straightway there was with the Angel a multitude of beautifull soldiers, praising God, and saying,

14 Glorie be to God in the high heauens, and peace in earth, and towards men of good will.

15 And it came to passe when the Angels were gone away from them into heauen, that the shepherds said one to another, Let vs go then vnto Beth-lehem, and see this thing that is come to passe, which the Lord hath shewed vnto vs.

16 So they came with haste, & found both Marie and Ioseph, & the babe layde in the cratch.

17 And when they had seene it, they published abroad the thing, which was tolde them of that childe.

18 And all that heard it, wondered at the things which were tolde them of the shepherds.

19 But Marie kept all those sayings, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God, for all that they had heard and seene, as it was spoken vnto them.

46 And it came to passe thre dayes after, that they found him in the Temple, sithearing them, & asking them questions.

47 And all that heard him, were astonied

11 And he answered, and said vnto them,

12 Then came there s Pharisees also to 15 For he taught in their Synagogues, and was honoured of all men.

16 * And hee came to Nazaret where hee had bene brought vp, & (as his custome was) went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stode vp to read.

17 And there was deliuered vnto him the booke of the Prophet Esaias: and when he had opened the booke, hee founde the place where it was written,

18 * The Spirit of the Lord is vpon me, because he hath anointed mee, that I should preach the Gospell to the poore: he hath sent me, that I should heale the broken hearted, that I should preach deliuerance to the captiues, and recouering of sight to the blinde, that I should set at libertie them that are bound,

19 And that I should preach the acceptable prece of the Lord.

20 And hee closed the booke, and gaue it againe to the minister, and satte downe: and the eyes of all that were in the Synagogue were fastened on him.

21 Then he began to say vnto them, This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your eares.

22 And all i bare him witnesse, and wondered at the gracious wordes, which proceeded out of his mouth, and said, Is not this Iosephs sonne?

23 Then he said vnto them, He will surely say vnto mee this prouerbe, Whysirion, k heale thy selfe: what former wee haue heard done in Capernaum, doe it here likewise in thine owne countrey.

24 And hee saide, Verely I say vnto you,

* No i Prophet is accepted in his owne countrey.

25 But I tell you of a trueneth, manie widowes were in Israel in the dayes of * Elias, when heauen was shut thre yeres and six monethes, when great famine was throughout all the land,

26 But vnto none of them was Elias sent, saue into Sarepta, a cite of Sidon, vnto a certaine widowe.

27 Also manie lepers were in Israel, in the time of * Eliseus the Prophet: yet none of them was made cleane, sauing Naaman the Syrian.

28 Then all that were in the Synagogue, when they hearde it, were filled with wrath,

29 And rose vp, and thrust him out of the cite, and ledde him vnto the edge of the hill, whereon their cite was built, to cast him downe headlong.

30 But he passed through the middes of them, and went his way,

31 * And came downe into Capernaum a cite of Galilee, and there taught them on the Sabbath dayes.

32 * And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with authoritie.

33 And in the Synagogue there was a man which had a spirit of an vnclane deuill, which cryed with a loud voyce,

34 Saying, Oh, what haue we to doe with thee, thou Iesus of Nazaret? art thou come to destroy vs? I knowe who thou art, even the Holy one of God.

35 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Wolbe thy peace, and come out of him. Then the deuill throwing him in the middes of them, came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 So feare came on them all, and they spake among themselves, saying, What thing is this? for with authoritie and power he commandeth the foule spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him spied abroade throughout all the places of the countrey round about.

38 * And he rose vp, and came out of the Synagogue, and entered into Simons house. And Simons wifes mother was taken with a great feare, and they requested him for her.

39 Then he stoode ouer her, and rebuked the feuer, and it left her: and immediatlie she arose, and ministered vnto them.

40 Nowe when the sunne was downe, all they that had sicke folkes of diuers diseases, brought them vnto him, and he laide his hands on euery one of them, & healed them.

41 * And devils also came out of manie, crying, & saying, Thou art the Christ, the Sonne of God: but he rebuked them, and suffered them not to saye that they knewe him to be the Christ.

42 And when it was day, he departed, and went forth into a desert place, & the people sought him, and came to him, & kept him, so he should not depart from them.

43 But he said vnto them, Surely I must also preach the kingdom of God to other cities: for therfore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the Synagogues of Galilee.

1 Christ preacheth out of the ship. 6 The great draught of fish. 10 Certaine disciples are called. 12 He cleanseth the Leper. 18 He healeth the man of the palsey. 27 He calleth Mattheu the customner. 30 He teacheth vnto sinners. 34 And excuseth him, as touching fasting.

Then it came to passe, as the people pressed vpon him to heare the wordes of God, that he stoode by the lake of Genesaret,

2 And saw two shippes stande by the lake side, but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nettes.

3 And a hee entered into one of the shippes, which was Simons, and requested him that he woulde thrust off a litle from the land: and hee satte downe, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 I Nowe when hee had left speaking, hee said vnto Simon, Launche out into the deepe, & let downe your nettes to make a draught.

5 Then Simon answered, and saide vnto him, b Master, wee haue trauailed all night, & haue take nothing: neuerthelesse at thy word I will let downe the net.

6 And when they had so done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes, so that they net brake.

7 And they beckened to their partners, which commanded, which were in the other ship, that they should come and helpe them, who came then, and filled both the ships, that they did sunke.

8 Nowe when Simon Peter sawe it, he fell downe at Jesus knees, saying, Lord, go from me: for I am a sinful man.

9 For he was verie astonied, & all that were with him, for the draught of fishes, which they took.

10 And so was also James and John the sonnes of Zebedeus, which were companions with Simon. Then Jesus sayd unto Simon, Feare not: from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought the ships to land, they forsooke all, & followed him.

12 ¶ Nowe it came to passe, as he was in a certaine cite, beholde, there was a man full of leprosie, and when he sawe Jesus, he fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

13 So he stretched forth his hande, and touched him, saying, I will, be thou cleane. And immediatly the leprosie departed from him.

14 And he commanded him that he should tell it no man: but he saith he, and shewe thy selfe to the Priest, and offer for thy cleansing, as ¶ Moses hath commanded, for a witness vnto them.

15 But so much more went there a fame abroade of him, & great multitudes came together to heare, and to be healed of him of their infirmities.

16 But he kept himselfe apart in the wilderness, and prayed.

17 ¶ And it came to passe, on a certaine day, as he was teaching, that the Pharisees and doctors of the lawe came by, which were come out of euery towne of Galile, & Iudea, and Ierusalem, and the power of the Lord was in him to heale them.

18 ¶ Then beholde, men brought a man lying in a bed, which was raked with a palsie, and they sought meanes to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not finde by what way they might bring him in, because of the people, they went vp on the house, & let him downe through ¶ tiling, bed and all, in the middes before Jesus.

20 And when he sawe their faith, he sayd vnto him, Man, thy sinnes are forgiven thee.

21 Then the Scribes and the Pharisees began to thinke, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies? who can forgive sinnes, but God onely?

22 But whise Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answered and sayd vnto them, What thinke ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier to say, Thy sinnes are forgiven thee, or to saye, Rise and walke?

24 But that ye may know that the Sonne of man hath authoritie to forgive sinnes in earth, (he sayd vnto the sicke of the palsie) I say to thee, Rise: take vp thy bed, and go to thine house,

25 And immediatly he rose vp before them, and toke vp his bed wheron he lay, and departed to his owne house, praising God.

26 And they were all amazed, and praised God, and were filled with feare, saying, Doubtlesse we haue seene strange things to day.

27 ¶ And after that, he went forth and sawe a Publicane named ¶ Leui, sitting at the receite of custome, and sayd vnto him, Followe me.

28 And he left all, rose vp, and followed him.

29 Then Leui made him a great feast in his owne house, where there was a great companie of Publicanes, and of other that late at table with them.

30 But they that were Scribes & Pharisees among them, murmured against his disciples, saying, Why eate ye and drinke ye with Publicanes and sinners?

31 Then Jesus answered, and sayd vnto them, They that are whole, neede not the Physicion, but they that are sicke.

32 ¶ I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ Then they sayd vnto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, & ¶ pray, and the disciples of the Pharisees also, but thine eate, and drinke?

34 And he sayd vnto them, Can ye make the children of the wedding chamber to fast, as long as the bridegrome is with them?

35 But the dayes will come, euen when the bridegrome shall be taken away from them: then shall they fast in those dayes.

36 Againe he spake also vnto them a parable, ¶ No man putteth a piece of a newe garment into an olde besture: for then the newe renteth it, and the piece taken out of the newe, agreeth not with the olde.

37 ¶ Also no man putteth newe wine into olde vessels: for then the newe wine will breake the vessels, and it will runne out, and the vessels will perith.

38 But newe wine must be putted into newe vessels: so both are perfected.

39 Also no man that ¶ drinketh olde wine, straightway desireth newe: for he sauerth, The olde is better.

2 And certaine of the Pharisees sayd vnto them, Why do ye that which is not lawfull to do on the Sabbath daies?

6 It came to passe also on another Sabbath, that he entred into the Synagogue and taught, and there was a man, whose right hand was dried vp.
7 And the Scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he wold heale on the Sabbath day, that they might finde an accusation against him.
8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hande, Arise, and stand vp in the muddle. And he arose, and stood vp.
9 Then saide Iesus to them, I will aske pou a question, Whether is it lawfull on the Sabbath daies to doe good, or to doe euill: to saue life, or to destroy it?
10 And he beheld them al in compasse, and sayde vnto the man, Stretch forth thine hande. And he did so, and his hand was restored againe, as whole as the other.
11 Then they were filled full of madnesse, and communed one with another, what they might do to Iesus.
12 And it came to passe in those dayes, that he went into a mountaine to praye, and spent the night in prayer to God.
13 And when it was day, he called his disciples, and of them he chose twelue, which also he called x^p Apostles.
14 (Simon whome he named also Peter, and Andrew his brother, James and Iohn, Phillippe, and Bartolomew:
15 Matthewe, and Thomas: James the sonne of Alphesus, and Simon called Zelotes:
16 Judas James brother, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitour.)
17 Then he came downe with them, and stood in a plaine place, with the compaignie of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of Galilee, & Ierusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyzus and Sidon, which came to heare him, and to be healed of their diseases:
18 And they that were vexed with foul spirits, and they were healed.
19 And the whole multitude sought to touche him: for there went vertue out of him, and healed them all.
20 And he lifted vp his eyes vpon his disciples, and sayd, Blessed be ye p^r prayer: for poures is the kingdom of God.
21 Blessed are ye that hunger nowe: for ye shall be satisfied: Blessed are ye that weep nowe: for ye shall laugh.
22 Blessed are ye when men hate you, and when they separate you, and reuile you, and put out your name as euill, for the Sonne of man sake.
23 Therefore pe in that day, and be glad: for behold, your reward is great in heauen: for after this manner their fathers did to the Prophets.

- 24 But two be to you that are rich: for ye haue receiued your consolation.
25 Wo be to you that are full: for ye shall hunger. Wo be to you that now laugh: for ye shall weep and weep.
26 Wo be to you when all men speake well of you: for so did their fathers to the false prophets.
27 And I say vnto you which heare, Loue your enemies: doe well to them which hate you.
28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which hurt you.
29 And vnto him that smiteth thee on the one cheeke, offer also the other: and him that taketh away thy cloke, forbid not to take thy coat also.
30 Giue to euery man that asketh of thee: and of him that taketh away thy goods, aske them not againe.
31 And as pe would that men should do to you, so do pe to them likewise.
32 For if ye loue them which loue you, what thank shall ye haue? for euen the sinners loue those that loue them.
33 And if ye doe good to them which doe good for you, what thank shall ye haue? for euen the sinners do the same.
34 And if ye lende to them of whom ye hope to receiue, what thank shall ye haue? for euen the sinners lende to sinners, to receiue the like.
35 Wherefore loue ye your enemies, and do good, & lend, looking for nothing againe, and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be children of the most high: for he is kinde vnto the vnkinder, & to the euill.
36 Be ye therefore mercifull, as your Father also is mercifull.
37 Iudge not, and ye shall not be iudged: condemne not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven.
38 Giue, and it shall be giuen vnto you: a good measure, pressed downe, shaken together, and running ouer shall men giue into your bosome: for with what measure ye mete, with the same shall men mete to you againe.
39 And hee spake a parable vnto them, Can the blinde leade the blinde? shall not they both fall into the ditch?
40 The discipule is not above his master: but whosoever will be a perfite discipule, shall be as his master.

45 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth good, and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 ¶ But why calpe me? I saie, master, and do not the things that I speake?

47 Whosoever committeth to me, and heareth my wordes, and doth the same, I will shewe vnto whom he is like.

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deepe, & laide the foundation on a rocke: and when the waters arose, the flood beat vpon that house, and could not shake it: for it was grounded vpon a rocke.

49 But he that heareth and doth not, is like a man that built an house vpon the earth without foundation, against which the flood did beat, and it fell by and by: and the fall of that house was great.

CHAP. VII.

2 He healeth the captaines seruant. 11 Heraseth vp the widowes son: & death to life. 19 He answereth the disciples vnto John Baptists sent vnto him. 24 He commendeth Iohn. 31 And reproveth the Iewes for their vnfaithfulness. 36 He ca- reth vnto the Pharise. 37 For woman vnfaithful he seeth vnith her teares, & he forgiveth her finnes.

¶ When he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entred into Capernaum.

3 And a certaine Centurions seruant was sicke and ready to die, which was deare vnto him.

4 And when he heard of Iesus, he sent vnto him the Elders of the Iewes, beseeching him that he would come and heale his seruant.

5 So they came to Iesus, and besought him instantly, saying that he was worthy that he should do this for him.

6 For he loneth, and they, our nation, and he hath built vs a Synagogue.

7 Then Iesus went with them: but when he was now neare from the house, the Centurion sent friends to him, saying vnto him, Lord, trouble not thy selfe: for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter vnder my roofe.

8 Wherefore I thought not my selfe worthy to come vnto thee: but I say the word, and my seruant shall be whole.

9 For I likewise am a man set vnder authority, and haue vnder me souldiers, and I say vnto one, Goe, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he cometh: and to my seruant, Doe this, and he doeth it.

10 When Iesus heard these things, hee marvelled at him, and turned him, and said to the people that followed him, I say vnto you, I haue not found so great faith, no not in Israel.

11 And when they that were sent, turned backe to the house, they found the seruant that was sicke, whole.

12 And it came to passe the day after, that he went into a citie called Samaria, and many of his disciples went with him, and a great multitude.

13 Now when he came nere to the gate of the citie, beholde, there was a dead man carried out, who was the only begotten sonne of his mother, which was a widow, and much people of the citie was with her.

14 And when the Lord saw her, hee had compassion on her, and saide vnto her, Weepe not.

15 And he went & touched the coffin, (and they that bare him, stood still) and he saide, Young man, I say vnto thee, arise.

16 And he that was dead, sat vp, and began to speake, and he deliuered him to his mother.

17 Then there came a feare on them all, and they glorified God, saying, A great prophete is raised vp among vs, and God hath visited his people.

18 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Iudaea, and throughout all the region round about.

¶ And the disciples of Iohn shewed him of all these things.

19 So Iohn called vnto him two certaine men of his disciples, and sent them to Iesus, saying, Art thou hee that should come, or shall we waite for another?

20 And when they were come vnto him, they said, Iohn Baptists sent vs vnto thee, saying, Art thou hee that should come, or shall we waite for another?

21 And at that time he cured many of their sicknesses, and plagues, and of euill spirits, & vnto many blinde men he gaue sight.

22 And Iesus answered, and saide vnto them, So poue waxes and shew Iohn, what things ye haue seene and heard: that the blinde see, the halfe goe, the deaf are censed, the deafe heare, the dead rise againe, and the people receiue the Gospel.

23 And blessed is he, that shall not be offended in me.

24 And whē the messengers of Iohn were departed, he began to speake unto the people of Iohn, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reede shaken with the winde?

25 But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? beholde, they which are gorgeously appareled, and lute delicately, are in kinges courts.

26 But what went ye forth to see? A Prophet? yea, I say to you, and greater then a Prophet.

27 This is he of whom it is written, Beside holde, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say vnto you, there is no greater Prophet then Iohn, although them that are begotten of women: neuertheless, hee that is the least in the kingdom of God, is greater then he.

29 Then all the people that heard, and the Publicanes, testified God, being baptized with the baptism of Iohn.

32 They are like vnto children sitting in the market place, and crying one to another, and saying, We haue piped vnto you, and ye haue not daunced: we haue mourned to you, and ye haue not wept.

39 Now when the Pharise which bade him, sawe it, hee spake within him selfe, saying, If this woman were a Prophet, he would seeke him knowne who, and what manner of woman this is, which toucheth him: for he is a sinner.

40 And Iesus answered, and saide vnto him, Simon, I haue somewhat to saye vnto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certaine lender which had two debtors: the one ought five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 When they had nothing to pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore forgave, tell me, will Ioue him most?

43 Simon answered, and sayde, I suppose that he, to whome he forgave most. And he saide vnto him, Thou hast truly iudged.

44 Then he turned to the woman, & saide vnto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entred into thine house, and thou gavest me no water to my feet: but shee hath washed my feet with teares, and wiped them with the heares of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kisse: but shee since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kisse my feet.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ with his Apostles goe from town to town, and preach. 3 The women minister vnto them of their goods. 5 He sheweth the parable of the seede. 21 He telleth vnto his mother and his brother. 24 He stilleth the raging of the lake. 27 He delivereth the possessed. 33 The deual enter into the heard of swine. 41 He healeth the sicke woman, and laisus daughter.

And it came to passe afterward, that he himselfe went through euery citie and towne, preaching, & publishing the kingdome of God, and the twelve were with him.

2 And certaine women, which were heales of rull spirits, & infirmities, as Marrie which was called Magdalene, out of whom went seven deuils,

3 And Iohnna the wife of Chuza Herodes steward, and Susanna, and many other which ministered vnto him of their substance.

4 Now when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of all citie, he spake by a parable, 5 A sower went out to sow his seede, and as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was troden vnder feet, & the fowles of heauen deuoured it by.

6 And some fell on the stones, and when it was sprung vp, it withered away, because it lacked moystnes.

7 And some fell among thornes, and the thornes springing up with it, and choked it.

8 And some fell on good ground, and sprang vp, and bare fruit, an hundred fold. And as he saide these things, he crept, hee that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

9 Then his disciples asked him, demanding what parable that was?

10 And he saide, Vnto you it is giuen to know the secrets of the kingdome of God, but to other in parables, that when they see, they should not see, and when they heare, they should not vnderstande.

11 The parable is this, The seede is the word of God.

12 And they that are beside the way, are they that heare: afterwarde cometh the deuil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, least they should beleue, and be saved.

13 But they that are on the stones, are they which when they haue heard, receiue the word with ioy: but they haue no rootes, which for a while beleue, but in the time of tentation goe away.

heare the woide, and kepe it, and bying sooth faute with patience.16 ¶ So i man when he lighteth a candle, conereth it vnder a vessel, neither putteth it vnder the table, but setteth it on a candlelike, that they that enter in, may see the light.17 ¶ For nothing is secret, that shall not be evident: neither any thing hid, that shall not be knownen, and come to light.18 Take heed therefore how ye heare: for whosoever hath, to him shall be giuen:
and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken euery thing, which he hath.19 ¶ Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come nare to him for the prease.20 And it was tolde him by certaine which said, Thy mother & thy brethren stande without, and would see thee.21 But he answered, and saide vnto them, My mother, and my brethren are these which heare the woide of God, and do it.22 ¶ And it came to passe on a certaine day, that he went into a ship with his disciples, and he said vnto them, Let vs goe ouer vnto the other side of the lake.
And they hatched forth.23 And as they sailed, he fell a sleepe, and there came downe a booke of winde on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in iopardie.24 Then they went to him, & awoke him, saying, Master, Master, we perish. And he awoke, and rebuked the winde, and the waues of water: and they ceased, and it was calme.25 Then he saide vnto them, Where is your faith? and they feared, and wondered among themselves, saying, Who is this that commaundeth both þe winde and water, and they obey him?26 ¶ So they sailed vnto the region of the Gadarenes, which is ouer against Galile.27 And as he went out to land, there met him a certaine man out of þe cite, which had a deuill long tyme, and he ware no clothes, neither abode in house, but in the graues.28 And when he saw Iesus, he cried out, and fell downe before him, and with a loude voyce said, What haue I to doe with thee, Iesus the Sonne of God, the most high? I beseech thee, to ioyne me not.29 For he commaunded the foule spirit to come out of the man: (for oft tynes he had caught him: therefore he was bound with chaynes, and kept in fetters: but he brake the bandes, and was caried of the deuill into wildernesses.)30 Then Iesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, m Legion, because many deuils were entred into him.31 And they besought him, that he would not commaunde them to goe out into the desert.32 And there was there by, an hearde of unlaw swine, feeding on an hill, and thedeuils besought him, that he would suffer them to enter into them. So he suffered them.33 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the hearde was caried with violence from a stepe downe place into the lake, & was choked.34 When the heardmen sawe what was done, they fled: and when they were departed, they tolde it in the cite and in the countrey.35 Then they came out to see what was done, and came to Iesus, and found the man, out of whome the deuils were departed, sitting at the feete of Iesus, cloyned, and in his right minde: and they were asfraid.36 They also which sawe it, tolde them by what meanes hee that was possesid with the deuill, was healed.37 Then the whole multitude of the coun-trei about þe Gadarenes, besought him, that he would departe from thence: for they were taken with a great feare: and he went into the ship, and returned.38 Then the man out of whom the deuils were departed, besought him that hee might be with him: but Iesus sent him away, saying,39 ¶ Returne into thine owne house, and shew what great things God hath done to thee. So he went his way, & preached throughout all the cite, what great things Iesus had done vnto him.40 ¶ And it came to passe when Iesus was come againe, that the people recei-ued him: for they all waited for him.41 ¶ And beholde, there came a man named Iarnus, who he was the ruler of the synagogue, who fell downe at Iesus feete, and besought him, that he would come into his house.42 For he had but a daughter onely, about twelue yeres of age, and she lay dying (and as hee went, the people thynged him).43 And a woman hauing an issue of bloud, twelue yeres long, which had spent all her substance vpon physicians, & could not be healed of any:44 When she came behinde him, she touched the hem of his garment, and im-mediatly her fluse of bloud stancheth.45 Then Iesus said, Who is it that hath touched me? When euery man denied,
Peter saide & they that were with him, Master, the multitude thrust thee, and trede on thee, & lapid thou, who hath touched me?46 And Iesus said, Some one hath touched me: for I perceiue that vertue is gone out of me.47 When þe woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, & fell downe before him, and tolde him before all the people, for what cause shee had touched him, and how she was healed immediatly.48 And he said vnto her, Daughtre, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole: go in peace.)f Christ doeth not impute vnto vs the weaknes of our faith, but doth accept it, as

49 While hee yet spake, there came one from the ruler of the Synagogue house, which saide to him, Thy daughter is dead: beseale not the matter.

50 When Iesus heard it, he answered him, saying, feare not: believe onely, and she shalbe made whole.

51 And when he went into the house, hee suffered no man to goe in with him, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and mother of the maide.

52 And all wept, & sorrowed for her: but he said, Weepe not: for shee is not dead, but sleepe.

53 And they laught him to skorne, knowing that she was dead.

54 So hee thrust them all out, & tooke her by the hand, & crept, saying, Maide, arise.

55 And her spirit came againe. & three rose straightway: and hee commaunded to giue her meate.

56 Then her parents were astonied: but he commaunded them that they shoulde tell no man what was done.

CHAP. IX.

2 He sendeth out the twelve Apostles to preach. 7 Herod heareth tell of him. 12 He feedeth five thousand men with five loaves, and two fishes. 19 Divers opinions of Christ. 28 He transfigureth himself upon the mount. 43 He deliuereth the possessed. 47 And teacheth his disciples to be lowly. 54 They desire vengeance, but he reproveth them.

1 Then called hee the twelve disciples together, and gaue them power and authoritie ouer all deuils, and to heale diseases.

2 And he sent them to preache the kings- dome of God, and to cure the sicke.

3 And he said to them, Take nothing to your iourney, neither staves, nor scrip, neither brade, nor shouer, neither haue two coats.

4 And whosoener house pee enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoener will not receiue you, when pee goe out of that citie, shake off the very dust from your feete for a testi- monie against them.

6 And they went out, and went throught euery towne preaching the Gospell, and healing euery where.

7 Nowe Herode the Tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: & hee doubted, because that it was saide of some, that Iohn was risen againe from the dead:

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared: and of some, that one of the olde Pro- phets was risen againe.

9 Then Herode saide, Iohn haue I behea- ded: who then is this of whom I heare such things? and he desired to see him.

10 ¶ And when the Apostles returned, they tolde him what great things they had done. Then he tooke them, & went aside into a solitary place, neere to the citie called Bethsaida.

11 But when the people knew it, they fol- lowed him: and he receiued them, and spake vnto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them & had need to be healed.

12 ¶ And when the day began to waxe away, the twelve came, and saide vnto him, Sende the people away, that they may goe into the townes and villages round about, and lodge, and get meate: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he saide vnto them, Giue ye them to eate. And they said, We haue no more but five loaves and two fishes, except we shoulde goe, and buye meate for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. Then he saide to his disciples, Cause them to sit down by fifties in a companie.

15 And they did so, and caused all to sitte downe.

16 Then he tooke the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen and blessed them, and brake, and gaue to the disciples, to set before the people.

17 So they did all eate, and were satisfied: and there was taken vp of that remaine- ned to them, twelue baskets full of broken meate.

18 ¶ And it came to passe as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him, and he asked them, saying, Whome lay the people that I am?

19 They answered, and saide, Iohn Baptist: & others say, Elias: & some say, that one of the olde Prophets is risen againe.

20 And he saide vnto them, But whome say ye that I am? Peter answered, and said, The Christ of God.

21 And he warned, and commanded them, that they shoulde tell that to no man.

22 Saying, ¶ The sonne of man must suffer many things, and be reuiourd of the elders, and of the hie Priestes & Scribes, and be slaine, & the third day rise againe.

23 ¶ And he saide to them all, If any man will come after mee, let him deny himselfe, and take by his crosse & dapp, and follow me.

24 For whosoener will save his life, shall lose it: and whosoener shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall saue it.

25 For what anantage it a man, if hee winne the whole world, and destroy him selfe, or lose himselfe?

26 For whosoener shalbe ashamed of me, and of my words, of him shall the Sonne of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his glory, and in the glorie of the Father and of the holy Angels.

27 And I tell you of a suretie, there bee some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they haue seene the kings- dome of God.

28 And it came to passe about an eight daies after those wordes, that hee tooke Peter, and Iohn, and James, and went vp bynto a mountaine to pray.

29 And as hee prayed, the fashion of his countenance was changed, and his garments were white and glistered.

30 And behold, two men talked with him, which were Moses and Elias,

31 Which appeared in glorie, and tolde of his departing, which he shoulde accom- plish at Ierusalem.

6 And if the sonne of peace be there, your peace shall rest vpon him: if not, it shall turne to you againe.

8 But into whatsoever citie ye shall enter, if they receiue you, * eate such things as are set before you.

9 And heale the sicke that are there, and say vnto them, The kingdome of God is come nere vnto you.

10 But into whatsoever citie ye shall enter, if they will not receiue you, go your wayes out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Euen the very * dust, which cleaueth on vs of your citie, we wipe off against you: notwithstanding know this, & the kings dome of God was come nere vnto you.

12 For I say to you, that it shall be easier in that day for them of Sodom, then for that citie.

13 * Wo be to thee, Chorazin: wo be to thee, Bethsaida: for if the miracles had bene done in Tyrris and Sidon, which haue bene done in you, they had a great while agoone repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 Therefore it shall be easier for Tyrris, and Sidon at the iudgement, then for you.

15 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heauen, shalt be thrust downe to hel.

16 * He that heareth you, heareth mee: and he that despiseth you, despiseth mee: and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent mee.

17 * And the sentie turned againe with ioy, saying, Lord, euen the devils are subdued to vs through thy name.

18 And he said vnto them, I saw m Satan, like lightning, fall downe from heauen.

19 Beholde, I giue vnto you power to tread on serpentes, and scorpions, and ouer all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you.

20 Nevertheless, in this reioyce not, that the spirits are subdued vnto you: but rather reioyce, because your names are written in heauen.

21 * That same houre reioiced Iesus in the spirit, and saide, I confesse vnto thee, Father, Lord of heauen and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and learned, and hast reueiled them to babes: euen so, Father, because it so pleased thee.

22 Then hee turned to his disciples, and saide, All things are o giuen mee of my Father: but p no man knoweth who the Sonne is, but p Father: neither who the Father is, saue the o Sonne, and hee to whome the Sonne will reueile him.

23 * And he returned to his disciples, and said secretly, * Blessed are the eyes, which see that p see.

24 For I tell you that many Prophets & Kings haue desired to see those things which ye see, & haue not seene them: and to heare those things which ye heare, and haue not heard them.

25 * Then beholde, a certaine expounder of the Law stood vp, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shal I doe to inherite eternal life?

26 And he said vnto him, What is writen in the Law: how readest thou?

27 And he answered, and said, * Thou shalt loue thy Lord God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy strength, and with all thy thought, and thy neighbour as thy selfe.

28 Then he saide vnto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt liue.

29 But hee willing to * iustifie him selfe, said vnto Iesus, Who is then my neighbour?

30 And Iesus answered, and saide, A certaine man went downe from Ierusalem to Jericho, and fell among thornes, and they robbed him of his rapiment, and wounded him, and departed, leauing him halfe dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain Samaritan that same way, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise also a Leuite, when he was come nere to the place, went and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 Then a certaine Samaritan, as he journeyed, came nere vnto him, & when he saw him, he had compassion on him.

34 And went to him, and bound vp his woundes, and powred in oyle and wine, and put him on his own beast, & brought him to an Inne, and made provision for him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out * two pence, and gaue them to the host, and said vnto him, Take care of him, and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come againe, I will recompense thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour vnto him that fell among the thornes?

37 And he said, he that shewed mercie on him. Then saide Iesus vnto him, See, and do thou likewise.

40 But Marthia was cōbured about much seruing, and came to him, and said, Master, dost thou not care p my sister hath left me to serue alone: bid her therefore, that she helpe me.

1 He teacheth his disciples to pray, 14 He driueth out a deuil, 15 And rebuketh the blasphemous Pharisee. 28 He preferreth the spiritual couenaunce. 29 They require signes & tokens. 37 He eateth vnto the Pharisee, & reprehendeth the hypocrites of the Pharisees, Scribes, and hypocrites.

1 And so it was, that as he was praying in a certaine place, when he ceased, one of his disciples saide vnto him, Master, teach vs to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said vnto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father, which art in heauen, hallowed be thy Name: Thy kingdom come: Let thy will be done euen in earth, as it is in heauen:

3 Our daily bread giue vs: for the day: And forgive vs our sinnes: for euen we forgive euery man that is indebted to vs: And leade vs not into temptation: but deliuer vs from euill.

4 And whoeuer he said vnto them, Whiche of you shall haue a friende, and shall go to him at midnigh, & say vnto him, friend, lende me this loaner?

5 For a friend of mine is come out of the way to me, and I haue nothing to set before him:

6 And he will thinke shoud answer, and say, Trouble me not: the doore is now shut, and my children are with me in bed: I cannot rise and giue thee to this.

7 I say vnto you, Though he would not arise and giue him, because he is his friende, yet doubtles because of his importunitie, he would rise, and giue him as many as he needed.

8 And I say vnto you, Aske, and it shall be giuen you: seeke, and ye shall finde: knocke, and it shall be opened vnto you.

9 For euery one that asketh, receiuethe: & he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

10 And if some shall aske breade of any of you that is a father, will hee giue him a stone? or if he aske a filly, will hee for a filly giue him a serpent?

11 Or if he aske an egge, will hee giue him a scorpion? If ye then which are euil, can giue good giftes vnto your children, howe much more shall your heauenly Father giue the holy Ghost to them that desire him?

12 When hee cast out a deuil which was diuine: and when the diuill was gone out, the diuine spake, and the people wondered.

13 But some of them saide, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chiefe of the deuils.

14 And others tempted him, seeking of him a signe from heauen.

15 But he knew their thoughts, and saide vnto them, Every kingdome deuinded against it selfe, shall be desolate, and an house deuinded against an house, shall fall.

16 So if Satan also be deuinded against himselfe, how shall his kingdom stand, because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub?

17 If I through Beelzebub cast out devils, by whome do youe children cast them out? Therefore shall they be your iudges.

18 But if I by the finger of God cast out devils, doubtles the kingdom of God is come vnto you.

19 When a strong man armed, keepeth his palace, the things that he posseseth, are in peace.

20 But when a stronger then he, commeth vpon him, and ouercommeth him: hee taketh from him all his armour where in he trusted, and deuendeth his spoiles.

21 He that is not with me, is against me: and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth.

22 When the vnclane spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest: and when he findeth none, he saith, I will returne vnto mine house whence I came out.

23 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

24 Then goeth he, & taketh to him seven other spirits worse then himselfe: and they enter in, and dwel there, so that the last state of that man is worse then the first.

25 And it came to passe as he said these things, a certaine woman of the countie lifted vp her doore, and said vnto him, Blessed is the wombe that bare thee, & the paps which thou hast sucked.

26 But he said, Blessed are they that heare the word of God, and keepe it.

27 And when the people were gathered thicke together, he began to say, This is a wicked generation: they seeke a signe, and there shall no signe be giuen them, but the signe of Jonas the Prophet.

28 For as Jonas was a signe to the Ninuites, so shall also the Sonne of man be to this generation.

37 And as he spake, a certaine Pharise besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat downe at table.

38 And when the Pharise saw it, he mar-dinner.

39 And the Lord said to him, In deede ye Pharisees make cleane the outside of the cup, and of the platter: but the inwarde which is without, make that which is within also?

 which are within, o behold, all things

43 Woe be to you, Pharisees: for ye loue and greetings in the markets.

44 Woe be to you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye are as graues which appeare not, and therein that walke

45 Then answered one of the exppouders of the Law, & said vnto him, Master, thus saying thou puttest vs to rebuke also.

46 And he said, Woe be to you also, ye interpreters of the Lawe: for ye lade men ye pour felues touch not the burdens people, so that they trode one another:

 heed, and beware of couetousnes: for though a man haue abundance, yet his life standeth not in his riches.

35 And hee put forth a parable vnto them, saying, The grounde of a certaine riche man bought forth frutes plenteous.

36 Therefore hee thought with him selfe, saying, What shall I do, because I haue
 no roome, where I may lay up my frutes?

37 And hee said, This will I do, I will pull downe my barnes, and build greater, and therein will I gather all my frutes,

Eccl. 1. 11.

30 But

20 But God sayde vnto him, O scole, this night wil thep fetch away thy soule from thee: then whose shall those things bee which thou hast prouided?

21 So hee that gathereth riches to himselfe, and is not rich in God.

22 And he spake vnto his disciples, Therefore I say vnto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat: neither for your body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more then meate: and the body more then the raiment.

24 Consider the raiens: for they neither sowe nor reape: which neither haue storehouse nor barn, and yet God feedeth them: how much more are ye better then fowles?

25 And which of you with taking thought, can adde to his stature one cubite?

26 If ye then be not able to doe the least thing, why take ye thought for the raiment?

27 Consider y lilies how they grow: they labour not, neither spin they: yet I say vnto you, that Solomon himselfe in all his royaltie was not clothed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grasse which is to day in the feld, and to morrow is cast into the ouen, how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 Therefore aske not what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drinke, neither stand in doubt.

30 For all such things the people of the world seeke for: and your Father knoweth that ye haue neede of these things.

31 But rather seeke ye after the kingdome of God, and all these things shall be ministred vnto you.

32 Feare not, little flocke: for it is your fathers pleasure, to giue you the kingdom.

33 For sell that ye haue, and giue almes: make you bagges, which were not olde, a treasure that can neuer faile in heauen, where no theefe commeth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your hearts be also.

35 Let your loynes be girded about, and your lights burning.

36 And ye pour selues like vnto men that waite for their master, when he will returne from the wedding, that when hee commeth and knocketh, they may open vnto him immediatly.

37 Blessed are those seruants, whome the Lord when hee commeth, shall finde waking: verely I say vnto you, he will gird himselfe about, and make them to sit downe at table, and will come forth, and serue them.

38 And if he come in the second watch, or come in the thirde watch, and shal finde them so, blessed are those seruants.

39 Now vnderstand this, that if the good man of the house had knowne at what houre the theefe would haue come, hee would haue watched, & would not haue suffered his house to be digged through.

40 Be ye also prepared therefore: for the Sonne of man wil come at an houre when ye thinke not.

41 Then Peter saide vnto him, Master, tellest thou this parable vnto vs, or euen to all?

42 And the Lord sayde, Who is a faithfull steward, and wise, whom the master shall make ruler ouer his household, to giue them their portion of meate in season?

43 Blessed is that seruant, whom his master when hee commeth, shal finde so doing.

44 Of a truerth I say vnto you, that hee wil make him ruler ouer all that he hath.

45 But if that seruant slepe in his heart, his master bothe will deserue his comming, and shall beginne to smite the seruantes, and maidens, and to eat, and drinke, and to be drunken.

46 The master of that seruant will come in a day when hee thinketh not, and at an houre when hee is not ware of, and will cut him off, and giue him his portion with the vnbelieuers.

47 And that seruant that knew his masters will, and prepared not himselfe, neither did according to his will, shal be beaten with many stripes.

48 But hee that knewe it not, and yet did count things worthie of stripes, shal be beaten with fewe stripes: for vnto whom soeuer much is giue, of him shal be much required, and to whome men much commit, the more of him wil they aske.

49 I am come to put fire on the earth, and what is my desire, if it be already kindled?

50 Notwithstanding I must be baptized with baptisme, and how am I grieved, till it be ended?

51 Thinke ye that I am come to giue peace on earth? I tell you, nay, but rather debate.

52 For from henceforth there shal be fire in one house deuided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shal be deuided against the sonne, and the sonne against the father: the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother: the mother in lawe against her daughter in law, and the daughter in lawe against her mother in lawe.

54 Then said he to the people, When ye see a cloude rise out of the West, straightway ye say, A showre commeth: and so it is.

55 And when ye see y South winde blowe, ye say, that it will be heate: and it cometh to passe.

56 Hypocrites, ye can discernie the face of the earth, & of the skie: but why discernie ye not this time?

57 Yea, & why iudge ye not of your selues: what is right?

58 While thou goest with thine aduersarie to the iudge, as thou art in the way, giue diligence in the way, that thou mayest be deliuered from him, lest hee bring thee to the iudge, and the iudge deliuer thee to the iaylor, and the iaylor cast thee into prison.

59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the dimost mite.

There were certaine men present at the same season, that shewed him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their owne sacrifices.

And Iesus answered, and saide vnto them, Suppose ye, that these Galileans were greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they haue suffered such things?

I tell you, nay: but except ye amende

¶ He make also this parable, A certaine man had a figge tree planted in his vineyard: and he came & sought fruit thereon, and found none.

Then saide he to the dyesser of his vineyard, Beholde, these thre yeres haue
I come & sought fruite of this figge tree, and finde none: cut it downe: why keepeth it also the ground barren?

And he answered, and saide vnto him, Iobbe, let it alone this yere also, till I digge round about it, and dung it.

And if it beare fruite, well: if not, then after thou shalt cut it downe.

¶ And he taught in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath day.

And behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity righte perea, and was bowed together, and could not lift vp herselfe in any wise.

When Iesus sawe her, he called her to him, and saide to her, Woman, thou art loosed from thy disease.

And he laide his hands on her, and im-mediatly she was made straight againe, and glorified God.

And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation because that Iesus had healed on the Sabbath day, and saide vnto the people, There are fire dayes in which men ought to worke: in thyme therefore come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

Then answered him the Ioyd, and saide, Hypocrite, doeth not eche one of you on the Sabbath daye looke his oxe or his asse from the stall, and leade him away to the water?

And ought not this daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bounde, lo, righte thre yeres, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?

And when he laide these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: but all the people reioiced at all the excellent things, that were done by him.

¶ Then saide he, What is the kingdom of God like? or whereto shal I compare it?

It is like a graine of mustarde seede, which a man tooke and sowed in his garden, and it grew, and waxed a great tree, and the fowles of the heauen made nestes
in the branches thereof.

¶ And againe he saide, Wherunto shal
I liken the kingdom of God?

It is like leauen, which a woman tooke, and hid in three peches of flour, till all was leavened.

¶ And he went through all cities and townes, teaching, & iourneping towards Ierusalem.

¶ Then said one vnto him, Lord, are there ter in, and shall not be able.

knowe you not whence ye are.

1 And it came to passe that when hee was entred into the house of one of the chiefe Pharisees on the Sabbath day, to eat bread, they watched him.

2 And beholde, there was a certaine man before him, which had the drop sicke.

3 Then Jesus answering, spake unto the expounders of the lawe, and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heale on the Sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. Then he tooke him, and healed him, and let him go.

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an asse, or an oxe fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the Sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him againe to those things.

7 ¶ He spake also a parable to the ghestes, when he marked how they chose out the chiefe rooms, and sayd unto them,

8 When thou shalt be bidden of any man to a wedding, let not thy selfe downe in the chiefe place, least a more honourable man then thou, be bidden of him.

9 And he that bade both him & thee, come, and say to thee, Sitte this man come, and thou then begin with shame to take the lowest roome.

10 ¶ But when thou art bidden, go and sit downe in the lowest roome, that when he that bade thee, commeth, he may say unto thee, Friende, sitte up hie: in then shalt thou haue worshippe in the presence of them that sit at table with thee.

11 ¶ For whosoever exalteth himselfe, shall be brought lowe, and hee that humbleth him selfe, shall be exalted.

12 ¶ ¶ He also said he also to him that had bidden him, ¶ When thou makest a dinner, or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor the rich neighbours, lest they also bid thee againe, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poore, the maimed, the lame, and the blinde,

14 And thou shalt be blessed, because they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the mist.

15 ¶ ¶ Nowe when one of them that sate at table, heard these things, he sayde unto him, Blessed is he that eateth bread in the kingdom of God.

16 ¶ Then said he to him, ¶ A certaine man made a great supper, and bade many,

17 And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come: for all things are now ready.

18 But they all with one minde began to make excuse: The first sayde unto him, I haue bought a farme, and I must needs go out and see it: I pray thee, haue mee excused.

19 And another said, I haue bought five yoke of oxen, and I goe to yowe them: I pray thee haue mee excused.

20 And another said, I haue married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant returned, and shewed his master these things. Then was the goodman of the house angrie, and sayde to his servant, ¶ Go out quickly into the places and streets of the cite, and bring in hither the poore, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blinde.

22 And the servant said, Lo, it is done as thou hast commaunded, and yet there is room.

23 ¶ Then the master said to the servant, Go out into the hie wayes, and hedges, and compell them to come in, that mine house may be filled.

24 ¶ For I say unto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shall taste of my supper.

25 ¶ Nowe there went great multitudes with him, & he turned & said unto them,

26 ¶ ¶ If any man come to mee, and I hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters: yea, and his owne life also, he cannot be my discipule.

27 ¶ And whosoever beareth not his crosse, and commeth after me, can not be my discipule.

28 ¶ For which of you wiling to builde a towne, sitteth not downe before, & counteth the cost, whether he haue sufficient to perfourme it,

29 Lest that after he hath laide the foundation and is notable to perfourme it, all that beholde it, begin to mocke him,

30 Saying, This man began to builde, and was not able to make an ende?

31 ¶ ¶ What king going to make warre against another king, sitteth not downe first and taketh counsell, whether he be able with ten thousand, to meet him that commeth against him with twentie thousand?

32 ¶ ¶ Elo while hee is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoever hee be of you, that forsaketh not all that he hath, hee can not be my discipule.

34 ¶ Salt is good: but if salt haue lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted?

35 ¶ It is neither meete for the land, nor yet for the dunghill, but men cast it out. ¶ ¶ He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

Then referred vnto him al the Publi-cans and sinners, to heare him.
Therefore the Pharisees & Scribes murmured, saying, He receiuethe sinners, and eateth with them.

Mat. 18. 12.

Then spake hee this parable to them, saying,
What man of you hauing an hundred sheepe, if he lose one of them, doeth not leave ninetie and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, vntill hee finde it?

And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders with ioy.

And when he cometh home, hee calleth together his friends and neygh-bours, saying vnto them, Reioyce with me: for I haue founde my sheepe, which was lost.

I say vnto you, that likewise ioy shall be in heauen for one sinner that conuerteth, more then for ninetie and nine iust men, which neede none amendment of life.

Either what woman hauing ten peces of silver, if shee lose one peece, doeth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seeke diligently till she finde it?

And when shee hath found it, she calleth her friends, and neighbours, saying, Re-ioyce with me: for I haue founde the peece which I had lost.

Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioy in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that conuerteth.

He said mooreouer, A certaine man had two sonnes.

And the younger of them sayd to his father, Father, giue me the portion of the goods that falleth to me. So hee deuided vnto them his substance.

So not long after, when the younger sonne had gathered all together, he toke his iourney vnto a farre countrey, and there hee wasted his goods with riotous living.

Now when he had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout that land, and he began to be in necessitie.

Then hee went and claue to a citizen of that countrey, and hee sent him to his farme, to feede swine.

And hee would faine haue filled his bellie with the huskes, that the swine ate:
but no man gaue them him.

Then he came to him selfe, and sayde, Howe many hired seruants at my fathers haue bread enough, and I die for hunger!

I will rise, and go to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee.

And am no more worthy to be called thy sonne: make me as one of thy hired seruants.

So hee arose and came to his father, and when he was pet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran and fell on his necke, and kissed him.

And the sonne sayd vnto him, Father,
I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy sonne.

Then the father sayde to his seruants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, & shoes on his feete.

And bring the fat calfe, and kill him, and let vs eate, and be merie.

For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue againe: and hee was lost, but hee is found. And they began to be merie.

Now the elder brother was in the field, and when he came and dyed nere to the house, he heard melodie, and dauncing,

And called one of his seruants, and asked what those things meant.

And he sayd vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fattened calfe, because hee hath receiued him safe and sound.

Then he was angrie, and would be not goe in: therefore came his father out and intreated him.

But he answered and saide to his father, loe, these many yeeres haue I done the seruice, neither brake I at any time thy commandement, and yet thou neuer gauest me a kid, that I might make merie with my friends.

But when this thy sonne was come, which hath deuoured thy goodes with harlots, thou hast for his sake killed the fat calfe.

And he sayde vnto him, Sonne, thou art euer with me, and all that I haue, is thine. It was meete that we should make merie, & be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliue againe: and hee was lost, but hee is found.

CHAP. XVI.

Christ exhorteth his disciples to wisdom and liberality by the example of the steward. 1. Name can serue vnto masters. 2. He reprooueth the couetousnes hypocrysie of the Pharisee. 3. Of the end and force of the Law. 4. Of the holy place of marriage. 5. Of the rich man, and Lazarus.

And he sayde also vnto his disciples,
There was a certaine rich man, which had a steward, and hee was accused vnto him, that hee wasted his goodes.

And he called him, and saide vnto him,
How is it, that I heare this of thee? Gue an account of thy stewardship: for thou maiest be no longer steward.

Then the steward sayde within him selfe, what shall I doe: for my master will take away from me the steward-shippe: I can not digge, and to bryge I am athwart.

I knowe what I will doe, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receiue me into their houses.

Then called hee euery one of his masters betters, & said vnto the first, How much owest thou vnto my master?

And he sayde, an hundred measures of oyle. And he sayde to him, Take thy wor-ting, an sit downe quickly, and write fiftie tie.

owest thou? And he sayde, An hundred

b God, who doth here represent the master of the house, doth rather commend the prodigal waste of his goods, and the liberal giuing of the same to the poore, then the strait keeping & hoarding of them. c That is, either wickedly gotten or wickedly kept or wickedly spent: & hereby wee be warned to suspect riches, which for the most part are an occasion to their possessours of great wickednes. d They which cannot well bestowe worldly goods, will bestowe euill spiritual treasures: and therefore they ought not to be committed vnto them. e As are riches and such like things, which God hath giuen, not for your selues onely, but to bestowe vpon others, f Christ calleth the giftes which he giueth vnto ours. Mat. 23. 4. g Because they iudged no man happy, but those that were rich. h Which loue outward appearance, and vaine glorie. Mat. 23. 11, 12. i Their zeale is so inflamed, that they followe the Gospell without respect of worldly things. Matth. 5. 18. Matth. 5. 12 and 19. 9. 1. cor. 7. 11. k That is, which is not lawfully diuorced. l By this story is declared what punishment they shall haue: which liue deliciously and neglect the poore. m As the fathers in the olde Lawes, were said to be gathered into the bofome of Abraham, because they receiued the fruite of the same faith with him: so in the Newe Testament we say that the members of Christ are ioyned to their head, or gathered vnto him. n Whereby is signified that a blessed life, which they that dwell in the faith that Abraham did, shall enioy after this world.

23 And being in hell in tormentes, he lift up his eyes, and sawe Abraham a farre off, and Lazarus in his bofome. 24 Then he crept, and said, Father Abraham, haue mercie on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dippe the tippe of his finger in water, and coole my tongue: for I am tormented in this flame. 25 But Abraham said, f Sonne, remember that thou in thy life time receiuest thy pleasures, and likewise Lazarus paines: now therefore is he comforted, and thou art tormented. 26 Besides all this, betwene you and vs there is a great gulfe set, so that they which would goe from hence to you, can not, neyther can they come from thence to vs. 27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore rather, that thou wouldest send him to my fathers house. 28 (For I haue five brethren) that he may rellise vnto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. 29 Abraham said vnto him, They haue Moses and the Prophetes: let them heare them. 30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one come vnto them from y^e dead, they will amend their liues. 31 Then he saide vnto him, if they heare not Moses and the Prophetes, neither will they be perswaded, though one rise from the dead againe.

q Which declareth that it is too late to be instructed by the dead, if in their life time they can not profice by the liuely word of God. r As faith cometh by Gods worde, so it is maintained by the same. So that we neither ought to looke for Angels from heauen, or the dead to confirme vs therein, but onely the worde of God is sufficient to life euertlasting.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Christ teacheth his disciples to auoid occasions of offence, 3 One to forgiue another. 5 V^e ought to pray for the increase of faith. 6 He magnifieth the vertue of faith. 10. And sheweth the vanitie of man. 11 He saith ten lepers. 20 Speakers of the latter day, and of the end of the worlde.

1 Then said he to the disciples, * It can not bee auoided, but that offences will come, but woe be to him by whome they come. 2 It were better for him that a great millstone were hanged about his necke, and that he were cast into the sea, then that he should offend one of these little ones. 3 Take heede to your selues: if thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him: & if he repent, forgiue him. 4 And though he sinne against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turne againe to thee, saying, It repenteth me, thou shalt forgiue him. 5 And the Apostles saide vnto the Lord, Increase our faith. 6 And the Lord said, * If ye had faith, as much as is a graine of mustard seede, and should say vnto this mulberrie tree, Plucke thy selfe vp by the rootes, and plant thy selfe in the sea, it shoulder euen obey you.

d That is to turne him backe from the knowledge of God, and his saluatis. Mat. 18. 31. e That is, many times: for by a certaine number he remembereth an vncertaine. Mat. 17. 20. f That is, if they had neuer so little of pure and perfect faith. d Meaning, they should doe wonderfull and incredible things.

e Hereby is declared that it is not ynough to do a piece of our duty for a time, but also we must continue to the ende, f For God receiue nothing of vs, whereby he should stand bound vnto vs, Leuit. 14. 2.

g To whom it did appertain to iudge of theleprouse, Leuit. 14. 7. and hereby also the priestes should haue no occasion to grudge, or murmure.

h He noteth hereby their ingratitude, & that the greatest part neglect the benefits of God. i. It cannot be discerned by any outward shew, or mislike, whereby it might be rather be known.

k Either by reason of the word of God, which is receiued by faith, or that the Messias whome they sought as absent, is now present, euen within their owne dores, and yet they know him not, Iohn 1. 17.

m Meaning, his second coming, wherein he shall appear in glory. Gen. 7. 5. mat 24. 38. 1. pet. 3. 20.

n When men contemned the iudgement of God, wherewith they were before menaced. Gen. 19. 24.

7 ¶ Who is it also of you, that hauing a seruant plowing, or feeding cattel, would say vnto him by and by, when he were come from the field, See and sit downe at table?

8 And would not rather saye to him, Dresse wherewith I may suppe, and gird thy selfe, and serue me, till I haue eaten and drunken, and afterwarde thou shalt eate and drinke?

9 Woth hee thanke that seruant, because he did that which was commanded vnto him? I trowe not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye haue done all those things, which are commanded you, say, We are vnprofitable seruants: we haue done þ which was our dutie to do.

¶ And so it was when he went to Ierusalem, that he passed through the mids of Samaria and Galile.

11 And as he entered into a certaine towne, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood a farr off.

12 And they lift vp their voyces and said, Iesus, Master, haue mercie on vs.

13 And when he saue them, he saide vnto them, ¶ Goe, shewe your selues vnto the priestes And it came to passe, that as they went, they were cleansed.

14 Then one of them, when he saue that he was healed, turned backe, and with a loude voice praised God,

15 And fell downe on his face at his feet, and gaue him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

16 And Iesus answered, and sayde, Hee is not there ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

17 There are none found that returned to giue God praise, saue this stranger.

18 And he said vnto him, Arise, goe thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.

19 ¶ And when he was demanded of the pharisees, when the kingdome of God should come, he answered them, and said, The kingdome of God cometh not i with obsecration.

20 Neither shall men say, Lo here, or loe there: for beholde, the kingdome of God is within you.

21 And hee sayde vnto the disciples, The dayes will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the dayes of the Sonne of man, and ye shall not see it.

22 ¶ Then they shall say to you, Beholde here, or beholde there: but goe not thither, neither followe them.

23 For as the lightening that lighteneth out of the one part vnder heauen, shinerh vnto the other part vnder heauen, so shall the Sonne of man be in his day.

24 But first must he suffer many thinges, and be reposed of this generation.

25 ¶ And as it was in the dayes of Noe, so shall it be in the dayes of the Sonne of man.

26 They ate, they dranke, they married wines, and gaue in marriage vnto the day that Noe went into the arke: and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

27 Likewise also, as it was in the dayes of Lot: they ate, they dranke, they bought, they solde, they planted, they built.

28 But in the day that Lot went out of Sodome: it rained fire & brimstone from heauen, and destroyed them all.

29 After these examples shall it be in the day when the Sonne of man shall be reuerled.

30 At that day, he that is vpon the house, and his sluffe in the house, let him not come downe to take it out: and hee that is in the fildes likewise, let him not turne backe to that he left behinde.

31 ¶ Remember Lots wife.

32 ¶ Whosoener will seeke to saue his soule, shall lose it: and whosoener shall lose it, shall get it life.

33 ¶ I tell you, in that night there shall be two in one bed: the one shall be receiued, and the other shall be left.

34 Two women shall be grinding together: the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 Two shall be in the fildes: one shall be receiued, and another shall be left.

36 And they answered, and saide to him, Where, Lord? And he saide vnto them, ¶ Wheresoener the bodie is, thither will also the Eagles resort.

CHAP. XVIII.

By the example of the widow, & the Publicane, Christ teacheth how to pray. 15 By the example of children, he exhorteth to humilitie. 18 Of the way to be saved, & what things let. 29 Thereward promised to him, 31 And of the crosse. 35 A blinde man receiue sight.

¶ And hee spake also a parable vnto them, to this ende, that they ought alwayes to pray, and not to waite faint.

1 Saying, There was a iudge in a certaine citie, which feared not God, neither reuerenced man.

2 And there was a widowe in that citie, which came vnto him, saying, Doe me iustice against mine aduersarie.

3 And he would not for a time: but afterwarde he saide with him selfe, Though I feare not God, nor reuerence man,

4 Yet because this widowe troubleth me, I will do her right, least at the last she come and make me wearie.

5 And the Lord saide, Heere what the vnrighteous iudge saith.

6 Nowe shall not God auenge his elect, which crye day and night vnto him, praing, though he suffer long for them?

7 I tell you he will auenge them quickly: but when the Sonne of man cometh, shall he finde faith on the earth?

8 ¶ He spake also this parable vnto certaine which trusted in their selues that they were iust, and despised other.

9 Two men went vnto the Temple to pray: the one a Pharise, and the other a Publicane.

10 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with him selfe, O God, I thanke thee that I am not as other men, extortioners, vniuall, adulterers, or euen as this Publicane.

12 I fast twice in the weeke: I giue tithe of all that euery I possesse.

13 But the Publicane standing a farre off, would not lift vp so much as his eyes to heauen, but smote his breast, saying, O
God, be mercifull to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man departed to his house iustified, rather then the other: For euery man that exalteth himselfe, shall be brought lowe, and he that humbleth himselfe, shall be exalted.

15 ¶ They brought vnto him also babes, that he should touch them. And when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Iesus called them vnto him, and sayd, Suffer the babes to come vnto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdome of God.

17 Verely I say vnto you, whosoener receiueth not the kingdome of God as a babe, he shall not enter therein.

18 ¶ Then a certaine ruler asked him, saying, good master, what ought I to do, to inherit eternal life?

19 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Why callest thou me a good? none is good, saue our euen God.

20 Thou knowest the commandements, ¶ Thou shalt not commit adultery: Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witness: Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he saide, All these haue I kept from my youth.

22 Now when Iesus heard that, he sayde vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thing, Bel all that euery thou hast, and distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, follovv me.

23 But when he heard those things, hee was very heauie: for he was maner-ously rich.

24 And when Iesus sawe him sepyrowfull, he sayde, With what difficultie shall they that haue riches, enter into the kingdome of God?

25 Verely it is easier for a camell to goe through a needles eye, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdome of God.

26 Then said they that heard it, And who then can be saved?

27 And hee sayde, The things which are impossible wth men, are possible wth God.

28 ¶ Then Peter sayde, Loe, we haue left all, and haue followed thee.

29 And he sayde vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children for the kingdome of Gods sake.

30 Which shall not receiue much moze in this world, and in the world to come life euermlasting.

31 ¶ Then Iesus tooke vnto him the twelve, and said vnto them, Beholde, We go vnto Ierusalem, and all things shall be fulfilled to the Sonne of man, that are written by the Prophets.

32 For he shall be deliuered vnto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shall be spitefully entreated, and shall be spitted on.

33 And when they haue scourged him, they will put him to death: but the third day he shall rise againe.

34 But they vnderstode none of these things, & this saying was hid from them, neither perceiued they the things, which were spoken.

35 ¶ And it came to passe, that as he was come nere vnto Iericho, a certaine blinde man sat by the way side begging.

36 And when he heard the people passe by,
he asked what it meant.

37 And they sayd vnto him, that Iesus of Nazaret passed by.

38 Then he cryed, saying, Iesus the sonne of Dauid, haue mercie vnto me.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that he should hold his peace, but he cried much moze, O Sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

40 And Iesus stood still, and commaunded him to be brought vnto him. And when he was come nere, he asked him,

41 Saying, What wilt thou that I do vnto thee? And he sayde, Lorde, that I may receiue my sight.

42 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Receiue thy sight: the saith hath saued thee.

43 Then immediatly he receiued his sight, and followed him, praising God: and all the people, when they saw this, gaue praise to God.

he was of a lowe stature.

4 Wherefore he ran before, and climed by into a wilde figge tree, that he might see him: for he should come that way.

5 And when Iesus came to the place, hee looked vp, and saw him, and sayde vnto him, Zaccheus, come downe at once: for to day I must abide at thine house.

6 Then he came downe hastily, and recei-ued him ioyfully.

7 And when all they saw it, they murmured, saying, that he was gone into lodge

8 And Zaccheus stood sooth, and said vnto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poore: and if I haue taken from any man by forged callen-

Mat. 11. 1.

11 And whiles they heard these things, he continued and spake a parable, because he was nere to Ierusalem, and because also they thought that the kingdom of God should shortly appeare.

12 He saide therefore, ^a A certaine noble man went into a farre countrey, to receiue for himselfe a kingdom, and so to come againe.

13 And he called his ten seruants, and deliuered them ten ^b peces of money, and sayd vnto them, ^c Occupy till I come.

14 Now his citizens hated him, & sent an ambassage after him, sayinge We wil not haue this man reigne ouer vs.

15 And it came to passe, when he was come againe, he had receiued his kingdom, that he commaunded the seruantes to be called to him, to whom he gaue his money, & he might knowe what euery man had gained.

16 Then came the first, sayinge, Lord, thy piece hath increased ten peces.

17 And he saide vnto him, Well, good seruant: because thou hast ben faithfull in a very litle thing take thou authoritie ouer ten citis.

18 And the second came, sayinge, Lord, thy piece hath increased fise peces.

19 And to the same he sayde, We thou also ruler ouer fise citis.

20 So the other came and said, Lord, be hold thy piece, which I haue laide vp in a napkin.

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a strict man: thou takest vp, that thou laydest not downe, & fearest that thou didst not so.

22 Then he saide vnto him, Of thine own mouth wilt I iudge thee, O thou seruant. Thou knowest that I am a strict man, taking vp that I layde not downe, & reaping that I did not sow.

23 Wherefore then gauest thou not my money vnto the banke, that at my coming I might haue required it with vantage?

24 And he saide to them that stood by, Take from him that piece, & giue it him that hath ten peces.

25 And they said vnto him, Lord, he hath ten peces.

26 For I say vnto you, that vnto al them that haue, it shall be giuen: and from him that hath not, euen that he hath, shall be taken from him.

27 Moreover, those mine enemies which would not that I should reigne ouer them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 And when he had thus spoken, he went forth, ascending vp to Ierusalem.

29 And it came to passe, when hee was come nere to Bethphage, and Bethania, besides the mount which is called y^e mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Sayinge, Go ye to the town which is before you, whererein, as soe as ye are come, ye shall finde a colt tied, wherupon neuer man sat: loose him, and bring him hither,

31 And if any man aske you, why ye loose him, thus shall ye say vnto him, Because the Lord hath neede of him.

32 So they that were sent, went their way, and founde it as he had saide vnto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof sayde vnto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they saide, The Lord hath neede of him.

35 And they brought him to Iesus, and they cast their garments on the colt, and set Iesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spied their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was now come nere to the going down of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to reioyce, and to praise God with a loud voice, for al the great workes that they had seene.

38 Sayinge, Blessed be the king that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heauen, and glory in the highest places.

39 Then some of the Pharisees of the company sayd vnto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 But he answered and said vnto them, I tell you, that if these should holde their peace, the stones would crie.

41 And when he was come nere, he be held the cite, and wept for it,

42 Sayinge, O if thou hadst euen knownen at the least in this thy day, those things, which belong vnto thy peace: but now are they hid from thine eyes.

43 For the dayes shall come vpon thee, that thine enemies shall call a trench about thee, and compass thee rounde, and kepe thee in on euery side, 44 And shall make thee euen with the ground, & thy children which are in thee, and they shall not leaue in thee a stone vpon a stone, because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 And he went also vnto the Temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought,

46 Sayinge vnto them, It is written, Mine house is the house of prayer, but ye haue made it a den of thieues.

47 And hee taught daily in the Temple. And the high Priestes, and the Scribes, and the chiefes of the people sought to destroy him.

48 But they could not finde what they might do to him: for al the people hang vpon him when they heard him.

What authoritie thou dost these things, of who is hee that hath giuen thee this authoritie?

3 And he answered, and said vnto them, I also will aske you one thing: tell me therefore:

4 The baptisme of John, was it from heauen, or of men?

5 And they reasoned within themselves, saying, If we shall say, from heauen, hee will say, Why then belicdest thou him not?

6 But if we shall say, Of men, all the people will stone vs: for they be perswaded that John was a Prophet.

7 Therefore they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 Then Iesus said vnto them, Neither tell I you, by what authoritie I do these things.

9 ¶ Then began he to speake to the people this parable. ¶ A certaine man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen: and went into a strange countrey, for a great season.

10 And at a time he sent a seruant to the husbandmen, that they should giue him of the fruit of the vineyard, but the husbandmen, did beate him, and sent him away empty.

11 Again he sent yet another seruant: and they did beate him, and foulely intreated him, and sent him away empty.

12 Moreover, he sent the third, and him they wounded, and cast out.

13 Then saide the Lord of the vineyarde, What shall I doe? I will send my beloved Sonne: it may be that they will doe reverence, when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen sawe him, they reasoned with themselves, saying, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyarde, and killed him. What shall the Lord of the vineyarde therefore doe vnto them?

16 He will come & destroy these husbandmen, and will giue out his vineyard to others. But when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 ¶ And he behelde them, and said, What meaneth this thing that is written, ¶ The stone that the builders refused, that is made the head of the corner?

18 Whosoever shall fall vpon that stone, shall be broken: and on whome so euer it shall fall, it will grinde him to powder.

19 Then the chief Priests and the Scribes the same houre went about to lay hands on him: (but they feared the people: for they perceiued that he had spoken this parable against them.)

20 ¶ And they watched him, & sent forth spies, which should faile themselves with him, to take him in his talke, and to deliuer him vnto the power and authoritie of the gouernour.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we knowe that thou sayest, and teachest right, neyther dost thou accept mans person, but teachest the wape of God truly,

22 Is it lawfull for vs to giue Cesar tribute, or no?

23 But he perceiued their craftynesse, and said vnto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shewe me a pence. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cesar.

25 Then he said vnto them, ¶ Since then vnto Cesar the things which are Cessars, and to God those which are Gods,

26 And they could not repleue his saying before the people: but they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ Then came to him certaine of the Sadducees (which denie that there is any resurrection) and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, ¶ Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die hauing a wife, & he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed vnto his brother.

29 Now there were seuen brethren, and the first tooke a wife, and he dyed without children.

30 And the second tooke the wife, and he dyed childlesse.

31 Then the third tooke her: & so likewise the seuen died, and left no children.

32 And last of all, the woman died also.

33 Therefore at the resurrection, whose wife of them shall she be? for seuen had he to wife.

34 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, The children of this world marrye wiues, and are married.

35 But they which shall be counted worthy to enioy that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marrye wiues, neither are married.

36 For they can die no more, forasmuch as they are equal vnto the Angels, and are the Sonnes of God, ¶ since they are the children of the resurrection.

37 And that the dead shall rise againe, euen ¶ Moses shewed it belicuing the bulsh, when he saide, The Lord is the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 For he is not the God of the dead, but of them which liue: for all liue vnto him.

39 Then certaine of the Pharisees answered a said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that, durst they not aske him any thing at all.

41 ¶ Then saide he vnto them, Now say they that Christ is Dauids sonne?

42 And Dauid him selfe saith in the booke of the Psalmes, ¶ The Lord said vnto my Lord, Sit at my right hand, 43 Till I shall make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 Saying Dauid calleth him Lord, how is he then his sonne?

45 ¶ Then in the audience of all the people, he said vnto his disciples,

46 Beware of the Scribes, which desire to bee in long robes, and love salutations in the marketes, & the highest seates in the Synagogues, & the chiefe rooms at feastes:

i They thought it vniuersall to pay to a prince being an infidel, that which they were wont to pay to God in his Temple.

water: follow him into the house that he entreteth in.

11 And say vnto the good man of the house,
The Master saith vnto thee, Where is the lodging where I shall eat my Pas-souer with my disciples?

12 Then hee shall shew you a great hie chamber furnished: there make it ready.

13 So they went, and founde as hee had saide vnto them, and made ready the Pasfouer.

14 And when the house was come, hee saie downe, & the twelue Xpoules with him.

15 Then hee saide vnto them, I haue earnestly desired to eat this Pasfouer with you before I suffer.

16 For I say vnto you, I haue desired it will not eat of it any more, untill it be fulfilled in the kingdome of God.

17 And hee tooke the cup, & gaue thanks, and saide, Take this, & drinke it among you.

18 For I say vnto you, I will not drinke of the fruite of the vine, untill the kings dome of God be come.

19 And hee tooke bread, and when had gi-uen thanks, hee brake it, and gaue to them, saying, This is my bodie, which is giuen for you: doe this in the remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also after Supper hee tooke the cup, saying, This cup is the newe Testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ Per beholde, the hand of him that be-traith me, is with me at the table.

by whom he is betrayed.

23 Then they began to enquire among themselves which of them it should be,
that should do that.

24 ¶ And there arose also a strife among them which of them should seeme to be the greater.

25 But he saide vnto them, The kings of the Gentiles reigne ouer them, and they that beare rule ouer them, are called Gracious lords.

26 But ye shall not be so: but let the greatest among you be as the least: and the chiefest as he that serueth.

27 For who is greater, he that sitteth at table, or he that serueth? is not hee that sitteth at table? And I am among you as he that serueth.

28 And ye are they which haue continued with me in my temptations.

29 Therefore I appoint vnto you a kings-dome, as my Father hath appointed to me.

30 That ye may eat, and drinke at my table in my kingdome, and sit on seates, and iudge the twelue tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the lord saide, Simon, Simon, beholde, Satan hath desired you, to winnow you, as wheate.

32 But I haue prayed for thee, that thy faith faile not: therefore when thou art conterted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 ¶ And he saide vnto him, Lord, I am ready to goe with thee into prison, & to death.

34 But he saide, I tell thee, Peter, the cocke shall not crow this day, before thou shalt thrice denie that thou knowest me.

35 ¶ And he saide vnto them, When I sit you without bagge, and scrip, & thors, lacked ye any thing? And they saide, No thing.

36 Then he saide to them, But now hee that hath a bagge, let him take it, a likewise a scrip: and he that hath none, let him sell his coate, and buy a sword.

37 For I say vnto you, that yet the same which is written, must be performed in me: ¶ Even with wicked was he numbered: for doubtlesse those things which are written of me, haue an ende.

38 And they saide, Lord beholde, here are two swordes. And he saide vnto them,
It is enough.

39 ¶ And hee came out, and went (as hee was wont) to the mount of Olives: and his disciples also followed him.

40 ¶ And when hee came to the place, hee saide to them, Pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

41 And hee gate himselfe from them, about a stons cast, & knuckled downe, & prayed, saying, Father, if thou wilt, take as way this cup from me: neuertheless, not my will, but thine be done.

42 And there appeared an Angel vnto him from heauen comforting him.

43 And being in an agony, hee prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was like dropes of blood, trickling downe to the ground.

44 And when hee had thus prayed, hee came againe to his disciples, and saide vnto them, Beholde, I haue prayed for you, that ye shal not faile: & ye shall stand fast, and shal not be moved.

45 And hee tooke the cup, and gaue thanks,
and saide, Drink ye all of it, for this is my blood of the newe couenant, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

46 And they all dranke of it.

47 And hee tooke bread, and gaue thanks, and brake it, and gaue to them, and they ate.

48 And hee saide, This is my blood, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

49 And they all dranke of it.

50 And hee tooke the cup, and gaue thanks,
and saide, Drink ye all of it, for this is my blood of the newe couenant, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

51 And they all dranke of it.

52 And hee tooke bread, and gaue thanks,

13 Which for a certaine insurrection made in the cite, and murder was cast in prison.

14 Then Pilate spake againe to them, willing to let Iesus loose.

15 As at they cried, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him.

16 And he said vnto them the third time, But what euill hath he done? I find no canse of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him loose.

17 But they were insatiable with loud voyces, and required that he might be crucified: and the voices of them, and of the priestes prevailed.

18 So Pilate gaue sentence, that it should be as they required.

19 And he let loose vnto them him that for insurrection and murder was cast in prison, whom they desired, & deliuered Iesus to do with him what they would.

20 ¶ And as they led him away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene, coming out of the feilde, and on him they laide the crosse, to beare it after Iesus.

21 And there followed him a great multitude of people, and of women which women bewailed and lamented him.

22 But Iesus turned backe vnto them, and saide, Daughters of Ierusalem, weep not for me, but weep for your selues, and for your children.

23 For beholde, the dayes wil come, when men shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombes that neuer bare, and the pappes which neuer gaue sucke.

24 Then shall they beginne to say to the mountaynes, Fall on vs: and to the hilles, Couer vs.

25 For if they do these things to a greene tree, what shalbe done to the drye?

26 And there were two others, which were euill doers, led with him to be crucified.

27 And when they were come to the place, which is called Caluarie, there they crucified him: and the euill doers: one at the right hand, and the other at the left.

28 Then said Iesus, Father, forgive them: for they knowe not what they doe. And then parted his raiment, and cast lottes.

29 And the people stood, and behelde: and rulers mocked him with them, saying, He sauid others: let him saue himselfe, if he be the Christ, the Chosen of God.

30 The souldiers also mocked him, and came and offered him vinegar.

31 And saide, If thou be the king of the Iewes, saue thy selfe.

32 And a superscription was also written ouer him, in Greeke letters, and in Latine, and in Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWES.

33 ¶ And one of the euill doers, which were hanged, railed on him saying, If thou be the Christ, saue thy selfe and vs.

34 But the other answered, and rebuked him, saying, ¶ Fiercest thou not God seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

35 We are in dette righteously here: for we receiue things worthy of that we haue done: but this man hath done nothing a misse.

36 And he saide vnto Iesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kings dome.

37 Then Iesus saide vnto him Verely I say vnto thee, to day shalt thou be with me in Paradyse.

38 ¶ And it was about the sixth houre: and there was a darknesse ouer all the land, midday, vntill the ninth houre.

39 And the sunne was darkened, & the baile of the Temple rent through the middes.

40 And Iesus cried with a loud voice, and saide, Father, into thine hands I commend my spirit. And when he thus had said, he gaue up the ghost.

41 ¶ Nowe when the Centurion sawe what was done, he glorified God, saying, Of a veritie this man was iust.

42 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, sinned their dearks, and returned.

43 And all his acquaintance stood a farre off, & the women that followed him from Galile, beholding these things.

44 ¶ And beholde, there was a man named Ioseph, which was a Counsellor, a good man and iust.

45 He did not consente to the counsell and deedes of them, which was of Arunathes, a citie of the Iewes: who also him selfe waited for the kingdom of God.

46 He went vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus.

47 And heooke it downe, and wrayped it in a linnen cloth, & laide it in a tombe hewn out of a rocke, wherein was neuer man put laid.

48 And that day was the Preparation, and the Sabbath daye on.

49 And the women also that followed after, which came with him from Galile, behelde the sepulchre, and how his bodie was laid.

50 And they returned, and prepared ointments, and spices, and rested the Sabbath day, according to the commandement.

downe their faces to the earth, they came to them, Whyp sicke he him that liueth, as among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake vnto you, when he was yet in Galile.

7 Saying, that the Sonne of man must be deliuered into the hands of unfeeling men, and be crucified, and the thirde day rise againe.

8 And they remembred his words.
9 And returned from the sepulchre, and tolde all these things vnto the eleven, and to all the remnant.

10 Nowe it was Marie Magdalene and Joanna, & Marie the mother of James, and other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.

11 But their words seemed vnto them, as a fained thing, neither beleued they the.

12 Then arose Peter, and came vnto the sepulchre, and looked in, and sawe the linnen clothes layde by themselves, and departed wondering in him self at what which was come to passe.

13 ¶ And beholde, two of them went that same day to a towne which was from Iherusalem about thre score furlongs, called Emmaus.

14 And they talked together of all these things that were done.

15 And it came to passe, as they communed together, and reasoned, that Jesus himselfe began nere, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden, that they could not know him.

17 And he said vnto them, What manner of communications are these that ye haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 And the one (named Cleopas) answered, and saide vnto him, Art thou onely a stranger in Iherusalem, and hast not knowen the things which are come to passe therein in these dayes?

19 And he said vnto them, What things? And they saide vnto him, Of Jesus of Nazareth, which was a Prophet, mighty in deed, and in worde before God, and all the people.

20 And how the hie Priestes, & our rulers deliuered him to be condemned to death, and haue crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had bin he that should haue deliuered Israel, and as touching all these things, to day is the third day, that they were done.

22 And certaine women among vs made vs ashamed, which came early vnto the sepulchre.

23 And when they founde not his bodie, they came, saying, that they had also seene a vision of Angels, which saide that he was aliu.

24 Therefore, certaine of them which were with vs, went to the sepulchre, and found it empty, as the women had saide, but they sawe not.

25 Then he said vnto them, O fooles and slow of heart to beleue all that the Prophets haue spoken,

26 Ought not Christ to haue suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And he began at Moses, and at all the Prophets, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were written of him.

28 And they drew nere vnto the towne, which they went to, but he made as though he would haue gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with vs: for it is towards night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to tarie with them.

30 And it came to passe, as he sat at table with them, he tooke the bread, and gaue thanks, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

31 Then their eyes were opened, and they knew him: but he was taken out of their sight.

32 And they saide betwene themselves, Did not our heartes burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when he opened to vs the Scriptures?

33 And they rose by the same houre, and returned to Iherusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, & them that were with them, 34 Which saide, The Lord is risen in deed, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 Then they told what things were done in the way, and how he was knowne of them in breking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they spake these things, Jesus himselfe stood in the mids of them, and said vnto them, Peace be to you.

37 But they were abashed and afraid, supposing that they had seene a spirit.

38 Then he saide vnto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore doe doubts arise in your heartes?

39 Beholde mine hands and my feet: for I am I myselfe: handle me, and see: for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me haue.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewd them his hands and feet.

41 And while they yet beleued not, for joy, and wondered, he saide vnto them, Haue ye here any meate?

42 And they gaue him a piece of a boyled fish, and of an hony combe, 43 And he tooke it, & did eate before them.

44 And he said vnto them, These are the wordes, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, that all must be fulfilled which are written of mee in the Lawe of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened hee their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstande the Scriptures,

46 And said vnto them, Thus is it written, & thus it behooved Christ to suffer, & to rise againe from the dead the third day,

47 And that repentance, and remission of sinnes should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Iherusalem.

48 Now ye are witnesses of these things, & thus is it behooved Christ to suffer, & to rise againe from the dead the third day,

The holy Gospels of Iesus Christ, according to Iohn.

CHAP. I.

1. 14. 17 The diuinitie, humanitie, & office of Iesus Christ. 15 The Testimonie of Iohn. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and that Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by it, and without it was made nothing that was made.

4 In it was life, and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in the darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was Iohn.

7 The same came for a witness, to beare witness of the light, that all men through him might beleeue.

8 He was not that light, but was sent to beare witness of the light.

9 That was the true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, & the world was made by him: and the world saw him not.

11 He came unto his owne, & his owne receiued him not.

12 But as many as receiued him, to them he gaue power to be the sonnes of God, euen to them that beleeue in his name.

13 Which are boyne not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among vs, (and we saw the glorie thereof, as the glorie of the onely begotten Sonne of the Father) full of grace and truth.

15 I Iohn bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I saide, He that cometh after me, is preferred before me: for he was before me.

16 And of his fulnes haue all we receiued, and grace for grace.

17 For the Law was giuen by Moses, but grace and truth came by Iesus Christ.

18 No man hath seene God at any time: the onely begotten Sonne, which is in the bosome of the Father, hee hath declared him.

19 Then this is the record of Iohn, when the Iewes sent Pheltes & Scutres from Jerusalem, to aske him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed and denied not, and said, I am that I am.

21 More abundant grace then by Moses, 1. Tim. 2. 16. 1. Cor. 13. 1. Meaning, he is most deare, & straitly ioyned to his Father, not onely in love, but also in nature and vniou. n. And so God before was inuifible, was made, as it were, visible in Christ.

plaine, I am not the Christ.

21 And thep asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he said, I am not. Art thou the Prophet? And he answered, No.

22 The said they vnto him, Who art thou, that wee may giue an answer to them that sent vs: whatapest thou of thy selfe?

23 He said, I am the voyce of him that crieth in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the Prophet Elias.

24 Nowe thep which were sent, were of the Pharisees.

25 And thep asked him, and said vnto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou bee not the Christ, neither Elias, nor the Prophet?

26 Iohn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whom ye know not.

27 He it is that cometh after me, which is preferred before me, whose shoe I latchet I am not worthy to vniou.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where Iohn did baptize.

29 The next day Iohn saith Iesus cometh vnto him, and saith, Beholde the lambe of God, which taketh away the sinne of the world.

30 This is he of whom I saide, After me cometh a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knewe him not: but because he should be declared to Israel, therefore am I come, baptizing with water.

32 So Iohn bare record, saying, I saue the Spirit come downe from heauen, like a dove, and it abode vpon him.

33 And I knewe him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, he saide vnto me, Upon whome thou shalt see the Spirit come downe, and tarry stail on him, that is he which baptizeth with the holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Sonne of God.

35 The next day, Iohn stood againe, and two of his disciples:

36 And he beelde Iesus walking by, and said, Beholde the lambe of God.

37 And the two disciples heard him speake, and followed Iesus.

38 Then Iesus turned about, & saw them follow, and said vnto them, What seek ye? & they said vnto him, Rabbi, which is to say by interpretation, Master.

39 Where dwellest thou?

40 He said vnto them, Come, and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, & abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth houre.

41 Andrew, Simon Peters brother, was one of the two which had heard of Iohn, and that followed him.

CHAP. II.

8 Christ turneth the water into wine. 14 He driueth the biers, and sellers out of the Temple. 19 He forewarneeth his death and resurrection. 23 He conuertereth many, and disstrusteth many.

1 And the third day, was there a ma-riage in Cana a towne of Galile, and the mother of Iesus was there.

2 And Iesus was called also, and his disciples vnto the marriage.

3 Nowe when the wine failed, the mother of Iesus saide vnto him, They haue no wine.

4 Iesus saide vnto her, Woman, what haue I to doe with thee: mine houre is not yet come.

5 His mother saide vnto the seruantes,
Whatsoeuer he saith vnto pou, do it.

6 And there were set there, six water pots of stone, after the manner of the purifi-cing of the Iewes, containing two or three firkins a peece.

7 And Iesus said vnto them, Fill the waterpots with water. Then they filled the vp to the brim.

8 Then he said vnto them, Drawe out now and beare vnto the gouernour of the feast. So they bare it.

9 Nowe when the gouernour of the feast had tasted the water, that was made wine, (for he knewe not whence it was:

but the seruants, which drew the water, knew) the gouernour of the feast called the biddgrome,

10 And said vnto him, All men at the beginning set forth good wine, and when men haue well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept backe the good wine vntill now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Iesus in Cana a towne of Galile, & shewed forth his glorie: and his disciples beleeued on him.

12 After that he went downe into Capersnaum, he and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: but there con-cured not many dayes there.

13 For the Iewes Passouer was at hand,
Therefore Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

14 And hee founde in the Temple those that solde oren, and sheepe, and doves, and changers of monney, sitting there.

15 Then he made a scourge of small cordes, and dyane them all out of the Temple with the sheepe and oren, and powred out the changers monney, and ouerthrew
the tables,

16 And saide vnto them that solde doves,
Take these things hence: make not up
Fathers house, an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered, that it was written, The zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and saide vnto him, What signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou dost these things?

19 Iesus answered and saide vnto them,
Belstrop this Temple, and in thye dayes
I will raise it vp againe.

20 Then said the Iewes, Fourtie and six peters was this Temple a building, and wilt thou reare it vp in thye dayes?

21 But he spake of the temple of his bodie.
22 Whome therefore as he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he thus saide vnto them: and they beleeued the Scripture, and the word which Iesus had said.

23 Nowe when he was at Ierusalem at the Passouer in the feast, many beleeued in his name, when they saue his miracles which he did.

24 But Iesus did not commit him selfe vnto them, because he knew them all.

25 And had no neede that any shoulde tes-tifie of man: for he knewe what was in man.

the rule of his worde.

Jesus answered, and said vnto him, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except a man be borne againe, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

Nicodemus saide vnto him, Howe can a man be borne which is olde: can he enter into his mothers wombe againe, and be borne?

Jesus answered, Verely, verely I say vnto thee except that a man be borne of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh: & that which is borne of the Spirit, is spirit. I Marke it not that I saide to thee, Thou must be borne againe.

The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is euery man that is borne of the Spirit.

Nicodemus answered, & said vnto him, How can these things be?

Jesus answered, and saide vnto him: Art thou a teacher of Israel, and knowest not these things?

Verely, verely I say vnto thee, we speake that we know, and testifie that we haue seene: but yet receiue not our witness.

When I tell you earthly things, ye beleue not, howe shoulde ye beleue, if I shall tell you of heavenly things?

For no man ascendeth vp to heauen, but he that hath descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in heauen.

And as Moyses lift up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Sonne of man be lift up.

That whosoener beleueth in him, shold not perish, but haue eternall life.

For God so loyeth the world, that hee hath giuen his onely begotten Sonne, that whosoener beleueth in him, shoulde not perish, but haue euerslasing life.

For God sent not his Sonne into the world, that hee shoulde condemne the world, but that the world through him might be saued.

He that beleueth in him, shall not be condemned: but he that beleueth not, is condemned already, because he beleueth not in the name of the onely begotten Sonne of God.

And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loue darkness rather then light, because their deedes were euill.

For euery man that euill doeth, hateth the light, neither cometh to light, lest his deedes should be reuiued.

But he that doeth truth, cometh to the light, that his deedes might be made manifest, that they are wrought by God.

After these things, came Jesus & his disciples into the land of Iudea, & there tarried with them, & baptized.

And John also baptized in Enon, besides Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

For John was not yet cast into prison. Then there arose a question betwene Johns disciples and the Jewes, about purifying.

And they came vnto John, and saide vnto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Iordan, to whome thou barest witness, behold he baptizeth, and all men come to him.

John answered, and saide, A man can receiue nothing, except it be giuen him from heauen.

We pour felmes as my witnesses, that I saide, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

He hath the bnde, is the hydegroue: but the friends of the hydegroue which standeth & heareth him, receiue great joy, because of the hydegroues voyce. This joy therefore is fulfilled.

We must increase, but I must decrease. Hee that is come from on high, is aboue all: he is of the earth, is of the earth, and speaketh of the earth: he that is come from heauen, is aboue all.

And what he hath seene and heard, that he testifieth: but no man receiveth his testimonie.

He that hath receiued his testimonie, hath sealed that God is true.

For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the words of God: for God giueth him not the Spirit by measure.

The father loueth the Sonne, and hath giuen all things into his hand.

He that believeth in the Sonne, hath euerslasing life, and he that obeyeth not the Sonne, shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him.

- 10 Iesus answered and saide vnto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me drinke, thou wouldest haue asked of him, and he would haue giuen thee water of life.
- 11 The woman saide vnto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that water of life?
- 12 Art thou greater then our father Jacob, which gaue vs the well, and he him selfe dranke thereof, and his children, and his cattell?
- 13 Iesus answered, & said vnto her, Whosoeuer drinketh of this water, shall thirst againe.
- 14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall giue him, shall neuer be thirst: but the water that I shall giue him, shall be in him a well of water, springing vp into everlasting life.
- 15 The woman sayde vnto him, Spi, giue me of that water, that I may not thirst, neither come hither to draw.
- 16 Iesus saide vnto her, Go, call thine husband, and come hither.
- 17 The woman answered, and said, I haue no husband. Iesus saide to her, Thou hast well said, I haue no husband.
- 18 For thou hast had five husbands, & hee whome thou now hast, is not thine husband: that sayest thou truely.
- 19 The woman said vnto him, Spi, I see that thou art a Prophet.
- 20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountaine, and ye saye, that in Ierusalem is the place where men ought to worship.
- 21 Iesus saide vnto her, Woman, beleue me, the houre cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountaine, nor at Ierusalem, worship the Father.
- 22 Ye worship that which ye knowe not: we worship that which we knowe: for saluation is of the Jewes.
- 23 But the houre cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit, & truely: for the Father requireth euen such to worship him.
- 24 God is a Spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit & truely.
- 25 The woman saide vnto him, I knowe well that Iudas shall come, which is called Chus: when he is come, he will tell vs all things.
- 26 Iesus saide vnto her, I am he, & I stand vnto thee.
- 27 And vpon that came his disciples, & marvelled that he talked with a woman: yet no man saide vnto him, What art thou? or why talkest thou with her?
- 28 The woman then left her water pottle, and wente her way into the cite, and saide to the men,
- 29 Come, see a man which hath tolde me all things that euer I did: is not hee the Christ?

- 30 Then they went out of the cite, & came vnto him.
- 31 In the meane while, the disciples praised him, saying, Master, rate.
- 32 But he saide vnto them, I haue meate to eat, that ye knowe not of.
- 33 Then said the disciples betwene themselves, Hath any man brought him meate?
- 34 Iesus saide vnto them, My meate is that I may doe the will of him that sent me, and finish his worke.
- 35 Say not pee, There are yet foure moneths, and then cometh harvest: Besolde, I say vnto you, Lift vp your eyes, and looke on the regions: for they are white already vnto harvest.
- 36 And he that reapeth, receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit vnto life eternal, that both he that soweth, and he that reapeth, might reioyce together.
- 37 For herein is the saying true, that one soweth and another reapeth.
- 38 I send you to reap that, whereon ye bestow no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entred into their labours.
- 39 Now many of the Samaritans of that cite were beleued in him, for the saying of the woman which testified, He hath tolde me all things that euer I did.
- 40 Then when the Samaritans were come vnto him, they besought him, that hee woulde tary with them: and hee abode there two dayes.
- 41 And many more were beleued, because of his owne word.
- 42 And they saide vnto the woman, Now we beleue, not because of thy saying: for we haue heard him our selves, and know that this is in deede the Christ the Son of the liuing God.
- 43 So two dayes after, hee departed thence, and went into Galile.
- 44 For Iesus himselfe had testified that a Prophet hath none honour in his owne countrey.
- 45 Then when hee was come into Galile, the Galileans receiued him, which had scene all the things that he did at Ierusalem at the feast: for they went also vnto the feast.
- 46 And Iesus came againe into Cana, to wne of Galile, where he had made of water wine. And there was a certaine ruler, whose sonne was sicke at Capernaum.
- 47 When he heard that Iesus was come out of Iudea into Galile, he went vnto him, and besought him that he woulde come downe, and heale his sonne: for his sonne was ready to die.
- 48 Then said Iesus vnto him, Except ye see signes and wonders, ye will not beleue.
- 49 The ruler saide vnto him, Spi, goe downe before my sonne die.

CHAP. V.

3 He healeth the man that was sick eight & thirty yeeres. 10 The Levites accuse him. 19 Christ answereth for himself, & reprooveth them. 32 Sheweth by the testimony of his father, 33 Of Iohn, 36 Of his works, 39 And of the scriptures, vnto he is

1 After that, there was a feast of the Iewes, And Iesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 And there is at Jerusalem by the place of the shepe, a poole called in Hebrew Bethesda, having five porches:

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of limbe, pale, and withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an Angell went downe at a certaine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoever then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had bene diseased eight and thirtie yeeres.

6 When Iesus sawe him lie, and knewe that he now long time had bene diseased, he sayde unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Sir, I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the poole: but while I am comming, another steppeth downe before me.

8 Iesus sayd unto him, Rise: take vp thy bed, and walke.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and tooke vp his bed, and walked: and the same day was the Sabbath.

10 The Iewes therefore sayde to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day: it is not lawfull for thee to carpe thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, he said unto me, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which sayde vnto thee, take vp thy bed, and walke?

13 And he that was healed, knew not who it was: for Iesus had conueyed himselfe away from the multitude that was in that place.

14 And after that, Iesus found him in the Temple, and sayd vnto him, Behold, thou art made whole: 4 Sinne no more, leaſt a worse thing come vnto thee.

15 ¶ The man departed, & tolde the Iewes that it was Iesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore the Iewes did persecute Iesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17 But Iesus answered them, My father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the Iewes sought the more to kill him: not only because he had broken the Sabbath: but also that God was his Father, and made himselfe equal with God.

19 Then answered Iesus, and sayde vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, The Sonne can do nothing of himselfe, save that he seeth the Father doe: for whatsoeuer things he doeth, the same things doeth the Sonne also.

20 For the Father loveth the Sonne, and sheweth him all things, whatsoeuer he himselfe doeth, and hee will thereto him greater workes then these, that ye should maruaile.

21 For likewise as the Father raiseth vp the dead, and quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but hath committed all iudgement vnto the Sonne.

23 Because that all men should honour the Sonne, as they honour the Father: he that honoureth not the Sonne, the same honoureth not the Father, which hath sent him.

24 Verely, verely I say vnto you, he that heareth my voyde, and believeth in him that sent me, hath everlasting life, & shall not come into condemnation, but hath passed from death vnto life.

25 Verely, verely I say vnto you, the houre shall come, and now is, when the dead shall heare the voice of the Sonne of God: and they that heare it, shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himselfe, so likewise hath hee given to the Sonne to haue life in himselfe.

27 And hath given him power also to execute iudgement, in that he is the Sonne of man.

28 Maruaile not at this: for the houre shall come in the which all that are in the graves, shall heare his voyde.

29 And they shall come forth, that haue done good, vnto the resurrection of life: but they that haue done euill, vnto the resurrection of condemnation.

30 I can do nothing of mine owne selfe: as I heare, I iudge: and my iudgement is iust, because I seeke not mine owne will, but the will of the Father who hath sent me.

31 If I should beare witness of my selfe, my witness were not true.

32 There is another that beareth witness of me, and I knowe he the witness, which he beareth of me, is true.

33 ¶ He sent vnto Iohn, and he bare witness vnto the truth.

34 But I receiue not the record of man: neuertheless, these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning & a shining candle: and ye would for a season haue reioyced in his light.

CHAP. VI.

Iesus feedeth five thousand men with five loaves & vno fishes. He departs away, that they should not make him king. He reprooueth the fleshy hearers of his word. The carnal are offended as him. The flesh professeeth not.

After these things, Iesus went his way ouer the sea of Galilee, or of Tiberias.

And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles, which hee did on them that were diseased.

Then Iesus went vp into a mountaine, and thence he sate with his disciples.

Nowe the Passouer, a feast of the Iewes, was nere.

Then Iesus lift vp his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude came vnto him, he sayde vnto Philip, Whence shall we bye bread that these might eate?

(And thus he saide to proue him: for hee him selfe knewe what he would do.)

Philip answered him, A two hundredeth penworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that enery one of them may take a little.

Then sayd vnto him one of his disciples,
Andrew, Simon Peters brother,

There is a little boy here, which hath five barlie loaves, and two fishes: but what are they among so many?

And Iesus sayde, Make the people sit downe. (Now there was much grasse in that place.) Then the men sate downe in number, about five thousand.

And Iesus took the bread, and gaue thanks, & gaue to the disciples, & the disciples to them that were set downe: & likewise of the fishes as much as they wold.

And when they were satisfied, he sayde vnto his disciples, gather vp the broken meate which remaineth, that nothing be lost.

Then they gathered it together, and filled twelue baskets with the broken meate of the fine barbie loaves, which remained vnto them that had eaten.

Then the men, when they had scene the miracle that Iesus did, sayde, This is of a truth the Prophete that should come into the world.

When Iesus therefore perceiued that they would come, and take him to make him a king, he departed againe into a mountaine himselfe alone.

When euen was now come, his disciples went downe vnto the sea.

And entered into a shippe, and went ouer the sea towards Capernaum: and now it was darke, and Iesus was not come to them.

And the sea arose with a great winde that blew.

And when they had rowed about five and thirtie furlongs, they saw Iesus walking on the sea, and drawing nere vnto the ship: so they were afraid.

But he said vnto them, It is I: be not afraid.

Then willingly they receiued him into the ship, and the ship was by and by at the land, whither they went.

The day following, the people which stood on the other side of the sea, saw that there was none other shippe there, save that one, wherein his disciples were entered, and that Iesus was not with his disciples in the ship, but that his disciples were gone alone.

And that there came other ships from Tiberias nere vnto the place where they ate the bread, after the daye had giuen thanks.

Now when the people sawe that Iesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also toke shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.

And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they sayd vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

Iesus answered them, & saide, Verely, verely I say vnto you, ye seeke me not, because ye saw the miracles, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were filled.

Labour not for the meate which perissheth, but for that which endureth vnto eternall life, which the Soune of man shall giue vnto you: for him hath God the father sealed.

Then said they vnto him, what shall we doe, that we might worke the workes
of God?

Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them,
This is the worke of God, that ye beleue in him, whom he hath sent.

They sayde therefore vnto him, What signe shewest thou then, that we may beleue thee? what dost thou worke?

31 Then Iesus said unto them, Verely, verely I say vnto pou, ^o Moses gaue pou not bread from heauen, but my Father giueth pou the true bread from heauen.

32 For the bread of God is he which commeth downe from heauen, & giueth life vnto the world.

34 Then they saide vnto him, Lo, hee, euermore giue vs this bread.

35 And Iesus saide vnto them, I am the bread of life: hee that commeth to me, shall not hunger, and ^o he that belieueth in me, shall neuer thirst.

36 But I said vnto pou, that ye also haue some me, and belieue not.

37 All that the Father giueth me, shall come to me: and him that commeth to me, I cast not away.

38 For I came downe from heauen, not to do mine owne will, but his will which hath sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which hee hath giuen me, I should lose nothing, but should raile it vp againe at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that euery man which seeth the Sonne, and belieueth in him, should haue euerlasting life: and I will raile him vp at the last day.

41 The Iewes then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread, which is come downe from heauen.

42 And they said, Is not this Iesus the sonne of Ioseph, whose father and mother we knowe? how then saith hee, I came downe from heauen?

43 Iesus then answered, & said vnto them,
Murmure not among your selues.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father, which hath sent me, & shall raile him vp at the last day.

45 It is written in the ^o Prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Euery man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, commeth vnto me,

46 ^o Not that any man hath seene the Father, saue he which is of God, he hath seene the Father.

47 Verely, verely I say vnto pou, He that belieueth in me, hath euertlasting life.

48 I am the bread of life.

49 ^o Your fathers did eate Manna in the wildernesse, and are dead.

50 This is the bread, which commeth downe from heauen, that he which eat-eth of it should not die.

51 I am the ^o liuing bread, which came downe from heauen: if any man eate of this bread, he shall liue for euer: and the bread that I will giue, is my flesh, which I will giue for the life of the world.

52 Then the Iewes stroue among them selues, saying, How can this man giue vs his flesh to eate?

53 Then Iesus saide vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto pou, Except ye eate
the flesh of the Sonne of man, and drinke his blood, ye haue ^o no life in pou.

54 Whosoener ^o eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternall life, and I will raile him vp at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meate in deede, and my blood is drinke in deede.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, ^o dwelleth in me, & I in him.

57 As the liuing Father hath sent me, so liue I by the Father, and hee that eateth me, & then he shall liue by me.

58 This is the bread which came downe from heauen: not as your Fathers haue eaten Manna, and are dead. He that eat-eth of this bread, shall liue for euer.

59 These things spake hee in the Synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples (when they heard this) sayde, this is an hard saying: who can ^o heare it?

61 But Iesus knowing in himselfe, that his disciples murmured at this, said vnto them, Doeth this offend you?

62 What then if ye should see the Sonne of man ascend vp ^o where he was before?

63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth: the flesh ^o profiteth nothing: the wordes that I speake vnto pou, are spirit and life.

64 But there are some of pou that beleeue not: for Iesus knew from the beginning, which they were that beleeued not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I vnto pou, that no man can come vnto me, except it be giuen vnto him of my Father.

66 From that time, many of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 Then saide Iesus to the twelue, Will ye also goe away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Master, to whom shall we goe? Thou hast the wordes of eternal life:

69 And we beleeue & knowe that thou art
the Christ the Sonne of the liuing God.

70 Iesus answered them, Haue not I chosen pou twelue, and one of pou is a deuill?

71 Nowe hee spake it of Iudas Iscariot the sonne of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, though he was one of the twelue.

27 Howbeit we knowe this man whence he is: but when the Christ cometh, no man shall knowe whence he is.

28 Then creb Iesus in the Temple as he taught, saying, Ye both knowe me, & he speaketh and knowe whence I am: yet am I not come of my selfe, but he that sent me, is scornfully true, whom ye knowe not.

29 But I knowe him: for I am of him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him, but no man laide handes on him, because his houre was not yet come.

31 Nowe many of the people belained in him and said, When the Christ cometh, meth will he doe mo miracles then this man hath done?

32 The Pharises heard that the people murmured these thinges of him, and the Pharises, and the chiefes sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Iesus vnto them, Yet am I vnto him that sent me.

34 He shall seeke me, and shall not finde me, and where I am, can ye not come.

35 Then saide the Iewes among themselues, Whither will he go, that we shall not finde him? Will he goe vnto them that are dispersed among the Grecians, and teach the Grecians?

36 What saying is this that he saide, He shall seeke me, and shall not finde me: and where I am, can ye not come?

37 Now in the last and great day of the feast, Iesus stood and cryed, saying, If any man thirst, let him come vnto me, and drinke.

38 He that belaueth in me, as saith the Scripture, out of his bellie shall flowe riuers of water of life.

39 (This spake he of the Spirit which they þe belained in him: should receiue: for the holp Ghost was not yet giuen, because that Iesus was not yet glorified.)

40 So many of the people, when they heard this saying, said, Of a trueneth this is the Prophet.

41 Other said, This is the Christ: & some said, But shall Christ come out of Galile?

42 So they were in dissension among the people for him.

43 So was there dissension among the people for him.

44 And some of them would haue taken him, but no man laide handes on him.

45 Then came the officers to the high Priest, and they saide vnto them, Why haue ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Neuer man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharises, He pe also deceived?

48 Both any of the rulers, or of the Pharises belaine in him?

49 But this people, which knowe not the Lawe, are cursed.

50 Nicodemus saide vnto them, (he that came to Iesus by night, and was one of them)

51 Doeth our Lawe iudge a man before it heare him, & knowe what he hath done?

CHAP. VIII.

11 Christ deliuereth her that was taken in adulterie.
12 Heu the lights of the world. 14 He sheeweth from whence he came, wherfore, & whither he goeth. 32 Who are free, & who are bond. 34 Of free men and slauers, and their reward. 46 His desire to enenue, 59 And being persecuted, wisheth vnto himselfe.

1 And Iesus went vnto the mount of Olives,

2 And earely in the morning came againe into the Temple, and all the people came vnto him, and he satte downe, and taught them.

3 Then the Scribes and the Pharises brought vnto him a woman taken in adultery, and set her in the middes,

4 And saide vnto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very acte.

5 Now Moses in the lawe commanded vs, that such should be stoned: what sayest thou thereto?

6 And this he saide to tempt him, that they might haue wherof to accuse him. But Iesus stouped downe, and with his finger wroote on the ground.

7 And while they continued asking him, he left himselfe by, and saide vnto them, Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.

8 And againe he stouped downe, & wroote on the ground.

9 And when they heard it, being accused by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest euen to the last: so Iesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the middes.

10 When Iesus had left by him selfe as game, and saw no man, but the woman, hee saide vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She saide, No man. Toide. And Iesus saide, Neither do I condemne thee: goe and sinne no more.

12 Then spake Iesus againe vnto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me, shall not walke in darkness, but shall haue the light of life.

13 The Pharises therefore saide vnto him, Thou bearest recorde of thy selfe: thy recorde is not true.

14 Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Though I beare recorde of my selfe, yet my recorde is true: for I knowe whence I came, and whither I goe: but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I goe.

15 Hee iudge after the flesh: I iudge no man.

16 And if I also iudge, my iudgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father, that sent me.

17 And it is also written in your lawe, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that beare witness of my selfe, and the father that sent me, beareth witness of me.

19 Then saide they vnto him, Where is thy father? Iesus answered, He neither knowe me, nor my father. If hee had knowne me, he should haue knowne my father also.

20 These wordes spake Iesus in the temple, sure, as he taught in the Temple, and no man laid hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.

21 Then saide Iesus againe vnto them, I goe now way, and ye shall seeke me, and shall die in your sinnes. Whither I goe, can ye not come.

22 Then saide the Iewes, Will he kill him selfe because he saith, Whither I goe, can ye not come?

23 And he saide vnto them, I be from hence: I am from above: ye are of this world: I am not of this world.

24 I saide therefore vnto you. That ye shall die in your sinnes: for except ye believe, that I am he, ye shall die in your sinnes.

25 Then saide they vnto him, Who art thou? And Iesus said vnto them, Euen the same thing that I saide vnto you from the beginning.

26 I haue many things to saye, & to iudge of you: but he that sent me, is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those I speak to the world.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then saide Iesus vnto them, When ye haue I left by the Sonne of man, then I shall be knowne that I am he, and that I doe nothing of my selfe, but as my Father hath taught me, so I speak these things.

29 For he that sent me, is with me: the Father hath not left me alone, because I doe alwayes those things that please him.

30 As he spake these things, many believed in him.

31 Then saide Iesus to the Iewes which believed in him, If ye continue in my wordes, ye are verely my disciples, 32 And shall knowe the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

33 They answered him, We be Abrahams seede, and were neuer bond to any man: why sayest thou then, We shall be made free?

34 Iesus answered them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that whosoever committeth sinne, is the seruant of sinne.

35 And the seruant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Sonne abideth for ever.

36 If the Sonne therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free in deede.

37 I knowe that ye are Abrahams seede, but ye seeke to kill me, because my wordes hath no place in you.

38 I speak that which I haue seene with my Father: and ye doe whych ye haue seene with your father.

39 They answered, and saide vnto him, Abraham is our father. Iesus sayd vnto them, them, If ye were Abrahams children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

40 But now ye go about to kill me, a man that haue tolde you the truth, which I haue heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do þe works of your father. The said they to him, We are not boyn of fornication: we haue one father, which is God.

42 Therefore Iesus saide vnto them, If God were your father, then would he loue me: for I proceeded forth, and came from God, neither came I of my selfe, but he sent me.

43 Why doe ye not vnderstand my talke? because ye cannot heare my woide.

44 Ye are of your fathers the deuill, and the lustes of your father ye wil doe: he hath bene a murderere from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, then speaketh he of his owne: for he is a liar, and the father thereof.

45 And because I tel you the truth, ye besleue me not.

46 Which of you can rebuke me of sinne? and if I say the truth, why do ye not besleue me?

47 He þe is of God, heareth Gods woide: ye therefore heare them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Iewes, and sayde vnto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a deuill?

50 And I seeke not mine owne praise: but there is one that seeketh it, and y^e indgeth.

51 Verely, verely I say vnto you, If a man keepe my woide, he shall neuer see death.

52 Then sayde the Iewes to him, Now knowe we that thou hast a deuill. Abraham is dead, and þe Prophets, and thou sayest, If a man keepe my woide, he shall neuer taste of death.

53 Art thou greater then our father Abraham which is dead? and the Prophets are dead: whom makest thou thy selfe?

54 Iesus answered, If I honour my selfe, mine honour is nothing worthy: it is my father that honourerth me, whom ye say, that he is your God.

55 Yet ye haue not knowen him: but I knowe him, and if I should say I knowe him not, I should be a liar like vnto you: but I know him, and keepe his woide.

56 Your father Abraham reioiced to see my day, and he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then sayd the Iewes vnto him, Thou art not yet fiftye yeres olde, and hast thou saide Abraham?

58 Iesus sayd vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, before Abraham was, I am.

59 Then toke they by violence, to cast at him, but Iesus hid him selfe, and went out of the Temple.

CHAP. IX.

1 Of him that was borne blinde. 11 The confession of him that was borne blinde. 39 To what blind men Christ giueth sight.

As Iesus passed by, he sawe a man which was blind fro his birth. And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man, or his parentes, that he was borne blinde?

3 Iesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parentes, but that the works of God shoulde be shewed on him.

4 I must worke the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh when no man can worke.

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

6 As soone as he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and anointed the eyes of the blinde with the clay.

7 And sayde vnto him, Goe wash in the poole of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent). He went his way therefore, and washed, and came againe seing.

8 Now the neighbours and they that had seene him before, when he was blind, sayd, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: and others saide, He is like him: but he himselfe sayde, I am he.

10 Therefore they sayde vnto him, Nowe were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered, and sayde, The man that is called Iesus, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and sayde vnto me, goe to the poole of Siloam and wash. So I went and washed, and receiued sight.

12 Then they said vnto him, Where is he? He sayd, I can not tell.

13 They brought to the Pharises him that was once blinde.

14 And it was the Sabbath day, when Iesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharises also asked him, how he had receiued sight. And he sayd vnto them, He claid clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Then sayde some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because hee keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others sayd, How can a man that is a sinner, do such miracles? and there was a dissension among them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blinde again, What sayest thou of him, because he hath opened thine eyes? And he sayde, He is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleue him (that he had bene blinde, and receiued his sight) vntil they had called the parentes of him that had receiued sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, To this your sonne, who þe say was borne blinde? how doth he now see then?

20 His parentes answered them, and sayd, We know that this is our sonne, & that he was borne blinde.

21 But by what meanes he now seeth, we knowe not: who hath opened his eyes, can we not tell: he is olde now: aske him: he shall answer for himselfe.

22 These wordes spake his parentes, because cause they feared the Jewes: for the Jewes had ordeined already, that if any man did confesse that he was the Christ, he should bee excommunicate out of the Synagogue.

 23 Therefore saide his parents, He is olde proung: a like him.
 24 Then againe called they the man that had bene blinde, & said vnto him, i Gue glorie vnto God: we know that this man is a sinner.
 25 Then he answered, and saide, Whether he be a sinner or no, i cannot tell: one thing I knowe, that I was blinde, and now I see.
 26 Then said they to him againe, What did hee do to thee? howe opened he thine eyes?
 27 He answered them, I haue tolde you already: & ye haue not bearded it: wherefore would ye heare it againe? i will pe also be his disciples?
 28 Then checked they him & saide, Thou art his disciple: we be Moses disciples.
 29 We know that God spake vnto Moses: but this man we knowe not from whence he is.
 30 The man answered, & said vnto them, Doubtlesse, this is a maruelous thing, that ye know not whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.
 31 How we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, & doth his will, him heareth he.
 32 Since the woyle began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was bozne blinde.
 33 If this man were not of God, he could haue done nothing.
 34 They answered, & said vnto him, Thou art altogether bozne in sinnes, and dost thou teach vs? so they call him out.
 35 Iesus heard that they had called him out: and when he had found him, he said vnto him, Doest thou beleeue in p^r Donne of God?
 36 He answered, & said, Who is he, Lord, that I might beleeue in him?
 37 And Iesus saide vnto him, Both thou hast seene him, and he it is that talketh with thee.
 38 Then he said, Lord, I beleeue, & was shipped him.
 39 And Iesus saide, I am come vnto indgement into this woyle, that they which see not, might see: and that they which see, might be made blinde.
 40 And some of the pharisees which were with him, heard these things, & said vnto him, Are we blinde also?
 41 Iesus said vnto them, If ye were blind, ye should not haue sinne: but now ye see, we see: therefore your sinne remaineth.

1 Christ is the true shepherd, & the doore. 19 Diuers opinions of Christ. 24 He is asked if he be Christ. 32 He worketh declare that he is God. 34 The Princes called gods.
 1 Verely, verely I say vnto you, He that entereth not in by the doore into the shepfold, but climeth by another way, he is a theefe and a robber.

 1 But he that goeth in by the doore, is the Shepheard of the sheepe.
 2 To him the porter openeth, and the sheepe heare his voice, and he calleth his owne sheepe by name, and leadeth them out.
 3 And when he hath sent forth his owne sheepe, he goeth before them, & the sheepe follow him: for they know his voyce.
 4 And they will not follow a stranger, but they flee from him: for they knowe not the voyce of strangers.
 5 This parable spake Iesus vnto them: but they vnderstode not what things they were which he spake vnto them.
 6 Then said Iesus vnto them againe, Verely, verely I say vnto you, I am the doore of the sheepe.
 7 All, that euer came before me, are theues and robbers: but the sheepe did not heare them.
 8 I am the doore: by me if any man enter in, he shall saue, and shall goe in and goe out, and finde pasture.
 9 The theefe cometh not, but for to steale, and to kill, & to destroy: I am come that they might haue life, and haue it in abundance.
 10 I am the good shepheard: the good shepheard giueth his life for his sheepe.
 11 But an hireling, and he which is not the shepheard, neither the sheepe are his owne, leeth the wolfe coming, and he leaueth the sheepe, and fleeth, and the wolfe catcheth them, and scattereth the sheepe.
 12 So the hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheepe.
 13 I am the good shepheard, and knowe mine, and am knowne of mine.
 14 As the Father knoweth me, so know I the Father: and I lay downe my life for my sheepe.
 15 Other sheepe I haue also, which are not of this fold: them also must I bing, and they shall heare my voyce: and there shall be one shepfold, & one shepheard.
 16 Therefore doeth my Father loue me, because I lay downe my life, that I might take it againe.
 17 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it downe of my selfe: I haue power to take it againe: this commandement haue I receiued of my Father.
 18 Then there was a dissention againe among the Jewes for these sayings.
 19 And many of them said, He hath a deuil, and is mad: why heare ye him?
 20 Other said, These are not the wordes of him that hath a deuil: can the deuill open the eyes of the blinde?
 21 And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the Dedication, and it was winter.

the light of this world.

10 But if a man walke in night he stum-blcth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake he, and after he said vnto them, Our friend Lazarus slepeth:
but I goe to wake him up.

12 Then sayde his disciples, Lord, if he slepe, he * shalbe safe.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death:
but they thought that he had spoken of the * naturall sleepe.

14 Then said Iesus vnto them plainly,
Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleue: but let vs go vnto him.

16 Then saide Thomas (which is called Didymus) vnto his fellow disciples, Let vs also go, that we may die with him.

17 I Then came Iesus, and founde that he had lien in the graue foure dayes already.

18 Now Bethania was nere vnto Ie-rusalem, about * fiftene furrlongs off.

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha and Marie to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha, when she heard that Iesus was coming, went to meete him: but Marie sate still in the house.

21 Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou hadst bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

22 But now I know also, that whatsoe-uer thou askest of God, God will giue it thee.

23 Iesus said vnto her, thy brother shall rise againe.

24 Martha said vnto him, I know that he shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Iesus said vnto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleueth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he liue.

26 And whosoever liueth and belueth in me, shall neuer die. Belonest thou this?

27 She said vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleue that thou art the Christe the Sonne of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so saide, she went her way, and called Marie her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and callith for thee.

29 And when she heard it, she arose quickly, and came vnto him.

30 For Iesus was not yet come into the towne, but was in a place where Martha met him.

Jesus was, and salve him, she fell downe and the Jewes also wepe which came

They saide vnto him, Lord, come, and see.

36 Then said the Jewes, Behold howe he which opened the eyes of the blind, haue

38 Jesus therefore againe groined in hima caine, and a lone was layed vpon it.

39 Jesus saide, Take pee away the stone.
Martha the sister of him that was dead, said vnto him, Lord, he stinketh already:
for he hath bene dead foure dayes.

40 Jesus saide vnto her, Said I not vnto thee, that if thou biddest beleue, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

41 Then they tooke away the stone from the place where the dead was laide. And Jesus lift vp his eyes, and saide, Father,
I thanke thee, because thou hast hearde
me.

42 I know that thou hearest me alwayes, but because of the people that stande by,
I saide it, that they may beleue, that thou hast sent me.

43 As he had spoken these things, hee cryed with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44 Then hee that was dead, came forth, bound hand and foote with bandes, and his face was bounde with a napkin. Jesus saide vnto them, loose him, and let him goe.

45 ¶ Then many of the Jewes, which came to Marie, and had seene the things which Jesus did, beleued in him.

46 But some of them went their way to the Pharisees, & tolde them what things Jesus had done.

47 Then gathered the hie Priestes, and the Pharisees a counsell, and said, What shal we doe? For this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will beleue in him, and the Romanes will come and take away both our place, and the nation.

49 Then one of them named Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest, that same yeere, saide vnto them, Pe perceiue nos-thing at all.

50 For pri doe pou consider that it is expedient for vs, that one man die for the people, and that the w hole nation perish not.

51 This spake he not of himselfe: but being his Priest that same yeere, he prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation:

52 And not for the nation onely, but that he shoulde gather together in one the children of God, which were scattered.

53 Then from that day forth they consulted together, to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jewes, but went thence vnto a countrey nere to the wilderness, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Jewes Pascheouer was at hande, and many went out of the countreyp vnto Ierusalem before the Pasche-ouer, to purifie themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stode in the Temple, What thinke pee, that he commeth not to the feast?

57 Howe both the hie Priestes and the Pharisees had giuen a commandement, that if any man knewe where hee were,
he shoulde shew it, that they might take Pascheouer, came to Bethania, where Lazarus was, which was dead, whom he had raised from the dead.

There they made him a supper, and Martha serued: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then tooke Mary a pound of oynment of spikenarde very costly, and anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped his feet with her haire, and the house was filled with the sauour of the oynment.

4 Then said one of his disciples, euen Iu-

5 Why was not this oynment solde for three hundred pence, and giuen to the poore?

6 Nowe he said this, not that he cared for the poore, but because hee was a thief, and had the bag, and bare that which was giuen.

7 Then said Jesus, let her alone: against the day of my burying he kept it.

8 For the poore alwayes pee haue with

9 Then much people of the Jewes knew that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus sake onely, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom hee had raised from the dead.

10 The hie Priestes therefore consulted, that they might put Lazarus to death also.

27 Now is my soule troubled: and what shall I say? Father, saue me from this houre: but therefore came I vnto this houre.

28 Father, glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voyce from heauen, saying, I haue both glorified it, and will glorifie it againe.

29 Then saide the people that stood by and heard, that it was a thunder: others said, An Angel spake to him.

30 Iesus answered, and saide, This voyce came not because of me, but for your sakes.

Judas had now put in his heart of Judas was come from God, and went to God,

3 Hee riseth from supper, and layeth aside his vpper garments, & took a towell, and girded himselfe.

4 After that, he poured water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples feete, and to wipe them with the towel, where with he was girded.

5 Then came he to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, dost thou wash my feete?

6 Jesus answered & saide vnto him, what I doe, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt know it hereafter.

7 Peter saide vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my feete. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou shalt haue no part with me.

8 Simon Peter saide vnto him, Lord, not my feete onely, but also the handes, and the head.

9 Jesus saide to him, Hee that is washed needeth not, saue to wash his feete, but is cleane euery whit: and pee are cleane, but not all.

10 For he knowe who should betray him:
therefore said he, Pe are not all cleane.

11 So after he had washed their feete, and had taken his garments, and was set downe againe, he saide vnto them, know pe what I haue done to you?

12 Pe calme Master, and Lord, and pe say well: for to an I.

13 If I then pour Lord, and Master, haue washed your feete, pe also ought to wash one anothers feete.

14 For I haue giuen you an example, that pe should do, euen as I haue done to you.

15 Verely, verely I saie vnto you, The seruant is not greater then his master, neither the ambassadour greater then he that sent him.

16 If pe know these things, blessed are ye,
if pe do them.

17 I I speake not of you all: I knowe whome I haue chosen: but it is that the Scripture might be fulfilled, That he eateth bread with mee, hath I sate vnto his feete against me.

18 From henceforth tell I you before it come, that when it is come to passe, pee will beleeue that I am & he.

19 Verely, verely I say vnto you, If I send any, he that receiueth mee, receiueth me, and hee that receiueth mee, receiueth him that sent me.

20 When Jesus had saide these things, he was troubled in the Spirit, and: testifified, and saide, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

21 Then the disciples looked one on an other, doubting of whom he spake.

22 Nowe there was one of his disciples, which leaned on Jesus k bosome, whome Jesus loued.

23 So him bekened therefore Simon Peter, that he should be he, who it was of whom he spake.

24 He then, as he leaned on Jesus brest, saide vnto him, Lord, who is it?

25 Jesus answered, He it is, to whome I shall giue a sopp, when I haue dipped it: and he wet a sopp, and gaue it to Judas Ischariot, Simons sonne.

26 And after the sopp, Satan entered in to him. Then said Jesus vnto him, That thou doest, doe quickly.

27 But none of them that were at table, knewe, for what cause he spake it vnto
him.

28 For some of them thought because Judas had the bagge, that Jesus had saide vnto him, He those things that we haue need of against the feast: or that he should giue some thing to the poore.

29 As soone then as hee had receiued the sopp, he went inmeadiatly out, & it was night.

30 When hee was gone out, Jesus saide, Nowe is the Sonne of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

31 If God bee glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him in him selfe, and shall straightway glorifie him.

32 Little children, yet a little while am I with you: pe shall seeke me, but as I said vnto the Iewes, Whither I goe, can pe not come: also to you I now,

33 A new commandment giue I vnto you, that pe loue one another: as I haue loued you, that pe also loue one another.

34 If this shall all men knowe pe are my disciples, if pe haue loue one to an other.

35 Simon Peter saide vnto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I goe, thou canst not follow me now: but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

36 Peter saide vnto him, Lord, why can I not follow thee now? I will lap downe my life for thy sake.

37 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lape downe thy life for my sake? Verely, verely
I say vnto thee, The cocke shall not crowe, till thou haue denied mee thrise.

24 He that loveth me not, keepeth not my wordes, & the word which he heareth, is not his mine, but the Fathers which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the holie Ghost, whome the Father will send in my Name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, which I have tolde you.

27 Peace I leave with you: my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, giving I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor feare.

28 Ye have heard how I sayd unto you, I am, & ye have not believed: now I sayd unto you, If ye love me, ye would verely reioyce, because I sayd, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater then I.

29 And now have I spoken unto you, before it come, that wher it is come to passe, ye might believe.

30 Hereafter will I not speake many things unto you: for the prince of this world commeth, and hath nought in me.

31 But it is that the world may know that I love my Father: and as the Father hath commanded me, so I doe. Arise, let us go hence.

CHAP. XV.

The foretelle of consolation, and mutual love betwixt Christ & his members under the parable of the vine.

1 Of their common afflictions and persecutions.

2 The office of the holy Ghost, and the Apostles.

3 In the true vine, and my Father is an husbandman.

4 Every branch that beareth not fruit in me, hee shall be taken away: & every one that beareth fruit, hee purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

5 Now are ye cleane through the wordes, which I have spoken unto you.

6 Abide in me, & I in you: as the branch cannot beare fruit of it selfe, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

7 I am the vine: ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, & I in him, the same shall bring forth much fruit: for without me ye can be doe nothing.

8 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and withereth: and men gather them, and call them into the fire, and they burne.

9 If ye abide in me, and my wordes abide in you, aske what ye will, and it shall be done to you.

10 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye beare much fruit, and be made my disciples.

11 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue in my love.

12 If ye shall keepe my commandments, ye shall abide in my love, as I have kept my Fathers commandments, and abide in his love.

13 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remaine in you, and that your joy might be full.

14 This is my commandment, that ye love one another, as I have loved you.

15 Greater love then this hath no man, when any man beloveth his life for his friends.

16 Ye are my friends, if ye doe what I comend you.

17 Henceforth, call I you not servants: for the servant knoweth not what his Master doeth: but I have called you friends: for all things that I have heard of my Father, have I made known unto you.

18 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, & have sent you forth.

chosen you, and obtained you, * that ye goe and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit remaine, that whatsoever ye shall aske of the Father in my name, he map giue it you.

17 These things commaunde I you, that ye loue one another.

18 If the worlde hate you, ye know that it hated me before you.

19 If ye were of the worlde, the worlde would loue his owne; but because ye are not of the worlde, but I haue chosen you out of the worlde, therefore the worlde hateth you.

20 Remember the worlde that I saide vnto you, * The seruant is not greater then his maister. * If they haue persecuted me, they will persecute you also: if they haue kept my worde, they will also keepe yours.

21 But all these things will they doe vnto you for my names sake, because they haue not knowen him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken vnto them, they should not haue had mine:
but now haue they no * stoke for their sinne.

23 He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done works among them which none other man did, they had not had mine: but now haue they both seene, and haue hated both me & my Father.

25 But it is that the worlde might be misled, that is written in their lawe, * They hated me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter shall come, whom I will send vnto you from the Father,
the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth of the Father, he shall testifie of me.

27 And ye shall witness also, because ye haue bene with me from the beginning.

CHAP. XVI.

2 He putteth them in remembrance of the crosse, and of their owne infirmities to come, 7 And therefore doth comfort them with the promise of the holie Ghost, 16 Of the coming againe of Christ, 17 Of his ascension. 23 To aske in the name of Christ 33
Peace in Christ, and in the world affliction.

1 These things haue I saide vnto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall excommunicate you:
yea, the time shall come, that who soeuer hath you, will thinke that ye doth God seruice.

3 And these things will they do vnto you, because they haue not knowen the Father, nor me.

4 But these things haue I told you, that when the houre shall come, ye might remember, that I tolde you them. And these things I saide I not vnto you from the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me, * Why ther goest thou?

6 But because I haue saide these things
vnto you, your hearts are full of sorrow.

7 Yet I tell you the truth, It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come vnto you: but if I depart, I will send him vnto

you.

And when he is come, he will * reprove the worlde of sinne, and of righteounesse, and of iudgement.

Of sinne, because they beleeue not in
me:

Of righteounesse, because I goe to my Father, and ye shall see me no more:

Of iudgement, because the prince of this worlde is iudged.

8 I haue yet many things to say vnto you, but ye cannot beare them now.

9 Howbeit, when he is come which is the Spirit of truth, he shall lead you into all truth: for he shall not speake of himselfe, but whatsoever he shall heare, shall he speake, & he will shew you the things to come.

10 He shall glorifie me: for he shall receiue of mine, and shall shew it vnto you.

11 All things that the Father hath, are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shew it vnto you.

12 A little while, and ye shall not see me:
and againe a little while, and ye shall see me: for I go to my Father.

13 Then saide some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith vnto vs, A little while, and ye shall not see me, and againe, a little while, and ye shall see me, and, for I go to my Father?

14 They saide therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while, we know not what he saith.

15 Nowe Iesus knewe that they would aske him, and said vnto them, Doe ye enquire among your selues, of that I said,
A little while, and ye shall not see me:
and againe, a little while, and ye shall see me, and, for I go to my Father?

16 Verely, verely I say vnto you, that ye shall weep and lament, & the worlde shall reioyce: and ye shall sorrowe, but your sor-rowe shall be turned to ioy.

17 A woman when she travaileth, hath sorrowe, because her houre is come: but as soone as she is deliuered of the childe, the remembrance of no more the anguish, for ioy that a man is borne into the worlde.

18 And ye now therefore are in sorrow: but I will see you againe, and your hearts shall reioyce, and your ioy shall * no man take from you.

19 And in that day shall ye aske me * no thing. Verely, verely I say vnto you, whatsoever ye shall aske the Father in my name, he will giue it you.

20 Hitherto haue ye asked nothing in my name: aske, and ye shall receiue, that your ioy may be full.

- 1 The prayer of Christ vnto his Father, both for himselfe and his Apostles, and also for all such as receive the truth.
- 2 These things spake Iesus, and left up his eyes to heauen, and said, Father, the houre is come: glorifie thy Sonne, that thy Sonne also may glorifie thee.
- 3 As thou hast giuen him power ouer all flesh, that he should giue eternall life to all them that thou hast giuen him.
- 4 And this is life eternall, that they know thee to be the onely verie God, and whom thou hast sent, Iesus Christ.
- 5 I haue glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gavest me to doe.
- 6 And now glorifie me, thou Father, with thine alone selfe, with the glorie which I had with thee before the world was.
- 7 I haue declared thy name vnto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: that they were, and thou gavest them me, and they haue kept thy word.
- 8 Nowe they knowe that all things whatsoever thou hast giuen me, are of thee.
- 9 For I haue giuen vnto them the words, which thou gavest me, and they haue receiued them, and haue knowne surely that I came out from thee, and haue beleued that thou hast sent me.
- 10 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast giuen me: for they are thine.
- 11 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them,

- 12 And nowe am I no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holpe Father, keepe them in thy name, euen them whom thou hast giuen me, that they may be one, as we are.
- 13 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those which thou gavest mee, haue I kept, & none of them is lost, but the child of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.
- 14 And now come I to thee, & these things spake I in the world, that they might haue nip iop fulfilled in themselves.
- 15 I haue giuen them thy word, and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, as I am not of the world.
- 16 I pray that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou keepe them from euil.
- 17 They are not of the world, as I am not of the world.
- 18 Sanctifie them by thy truth: thy word is truth.
- 19 As thou diddest send me into the world, so haue I sent them into the world.
- 20 And for their sakes sanctifie I my selfe, that they also may be sanctified through the truth.
- 21 I pray not for these alone, but for them also which shall beleue in mee, through thy word.
- 22 That they all may be one, as thou, Father, art in mee, & I in thee: euen that they may be also one in vs, & the world may beleue that thou hast sent me.
- 23 And the glorie that thou gavest me, I haue giuen them, that they may be one, as we are one.
- 24 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may knowe, that thou hast sent me, and hast loued them, as thou hast loued me.
- 25 Father, I will that they which thou hast giuen me, be with me euere where I am, & they may behold my glorie, which thou hast giuen me: for thou louedst me before the foundation of the world.
- 26 Righteous Father, I would also haue not knowne thee, but I haue knowne thee, and these haue knowne, that thou hast sent me.
- 27 And I haue declared vnto them thy name, and will declare it, that the lone wherewith thou hast loued me, may be in them, and I in them.

1 * Judas then after hee had receiued a band of men & officers of p high priests.
and of the pharisees, came thither with lanternes, and torches, and weapons.

2 Then Iesus knowing al things p should come vnto him, went forth and saide vnto them, Whom seeke ye?

3 They answered him, Iesus of Nazaret.
Iesus saide vnto them, I am hee. Howe Judas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

4 As soone then as he had saide vnto them,
I am hee, they went backwards, and fell to the ground.

5 Then he asked them again, Whom seeke ye? And they said, Iesus of Nazaret.

6 Iesus answered, I said vnto you, that I am hee: therefore if ye seeke me, let these go their way.

7 This was that the woord might be fulfilled which hee spake, "Of them which thou gauest me, haue I lost none."

8 Then Simon Peter hauing a sworde, drew it, & smote the hie Priestes seruant, and cut off his right eare. Howe the ser-uants name was Malchus.

9 Then saide Iesus vnto Peter, Put by thy sworde, into the sheath: shall I not drinke of the cup which my Father hath giuen me?

10 Then the bande and the captaine, and the officers of p Jewes took Iesus, and bound him,

11 And led him away to "Annas first (for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest the same yere)

12 And Caiaphas was he, p gaue counsell to the Jewes, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

13 ¶ Now Simon Peter followed Iesus, and another discipule, and this discipule was knowne of the hie Priest: therefore he went in with Iesus into the hall of the hie Priest.

14 Then Peter stood at the doore without.
Then went out the other discipule, which was knowne vnto the hie Priest, and spake to her that kept the doore, and brought in Peter.

15 Then said the maid that kept the doore, vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He said, I am not.

16 And the seruantes and officers stood there, which had made a fire of coles: for it was colde, & they warmed themselves.
And Peter also stood among them, and warmed himselfe.

17 ¶ The hie Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

18 Iesus answered him, I spake openly to the world: I neuer taught in the synagogue, and in the Temple, whither the Jewes resort continually, and in secret haue I said nothing.

19 Why askest thou me? aske them which hearde me what I saide vnto them: behold, they know what I said.

20 When hee had spoken these things, one of the officers which stood by, smote Jesus with his rod, saying, Answerest thou the hie Priest so?

21 Iesus answered him, If I haue enill spoken, beare witness of the enill: but if I haue wel spoken, why smitest thou me?

22 ¶ Now Annas had sent him bound vnto Caiaphas the hie Priest.

23 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himselfe, and the saide vnto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? Hee denied it, and said, I am not.

24 One of the seruantes of the hie Priest, his cousin whose eare Peter smote off, saide, Did not I see thee in the garden
with him?

25 Peter then denied againe, and immediatly the cocke crew.

26 ¶ Then led they Iesus from Calas phas into the common hall. Now it was morning, and they themselves went not into the common hall, lest they should be defiled, but that they might eat the Passouer.

27 Pilate then went out vnto them, and saide, What accusation bring ye against this man?

28 They answered and saide vnto him, If hee were not an enill doer, we woulde not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

29 Then said Pilate vnto them, Take ye him, and iudge him after your owne lawe. Then the Jewes saide vnto him, It is not lawful for vs to put any man to death.

30 It was that the woordes of Iesus might be fulfilled which hee spake, signifying what death he should die.

31 ¶ So Pilate entred into the common hall againe, and called Iesus, & saide vnto him, Art thou the king of the Jewes?

32 Iesus answered him, Nailest thou that of thy selfe, or did othere tell it thee of me?

33 Pilate answered him, Am I a Iewe?
Thine owne nation, and the hie priests haue deliuered thee vnto me. What hast thou done?

34 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this world, if my kingdome were of this world, my seruantes woulde streitly fight, that I shoulde not be deliuered to the Jewes: But now is my kingdome not from hence.

35 Pilate then saide vnto him, Art thou a king then? Iesus answered, Thou say-est that I am a king: for this cause am I borne, and for this cause came I into the world, that I shoulde beare witness unto the trueth: euery one that is of p trueth, heareth my voyce.

36 Pilate said vnto him, What is trueth?
And when hee had said that, he went out againe vnto the Jewes, and saide vnto them, I finde in him no cause at all.

37 "But you haue a custome, p I shoulde deliuer you one loofe at the Passouer: of whom will ye then that I loofe vnto you?
The king of the Jewes?"

38 ¶ Then crept they all againe, saying,
Not him, but Barabbas: now this Bar-abbas was a murderer.

Mat. 27. 27.

mar. 15. 16, 17.

^a He thought to haue pacified the furie of the Iewes by some indifferent correction.

¹ When Pilate toke Iesus & a souldier led him.

² And the souldiers platted a crowne of thornes, and put it on his heade, & they put on him a purple garment.

³ And saide, Haile, King of the Iewes. And they smote him with their rodde.

⁴ Then Pilate went forth againe, & saide vnto them, Beholde, I bring him forth to you, that ye may knowe, that I finde no fault in him at all.

⁵ Then came Iesus forth wearing a crowne of thornes, & a purple garment. And Pilate saide vnto them, Beholde the man.

⁶ Then when the hie Priestes and officers saue him, they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate saide vnto them, Take ye him & crucifie him: for I finde no fault in him.

⁷ The Iewes answered him, We haue a lawe, and by our lawe hee ought to die, because he made him selfe the Sonne of God.

⁸ When Pilate then heard that word, he was the more afraide.

⁹ And went againe into the common hall and saide vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him no answer.

¹⁰ Then saide Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto mee? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, & haue power to loose thee?

¹¹ Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no power at all against mee, except it were giuen thee from above: therefore he that deliuered mee vnto thee, hath the greater sinne.

¹² From thence forth Pilate sought to loose him, but the Iewes cried, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cæsars friend: for whosoever maketh him selfe a King, speaketh against Cæsar.

¹⁴ And it was the Preparation of the Passouer, and about the first houre: and he saide vnto the Iewes, Beholde your King.

¹⁵ But they cried, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate saide vnto them, Shall I crucifie your King? The hie Priestes answered, We haue no King but Cæsar.

¹⁶ Then deliuered he him vnto them, to be crucified. And they toke Iesus, and led him away.

¹⁷ And he bare his crosse, and came into a place named of dead menes skulles, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha:

¹⁸ Whither they crucified him, & two other with him, on either side one, and Iesus in the middes,

¹⁹ And Pilate wrote also a title, and put it on the crosse, and it was written, IHSVS OF NAZARET THE KING OF THE IEWEES.

²¹ Then saide the hie Priestes of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, the King of the Iewes, but that he said, I am King of the Iewes.

²² Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

²³ Then the souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, toke his garments, & made foure parts, to euerie souldier a part, and his coat: and the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

²⁴ Therefore they said one to another, Let vs not drinde it, but cast lots for it, whose it shalbe. This was that scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my garments among them, and on my coat did cast lottes. So the souldiers did these things in deed.

²⁵ Then stood by the crosse of Iesus his mother, and his mothers sister, Marrie the wife of Cleopas, & Mary Magdalene.

²⁶ And when Iesus saw his mother, and the discipule standing by, whom hee loued, he said vnto his mother, Woman, behold thy sonne.

²⁷ Then said he to the discipule, Behold thy mother: and from that houre, the discipule toke her home vnto him.

²⁸ After, whē Iesus knew that all things were perfomed, & the Scripture might be fulfilled, he said, I thirst.

²⁹ And there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegre, and put it about an hyssope stalke, and put it to his mouth.

³⁰ Nowe when Iesus had receined of the vinegre, he said, It is finished, and bowed his head, and gaue up the ghost.

³² Then came the souldiers, and hyake the legges of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

³³ But when they came to Iesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legges.

³⁴ But one of the souldiers with a spear pierced his side, & forthwith came there out blood and water.

³⁵ And he that saw it, bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that he might declare it.

³⁶ For these things were done, that the Scripture should be fulfilled, that the bone of him shalbe broken.

³⁷ And againe another Scripture saith, They shall see him whome they haue crucified alive.

³⁸ And againe another Scripture saith, They shall see him whome they haue crucified alive.

³⁹ And againe another Scripture saith, They shall see him whome they haue crucified alive.

⁴⁰ And againe another Scripture saith, They shall see him whome they haue crucified alive.

⁴¹ And againe another Scripture saith, They shall see him whome they haue crucified alive.

⁴² And againe another Scripture saith, They shall see him whome they haue crucified alive.

⁴³ And againe another Scripture saith, They shall see him whome they haue crucified alive.

1 Marie Magdalene cometh to the sepulchre. 3 So

2 do Peter and Iohn. 12 The two Angels appeare.

17 Christ appeareth to Marie Magdalene. 19 And 20 to all his disciples. 25 The incredulitie of Thomas

28 His confession.

1 Now the first day of the weeke came

2 Marie Magdalene, early when

3 it was yet darke, vnto the sepul-

4 chre, and sawe the stone taken away from 5 the tombe.

6 Then she ranne, & came to Simon Pe-

7 ter, and to the other disciple whome Je-

8 sus loued, & sayde vnto them, They haue

9 taken away the body out of the sepul-

10 chre, and we knowe not where they haue

11 laide him.

12 Peter therefore went forth, & the other

13 disciple, & they came vnto the sepulchre.

14 So they ranne both together, but the 15 other disciple did outrunne Peter, and 16 came first to the sepulchre.

17 And he stooped downe, and sawe the li-

18 nen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

19 Then came Simon Peter following

20 him, & went into the sepulchre, and sawe

21 the linen clothes lie.

22 And the kerchiefe that was upon his

23 head, not lying with the linen clothes, but

24 wappeth together in a place by it selfe.

25 Then went in also the other disciple,

26 which came first to the sepulchre, and he

27 sawe it, and believed.

28 For as yet they knewe not the Scripture,

29 that he must rise againe from the dead.

30 And the disciples went away againe

31 vnto their owne home.

32 ¶ But Marie stood without at the se-

33 pulchre weeping. And as she wept, she

34 solued her selfe into the sepulchre,

35 And sawe two Angels in white, sitting,

36 the one at the head, and the other at the 37 feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

38 And they said vnto her, Woman, why

39 weepest thou? She said vnto them, They

40 haue taken away my body, and I knowe

41 not where they haue laide him.

42 When he had thus said, he turned her

43 aske backe, and sawe Jesus standing, and knewe not that it was Jesus.

44 Jesus sayth vnto her, Woman, why we-

45 peest thou? whom seekest thou? She say-

46 ing that she had bene the gardener,

47 said vnto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him

48 hence, tell me where thou hast laide him,

49 & I will take him away.

50 Jesus sayth vnto her, Marie. She tur-

51 ned her selfe, and sayde vnto him, Rab-

52 boni, which is to say, Master.

53 Jesus sayeth vnto her, Touch me not:

54 for I am not yet ascended to my Fa-

55 ther, but go to my brethren, and say vnto

56 them, I ascend vnto my Father, and 57 to your Father, & to my God, and your 58 God.

59 ¶ Marie Magdalene came and tolde the 60 disciples that they had seene the body,

61 and that he had spoken these things vnto

62 her.

63 ¶ The same day then at night, which 64 was the first day of the weeke, and when

65 the disciples were that way, & the disci-

66 ples were assembled for feare of the Jewes,

67 came Jesus and stood in the middes, and 68 sayd to them, Peace be vnto you.

69 And when he had so saide, he shewed

70 vnto them his hands, and his side. Then

71 were the disciples glad, when they had 72 seene the body.

73 ¶ Then said Jesus to them againe, Peace

74 be vnto you: as my Father sent me, so

75 send I you.

76 And when he had sayde that, he breas-

77 thed on them, and sayde vnto them, Recei-

78 ue the holie Ghost.

79 ¶ Whosoever sines pe remitt, they are

80 remitted vnto them: & whosoever

81 sines pe retaine, they are retaine.

82 ¶ But Thomas one of the twelve, cal-

83 led Didimus, was not with them when 84 Jesus came.

85 The other disciples therefore said vnto

86 him, We haue seene the body: but he sayd

87 vnto them, Except I see in his hands the 88 print of the nails, and put my finger in-

89 to the print of the nails, and put mine

90 hand into his side, I will not beleue it.

91 ¶ And eight daies after againe his di-

92 sciples were within, and Thomas with

93 them. Then came Jesus, when the doores

94 were shut, and stood in the middes, and

95 sayd, Peace be vnto you.

96 ¶ After, said he to Thomas, put thy fin-

97 ger here, and see mine hands, & put forth

98 thine hand, and put it into my side, and

99 be not faithles, but faithfull.

100 ¶ Then Thomas answered, and sayd vn-

101 to him, Thou art my Lord, and my God.

102 ¶ Jesus said vnto him, Thomas, because

103 thou hast seene me, thou believest: blessed

104 are they that haue not seene, and haue

105 beleued.

106 ¶ And many other signes also did Je-

107 sus in the presence of his disciples, which 108 are not written in this booke.

109 ¶ But these things are written, that ye

110 might beleue, that Jesus is the Christ, the

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ appeareth to his disciples againe. 25 He catcheth Peter earnestly as hee saith, his sheepe. 3 He saith, wretched art thou, which was once manifeste mynacle.

*Or, lake of Gen. n. sabbath.

4 After these things, Iesus shewed himselfe againe to his disciples at the sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he himselfe.

5 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas, which is called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sonnes of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

6 Simon Peter saide vnto them, I go a fishing. They sayd vnto him, We also will go with thee. They went their way, and entered into a ship straight way, and that night caught the nothing.

7 But when the morning was now come, Iesus stood on the shore: neuertheless the disciples knewe not that it was Iesus. Iesus then sayd vnto them, Hye, haue ye and meate? They answered him, No.

*Or, Children.

8 Then he saide vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the shippe, and ye shall fynde. So they cast out, and they were not able at all to drawe it, for the multitude of fishes.

9 Therefore sayd the disciple to whom Iesus loued, vnto Peter, It is the Lord, when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girded his coat to him. (for he was naked) and call him selfe into the sea.

10 But the other disciples came by shippe (for they were not farre from land, but about two hundred cubites) & they drew the net with fishes.

11 And when they were come to land, they sawe heat coales, and fish layd there on, and bread.

12 Iesus saide vnto them, Bring of the fishes, which ye have now caught.

13 Simon Peter strepyd forth and dreyed the net to land, full of great fishes, an hundred thieftie & thise: and albeit there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

14 Iesus saide vnto them, Come, and dine. And none of the disciples durst aske him, Who art thou, seeing they knew that he was the Lord.

15 Iesus then saide, and toke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

16 This is now the third time that Iesus shewed himselfe to his disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

17 When they had dined, Iesus saide to Simon Peter, Simon sonne of Iona, lonest thou me more then these? He sayd vnto him, yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He saide vnto him, Feed my lambes.

18 He saide to him againe the second time, Simon the sonne of Iona, lonest thou me? He saide vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He saide vnto him, Feed my sheepe.

19 He saide vnto him the third time, Simon the sonne of Iona, lonest thou me? Peter was soze because he saide to him the third time, lonest thou me? and saide vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus saide vnto him, Feed my sheepe.

20 When hee had sayd vnto him, I when thou wast young, thou girdedst thy selfe, & walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thine handes, and another shall gird thee, and leade thee whither thou wouldest not.

21 And thus spake he, signifying by what death he should glorifie God. And when he had sayd this, he sayd to him, Follow me.

22 Then Peter turned about, and saw the disciple to whom Iesus loued, following, which had also leane on his breast at supper, and had saide, Lord, which is that betrayeth thee?

23 When Peter therefore saw him, he said to Iesus, Lord, what shall this man doe?

24 Iesus saide vnto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is it to thee? follow thou me.

25 Then went this waye abroad among the biethmen, that this disciple should not die: but if I will that he tarry till I come, what is it to thee?

26 This is that disciple, which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and we knowe that his testimony is true.

27 Nowe there are also many other things, which Iesus did, the which if they should be written euery one, I suppose the world could not contene the bookes that should be written, Amen.

The minister cannot well teach his congregacion, except he loue Christ affectually, which loue is pot in that feede not the flocke.

Because Peter should be established in his office of an A. possle, Christ causeth him by these three times confessing, to wipe away the shame of his three times denying.

In heade of a girdle, thou shalt be tyed with bands & cordu and whereas now thou girdst all libertie, then thou shalt be drawen to punishment, when thy flesh shall after a sort resist.

The Actes of the holy Apostles, written by Luke the Euangelist.

THE ARGVMENT.

Christ, after his ascension, performed his promes to his Apostles, & sent them the holy Ghost, declaring thereby, that he was not onely mindfull of his Church, but would be the head and maintainer thereof for euer. Wherein also his mightie power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan and the world resisted neuer so much against this noble worke, yet by a fewe simple men of no reputation, replenished all the world with the sound of his Gospel. And here, in the beginning of the Church, and in the increafe thereof, we may plainly perceiue the praefise and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppress, and ouerthrow the Gospel: he raileth conspiracies, cumulates commotions, persecutions, slanders, and all kinde of crueltie. Againe we shall here behold the providence of God, who ouerthroweth his enemies enterprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth & encourageth his, most valiantly & constantly to fol-

to followeth their captain Christ, leaving as it were by this historie a perpetuall memorie to the Church, that thereunto is joyned with the Gospel, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the ende of one affliction is but the beginning of another. Yet neuertheless God enneth the troubles persecution, imprisonings and contumptions of his, to a good issue, giving them as it were, in sorrow, joy in wonder, freedom, in prison, deliverance, a profitable, and in death, life. Finally, this booke containeth many excellent sermons, of the Apostles and others, as touching the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. The mercie of God. Of the grace, and remission of sinne through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortalitie. An exhortation to the ministers of Christs Rocke. Of repentance, and feare of God, with other principall points of our faith: so that this onely historie in a manner may be sufficient to instruct a man in all his doctrine and religion.

election of Matthias.

Whereby I have made the former hope, and teach.

Until the day, that hee was taken up, after that he had taught by holy Ghost, had givene counsailements unto the Apostles, whom he had chosen:

To whom also he presented himselfe as live after that he had suffered, by many infallible tokens, bringing some of them by the space of foure daies, and speaking of those things which appertaine to the kingdome of God.

And when he had gathered them together, he commanded them, that they should not depart from Ierusalem, but to waite for the promise of the Father, which, said he, ye have heard of me.

you into heaven, that I so come, as ye have seen him goe into heaven.

Then returned he, and blessed Ierusalem, from the name that is called Ierusalem, of Olives, which is nere to Ierusalem, containing a Sabbath daies journey.

And whether were come in, they went up into an upper chamber, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andronicus, and Phibes, and Thomas, and Clement, and Marcellus, and James the sonne of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of Iames.

These all continued with one accord in prayer, and supplication with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

And in those daies Peter stood up in the middes of the brethren, and (after) noting the number of names that were in one place, were about an hundred and threescore.

And when he had said these things, he said, Brethren, this scripture must needs have beene fulfilled, which the holy Ghost by the mouth of David saith before of Iudas, which was guide to them thatooke Iesus.

For he was numbered with us, and had his part in us, and in our labours, from the day that Iesus was baptized, and from the day that he began to preach, and from the day that he was taken up into heaven.

And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times, or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his owne power.
But ye shall receive power of the holy Ghost, when he shall come upon you, & ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Ierusalem, and in all Iudea, & in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; &
a cloud took him up out of their sight.
And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven, as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel.

Which also said, Men of Galilee, what saith ye of Iesus the Christ, which is taken up from you into heaven? Hee will come againe in like manner as ye have seen him goe into heaven.

And when they had said these things, they were taken up, and a cloud took them out of their sight.

And when they were alone, they stood in the midst of them, and said, Brethren, these words which ye have heard, say ye to all the brethren, that they should repent, and be baptized in the name of Iesus Christ, and receive the gift of the holy Ghost.

For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are far off, whom the Lord our God shall call in these daies.

And when they had givene charge unto them, they departed from Ierusalem, and came to Samaria, and preached the gospel in many cities, and brought forth many disciples.

together in Antioch, they chose Simeon
the Parvulus, and Lucius, and Manasses, and Simeon the Niger, and Diodes, and Trophimus, and Theophilus, and Timothy, and Titus, and Onesimus.

And when they had sent them, they returned to Ierusalem, and reported

CHAP. II.

- 1 The Apostles hauing received the holy Ghost, make their hearers astonished. 2 As Peter had stopped the mouthes of the mockers, hee vnto by the visible graces of the holy Spirit that Christ in come. 3 Hee baptiseth a great number that were conuered. 4 The godly exercise, charitie, and duety vertues of the faithfull.

AND when the day of Pentecost was come, they were all with one accorde in one place.

- 2 And suddenly there came a sound from heauen, as of a rushing & mightie winde, it filled all the house where they sat.
- 3 And there appeared vnto them clouen tongues, like fire, and it sat vpon eche of them.

4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and began to speake with other tongues, as the Spirit gaue them vitestance.

- 5 And there were dwelling at Ierusalem Iewes, men that feared God, of euery nation vnder heauen.

6 Now when this was noised, the multitude came together, and were astonished, because that euery man heard them speake his owne language.

- 7 And they wondered all, and marvelled, saying among themselves, Behold, are not all these which speake, of Galilee?

8 How then heare we euery man our owne language, wherein they were borne?

- 9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites;
and the inhabitants of Mesopotamia, and of Iudea, & of Cappadocia, of Pontus, and Asia,

10 And of Phrygia, and Pamphylia, of Egypt, & of the partes of Libya, which is beside Cyrene, & Strangers of Rome, and Iewes, and Proselytes.

- 11 And they were all with one accord, and were saying, How heare we euery man speake in our owne tongues the wonder-full workes of God?

12 They were all astonished, and dondred, saying one to another, What map this be?

- 13 And others mocked, and sayde, They are full of new wine.

14 ¶ But Peter standing with the eleuen, lift up his voyce, & saide vnto them, Ye men of Iudea, and ye all that inhabite Ierusalem, be this hearken vnto you, and hearken vnto my wordes.

- 15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, but it is but the thirde houre of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet, which their children did professe: I that is, such as were conuered to the Iewish religion, which were before painims and idolaters. k There is no worke of God so excellent, which the wicked scoffers doe not deride. Or seruens.

- the Prophet Joel,
- 17 And it shall bee in the last dayes, saith God, I will poure out of my Spirit vpon all flesh, and your sonnes, and your daughters shall propheticke, & your yong men shall see visions, and your olde men shall dreame dreames.

18 And on my seruantes, and on myne handmaidens I will poure out of my Spirit in those dayes, and they shall propheticke.

- 19 And I will shewe wonders in heauen aboue, and tokens in the earth beneath, blood, and fire, and the vapour of smoke.

20 ¶ The Sonne shall be turned into darkenes, and the Moone into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.

- 21 And it shall be, that whosoener shall call on the name of the Lord, shall be saued.

22 Ye men of Israel, heare these wordes, Jesus of Nazareth, a man appoynted of God among you with great workes, and wonders, and signes, which God did by him in the middes of you, as ye your selues also knowe:

- 23 Him, I say, haue ye taken by the hands of the wicked, being deliuered by the determinate counsel, and forknow-ledge of God, & haue crucified & slain:

24 Whome God hath raised vp, & loosed the sorowes of death, because it was impossible that he should be holden of it.

- 25 For Dauid saith concerning him, ¶ I beheld the Lord alwayes before me: for he is at my right hande, that I should not be shaken.

26 Therefore did mine heart reioyce, and my tongue was glad, and moreouer also my flesh shall rest in hope.

- 27 Because thou wilt not leaue my soule in graue, neither wilt suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

28 Thou hast setwed me the wayes of life, and hast made me full of ioy with thy countenance.

- 29 Men & brethren, I map boldly speake vnto you of the Patriarche Dauid, that he is both dead & buried, and his sepulchre remaineth vnto this day.

30 Therefore, being he was a Prophet, and knowing that God had sowne with an othe to him, that of the fruite of his loynes hee would raise vp Christ concerning the flesh to set him vpon his throne,

- 31 He knowing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soule should not be left in graue, neither his flesh should see corruption.

32 This Jesus hath God raised vp, whereof we all are witnesses.

Now Peter & John went by toge-houre of prayer.

which was their euening sacrifice, at which 3 Apostles were pre-sente to teach, that the shadowes of the Lawe were abolished by the lambe that tooke away the sinnes of the worlde.

And a certain man which was a cripple from his mothers wombe, was carried, whome they layde daily at the gate of the Temple called Beautiful, to aske almes of them that entered into the Temple.

Who seeing Peter and John, that they would enter into the Temple, desired to receive an almes.

And Peter earnestly beholding him with John, said, I take on vs.
And he gaue heed vnto them, trusting to receive some thing of them.

Then sayde Peter, Siluer and gold haue
I none, but such as I haue, that giue I thee: In the name of Iesus Christe of Nazareth, rise vp and walke.

And he tooke him by the right hand, and lift him vp, and immediatly his feet and anckles received strength.

And he leaped vp, stode, and walked,
and entered with them into the Temple,
walking and leaping, and praising God.

And all the people sawe him walke, and praising God.

And they knew him, & it was he which sate for the almes at the Beautiful gate of the Temple: and they were amazed, a loye almoner at that which was come vnto him.

¶ And as the cripple which was healed, held Peter and John, all the people ranne amazed vnto them in the porch which is called Solomonis.

So when Peter sawe it, he answered vnto the people, Ye men of Israel, why maruaile ye at this? or why looke ye so stebfastly on vs, as though by our owne e power, or godminesse, we had made this man goe?

The God of Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our Fathers hath glorified his Sonne Iesus, whome ye betrayed, and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had indged him to be deliuered.

But ye denied the holy one & the iust, and desired a murderer to be giuen you,
and killed the Lord of life, whome God had raised from the dead, wherof we are witnesses.

And his name hath made this man sound, whome ye see, and knowe, though saith in his name: and the faith which is by him, hath giuen to him this disposition of his whole body in the presence of you all.

And now brethren, I knowe & through ignorance ye did it, as did also your gouernours.

But those things which God before had shewed by his mouth of all his Prophets, that Christ should suffer, hee hath thus fulfilled.

And now knowe therefore, and turne, that your sinnes may be purged away, when the tyme of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.

before was preached vnto you.

CHAP. IIII.

3 Peter and Iohn deliuered out of prison, preach the Gospel boldly. 10 They confesse plainly the Name of Christ. 16 They are commanded to preach no more in that Name. 24 They pray for the good successe of the Gospel. 32 The mercies, graces, & charites of the Church.

1 Asd as they spake vnto the people, p Priests & the Captaine of the Temple, & the Sadducees came vpon the people, and preached in Iesus Name the resurrection from the dead.

2 And they laid handes on them, and put them in holde, vntill the next day: for it was now euertide.

3 Yowbeit, many of them which heard the worde, beleued, and the number of the men was about fife thousand.

4 And it came to passe on the morrowe, that their rulers, Elders, and Scribes were gathered together at Ierusalem,

5 And Annas the chiefe Priest, and Caiaphas, & Iohn, & Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the hie Priests.

6 And when they had set them before them they asked, Wp what power, or in what name haue ye done this?

7 Then Peter full of the holy Ghost, sayde vnto them, Rulers of the people, and Elders of Israel,

8 Forasmuch as we this day are examined of the good dedes done in the impotent man, to wite, by what meanes he is made whole,

9 Be it known vnto you al, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Iesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye haue crucified, whom God raised againe from the dead, whom hath don'ty this man stand here before you, whole.

10 This is he stone which was laid in the corner, which is become the head of the corner.

11 Neither is there saluation in any other,

for among men there is giuen none other name: vnder heauen, wherby we must be saved.

12 Nowe when they saw the boldnesse of Peter & Iohn, and understode that they were vnlearned men, & without knowledge, they marvelled, and knewe them, that they had bene with Iesus:

13 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had no thing to say against it.

14 Then they commanded them to goe aside out of the Councell, and conferred among themselves,

15 Saying, what shall we do to these men? for surely a manifest signe is done by them, & it is openli known to all them that dwell in Ierusalem: and we cannot denie it.

16 But that it be noised no farther among the people, let vs threaten & charge them, that they speake henceforth to no man in this name.

17 So they called them, and commanded, them, that in no wise they should speake or teach in the name of Iesus.

18 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto them, and sayde, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to obeye you rather then God, iudge ye.

19 For we can not but speake the things which we haue seene and heard.

20 So they threatened them, and let them go, & found nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for all men praised God for that which was done.

21 For the man was about fouentie yeres olde, on whome this miracle of healing was shewed.

22 Then as soon as they were let goe, they came to their fellows, and shewed all that the hie Priests and Elders had said vnto them.

23 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voices to God with one accord, and sayde, O Lord, thou art the God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them.

24 Which by the mouth of thy seruant Dauid hast sayde, * Why did the Gentiles rage, and the people imagine vaine thinges?

25 The Kings of the earth assembled, and rulers came together against the Lord, & against his Christ.

26 For I doubtles, against thine holy Sonne Iesus, whom thou hadst anointed, both Herode and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel gathered themselves together, 27 To do whatsoeuer thine hande, and thy council had determined before to be done.

28 And now, O Lord, behold their threatenings, and grant vnto thy seruantes with all boldnesse to speake thy word, 29 So that thou stretch forth thine hande, that healing, and signes, and wonders may be done by the name of thyne holy Sonne Iesus.

13 And the multitude of them that beleeued, were of one heart, and of one voice: neither any of them said, that any thing of which he possessed, was his owne, but they had all things common.
14 And with great power gaue the Apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was vpon them all.

CHAP. V.

5 The hypocrite of Ananias & Sapphira is punished
12 Miracles are done by the Apostles. 17 They are taken, but the Angel of God bringeth them out of prison. 29 Their bold confession before the Council. 34 The counsel of Gamaliel. 40 The Apostles are beat, and receive in trouble.

But a certaine man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession.

And he kept a way part of the price, his wife also being of counsell, & brought a certain part, & laid it downe at the Apostles feete.
Then sayde Peter, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart, that thou shouldst lie vnto the holy Ghost, and keepe away part of the price of the possession? Whyles it remaineth, & appertained it not vnto thee? and after it was sold, was it not in thine owne power? howe is it that thou hast concerned this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied vnto men, but vnto God.

Now when Ananias heard these words, he fell downe, & gaue vp the Ghost. Then great feare came on all them that heard these things.

And the young men rose vp, & toke him vp, and carried him out, and buried him.

And it came to passe about the space of three houres after, that his wife came in, ignorant of that which was done.

And Peter said vnto her, Tell me, soldest thou the land for so much? And she saide, Yea, for so much.

Then Peter said vnto her, Why haue we agreed together, to tempt the Spirit of God? when men doe any thing of an euill conscience, they do not onely pronounce the sentence of damnation vpon themselves, but also prouoke the wrath of God, because they do proue, as it were purposely, whether God be righteous and almightie, the Lord: behold, the fate of them which haue buried thine husband, are at the doore, and shall carry thee out.

Then he fell downe straightway at his feete, and passed by the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and carried her out, and buried her by her husband.

And great feare came on all the Church, and on as many as heard these things.

Thus by the hands of the apostles were many signes and wonders shewed among the people: and they were all with one accord in Solomons porch.

And of the other s buried no man ioyne himselfe to them: neuertheless the people magnified them.

Also the number of them that beleeued in the Lord, both of men & women, grew more and more.

In so much that they brought the sicke into the streets, and layde them on beds and couches, that at the least way the shadowe of Peter, when he came by, might shadowe some of them.

There came also a multitude out of the cities rounde about vnto Ierusalem, bringing sicke folke, and them which were vexed with vncleane spirits, who were all healed.

¶ Then the chiefe Priest rose vp, and all they that were with him (which was the sect of the Sadducees) and were full of indignation.

And layde hands on the Apostles, and put them in the common prison.

But the Angel of the Lord, by night opened the prison doores, and brought them forth, and said,

Goe your way, & stand in the Temple, and speake to the people all the wordes of this life.

So when they heard it, they entred into the Temple early in the morning, and taught. And the chiefe Priest came, and they that were with him, and them which the Council together, and all the Elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison, to cause them to be brought.

But when the officers came, & found them not in the prison, they returned & told it.

Saying, certainly we found the prison shut as sure as was possible, and the keepers standing without before the doores: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

¶ Then when the chiefe Priest, and the captain of the Temple, & the high priests heard these things, they doubted of them, whereunto this would growe.

¶ Then came one and shewed them, saying, Behold, the men that be put in prison, are standing in the Temple, & teach the people.

¶ Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should haue bene stoned.

¶ And when they had brought them, they set them before the Council, and the chiefe Priest asked them, g Because of their owne euill consciences which made them to tremble: for they were not assured of Gods mercies in Christ, were astonished at these his strange iudgements.

h That is, they gaue them great praise.

i Which then were the chiefe among them.

s This Theudas was about thirtie yeres before him, of whome Iosephus mentioneth, li. 20. de Antiq. chap. 4. that was after the death of Herode the great, when Archelaus his sonne was at Rome, at what time Iudæa was full of insurrection: so that it is not sure to give credit to Eusebius in this point.
t Of him maketh mention Iosephus, lib. 18. where he speaketh of the taxing, Luke 2. 1.
u He groundeth vpon good principles, but he douteth of the qualitie of the cause, neither dare affirme whether it be good or bad: wherein appeareth hee was but a worldling.

28 Saying, Did not twe straitly command you, that ye should not teache in this Name: and behold, ye haue filled Ierusalem with your doctrine, & ye would bring this mans blood vpon vs.
29 Then Peter and the Apostles answered, and saide, We ought rather to obey God then men.

30 The God of our Fathers hath raised by Iesus, whom ye slew, and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God lift vp with his right hand, to be a prince and a Saviour, to giue repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of finnes.

32 And we are his witnesses concerning these things, which we say: yea, and the holy Ghost, whome God hath giuen to them that obey him.

33 Now when they heard it, they bcast foz anger, and consulted to slay them.

34 Then stood there by in the Councell a certaine Pharise named Gamaliel, a doctour of the Lawe, honoured of all the people, and commanded to put the Apostles forth a litle space.

35 And saide vnto them, Men of Israel, take heed to your selues, what ye intend to do: touching these men.

36 For before these times, rose vp I Theudas boasting himselfe, to whome resorted a number of men, about a foure hundred, who was slaine: & they all which obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man, arose by Iudas of Galilee, in the dayes of the tribute, and drue away much people after him: he also perished, and all that obeyed him, were scattered abroad.

38 And now I say vnto you, reframe your selues from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsell or this worke be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot destroy it, lest ye be found ruen fighters against God.

40 And to him they agreed, and called the Apostles: & when they had beaten them, they commanded that they should not speake in the Name of Iesus, and let them goe.

41 So they departed from the Councell, reioycing, that they were counted worthy to suffer rebuke for his Name.

42 And daily in the Temple, & from house to house they ceased not to teache, and preach Iesus Christ.

3 Seven Deacons are ordeined in the Church, 8 The graces and miracles of Steven, v whom they accused falsely.

1 And in those dayes, as the number of the disciples grewe, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrewes, because their widowes were neglected in the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples together, and said, It is not expedient that we should leaue the worde of God to serue the tables.

3 Wherefore brethren, looke ye out among you seven men of honest report, and full of faith, & of wisdom, which we may appoint to this busines.

4 And we will giue our selues continually to prayer, and to the ministration of the worde.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Steven a man full of faith, & of the holy Ghost, and of wisdom, and of might, and of good report, and of great fauour among the people.

6 Which they set before the Apostles: and they prayed, and layde their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased, and the number of the disciples was multiplied greatly, and a great company of the Priestes were obedient to the faith.

8 Now Steven full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certaine of the Synagogs, which are called Libertines, Cyrenians, and of Alexandria, & of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, and disputed with the holy Ghost.

10 But they were not able to resist the wisdom, and the Spirit by the which he spake.

11 Then he I suborned men, which saide, We haue heard him speake blasphemous wordes against Moyses, and God.

12 Thus they moued the people, and the Elders, and the Scribes: and running faith vpon him, caught him, and brought him to the Council.

13 And set forth false witnesses, which had colleges at Ierusalem, which sayd, This man teacheth against the place, and the Lawe.

14 For we haue heard him say, that this Iesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the ordinances, which Moyses gaue vs.

15 And as all that sate in the Council, looked stedfastly on him, they sawe his face as it had bene the face of an Angel.

16 Then spake this in contempt. I haue confidence, but also great maiestie appearing in him.

2 And he said, Ye men, brethren and fathers, hearken. The God of our fathers appeared vnto our father Abraham, while he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,

Gen. 12. 1.

3 And said unto him, Come out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land, which I shall shew thee.

4 Then came hee out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran. And after that his father was deade, God brought him from thence into this land, wherein he now dwelt.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, nor the breadth of a foote: yet he promised that he woulde give it to him for a possession, and to his seede after him, when as yet he had no childre.

Gen. 15. 13.

6 But God spake thus, that his seede should be a sojourner in a strange land, & that they should keepe it in bondage, and entreate it euill foure hundredth yeres.

7 But the nation to whom they shal be in bondage, will I iudge, saith God: and after that, they shall come forth and serue me in this place.

8 He gaue him also the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begate Isaac, and Isaac begate Jacob, and Jacob the twelue Patriarkes.

9 And the Patriarkes moued with euill soules: Joseph was sold into Egypt: but God was with him.

10 And deliuered him out of all his afflictions, and gaue him fauour & wisdom in the sight of Pharaos king of Egypt, who made him gouernour ouer Egypt, and ouer his whole house.

11 Then came there a famine ouer all the lande of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, that our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when Jacob heard, that there was coine in Egypt, he sent our fathers first.

13 And at the seconde time, Joseph was knowne of his brethren, and Josephs kindred was made knowne vnto Pharaos.

14 Then sent Joseph and caused his father to be brought, and all his kindred, euen his threescore and fiftene soules.

15 So Jacob went downe into Egypt, and he died, and our fathers.

16 And were remoued into Sychem: and were put in the sepulchre, that Abraham had bought for money of the sonnes of Emor, sonne of Sychem.

17 But when the time the promise was nere, which God had sworne to Abraham, the people grewe and multiplied in Egypt.

18 Till another king arose, which knewe not Joseph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, & euill entreated our fathers, & made them to cast out their young children, that they should not remaine alive.

20 The same time was Moses borne, and was acceptable vnto God, which was nourished by in his fathers house thre moneths.

21 And when hee was cast out, Pharaos daughter took him by, and nourished him for her owne sonne.

22 And Moses was trained in all the wis-doms of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deedes.

23 Nowe when hee was full fourtie yeres olde, it came into his heart to visite his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And when hee sawe one of them suffer wrong, hee defended him, and auenged his quarrell that had the harme done to him, and smote the Egyptian.

25 For hee supposed his brethren woulde haue vnderstand, that God by his hande shoulde giue them deliuerance: but they vnderstood it not.

26 And the next day, he shewed himselfe vnto them as they strowe, & woulde haue set them at one againe, saying, Sirs, hee are brethren: why doe ye wounding one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a iudge ouer vs?

28 Wilt thou kill mee, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Thou hast sinned against man, and against God: was hee a stranger in the lande of Midian, Egypt, where hee begate two sonnes.

30 And when thou wast in Egypt, thou didst wrong thy fellowe: and hee was Christ the sonne of man, an Angel of the Lord in the flesh, who was with thee in the lande of Egypt.

31 And when thou wast in the lande of Egypt, thou didst wrong thy fellowe: and hee was Christ the sonne of man, an Angel of the Lord in the flesh, who was with thee in the lande of Egypt.

32 I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and hee was Christ the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold it.

33 Then the Lord saide to him, Vnto thee I shew myselfe from this time forth: for the place where thou standest, is holy ground.

34 I haue saide, I haue saide the affliction of my people, which is in Egypt, and I haue heard their groaning, and am come downe to deliuer them: and nowe come, and I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom thy sojourners sawe, saying, Who made thee a prince & a iudge? the same God sent for a prince, and a deliuerer by the hande of the Angel, which of the lawe and appeared to him in the bush.

36 Hee brought them out, beinge bound with fetters, into the land of Egypt, & Moses was the first to goe out, and in the wilderness angels or Christs minister, and a

19 Then they gaue a shoute with a loude voyce, and stayed their eares, and ran vpon him all at once, 20 And cast him out of the citie, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid downe their clothes at a yong mans fete, named Saul.
21 And they stoned Streuen, who called on God, and said, Ioye Iesus, receiue my spirit.

 a loude voyce, * Ioye, Ioye, Ioye, Ioye, Ioye and at that time, there was a great

4 Therefore they that were scattered which preached the thinges that concern-of Iesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

13 Then Simon himselfe beleneued also & was baptized, and continued with Phillip, & wondered, when hee saw the signes and great miracles which were done.
14 For when the Apostles, which were at Ierusalem, heard say, that Samaria manner of great importance.

17 Then layde they their hands on them, and they received the holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon sawe, that through laying on of the Apostles hands the holy Ghost was given, he offered them money,

19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay the hands, he may receive the holy Ghost.

20 Then layde Peter vnto him, Thy money perishe with thee, because thou thinkest that the gift of God may be obtained with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor fellowship in this businesse: for thine heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickednes, and pray God, that if it bee possible, the thought of thine heart may be forgiven
thee.

23 For I see that thou art in the gall of bitternes, and in the bond of iniquitie.

24 Then answered Simon, & said, What ye say to the Lord for me, & none of these things which ye have spoken, come vpon me.

25 So they, wher they had refused, & preached the worde of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem: and preached the Gospel in many towncs of the Samaritans.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord spake vnto Philippe, saying, Arise, and goe towarde the South vnto the way that goeth downe betwixt Ierusalem vnto Gaza, wher is a walle.

27 And he arose and went on: and behold, a certaine Eunuch of Ethiopia, Chabades the Gubene of the Ethiopians this his Soueraine, who had the rule of all her treasure, and came to Jerusalem to worship.

28 And as he returned sitting in his chare, here came Eutanas the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said vnto Philippe, Go neere & opene the scripture to ponder cha-res.

30 And Philippe ran thither, and heard him reade the Prophet Esaias, and saide, But vnderstandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he saide, How can I except I had a guide: And he desired Philippe, that he would come by and serue him.

32 Now the place of the scripture which he read, was this, He was ledde as a sheepe to the slaughter: and like a lambe domme before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth.

33 For in his humilitie his iudgement hath bene exalted: but who shall declare his generation: for his life is take from the earth.

34 Then the Eunuche answered Philippe, and said, I pray thee of whom speakest thou these things? of himselfe, or of some other man?

35 Then Philippe opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached vnto him.

ched vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water, and the Eu-nuch said, See, here is water: what doth lie me to be baptised?

37 And Philippe saide vnto him, If thou beliest with a thine heart, thou maist.
Then he answered, and saide, I beleue that Iesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 Then he commanded the charret to stand still: and they went downe both into the water, both Philippe and the Eunuche, and he baptised him.

39 And as soon as they were come by out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philippe, that the Eunuch saw him no more: so he went on his way reioicing.

40 But Philippe was founde at 7 Tro-tus, and he walked to and fro preaching in all the cities, til he came to Cesarea.

12 And he saw in a vision a man named Ananias, coming in to him, and putting his hands on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, howe much evil he hath done to thy Saints at Jerusalem.

14 Howeuer here he hath authoritie of the hie Priests, to bind at that calouthe name.

15 Then the Lord saide unto him, Go thy way; for he is a chosen vessel unto me; to breake my Name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I will shew him, howe many things he must suffer for my Names sake.

17 Then Ananias went his way, and entered into the house, and put his hands on him, and said, Brother Saul, the Lord hath sent me (even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest) that thou mightest receive thy sight; and be filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had bene scales, and suddenly he received sight, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And received meat and was strengthened. So was Saul certaine daies with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the Synagogues, that he was the Sonne of God.

21 So that all that heard him, were amazed, and said, Is not this he, that destroyed them which called on this Name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he should bring them bound unto the hee Priests?

22 But Saul increased in might, and confirmed the Jewes which dwelt at Damascus, confirming that this was the Christ.

23 And after that many daies were fulfilled, the Jewes took the counsell together, to kill him.

24 But their laying awaite was knownen of Saul: now therefore he watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he asayed to come in with the disciples; but they were in feare of him, and believed not that he was a Disciple.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, and brought him to the Disciples, and testified to them, how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken boldly at Damascus in the Name of Jesus.

28 And he was conversant with them at Jerusalem.

29 And after many daies, the Disciples were gathered together in Antioch, and called Barnabas and Saul by the Name of the Apostles.

30 But when the Disciples were increased in Antioch, the Church began to grow, and the number of the Disciples in Antioch was increased.

brought him to Cesarea, & sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest throughout all Judra, and Galile, and Samaria, & were edified, & walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the comfort of the holy Ghost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked throughout all quarters, hee came also to the Houses which dwelt at Lybba.

33 And there he founde a certaine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bedde eight yeres, and was sicke of the palse.

34 Then saide Peter unto him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make up thy bed, and he arose immediately.

35 And al that dwelt at Lybba, & Sharon, saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Joppa a certaine woman a disciple named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called Doctas) shee was full of good woikes and almes which shee did.

37 And it came to passe in those daies, that shee was sicke and died: and when they had washed her, they laid her in a chamber.

38 Now for as much as Lybba was neere to Joppa, & the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring that he would not delay to come unto them.

39 Then Peter arose and came with them; and when hee was come, they brought him into the upper chamber, where all the widowes stood by him weeping, and shewing the coates and garments, which Doctas made; while shee was living with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, & kneeled downe, and prayed, and turned him to the body, and said, Tabitha, arise. And shee opened her eyes, and when shee saw Peter, shee said, Lord, stand up.

41 Then he gaue her the hand and lift her up, and called the Saints and widowes, and presented her alive.

42 And it was knowne throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to passe, that hee sarped in many daies at Joppa with our Simon the Tanner.

1 Cornelius admonished by the Angel. 7 He sendeth to Petrus. 12 The vision that Peter saw. 17 How hee was sent to Cornelius. 22 The Gentiles also receive the Spirit, and are baptized.

1 Then there was at Cesarea a certaine man, called Cornelius, a Centurion of the band called the Italian band,

2 A devout man; and one that feared God with all his household, which gaue much almes to the people, and prayed God continually.

3 Hee was in a vision evidently (about the ninth houre of the day) an Angell of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius,

4 But when he looked on him, he was as

Then true obedience which proceedeth of faith, ought to be without doubt or questioning.

fraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine almes are come up into remembrance before God.

Nowe therfore sende men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter.

He lodged with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to doe.

And when the Angel which spake unto Cornelius, was departed, he called two of his seruantes, and a souldier that feared God, one of them y^e waited on him, and tolde them all things, and sent them to Joppa.

On the morowe as they went on their iourney, and byewe nere unto the citie, Peter went by vpon the house to praye, about the .ix. houre.

Then waxed he an hungred, and would haue eaten: but while they made some thing ready, he fell into a trance.

And he sawe heauen opened, and a certaine vessel come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheete, knit at the foure corners, & was let downe to the earth.

Wherein were all manner of foure footed beastes of the earth, & wilde beasts & creeping things, & foules of the heauen.

And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Peter: hill, and eat.

But Peter saide, Not so, Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is polluted, or vncleane.

And the voyce spake vnto him againe the seconde time, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

This was so done thise: and the vessel was drawen by againe into heauen.

Nowe while Peter doubted in himselfe what his vision which he had scene, meant, behold, the men which were sent fro Cornelius, had inquired for Simons house, and stood at the gate.

And called, and asked, whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

And while Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said vnto him, Beholde, thise men seke thee.

Arise therefore, and get thee downe, and goe with them, ands doubt nothing: for I haue sent thein.

Then Peter went downe to the men, which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and saide, Beholde, I am he whome ye seke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

And they said, Cornelius the capitaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Iewes, was warned from heauen by an holy Angel, to sende for thee into his house, and to heare thy words.

Then called hee them in, and lodged them the next day, Peter went forth with them, and certaine brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

And the day after, they entered into Caesarea. Nowe Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen, and speciall friends.

And it came to passe as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fell downe at his feet, and worshipped him.

But Peter tooke him by the hand, and said, Stand vp: for euen I myselfe am a man.

And as he talked with him, he came in, & found many that were come together.

And he said vnto them, Pe knowe that it is an vnlawfull thing for a man that is a Iewe, to companie wth come vnto one of another nation: but God hath shewed me, that I shoud not call any man polluted or vncleane.

Therefore came I vnto you without saying nay, when I was sent for. I alie therefore, for what intent haue ye sent for me?

Then Cornelius saide, Foure dayes agoe, about this houre, I fasted, and at the ninth houre I prayed in mine house, and beholde, a man stood before me in bright clothing,

And saide, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, & thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

Send therefore to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter (he is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the sea side) who together with me, shall speake vnto thee.

Then sent I for thee immediatly, and thou hast well done to come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to heare all things that are commanded thee of God.

Then Peter opened his mouth, & saide, Of a truth I perceiue, that God is no acceptor of persons.

But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

Pe knowe the woide which God hath sent to the children of Israel, preaching peace by Iesus Christ, which is Lords of all,

And were are witnesses of all things which hee did both in the lande of the Iewes, and in Jerusalem: whom they all knewe, hanging him on a tree.

But God raised vp the thirde day, and caused that hee was shewed openlie:

Not to all the people, but vnto the witnesses chosen before of God, euen to us which did eate and drinke with him, after hee arose from the dead.

And hee commanded vs to preach vnto the people, and to testifie, that it is hee, that is ordained of God a iudge of quicke and dead.

6. Toward which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw foure footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beastes, and creeping thinges, and foules of the heauen.

7. Also I heard a voyce, saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eate.

8. And I saide, God forbid, Lorde: for nothing polluted is vnto me which hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9. But the voyce answered me the seconde time from heauen, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

10. And this was done thre times, and all were taken by againe into heauen.

11. Then beholde, immediately there were thre men already come vnto the house where I was sent for by Cesaria vnto me.

12. And the Spirit saide vnto me, that I should go with them, without doubting: inso much these thre brethren came with me, and we entered into the mans house.

13. And he shewed vs, how he had seene an Angel in his house, which stood and said to him, Send men to Toppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter.

14. He shall speake wordes vnto thee, whereby both thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15. And as I beganne to speake, the holy Ghost fell on them, as euen as vpon vs at the beginning,

16. Then I remembered the wordes of the Lorde, how he said, John baptized with water, but he shall be baptized with the holy Ghost.

17. For as much then as God gave them a like gift, as he did vnto vs, when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could let God?

18. When they heard these thinges, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles graunted repentance vnto life.

19. And they which were scattered abroad because of the affliction that arose about Sennen, walked throughout till they came vnto Phenice and Cyprus, and Antiochia, preaching the wordes to no man, but vnto the Jewes onely.

20. Nowe some of them were euen of Cyprus & of Cyrene, which when they were come vnto Antiochia, spake vnto the Grecians, & preached the Lord Jesus.

21. And the handes of the Lorde was with them, so that a great number believed and turned vnto the Lord.

22. Then thinges of those things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Ierusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go vnto Antiochia.

23. When he was come and had seene the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted all, that with purpose of heart they should cleane vnto the Lord.

24. For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and faith, and much people loved him: so he went vnto the Lorde.

25. Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus to seke Saul:

26. And when he had found him, he brought him vnto Antiochia. & it came to passe, that a whole pece they were conueriant with the Church, and taught much people, in so much, that the disciples were first called Christians in Antiochia.

27. In those daies also came Diophetus from Ierusalem vnto Antiochia.

28. And there stood by one of them named Agabus, a seuered by the Spirit, that there should be great famine throughout all the world, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.

29. Then the disciples, every man according to his abilitie, purposed to send succour vnto the brethren which dwelt in Iudea.

30. Which thing they also did, and sent it by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Cap. 5. 19.

c Reade Mar. 6.

f For they thought that Herode would haue put him to death, as he had purposed.

g For they did know by Gods wordes, that Angeli were appointed to defend the faithful, and also in those dayes they were accustomed to see such sights,

And hee killed James the brother of John with the sword.
And when hee sawe that it pleased the Jewes, he proceeded further, to take Peter also (then were the dayes of vniuersitye by.)
And when he had caught him, he put him in prison, and deliuered him to foure quartenions of souldiers to be kept, intending after the Passouer to bring him forth to the people.
So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.
And when Herode would haue brought him out vnto the people, the same night slepe Peter betweene two souldiers bound with two chaines, and the keepers before the doore kept the prison.
And behold the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, & a light shined in the house, and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Rise quickly. And his chaines fell of from his hands.
And the Angell saide vnto him, Gird thy selfe, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. Then hee saide vnto him, Call thy garment about thee, and followe me.
So Peter came out and followed him, and knewe not that it was true, which was done by the Angell, but thought hee had scene a vision.
Now when they were past the first and the second watch, they came vnto the prison gate, that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by it owne accord, and they went out, and passed through one street, and by and by the Angell departed from him.
And when Peter was come to him selfe, he saide, Now I know for a trueness, that the Lord hath sent his Angell, and hath deliuered me out of the hand of Herode, and from all the waiting for of the people of the Jewes.
And as hee considered the thing, hee came to the house of Marie, the mother of John, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together, and prayed.
And when Peter knocked at the entrie doore, a maide came forth to hearken, named Rhode.
But when hee knewe Peters voyce, he opened not the entrie doore for gladnesse, but came in, and tolde how Peter stood before the entrie.
But they saide vnto her, Thou art madde. Yet she affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then saide they, It is his Angell.
But Peter continued knocking, & when they had opened it, and sawe him, they were astonied.
And he beckoned vnto them with the hand, to holde their peace, and told them howe the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he saide, See howe these things come vnto Iames and to the brethren; and hee departed and went into another place.

I shewe alson as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.
And when Herode had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commaunded them to be led to be punished. And hee went downe from Iudaea to Cesarea, and there abode.
Then Herode intended to make warre against them of Cyprus and Sidon, but they came all with one accorde vnto him, and perswaded Blaesus the Kinges chamberlaine, and they desired peace, because their countrey was nourished by the Kings lande.
And vpon a day appointed, Herod asayed himselfe in royal apperell, and sat on the iudgement seat, and made an oration vnto them.
And the people gaue a shout, saying, The voyce of God, and not of man.
But immediatly the Angel of the Lord smote him, because hee gaue not glorie vnto God so as he was eaten of worms, and gaue by the ghost.
And the wordes of God grewe, and multiplied.
So Barnabas and Saul returned from Ierusalem, when they had fulfilled their office, and tooke with them John, whose surname was Marke.
And they distributed the almes sent from Antiochia, Chap. 11. 29.

CHAP. XIII.

Paul and Barnabas are called to preach among of the Gentiles. 7 Of Sergius Paulus, and Elymas the sorcerer. 13 The departure of Marke. 14 Paul preaches at Antiochia. 43 The faith of the Gentiles. 46 The seruants released. 48 They that are ordered to life, beleeue. 52 The fruit of faith.

There were also in the Church that was at Antiochia, certaine Prophets and teachers, as Barnabas and Sumicon called Nigir, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manahem (which had bene brought vp with Herode the Tetrarch) and Saul.
Nowe as they ministered to the Lozde, and fasted, the holy Ghost saide, Separate me Barnabas & Saul, for the worke wherunto I haue called them.
Then fasted they, and prayed, and layde their hands on them, and let them goe.
And they, after they were sent forth of the holy Ghost, came downe vnto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.
And when they were at Salamis, they preached the wordes of God in the Synagogues of the Jewes: and they had also John to their minister.
So when they had gone throughout the yle vnto Paphos, they founde a certaine sorcerer, a false piophet, being Jewe, named Barisius.
Which was with the Deputy Bergine Paulus, a prudent man. He called vnto him Barnabas and Saul, and desired to heare the wordes of God.

name by interpretation) withstood them, and sought to turne away the Deputie from the faith.

9 Then Paul (which also is called Saul) being full of the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him.

10 And said, O full of all subtiltie & all mischief, the childe of the druil, and enemie of all rightousnesse, wilt thou not cease to pervert the straight wayes of the Lord?

11 Nowe therefore behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, & thou shalt be blinde, and not see the sunne for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness, and he went about, seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputie when he sawe what was done, beleived, and was astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Nowe when Paul and they that were with him were departed by shippe from Perga, they came to Antiochia a cite of Pamphylia: then John departed from them, and returned to Jerusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antiochia a cite of Syria, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and satte downe.

15 And after the lecture of the law & Prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye haue any worde of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up and bekened with the hand, and saide, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt in the lande of Egypt, and with an high arme brought them out thereof.

18 And about the time of fourtie yeres, suffered he their iniquities in the wilderness.

19 And hee destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, & deuoided their lande to them by lot.

20 Then afterwarde he gaue vnto them Iudges about foure hundred and fiftie yeres, vnto the time of Samuells the Prophet.

21 So after that, they desired a king, and God gaue vnto them Saul, the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of fourtie yeres.

22 And after he had taken him away, hee raised by David to bee their king, of whom hee witnessed, saying, I haue found David the sonne of Jesse, a man after mine owne heart, which wil do all things that I will.

23 Of this mans seede hath God according to his promises raised vp to Israel, the Saviour Jesus:

24 When John had first preached before his coming the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And when John had fulfilled his course, he said, Whome ye thinke that I am, I am not he: but behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoe of his fete I am not worthy to loose.

26 Ye men and brethren, children of the generation of Abrahams, and whosoever as among you feareth God, to you is it word of this saluation sent.

27 For the inhabitants at Jerusalem, and their rulers: because they knew him, not, nor yet the wordes of the Prophetes, which are reade euery Sabbath them for their day, they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they founde no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate to kill him.

29 And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they toke him downe from the tree, and put him in a sepulchre.

30 But God raised him up from the dead.

31 And he was seene many daies of them, which came by touch him from Galile to Jerusalem, which are his witnesses vnto the people.

32 And we declare vnto you, that touching the promises made vnto the fathers.

33 God hath fulfilled it vnto vs, their children, in that he raised by Jesus, even as it is written in the seconde Psalm, Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotten thee.

34 Nowe as concerning that hee raised him up from the dead, no moze to returne to the graue, he hath saide thus, I will gine you such holp things of Dauid, which are faithfull.

35 Wherefore hee saith also in another place, Thou wilt not suffer thine Holy one to see corruption.

36 Howbeit, Dauid after hee had serued his time by the counsell of God, he slept, and was laide with his fathers, and saw corruption.

37 But he whome God raised up, sawe no corruption.

38 Be it knowen vnto you therefore, men and brethren, that though this man is preached vnto you the forgimenes of sinnes.

39 And from all things, from which ye could not be iustified by the law of Moses, by him euery one that belieueth, is iustified.

40 Beloue therefore, least that come vpon you, which is spoken of in the Prophetes,

41 Beholde, pee despisers, and wonder, and vanish away: for I worke a worke in you, which ye shall thinke sharply, if a man would declare it.

42 And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Jewes, the Gentiles besought, that they would preach these wordes to them the next Sabbath day.

43 Nowe when the Congregation was dissolved, many of the Jewes, and Proselytes that feared God, followed Paul and Barnabas, which spake to them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

e Which are the doctrine of the Apostles, that onely leadeth vs to God.

a This was another Antiochia then that which was in Syria.

e This declareth the Scripture is given to teach & exhort vs, & that they refused none that had gifts to set forth Gods glory & to edifie his people.

45 But when the Jewes sawe the people, they were full of enuie, and spake against those things, which were spoke of Paul, contrarying them; and rasing on them.

46 Then Paul & Barnabas spake boldly, and said, "It was necessary for the woꝝ

iudge your selues unworthy of euertast-

47 For so hath the Lord commaunded vs, saying, "I haue made thee a light of the uation vnto the end of the world."

48 And when the Gentiles heard it, they were glad, and glorified the woꝝ of the Lord: and as many as were ordeined vnto eternal life beleued.

49 Thus the woꝝ of the Lord was published throughout the whole countrey.

50 But the Jewes stirred certaine deuout and honourable women, and the chiefe men of the cite, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coastes.

51 But theyooke off the dust of their feet against them, & came vnto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with ioy, and with the holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIII.

3 God giueth successe to his worde. 6 Paul and Barnabas preache at Iconium and are persecuted.

13 At Lystra they would do sacrifice to Barnabas and Paul, vvhich refuse it, and exhort the people to vvorship the true God. 19 Paul is stoned.

22 They confirme the disciples in faith and patience. 23 Appoint ministers. 26 And passing through many places, make report of their diligence at Antiochia.

1 And it came to passe in Iconium, that A they went both together into the Synagogue of the Jewes. And so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jewes and of the Grecians beleued.

2 But the vnbelieving Jewes stirred vp, & corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles against the brethren.

3 So these two abode there a long time, and spake boldly in the Lord, which gave testimonie vnto the woꝝ of his grace, and caused signes & wonders to be done
by their hands.

4 But the people of the cite were denied: and some were with the Jewes, and some with the Apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and of the Jewes with their rulers, to doe them violence, & to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and vnto the region round about.

7 And there were preaching the Gospel.

8 I Now there sat a certaine man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, which was a creeple from his mothers wombe, who had neuer walked.

9 He heard Paul speake: who beholding him, and perceiuing that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loude voyce, "Stand vp, right on thy feet. And he leaped vp, and walked."

12 Then when the people sawe what meas Paul had done, they lift vp their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in the likeness of men.

13 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter, and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chiefe speaker.

14 Then Jupiters Priest, which was before their cite, brought bulles with gar-lands vnto the gates, and would haue sacrificed with the people.

15 But when the Apostles, Barnabas & Paul heard it, they rent their clothes, and came in among the people, crying,

16 And saying, Men, why doe ye these things? We are euemen subiect to the like passions that ye be, and preach vnto you, that ye should turne fro these vaine doles vnto the living God, which made heauen & earth, and the sea, and all things that in them are.

17 Who in times past suffered all the Gentiles to walke in their owne waies.

18 Nevertheless, he left not himselfe without a witnesse, in that he did good and gane vs raine from heauen, and fruitful seasons, filling our heartes with food, and gladnesse.

19 And speaking these things, scarce restrained they the people, that they had not sacrificed vnto them.

20 Then there came certaine Jewes from Antiochia and Iconium, which when they had perswaded the people, stoned Paul, and drew him out of the cite, supposing he had bene dead.

21 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he arose vp, and came into the cite, & the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

22 And after they had preached to that ci-tie, and had taught many, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antiochia,

23 Consenting the disciples hearts, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, affirming that we must through many as-suctions enter into the kingdome of God.

24 And when they had ordeined them Elders by election in euery Church, and yauch, and fasted, they commended them to the Lord in whom they beleued.

25 Thus they went throughout Pisidia, and came to Pamphilia.

26 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they came downe to Attalia,

27 And thence sailed to Antiochia, from whence they had bene com-mended vnto the grace of God, to the woꝝke which they had fulfilled.

28 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they rehearsed all the things that God had done by them, and howe he had opened the doore of faith vnto the Gentiles.

Then came downe certaine from Iudea, and taught the brethren, saying, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye can not be saved.

2 And when there was great dissension, and disputation by Paul and Barnabas against them, they ordeined Paul and Barnabas, and certaine other of them should go vnto Jerusalem vnto the Apostles and Elders about this question.

3 Thus being sent forth by the Church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they brought great ioy vnto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were receiued of the Church, and of the Apostles, and Elders, and they declared what things God had done by them.

b Which were factious, and giuen to dissension

5 But sayde they, certaine of the sect of the Pharisees, which bid beleue, rose vp, saying, that it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keepe the Lawe of Moses.

11 But we beleue, through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved, euen as they doe.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and heard Barnabas and Paul, which tolde what signes & wonders God had done among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken vnto me.

14 Simeon hath declared, how God first did visite the Gentiles, to take of them a people vnto his Name.

15 And to this agree the wordes of the Prophets, as it is written,

16 After this, I will returne, and will builde againe the tabernacle of David, which is fallen downe, and the ruines thereof will I builde againe, and I will set it vp,

17 That the residue of men might seeke

after the Lord, and all the Gentiles vpon whome my Name is called, sayeth the Lord which doeth all these things.

18 From the beginning of the world God knoweth all his woyses.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God,

20 But that we write vnto them, that they abstaine them selues from filthinesse of idoles, and fornication, and that that is strangled, and from blood.

21 For I knowe of olde time hath in euery citie them that preach him, seeing he is read in the Synagogues euery Sabbath day.

22 Then it seemed good to the Apostles & Elders with the whole Church, to sende chosen men of their owne companie to Antiochia with Paul and Barnabas: to wit, Judas whose surname was Barsabas, and Silas, which were chiefe men among the brethren,

23 And wrote letters by them after this manner, THE APOSTLES, and the Elders, and the brethren, vnto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antiochia, and in Syria, and in Cilicia, sende greeting.

24 For as much as we haue heard, that certaine which departed from vs, haue troubled you with woyses, and combred your mindes, saying, Ye must be circumcised and keepe the Lawe: to whome we gaue no such commandement,

25 It seemed therefore good to vs, when we were come together with one accord, to sende chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men that haue giuen by their liues for the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We haue therefore sent Judas and Silas, which shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and to vs, to lay no more burden vpon you, then these necessary things.

29 That is, that ye abstaine from things offered to idoles, and blood, and that that is strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keepe your selues, ye shall doe well. Fare ye well.

30 Nowe when they were departed, they came to Antiochia, and after that they had assembled the multitude, they deliuered the epistle.

31 And when they had read it, they reioiced for the consolation.

32 And Judas & Silas being Prophets, exhorted the brethren with many wordes, and strengthened them.

33 And after they had taried there a space, they were let go in peace of the brethren vnto the Apostles.

34 Notwithstanding Silas thought good to abide there still.

circumstance of wordes.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antiochia, teaching and preaching with many other the word of the Lord.

36 ¶ But after certaine dayes, Paul saide vnto Barnabas, let vs retorne, and visite our brethren in euery cite, where we haue preached the worde of the Lord, and see howe they doe.

37 And Barnabas || counselled to take with them Iohn, called Mark.

38 But Paul thoughte it not mete to take him vnto their company, which departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the worke.

39 Then were they so stirred, that they departed asunder one from the other, so that Barnabas tooke Mark, and sailed vnto Cyprus.

40 And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended of the brethren vnto the grace of God.

41 And he went throug Syria and Cilicia, establishing the Churches.

CHAP. XVI.

1 ¶ When Paul had circumcised Timothy, he tooke him with him. 7 The spirit called them from one countrey to another. 14 Lydia is conuerred. 28 Paul and Silas imprisoned, conuert the taylor. 37 And are deliuered as Romanes.

1 ¶ Then came he to Drebe and to Lydia: and beholde, a certaine discipule was there, named * Timothy, a womanes sonne, which was a Jewesse and beleued, but his father was a Grecian.

2 Of whome the brethren which were at Lystra and Iconium, rejoyced well.

3 Therfore Paul woulde that he should go forth with him, & tooke and circumcised him, because of the Jewes, which were in those quarters: for they knewe all, that his father was a Grecian.

4 And as they went throug the cities, they deliuered them the decrees to keepe, ordained of the Apostles and Elders, which were at Ierusalem.

5 And so were the Churches stablished in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 ¶ Nowe when they had gone throug out Mysie, and the region of Galatia, they were * forbidden of the holp Spolite to preach the word in * Asia.

7 Then came they to Mysia, and sought to goe into Bithynia: but the Spirite || suffered them not.

8 Therfore they passed throug Mysia, and came downe to * Troas.

9 Where a vision appeared to Paul in the night. There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come into Macedonia, and helpe vs.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we prepared to go into Macedonia, being assured that the Lord had called vs to preach the Gospel vnto them.

11 Then went we forth from Troas, and with a strait course came to Samothracia, and the next day to * Neapolis,

12 ¶ And from thence to Philippi, which is the chiefe cite in the partes of Macedonia, and of whose inhabitants came from thence to dwell there, and we were in that cite abiding certaine dayes.

13 And on the Sabbath day, we went out of the cite, besides a river, where they were wont to * pray: & we sat downe, and spake vnto the women, which were come together.

14 And a certaine woman, named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the cite of * Thyras, which worshipped God, heard v: whose heart the Lord opened, & she attended vnto things which Paul spake.

15 And when she was baptised, and her housholde, she besought vs, saying, If ye haue iudged mee to be faithfull to the Lord, come into mine house, and abide there: and the constrained vs.

16 And it came to passe that as we went to prayer, a certaine maide heauing * a spirit of diuination, met vs, which gaue her masters much bantage with diuining.

17 She followed Paul and vs, and crept, & saying, These men are the seruantes of the most high God, which shew vnto vs the way of saluation.

18 And thus did she many daies: but Paul being grieved, turned about, and said to the spirit, I commaund thee in the name of Iesus Christ, that thou come out of her. And he came out the same houre.

19 Now when her masters sawe that the hope of their gain was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and dyde them into the market place vnto the Magistrates.

20 And brought them to the gouernours, saying, These men which are Jewes, trouble our cite,

21 And preach obdinances, which are not lawfull for vs to receiue, neither to obserue, seeing we are Romanes.

22 The people also rose vp together against them, and the Souerour sent them their clothes, and * commaunded them to be beaten with rods.

23 And when they had beaten them sore, they cast them into prison, commanding the taylor to keepe them surety.

24 Who hauing receiued such commaundement, cast them into the * inner prison, and made their sorte fast in the stocks.

25 Nowe at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sung a Psalm vnto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: & by and by all the doores opened, & euery mans doore was loosed.

27 Then the keeper of the prison waked out of his slepe, and when he sawe the prison doores open, hee dyde out his sword, and would haue killed himselfe, supposing the prisoners had bene fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thy selfe no harme: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and leaped in, and came trembling, and fell downe before Paul and Silas.

30 And brought them out, and said, My lords, what must I doe to be saved?

31 And they said, Belieue in the Lord Ie-

32 And they preached unto him the word of the Lorde, and to all that were in his house.

33 Afterwarde hee tooke them the same houre of the night, and washed their stripes, and was baptised with all that belonged vnto him straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and reioiced that he with all his household beleened in God.

35 And when it was day, the Countenours sent the sergeantes, saying, Let those men goe.

36 Then the keeper of the prison tolde these wordes vnto Paul, saying, The Countenours haue sent to loose you: now therefore get you hence, and goe in peace.

37 Then said Paul vnto them, After that they haue beaten vs openly vncoudeined, which are Romanes, they haue cast vs into prison, and now would they put vs out vnto the street: nay verily: but let them come and bing vs out.

38 And the sergeantes tolde these wordes vnto the Countenours, who feared when they heard that they were Romanes.

39 Then came they and prayed them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the cite.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Epida: and when they had sent the dyethen, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul cometh to Thessalonica, 4 Where some receiue him, and others persecute him. 11 To search the Scriptures. 17 He disputeth at Athens, and sheweth fruit of his doctrine.

1 NOWE as they passed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Jewes.

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in vnto them, and the Sabbath dayes disputed with them by the Scriptures,

3 Opening, and alledging that Christ must haue suffered, and risen againe from the dead: and this is Iesus Christ, whome, said he, I preach to you.

4 And some of them beleened, and ioynd in company with Paul and Silas: also of the Grecians that feared God a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a fewe.

5 But the Jewes which beleened not, moued with enuie, tooke vnto them certaine vagaboundes and wicked fellows, and when they had assembled the multitude, they made a tumult in the cite, & made assault against the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they found them not, they bewee Jason and certaine dyethen vnto the heads of the cite, saying, These are they which haue subuerted the state of the world, and here they are,

7 Whome Jason hath receined, and these all doe against the decrees of Celsar, saying that ther. is an other King, one Iesus.

8 Then they troubled the people, and the heads of the cite, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had receiued sufficient assurance of Jason and of the other, they let them goe.

10 And the dyethen immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither, entered into the Synagogue of the Jewes.

11 These were also more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which receined the word with all readines, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether these things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleened, and of honest women, which were Grecians, and men not a fewe.

13 But when the Jewes of Thessalonica knewe, that the word of God was also preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and moued the people.

14 But by and by the dyethen sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that did conduct Paul, brought him vnto Athens: and when they had receiued a commendement vnto Silas & Timotheus that they should come to him at once, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the cite subiect to idolatrie.

17 Therefore he disputed in the Synagogue with the Jewes, and with them that were religious, and in the market daily with whomsoever he met.

18 Then certaine Philosophers of the Epicures, and of the Stoikes, disputed with him, and some saide, What wilt this babler say? Others said, We heare him say newe doctrine, which he saith to be a letter sort of strange gods (because he preached vnto them Iesus, and the resurrection.)

19 And they tooke him, and brought him into Mars street, saying, May we not know what this newe doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certaine straunge things vnto our eares: we would know therefore, what these things mane.

21 For all the Athenians, and strangers which dwelt there, gaue them felicitie, which dwelt there, either to tell, or to heare newes.

22 Then Paul stood in the middes of Mars street, and saide, Men of Athens, I perceiue that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and behelde your deuotions, I founde an altar wherein was inscribed, vnto the vngod.

CHAP. XX.

Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia.
7. He celebrateth the Lords Supper, and preacheth.
9. At Troas he raysh up Eutychus. 17. At Ephesus he calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeth the keeping of Gods stocke unto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his prayer with them, and departed by ship towards Ierusalem.

Nowe after the tumult was ceased,
Paul called the disciples unto him,
and embraced them, and departed to goe into Macedonia.

And when he had gone through those parts, and had exhorted them with many wordes, he came into Grecia.

And hauing tarped there three moneths, because the Jewes laid wait for him, as he was about to saile into Syria, he pur-posed to retorne throug Macedonia.

And there accompanied him into Asia,
Sopater of Berea, & of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Scaus of Berbe, and Timotheus, and of them of Asia, Trochicus, & Trophimus.

These went before, and tarped vs at Troas.

And we sailed forth from Philippi, after the dayes of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in fure dayes, where we abode seven dayes.

And the first day of the weeke, the disciples being come together to breake bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morowe, and continued the preaching unto midnight.

And there were many lightes in an upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

And there sate in a windowe a certaine young man, named Eutychus, fallen into a deepe sleepe: and as Paul was long preaching, he overcome with sleepe, fell downe from the thirde loft, & was taken up dead.

But Paul went downe, & laid himselfe vpon him, & embraced him, saying, Trouble not your selues: for his life is in him.

So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, & eaten, hee communed a long while till the dawning of the day, and so he departed.

And they brought the body a line, and they were not a little comforted.

Then he went forth to ship, and sailed into the cite of Miletus, that wee might receiue Paul there: for so had hee appointed, and would himselfe goe a foote.

Nowe when he was come unto vs to Miletus, and wee had receiued him, wee came to Mithilene.

And wee sailed thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next day wee arrived at Samos, and tarped at Troglum: the next day wee came to Miletum.

For Paul had determined to saple by Ephesus, because hee would not spende the time in Asia: for hee hasted to be, if he could possible, at Ierusalem, at the day of Pentecoste.

Wherefore from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, and called the Elders of the Church.

Who when they were come to him, hee said unto them, Ye knowe from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I haue bene with you at all seasons,

36 And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled downe, and prayed with them all.

37 Then they wept all abundantly, and fell on Pauls necke, and kissed him.

38 Being chiefto say for the wordes which he spake, That they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him vnto the ship.

CHAP. XXI.

The common prayers of the faithful. 9 Philipps four daughters propheticall. 13 Pauls constancie to beare the crosse, as Agabus and others foretold, although he was otherwise comforted by the brethren. 28 The great danger that he was in, & howe he escaped.

1 As he departed from them, we came with a straight course vnto Coos, and the day following vnto the Rhodes, & from thence vnto Patara.

2 And we found a ship p went ouer vnto Phenice, and went aboide, and set forth.

3 And when he had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed to ward Syria, and arriued at Cyprus: for there the ship unladed the burden.

4 And when we had found disciples, we tarped there seuen dapes. And they tolde Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go vnto Ierusalem.

5 But when the dapes were ended, we departed, and went our way, and they all accompanied vs with their wives and children, euen out of the cite: and we kneeling downe on the shoie prayed.

6 Then when we had embraced one another, weooke ship, and they returned home.

7 And when we had ended the course from Cyprus, we arriued at Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, & abode with them one day.

8 And the next day, Paul & they that were with him, departed, and came vnto Cesarea: & we entered into p house of a certain Episcopos, which was one of the seuen Deacons, and abode with him.

9 Nowe he had four daughters virgins, which did prophesie.

10 And as we tarped there many dapes, there came a certaine Propheete from Iudea, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come vnto vs, he tooke Pauls girdel, & bound his owne handes and feet, and said, Thus saith the holy Ghost, So shall the Iewes at Ierusalem binde the man that oweth this girdel, and shall belure him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when he had heard these things, both we and other of the same place besought him that he would not goe vnto Ierusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, and said, What doe ye weeping & breaking mine heart? For I am ready not to be bound onely, but also to die at Ierusalem for the name of the Lord Iesus.

14 So when he would not be perswaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those dapes we trusted by our fardels, and went vnto Ierusalem.

16 There went with vs also certaine of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an olde disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Ierusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.

18 And the next day Paul went in with vs vnto f Ioues: and the Elders were there assembled.

19 And when he had embraced them, he told by order all things, & God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministration.

20 So when they heard it, they glorified

a By the reuelation of Gods spirit.

b The holy Spirit reueiled vnto them the persecutions that Paul should haue made against him, and the same Spirit also strengthened Paul to susteine them.

23 Doe therefore this that we say to thee.

beleue, we haue written, and determined, that they observe no such thing, but that they keepe themselves from things offred to idoles, and from blood, & from that that is strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul toke the men, and the next day was purified with them, and entred into the Temple, declaring the accomplishment of the dayes of the purification, until that an offering shoulde be offred for euery one of them.

27 And when the seven dayes were almost ended, the Jewes which were of Asia (when they sawe him in the Temple) moued all the people, and lapde hands on him.

28 Crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men curie where against the people, and the Lawe, & this place: moreover, he hath brought Grecians into the Temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 For they had leue before Trophimus an Ephesian with him in this citie, whome they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 Then all the citie was moued, and the people ranne together: and they toke Paul, and drew him out of the Temple, and forthwith the doores were shut.

31 But as they went about to kill him, ris-dings came vnto the chiefe Captaine of the band, that all Ierusalem was on an vpoake.

32 Who immediatly toke soldiers and Centurions, and ranne downe vnto them: and when they saw the chiefe captaine and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chiefe captaine came nere & toke him, and commaunded him to be bound with two chaines, and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And one cryed this, another that, among the people. So when he could not knowe the certaintie for the tumult, he commaunded him to be led into the castle.

35 And when he came vnto the greeces, it was so that he was borne of the soldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul shoulde haue bene led into the castle, he saide vnto the chiefe Captaine, May I speake vnto thee? Who saide, Canst thou speake Greeke?

38 Art not thou the * Egyptian, who before these dayes raised a sedition, and led out into the wilderness foure thousand men that were murderers?

39 Then Paul saide, Doubtlesse I am a man which am a Jewe, and citizen of
* Carius, a famous citie in Cilicia, and I beseeche thee, suffer me to speake vnto the people.

40 And when hee had ginen him licence,
Paul stood on the greeces, and beckened with the hande vnto the people: & when there was made great silence, hee spake vnto them in Hebrew tongue, saying,

CHAP. XXII.

Paul rebuketh an account of his life and doctrine.

25 Hee saith with the whippers by reason he was a citizen of Rome.

1 YE men, brethren and fathers, heare my defence nowe towards you.

2 And when they hearde that hee spoke in the Hebrew tongue to them,
they kept the more silence, and he saide,

3 I am verely a Iew, which am a Jewe borne in * Tarsus in Cilicia; but bought by this citie at the hande of Gamaliel, and instructed according to the perfect manner of the Lawe of the fathers, and was zealous towards God, as ye all are this day.

4 And I persecuted this way vnto the death, binding and deliuering into prison both men and women;

5 As also the chiefe Priests dothe beare me witness, and all the state of the Elders:
of whom also I receiued letters vnto the brethren, and went to Damascus to brynge them which were there, bound vnto
Ierusalem, that they might be punished.

6 And so it was, as I journeyed and was come nere vnto Damascus about noone, that suddenly there shone from heauen a great light rounde about me.

7 So I fell vnto the earth, and hearde a voyce, saying vnto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 Then I answered, Who art thou, Lord?
And he saide to me, I am Iesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 Moreover they that were with me, saw indeede a light and were afraide: but they hearde not the voyce of him that spoke vnto me.

10 Then I saide, What shall I doe, Lord?
And the Lord said vnto me, Arise, and goe into Damascus: and there it shall be tolde thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to doe.

11 So when I could not see for the glorie of this light, I was led by the hand of them which were with me, & came into Damascus.

- 21 And one Ananias, a godly man, as pertaining to the Lawe, having good report of all the Jewes which dwelt there.
- 22 Came vnto me, and stood, and saide vnto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight: and that same houre I looked vpon him.
- 23 And he saide, the God of our fathers hath appointed thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and shouldest see that Iust one, and shouldest heare the voyce of his mouth.
- 24 For thou shalt bee his witness vnto all men of the things, which thou hast seene and heard.
- 25 Now therefore why tarrest thou? Arise, & be baptized, & wash away thy sinnes, in calling on the Name of the Lord.
- 26 And it came to passe, that when I was come againe to Ierusalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance,
- 27 And saue him saying vnto me, Make haste, and get thee quickelp out of Ierusalem: for they will not receiue thy witness concerning me.
- 28 Then I saide, Lords, they know that I am pruned, and bear in euery Synagogue them that beleue in thee.
- 29 And when the blood of thy martyrs Steuen was shed, I also stood by, and consented vnto his death, and kept the clothes of them that slew him.
- 30 Then he said vnto me, Depart: for I will send thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.
- 31 And they heard him vnto this word, but then they lift vp their voyces, & saide, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not meete that he should liue.
- 32 And as they cryed and cast off their clothes, and theye dust vnto the aire,
- 33 The chiefe captaine commaunded him to be led into the Caste, and bade that he should be scourged, & examined, that he might knowe wherefore they cryed so on him.
- 34 And as they bounde him with thongs, Paul said vnto the Centurion that stood by, Is it lawfull for you to scourge one that is a Roman, and not condemned?
- 35 Now when the Centurion heard it, he went, and tolde the chiefe captaine, saying, Take heede what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.
- 36 Then the chiefe captaine came, & saide to him, Tell me, Art thou a Roman?
- 37 And he said, Yea.
- 38 And the chiefe captaine answered, With a great summe obtained I this burghership. Then Paul saide, But I was so borne.
- 39 Then straightway they departed from him, which would haue examined him: and the chiefe captaine was also afraid, after he knewe that he was a Roman, and that he had bound him.
- 40 On the next day, because he would haue knowen the certaintie wherefore he was accused of the Jewes, he looked him from his bondes, and commaunded the hie Priestes and all their Counsell to come together: and he brought Paul, and set him before them.

The answers of Paul being smit, & the overthrow of his enemies. 1. The Lord encourage him. 2. And because the Lawyers layd waste for him, he sent to Cesarea.

- 1 And Paul behelde earnestly the Countsell, and saide, Men and brethren, I haue in all good conscience feared God vntill this day.
- 2 Then the hie Priest Ananias commaunded them that stood by, to smite him on the mouth.
- 3 Then saide Paul to him, God will smite thee, thou whited wal: for thou strest to iudge me according to the Lawe, and commaundest thou me to be smitten contrary to the Lawe?
- 4 And they that stood by, saide, Standest thou Gods hie Priest?
- 5 Then said Paul, I knowe not, brethren, that he was the hie Priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speake euill of the Ruler of thy people.
- 6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were of the Sadduces, & the other of the Pharises, he cried in the Countsell, Men and brethren, I am a Pharise, the sonne of a Pharise: I am accused of the hope and resurrection of the dead.
- 7 And when he had saide this, there was a dissention betwene the Pharises and the Sadduces, so that tumult was deuised.
- 8 For the Sadduces say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel, nor spirit: but the Pharises confesse both.
- 9 Then there was a great cry: and the Scribes of the Pharises part rose vp, & stroue, saying, We finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.
- 10 And when there was a great dissention, the chiefe captaine, fearing lest Paul should haue bene pulled in pieces of the, commaunded the souldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the Caste.
- 11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and saide, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Ierusalem, so must thou beare witness also at Rome.
- 12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Jewes made an assemblie, and bound themselves with an oath, saying, that they would neither eat nor drinke, had till they killed Paul.
- 13 And they were more then fouerty, which had made this conspiracy.
- 14 And they came to the chiefe Priestes & Elders, and saide, We haue bounde our selues with a solemn oath, that we will eate nothing, until we haue slaine Paul.
- 15 Now therefore, ye and the Countsell sigenise to the chiefe captaine, that he bring him forth vnto you to morrowe, as though ye would knowe some thing vnto perfecting of him, and we, or euery one of us, will be ready to kill him.
- 16 But when Pauls sisters sonne hearde, but he hath infinite meanes to defeat their wicked practises.

a Paul doth not curse the hie Priest, but denounceth sharply the punishment of God which should light vpon him, who vnder pretence of maintaining the Lawe, doeth transgresse it.
 b He made this excuse as it were in mockerie, as if he would say, I know nothing in this man worthy the office of the hie Priest.

 g The word signifieth cursing, as when a man either sweareth, voweth or wisheth himselfe to die, or to be giuen to the deuill, except he bring his purpose to passe.
 h This declareth that God hath so many meanes to deliuer his children out of oldages, as there are creatures in the world, so that the aduersaries cannot conspire so craftily against the, or of their laping a wait, he went, & entered into the castle, and tolde Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions unto him, and saide, Being this pong man unto the chiefe captaine: for he hath a certaine thing to shewe him.

18 So he tooke him, and brought him to the chiefe captaine, and saide, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this pong man unto thee, which hath some thing to say unto thee.

19 Then the chiefe captaineooke him by the haunde, and went apart with him as lone, and asked him, What hast thou to shewe me?

20 And he saide, The Jewes have conspired to desire thee. & thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morow into the Counsell, as though they would inquire somwhat of him more perfectly.

21 But let them not perswade thee: for there lie in waite for him of them more then fourtie men, which haue bounde themselves with an othe, that they will neither eate nor drinke, till they haue killed him: and nowe are they ready, and wait for thy promise.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the pong man depart, and charged him to speake it to no man, that hee had shewed him these things.

23 And hee called unto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers, that they may goe to Cesarea, and horsemen fiftie, and ten, and two hundred with darters, at the third houre of the night,

24 And let them make ready an horse that Paul being let on, may bee brought safe unto Felix the Gouernour.

25 And he wrote an epistoll in this maner: Claudius Epilas, unto the most noble Gouernour Felix sendeth greeting.

26 As this man was taken of the Jewes, and shoulde haue bene killed of them, I came upon them with the garison, and rescued him, perceiving that he was a Roman.

27 And when I woulde haue knowne the cause, wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their counsell.

28 There I perceived that he was accused of questions of their lawe, but had no crime worthy of death, or of bondes.

29 And when it was shewed me, how that the Jewes laide wait for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, and commaunded his accusers to speake before thee the things that they had against him. Farewell.

30 Then the soldiers as it was commaunded them, tooke Paul, and brought him by night to Nitripatria.

31 And the next day, they left the horsemen to goe with him, and returned unto the castle.

32 Now when they came to Cesarea, they delivered the epistle to the Gouernour, and presented Paul also unto him.

33 So when the Gouernour had read it, hee asked of him: whence he was: and when he understood that he was of Cilicia,

34 I will heare thee, sayd hee, when thine accusers also are come, and commaunded him to bee kept in Herodes iudgement hall.

CHAP. XXIIII.

10 Paul being accused, answereth for his life and doctrine against his accusers. 25 Felix greiveth him, thinking to have a bribe, 28 And after leaueth him in prison.

NOWE after five dayes, Ananias the prie came downe with Felix the Gouernour, which appeared before the Gouernour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that wee haue obtained great quietnesse through thee, and many things which raised vp are done unto this nation through thy providence,

3 We acknowledge it wholly, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thanks, him otherwise

4 But that I be not tedious unto thee, I have both craved thee, that thou wouldest heare vs of thy courteis a fewe wordes.

5 Certainly we haue founde this man a pestilent fellow, and a mouer of sedition among all the Jewes throughout the world, and a chiefe maintainer of the sect of the Nazarenes.

6 And hath gane about to pollute the temple, therefore we tooke him, & would haue iudged him according to our lawe:

7 But the chiefe captaine Epilas came vpon vs, and with great violence tooke him out of our hands.

8 Commaunding his accusers to come to thee: of whom thou wilt inquire: know all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jewes likewise affirmed, saying that it was so.

10 Then Paul, after that the Gouernour had beckened unto him that hee shoulde speake, answered, I doe thee most gladly answer for my selfe, for as much as I demne it, know that thou hast bene of many peres a iudge vnto this nation,

11 Seeing that thou mayest knowe, that there are but twelue dayes since I came hither to worship in Jerusalem,

¶ This letter was written partly in the favour of Paul, that his adheraries might not oppresse him. The captaine dissembled to commend his owne diligence: for he did not know that Paul was a Roman before he had rescued him, and given him to be lawfully examined.

¶ By this name the Romanes called every countrey which they had subdued.

24 Then he commanded a Centurion to keepe Paul, and that he should haue ease, and that he should forbeare none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

25 And after certaine daies, came Festus with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewesse, and he called forth Paul, and heard him of the faith in Christ.

26 And as hee disputed of righteousness, and temperance, and of the iudgement to come, Felix trembled, and answered, So thy way for this time, and when I haue convenient time, I will call for thee.

CHAP. XXV.

29 The Jewes accuse Paul before Festus. He answereth for himselfe, 11 And appealeth vnto the Emperour, 14 His matter is rehearsed before Agrippa, 23 And he is brought forth.

1 When Festus was then come into the piousness, after three daies he went vnto Cesarea vnto Ierusalem.

2 Then the hie Priest, and the chiefe of the Jewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besought him,

3 And desired fauour against him, that he would send for him to Ierusalem: and they laid waite to kill him by the way.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that hee himselfe would shortly depart thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, come downe with vs: and if there be any wickednesse in the man, let them accuse him.

6 Now when he had taried among them no more then ten daies, hee went downe to Cesarea, and the next day sat in the iudgement seate, and commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when hee was come, the Jewes which were come from Ierusalem, stood about him, and laid many and grieuous complaints against Paul, which they could not proue.

8 For as much as he answered, *that hee had neither offended any thing against the lawe of the Jewes, neither against the Temple, nor against Cesar.

9 Yet Festus willing to get fauour of the Jewes, answered Paul: and saide, Wilt thou goe vnto Ierusalem, and there be iudged of these things before me?

10 Then saide Paul, I stand at Cesars iudgement seat, where I ought to be: indged: to the Jewes I haue done no wrong, as thou verie well knowest.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things, whereof they accuse me, no man can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

12 Then when the Jewes had spoken to the Council, he answered, That thou appealest vnto Cesar: vnto Cesar shalt thou goe.

13 And after certaine daies king Agrippa and Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had remained there many daies, Festus proposed Pauls cause vnto the king, saying There is a certaine man left in prison by Felix.

15 Of whom when I came to Ierusalem, the hie Priests and Elders of the Jewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

16 To whom I answered, that it is not the manner of the Romanes to giue fauour to deliuer any man to death, before that he which is accused, haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend himselfe, concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay the day following I sat on the iudgement seate, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood vp, they brought no crime of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certaine questions against him of their owne superstition, & of one Jesus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be aline.

20 And because I doubted of such manner of question, I asked him whether he would goe to Ierusalem, and there be iudged of these things.

21 But because hee appealed to be referred to the examination of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept, till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa saide vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my selfe. To morrow, said he, thou shalt heare him.

15 Yet haue I founde nothing worthy of death, that he hath committed: neuertheless, seeing that he hath appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to send him.

CHAP. XXVI.

The innocencie of Paul is appoyed by rehearsing his conversion. 25 His modest answer against the insurre of Festus.

1 Then Agrippa saide vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. So Paul stretched forth the haire, and answered for himselfe.

2 I thinke my selfe happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer this day before thee of all the things whereof I am accused of the Jewes:

3 Christ, because thou hast knowledge of all customes, and questions which are among the Jewes: wherefoze, I beseech thee, to heare my pacientlie.

4 As touching my life from my childhood, and what it was from the beginning among mine owne nation at Ierusalem, know all the Jewes,

6 And now I stande and am accused for the hope of the pomyes made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Wherevnto our twelue tribes instantlie seruing God day and night, hope to come: for the which hopes sake, O king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jewes.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God should raise againe the dead?

9 I also verely thought in my selfe, that I ought to do many contrary things against the name of Iesus of Nazaret.

10 Which thing I also did in Ierusalem: for many of the Saintes I shut vp in prison, hauing receiued authoritie of the high Priestes, and when they were put to death, I gave my sentence.

11 And I punished them throughout all the Synagogues, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being more madde against them, I persecuted them, euen vnto strange cities.

12 At which time, euen as I went to Damascus with authoritie, and commission from the high Priests,

13 At midday, O king, I saue in the way a light from heauen, falling the bright-nesse of the sunne, shine round about me, and then which went with me.

14 So when we were all fallen to p earth, I heard a voyce speaking vnto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, * Paul, Chap. 9. 4. Paul, why persecutest thou mee? It is now and 22. 7. harde for thee to kicke against piches.

15 Then I said, Who art thou, lord? And he saide, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stand vp on thy feet: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoint thee a minister and a witnesse, both of the things which thou hast seene, and of the things in the which I will appeare vnto thee,

17 Delivering thee from the d people, and d Of the Jewes, from the Gentiles, vnto whome now I send thee,

18 To open their eyes, that they may see the light from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiveness of sinnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by faith in me.

19 Wherefoze, king Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heavenly vision, 20 But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Ierusalem, and through out all the coastes of Iudea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and turne to God, and doe good works: that they might amende their life.

21 For this cause the Jewes caught me in the Temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Nevertheless, I obtained help of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessing both to small and to great, saying none other things, then those which the Prophets and Moses did say should come.

23 To wit, that Christ should suffer: that he should bee the first that should rise from the dead, and should shewe light vnto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as hee thus answered for himselfe, felus saide with a loud voyce, Paul, thou art besides thy selfe: much learning doeth make thee mad.

25 But hee saide, I am not mad, O noble felus, but I speake p wordes of truely and sobernesse.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whome also I speake boldly: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hid from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 O king Agrippa, beleuest thou the Prophets? I know that thou beleuest.

28 Then Agrippa saide vnto Paul, Almost thou perswadest me to become a Christian.

29 Then Paul said, I would to God, that not onlie thou, but also all that heare me to day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when hee had thus spoken, the king rose vp, and the gouernour, & Bernice, and they that sat with them.

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betwene themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death.

i Flatterers first vied to call Tyrannus by this name, and after it so grewed in vnto vnto the veremous Princes refused it not, as appeareth by Plinies epistles to Traiane.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous voyage and his companie toward Rome. 44 How and where they arrive.

- 1 NOWE when it was concluded, that we should sail into Italie, they desired both Paul, and certaine others prisoners vnto a Centurion named Julius of the band of Augustus.

2 And we entered into a shipp of Adria-nippitum, purposing to sail by the coastes of Asia, and launched forth, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, with vs.

- 3 And the next day we arrived at Sidon: And Julius countenail treated Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friends, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence we launched, and sailed hard by a Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

- 5 Then sailed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lycia.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria, sailing into Italie, and put vs therein.

- 7 And when wee had sailed slowly many dayes, and scarce were come against Sidonim, because the winde suffered vs not, we sailed hard by Candie, nere to Salomone,

8 And with much adoe sailed beponde it, and came vnto a certaine place called the Faire haues, nere vnto the which was the citie Lasca.

- 9 So when much time was spent, and sailing was nowe irapardous, because also the fast was nowe passed, Paul exhorted them,

10 And saide vnto them, Oys, I see that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not of the lading and ship onely, but also of our liues.

- 11 Wherethelesse the Centurion beleued rather the gouernour and the master of the ship, then those things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the haue was not com-mo-dious to winter in, many tooke counsell to depart thence, if by any means they might attaine to Venice, there to winter, which is an haue of Candie, and lieth toward the South-west and by West, and South-west and by West.

- 13 And when the Southerne winde blew fast, they supposing to obtaine their purpose, loosed nether, & sailed by Candie.

14 But anon after, there arose by it a stormie winde called Euroclydon.

- 15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the winde, we let her goe, and were carried away.

16 And we raine under a little Ile named Claudia, and had much adoe to get the boat.

- 17 Which they tooke vp and vsed all helpe, undergirding the ship, fearing lest they should haue fallen into Syrtis, and they let downe the vessel, and so were carried.

- 18 The next day when we were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they lighted the fire.

19 And the thirde day were cast out with our owne hands the tackling of the ship.

- 20 And when neither sunne nor starres in many dayes appeared, & no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that we should be saued, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the middes of them, and saide, Oys, ye should haue hearkened to mee, & not haue loosed from Candie: so should ye haue gained this hurt and losse.

- 22 But nowe I exhort pou to be of good courage: for there shall be no losse of any mans life among pou, save of the ship onely.

23 For these stood by mee this night the Angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serue.

- 24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou must bee brought before Cesar: and loe, God hath giuen vnto thee all that saile with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good courage: for I beleue God, that it shall bee so as it hath bene tolde me.

- 26 Howbeit, ye must be cast into a cer-taine Island.

27 And when the fourteenth night was come, as wee were carried to and fro in the Adriaticall sea about midnight, the shipmen deemed that some countrey approached vnto them,

- 28 And sounded, and found it twentie fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded againe, and founde fiftene fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest they should haue fallen into some rough places, they cast the foure anchors out of the sterne, & wished that the day were come.

- 30 Nowe as the mariners were about to flee out of the ship, and had let downe the boate into the sea vnder a colour as though they would haue cast anchors out of the foreship, 31 Paul said vnto the Centurion, and the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, we cannot be safe.

- 32 Then the foundries cut off the ropes of the boate, and let it fall away.

33 And when it began to be day, Paul exhorted them all to take meate, saying, He meeneeth this to the fourteenth day that ye haue fasted, and continued fasting, recei-ving nothing.

- 34 Wherefore I exhort pou to take meate: for this is for pou safe-garde: for there shall not a haire fall from the head of any of pou.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he tooke bread, and gaue thanks to God, in presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eat.

- 36 Then were they all of good courage, and they also tooke meate.

37 Nowe we were in the ship in all two hundred.

39 And when it was day, they knewe not the countrie, but they spied a certaine creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust into the ship.

40 So when they had take up the anchors, they committed the ship unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bandes, and hoped by the maine sake to the lunde, and byew to the shore.

41 And when they fell into a place, where two seas met, they thrust in the ship: and the fore parte broke fast, and could not be mooued, but the hinder parte was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 Then the souldiers counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them, when hee had swumme out, should see also.

3 Paul wish his companie are gently treated of the Barbarous people. 5 The viper hurteth him not.

7 Hee healeth Publius father and others, & being furnished by them of things necessarie, he saied toward Rome, 15 Where being received of the brethren, hee declareth his business, 30 And there preacheth many years.

1 And when they were come safe, then they knewe that the Ile was called Malta.

2 And the Barbarians shewed vs no little kindeesse: for they kindled a fire, and received vs euery one, because of the present shoure, and because of the colde.

3 And when Paul had gathered a number of stickes, and laide them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heate, and leyt on his hand.

4 Nowe when the Barbarians sawe the woyme hang on his hande, they saide among themselves, This man surely is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance hath not suffered to reue.

5 But hee shook off the woyme into the fire, and felt no harme.

6 Nowe by they waited when hee shoulde haue swollen, or fallen downe deade suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and sawe no inconuenience come to him, they changed their mindes, and said, That he was a God.

7 In the same maner, the chiefe man of the Ile (whose name was Publius) had possession of the same receiued vs, 3 lodged by these daies contrecously.

8 And so it was, that the father of Publius lay sicke of the feuer, and of a bloudy flux: to whome Paul entred in, and when hee prayed, hee laide his hands on him, and healed him.

9 When then this was done, other also in the ple, which had diseases, came to him and were healed.

10 Which also did vs great honour: and when we departed, they labored vs with things necessarie.

11 3 Nowe after thre moneths we departed in a shippe of Alexandria, which had wintered in the ple, whose hadge was a Castor and Pollux.

12 And when we arrived at Syracuse, we tarried there thre daies.

13 And from thence we fet a compass, and came to Megium: and after one day, the fourth winde blew, and we came the second day to Portholi.

14 Where we founde brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven daies, & so we went toward Rome.

15 5 And from thence, when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meete vs at the Market of Appius, and at the Thier Tanernes, whome when Paul sawe, hee thanked God, and waied bolde.

16 So when we came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the prisoners to the generall Captaine: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himselfe with a souldier that kept him.

17 And the thirde day after, Paul called the chiefe of the Jewes together: and when they were come, hee said unto them, Men and brethren, though I haue committed nothing against the people, or lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner from Ierusalem into the hands of the Romanes.

18 Who whif they had examined me, would haue let me goe, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jewes spake contrarie, I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar, not because I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore haue I called for you, to see, you, and to speake with you: for the hope of Israel sake, I am bound with this chaine.

21 Then they saide vnto him, We neither receiued letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither came any of the brethren that shewed vs of spake any euill of thee.

22 But we will heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we knowe that euery where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many vnto him into his lodging, to whome hee recounted and testified the kingdom of God, and preached vnto them concerning Iesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the Prophets, from morning to night.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romanes.

THE ARGUMENT.

The great mercie of God is declared toward man in Chriſt Ieſus, whoſe righteouſneſſe is made ours through faith. For when man by reaſon of his owne corruption could not fulfil the Law, yea, committed moſt abominably, both againſt the Law of God and nature, the infinite bountie of God, mindfull of his promiſſe made to his ſervant Abraham, the father of all beleeuers, ordeined that mans ſaluation ſhould only ſtand in the perfect obedience of his Sonne Ieſus Chriſt: ſo that not onely the circumciſed Jewes, but alſo the vncircumciſed Gentiles ſhould be ſaued by faith in himſeuen as Abraham before he was circumciſed, was counted juſt onely through faith, & yet afterward receiued circumciſion, as a ſeale or badge of the ſame righteouſneſſe by faith. And to the intent, that none ſhoulde thinke that the covenant which God made to him, and his poſteritie was not performed: either becauſe the Jewes receiued not Chriſt, (which was the bleſſed ſeede) or elſe beleeued not that he was the true redeemer, becauſe he did not only, or at leaſt more notably preſerue the Jewes, the examples of Iſmael and Eſau declare, that all are not Abrahams poſteritie, which come of Abraham according to the fleſh: but alſo the very ſtrangers & Gentiles grafted in by faith, are made heires of the promiſe. The cauſe whereof is the onely will of God: forasmuch as of his free mercie he electeth ſome to be ſaued, & of his juſt iudgement reiecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the teſtimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Jewes ſhould not be too much beaten downe, nor the Gentiles too much puff'd up, the example of Elias prometh, that God hath yet his elect euen of the naturall poſteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not ſo to mans eye: and for that preſerment that the Gentiles haue, it proceedeth of the liberal mercie of God, which he at length will ſtretch toward the Jewes againe, & ſo gather the whole Iſrael (which is his Church) of them both. This ground worke of faith and doctrine laid, inſtrudions of Chriſtian maners ſollowe: teaching every man to walke in roundneſſe of conſcience in his vocation, with all patience and humbleneſſe, reuerencing and obeying the magiſtrate, exerciſing charitie, putting of the olde man, and putting on Chriſt, bearing with the weak, and Iouing one another according to Chriſts example. Finally S. Paul after his commendations to the brethren, exhorteth them to vnitie, and to flee falſe preachers and flatterers, and ſo concludeth with a praier.

18 For the wrath of God is reueiled from heauen against all vngodlinesse, and vni-

the truth: in vniuersitinesse.

19 Forasmuch as that, which may be knowne of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For the invisible things of him, that is, his eternall power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the world, being considered in his workes, to the intent that they shoulde be without excuse.

21 * Because that when they knewe God, they^{pro} glorified him not as God, neither were thankfull, but became vaine in their imaginacions, and their foolish hart was full of darkenesse.

22 When they professed themselves to bee wise, they became fooles.

23 For they turned the glorie of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible ma, and of birds, and foure footed beasts, and of creeping things.

24 Wherefore also God^{was} gaue them by to their hearts lusts, vnto vncleanness, to desire their owne bodies betwene themselves.

25 Which turned the truth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for euer Amen.

26 For this cause God gaue them by vnto to vile affections: for euen their women did change the naturall vse into which is against nature.

27 And likewise also the men left the natural vse of the woman, and burned in their lust one toward another, and man with man wrought filthinesse, and reuered in themselves such recompence of their retour, as was meete.

28 For as they regarded not to knowe God, euen so God deliuered them by vnto a reprobate minde, to doe those things which are not convenient.

29 Being full of all vniuersitinesse, famication, wickednes, couerousnes, inuidi-bate, of deceit, taking all things in the 24. For the name of God is blasphemed

25. For circumcision verely is profitable if thou do the Lawe: but if thou be a transgressor of the Lawe, thy circumcision is

26. Therefore if the vncircumcision kepe vncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27. And shall not vncircumcision which is thee, which by the letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the Law?

28. For he is not a Jew, which is one out-praise is not of men, but of God.

No, in no wise: for we haue already pro-are vnder sinne.

Chap. 1. 17.

The word signifies them which are left behind in the race, and are not able to runne to the marke, that is, to everlasting life, which here is called the glorie of God.

Or fidelitie in performing his promises.

The lawe of faith is Gospel which offereth salvation with condon (if thou beleue) it should condon also Christ freely giueth to vs. So the condition of the Lawe is (if thou doest all these things) which only Christ hath fulfilled for vs.

In meaning, that they are all iustified by one means, and if they will have any difference, it only standeth in words: for in effect there is none. The doctrine of faith is ornament of the Lawe: for it imbraceth Christ, who by his death hath sanctified the Lawe: so that the Law which could not bring vs to salvation by reason of our own corruption, is now made effectually to vs by Christ Iesus.

But now is the righteousness of God made manifest without the Law, having witnesses of the Lawe & of the Prophets.

To wit, the righteousness of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleue.

For there is no difference: for all have sinned, and are deuyed of the glorie of God.

And are iustified freely by his grace, through redemption that is in Christ Iesus.

Whom God hath set forth to be a redemption through faith in his blood, to cleanse his righteousness, by forgiveness of the sinnes that are passed, through the patience of God.

To shewe at this time his righteousness, that he might be iust, and a iustifier of him which is of the faith of Iesus.

Where is then the rejoycing? It is excluded by what Lawe of works? Nay: but by the Lawe of faith.

Therefore we conclude that a man is iustified by faith without the workes of the Lawe.

God, is he the God of the Iewes onely, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.

For it is one God who hath iustified circumcision of faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

Do we then make the Lawe of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea we establish the Lawe.

He declareth that justification is a free gift, not by their merit, of vnto the Iewes most abused, as of Abraham and of David, 15 And also by the office of the Lawe and faith.

CHAP. III.

1. 17 He declareth that justification is a free gift, not by their merit, of vnto the Iewes most abused, as of Abraham and of David, 15 And also by the office of the Lawe and faith.

What shall we say then, that Abraham our father hath found concerning the flesh?

For if Abraham were iustified by workes, he hath wherein to reioyce, but not with God.

For what saith the Scripture? Abraham beleued God, and it was counted to him for righteousness.

How to him that worketh the wages is not counted by grace, but by deere.

But to him that worketh not, but beleueth in him that iustifieth the vngodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

Euen as David declareth the blessednes of the man, vnto whome God imputeth righteousness without workes.

Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sinnes are covered.

Blessed is the man, to whome the Lord imputeth not sinne.

Came this blessednes then vpon the circumcision only, or vpon the uncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousness.

Howe was it then imputed? when hee was circumcised, or uncircumcised? not when he was circumcised, but when hee was uncircumcised.

After he receiued the signe of circumcision, the seale of the righteousness of the faith which he had: when hee was uncircumcised, that he should be the father of all them that beleue: not being circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also.

And the father of circumcision, not vnto them only which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was uncircumcised.

For the promises that he should be the father of the world, was not giuen to Abraham, or to his seed, through the Lawe, but through the righteousness of faith.

For if it were by the Lawe, it should be by the Lawe, and the promise should be of none effect.

For the Lawe causeth wrath: for where no Lawe is, there is no transgression.

Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promise might be sure to all the seed, not to that onely which is of the Lawe: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all.

(As it is written, I haue made thee a father of many nations.) euen before God whom he beleued, who quickeneth the dead, & calleth those things which be not, as though they were.

Which Abraham aboue hope, beleued vnder hope, that he should be the father of many nations: according to that which was spoken vnto him, Thou shalt surely be.

And hee is not weak in the faith, considered not his owne bodie, which was now dead, being almost an hundred yeeres olde, neither the deadnes of Sarahs wombe.

Neither did hee doubt of the promises of God through unbelieve, but was strengthened in the faith, and gaue glorie to God.

Being fully assured that hee which had promised, was also able to doe it.

And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

Howe it is not twittin for him to say, that it was imputed to him for righteousness.

But also for vs, to whome it shall be imputed for righteousness, which beleue in him that rapied vs Iesus our Lord from the dead.

Who was deliuered to death for our sinnes, and is risen againe for our iustification.

CHAP. V.

He declareth the fruites of faith, 7 And by comparison setteth forth the love of God, and obedience of Christ, which is the foundation and ground of the same.

This may not be vnderstand of fruites of faith: (for thereof Apostle doth here after expressely treat) but of the faith it selfe.

faith vnto this grace, wherein we stand, and reioyce vnder the hope of the glorie
of God.

3 Neither do we so onely, but also we re-ioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation bringeth forth patience.

4 And patience experience, and experience hope.

5 And hope maketh not ashamed, because the loue of God is shed abroad in our heartes by the holy Spirit, which is giuen vnto vs.

6 For while, when we were yet of no strength, at his time, dyed for the vns-godly.

7 Doubtes one will feare die for a righteous man; but per for a godly man it may be that one dare die.

8 But God seeth out his loue, towards vs seeing that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for vs.

9 Much more then, being now iustified by his blood, we shall bee saved from wraith through him.

10 For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, much more being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

11 And not onely so, but we also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whome we haue now receiued the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne entered into the world, and death by sinne, and so death went ouer all men: so al-much as all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the time of the Lawe was sinne in the world, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no Lawe.

14 But death reigned from Adam to Moses, euen ouer them also that sinned not after the like manner of the transgression of Adam, which was the figure of him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through offence of one, man ye be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 Further is the gift so, as that which entered in by one that sinned: for the fault came of one offence vnto condemnation;
but the gift is of many offences to iusti-fication.

17 For if by the offence of one, death reigned through one, much more shall they which receiue the abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, reigne in life through one, that is, Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise then as by the offence of one,
the fault came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one, the benefite abounded towards all men to the iusti-fication of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience, many were made sinners: so by the obedience of one, that many also be made righteous.

20 Therefore the Lawe entered thereupon that the offence should abound: neuer-theless, where sinne abounded, there grace abounded much more.

21 That as sinne had reigned vnto death, so might grace also reigne by righteous-nesse vnto eternall life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

Because no man should glorie in the flesh, but rather seeke to subdue it to the Spirit, 3 He sheweth by the vertue and ende of Baptisme, 5 That regeneration is signified with iustification, and therefore exhorteth to godly life, 21 Setting before mens eyes the reward of sinne and righteousness.

What shall we say then? Shall we continue still in sinne, that grace may abound? God forbid.

1 How shall we, that are dead to sinne, liue per therein?

2 Know ye not, that all we which haue bene baptized vnto Iesus Christ, haue bene baptized vnto his death?

3 We are buried then with him by bap-tisme vnto his death, that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glorie of the Father, so we also should walke
in newnesse of life.

4 For if we be grafted with him, to the similitude of his death, euen so shall we be to the similitude of his resurrection.

5 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the body of sinne might bee destroyed, that henceforth we should not serue sinne.

6 For he that is dead, is freed from sinne.
7 Wherefore, if we be dead with Christ, we beleeue that we shall liue also with him.

8 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dyed no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

9 For in that he dyed, he dyed once to sinne: but in that he liueth, he liueth to God.

10 Likewise thinke ye also, that ye are dead to sinne, but are alieue to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

11 Let not sinne reign therefore in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

12 Whether ye be poor members as weapons of unrighteousnesse vnto sinne:
but give your selues vnto God, as they that are alieue from the dead; and give your members as weapons of righte-ousnesse vnto God.

13 That he might destroy sinne in our flesh.

14 I we may gather that we are dead to sinne, when sinne beginneth to die in vs: which is by the participation of Christs death, by whome alwaye quickened, we liue to God, that is, to righteousness.

15 The minde first must be freed from 17 But God be thanked, that ye haue ben the seruants of sinne, but ye haue obeyed from the heart vnto the forme of the doctrine, wherunto ye were deliuered.

18 Being then made free from sinne, ye are made the seruants of righteousness.

19 I speake after the manner of man, because of the infirmities of your flesh: for as ye haue giuen your members seruants to vncleanness and to iniquitie, to commit iniquitie, so now giue your members seruants vnto righteousness in holiness.

20 For when ye were the seruants of sinne, ye were freed from righteousness.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things, wherof ye are now ashamed? For the ende of those things is death.

22 But now being freed from sinne, and made seruants vnto God, ye haue your fruit in holiness, and the ende, eternall liuing life.

23 For the wages of sinne is death: but the gift of God is eternall life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

1 Knowe ye not, brethren, (for I speake to them that knowe the Lawe) that the Lawe hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 For the woman which is in subjection to a man, as bound by the Lawe to the man, while he liueth: but if the man be dead, she is deliuered from the Lawe of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, she take another man, she shalbe called an adulteresse: but if the man be dead, she is free from the Lawe, so that she is not an adulteresse, though she take another man.

4 So ye, my brethren, are dead also to the Lawe by the body of Christ, that ye should be vnto another, even vnto him that is raised by from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit vnto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sinnes, which were by the Lawe, had force in our members, to bring forth fruit vnto death.

6 But now we are deliuered from the Lawe, being dead vnto it, wherein we were holden, that we should serue in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the Lawe sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knewe not sinne, but by the Lawe: for I had not knowne it, except the Lawe had sayde, Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne took an occasion by the commandment, and wrought in me all manner of concupiscence: for without the Lawe sinne is dead.

9 For I once was alive, without the Lawe: but when the commandment came, sinne reuiued.

10 But I die, and the same commandment which was ordained vnto life, was found to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne took occasion by the commandment, and decreed me, and thereby slew me.

12 Wherefore the Lawe is holp, and the commandment is holp, and iust, and good.

13 Was that then which is good, made death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne, that it might appeare sinne, wrought death in me by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinfull by the commandment.

14 For we know that the Lawe is spiritual, but I am carnall, sold vnder sinne.

15 For I allowe not that which I doe: for what I would, that do I not: but what I hate, that doe I.

16 If I doe then that which I would not, I consent to the Law, that it is good.

17 Now then, it is no more I, that doe it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know, that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me: but I find no means to performe that which is good.

19 For I do not the good thing, which I would, but the euill, which I would not, that doe I.

20 Nowe if I doe that I would not, it is no more I that doe it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the Lawe, that when I would do good, euill is present with me.

22 For I delight in the Lawe of God, concerning the inner man:

23 But I see another Lawe in my members, rebelling against the Lawe of my minde, and leading me captive vnto the Lawe of sinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shall deliuer mee from the body of this death?

25 I thanke God through Iesus Christe our Lord. Then I myselfe in my minde serue the Lawe of God, but in my flesh the Lawe of sinne.

N Owe then there is no condemnation to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

1 For the Law of the Spirit of life which in Christ Iesus, hath freed me from the law of sinne and of death.

2 For (that that was impossible to the Law, in as much as it was) weak, because of the flesh) God sending his owne Sonne, in the similitude of sinful flesh, and for sinne, condemned sinne in the flesh,

3 That the right consistence of the Law might not be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

4 For they that are after the flesh, labour the things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

5 For the wisdom of the flesh is death: but the wisdom of the Spirit is life and peace.

6 Because the wisdom of the flesh is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the Law of God: neither in deede can be.

7 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

8 Howe we are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

9 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead, because of sinne: but the Spirit is life for right consistence sake.

10 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortal bodies, because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.

11 Therefore brethren, we are debtors not to the flesh, to live after the flesh:

12 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye mortifie the deedes of the body by the Spirit, ye shall live.

13 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

14 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage to feare againe: but ye have receiued the Spirit of adoption, whereby we crye Abba, Father.

15 The same Spirit beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

16 I But to live after the Spirit, call to God through patience.

17 I But to live after the Spirit, call to God through patience.

18 I But to live after the Spirit, call to God through patience.

19 I But to live after the Spirit, call to God through patience.

20 I But to live after the Spirit, call to God through patience.

17 If we be children, we are also heires, even the heires of God, and heires annexed with Christ, if so be that we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him.

18 For I count that the afflictions of this present time, are not worthy of the glory, which shall be shewed vnto vs.

19 For the fervent desire of the creature waiteth when the sonnes of God shall be revealed,

20 Because the creature is subject to vanitie, not of it owne will, but by reason of him, which hath subdued it vnder hope,

21 Because the creature also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God.

22 For we know that creature groaneth with vs, also, and travaileth in paine together vnto this present.

23 And not onely the creature, but we also which haue the first fruites of the Spirit, euen we doe sigh in our selves, waiting for the adoption, euen the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saued by hope: but hope that is seene, is not hope: for howe can a man hope for that which he seeth?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, we doe with patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we knowe not what to pray as we ought: but the Spirit it self maketh request for vs with sighes, which cannot be expressed.

27 But he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirit: for he maketh request for the paines, according to the will of God.

28 Also we knowe that all things worke together for the best vnto them that love God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.

29 For those which he knewe before, he also predestinate to be made like to the image of his Sonne, that he might be the first borne among many brethren.

30 Moreover whom he predestinate, them also he called, and whom he called, them also he iustified, and whom he iustified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be on our side, who can be against vs?

32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gave him for vs al to death, howe shall he not with him give vs all things also?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods chosen? it is God that iustifieth.

34 Who shall condemne? it is Christ, which is dead, yea or rather, which is risen againe, who is also at the right hand of God, and maketh request also for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the love of Christ? that tribulation or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or perill, or sword?

a That is, a certain affection, but not a true knowledge.

b The end of the law is to iustifie them which observe it: therefore Christ having fulfilled it for vs, is made our justice, sanctification, &c.

c Because we cannot performe the lawes, it maketh vs to doubt, who shall goe to heauen, & to say, Who shall goe downe to the deepe to deliuer vs thence? but faith teacheth vs that Christ is ascended vp to take vs with him, and hath descended into the depth of death to destroy death, and deliuer vs.

d That is, the promise and the Gospel which agreeth with the Lawe.

e That is, the way to be saved, is to beleue with heart that we are saved onely by Christ, and to confesse the same before the world.

f Meaning, the Gospell and the good tidings of saluation which they preached.

g That is, by Gods commandement, of whom they are first that preach the Gospell. It may be also taken for the very preaching it selfe.

h Both the Iewes and Gentiles.

i The Hebrew word signifieth the line or proportion of the heauens, whose most excellent frame, besides the rest of Gods creatures, preacheth vnto the whole world, and setteth forth the worthinesse of the Creator.

1 Brethren, mine heartes desire & prayer is, that God for Israel, that they might be saved.

2 For I beare them record, that they haue the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they, being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and going about to stablish their owne righteousness, haue not submitted them selves to the righteousness of God.

4 For Christ is the end of the Lawe for righteousness vnto euery one that beleueth.

5 For Moses thus describeth the righteousness which is of the law, "That the man which doth these things, shall liue thereby."

6 But the righteousness which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, "Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heauen? (that is to bring Christ from above):"

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deepe? (that is to bring Christ againe from the dead):"

8 But what saith it? "The worde is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, & in thine heart. This is the worde of faith which wee preach."

9 For if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt beleue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man beleueth vnto righteousness, and with the mouth man confesseth to saluation.

11 For the Scripture saith, "Whosoener beleueth in him, shall not be ashamed."

12 For there is no difference betwene the Iewe & the Grecian: for he that is Lord ouer all, is rich vnto all, that call on him.

13 For whosoener shall call vpon the name of the Lord, shall be saved.

14 But how shall they call on him, in whom they haue not beleued? and howe shall they beleue in him, of whom they haue not heard? & how shall they heare without a preacher?

15 And howe shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, "Howe beautifull are the feete of them which bring glad tidings of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!"

16 But they haue not all obeyed the Gospell: for as it is written, "Ioyde, who hath beleued our report?"

17 Then saith it by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I demand, Haue they not heard? No doubt their sound went out through all the earth, and into their woedens vnto the endes of the world:

19 But I demande, Did not Israel knowe God? First Moses saith, "I will prouoke you to emie by a nation that is not my nation, and by a foolish nation I will anger you."

20 And Elia is bolde, & saith, "I was found of them that sought me not, and haue bene made manifest to them that aske not after me."

21 And vnto Israel he saith, "All the day long haue I stretched forth mine hande vnto a disobedient, and ganelaping people."

CHAP. XI.

God hath his Church although it be not seene to many eyes. The grace sheweth to the elect. The judgement of the reprobate. God hath blanded the Iewes for a time, and reucaled him selfe to the Gentiles. Whom he vnderstandeth to be his felicit. The gifts of God without repentance. The depth of Gods iudgements.

1 Demande then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the seede of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he knewe before. knowe ye not what the Scripture saith of Elias, how he maketh request vnto God against Israel, saying,

3 "Lord, they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine altars: & I am left alone, and they seek my life?"

4 But what saith the answer of God to him? "I haue reserved vnto me leste I seuen thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal."

5 Euen so then at this present time is there a remnant through the election of grace.

6 And if it be of grace, it is no more of works: or els grace were no more grace: but if it be of works, it is no more grace: or els were work no more work.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that he sought: but the election hath obtained it, & the rest haue bene hardened.

8 According as it is written, "God hath giuen them the spirit of slumber: eyes that they should not see, & eares that they should not heare vnto this day."

9 And David saith, "Let their eares be made a floure, and a net, and a stumbling blocke, euen for a recompence vnto them."

10 Let their eyes be darkened that they see not, and bowe downe their backe alwayes.

11 I demaunde then, Haue they stumbled, that they should fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluation cometh vnto the Gentiles, to s prouoke them to follow them.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, howe much more shall their abundance be?

s He reproveth the rashnesse of men which murmure against the iudgements of God.

14 To trie if by any means I might proue vnto them of my selfe to followe them, and might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving be, but life from the dead?

16 For if the first fruites be holy, so is the whole lump: and if the roote be holy, so are the branches.

17 And though some of the branches bee broken off, and thou being a wilde olive tree, wast graft in for them, and made partaker of the roote, and fatnesse of the olive tree,

18 Boast not thy selfe against the branches:
and if thou boast thy selfe, thou breakest not the roote, but the roote thy.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches are broken off, that I might be graft in.

20 Well: though unbeliefe they are broken off, and thou standest by faith: be not high minded, but feare.

21 For if God spared not the naturall branches, take heed, least he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the bountifullnesse, & seueritie of God: toward them which haue fallen, seueritie: but toward thee, bountifullnesse, if thou continue in his boun-tifullnesse: or els thou shalt also be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbeliefe, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graffe them in againe.

24 For if thou wast cut out of the olive tree, which was wilde by nature, and wast grafted contrary to nature in a right olive tree, how much more shall they be by nature, be grafted in their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, ye should be ignorant of this secret (lest ye should be arrogant in your selues): that partly of obstinacie is come to Israel, untill the fullnes of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saved, as it is written, The deliverer shall come out of Sion, and shall turne away the ungodli-nes from Jacob.

27 And this is my covenant to the, When I shall take away their sinnes.

28 As concerning the Gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are

30 For euē as pee in time past haue not belieued God, yet haue now obtained mercy through their unbeliefe,

31 Euen so now haue they not belieued by the mercy shewed vnto you, that they also may obtaine mercy.

32 For God hath shut vp all in unbeliefe, that he might haue mercy on all.

33 O the deepenes of the riches both of the wisdom, and knowledge of God! howe unsearchable are his iudgements, and

CHAP. XII.

The conuersation, loue and works of such as beleeue in Christ. Not to seek reuengence.

1 Beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye giue vp your dead bodies as a liuing sacrifice, holy, acceptable vnto God, which is your reasonable service of God.

2 And facion not your selues like vnto this world, but be ye changed by the renewing of your minde, that ye may proue what the good will of God, and acceptable, and perfect.

3 For I say through the grace that is gi-uen vnto me, to euery one that is among you, that no man presume to vnderstand above that which is written in vnderstand lines, & charitie,

but that hee vnderstande according to the sobriety, as God hath dealt to euery man the measure of faith.

4 For as we haue many members in one bodye, and all members haue not one office,

5 So we be many members in one bodye in Christ, & euery one, one anothers members.

6 Being then that we haue gifts that are diuers, according to the grace that is giuen vnto vs, whether we haue prophesie, let vs prophesie according to the portion of our faith:

7 Or an office, let vs waite on the office: or he that teacheth, on teaching:

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that distributeth, let him doo it with simplicitie: hee that ruleth, with diligence:

9 Let loue be without dissimulation. Abhorre that which is euill, and cleaue vnto that which is good.

10 Be affectionate to loue one another with brotherly loue. In giuing honour, goe one before another.

11 Not slothfull to doe seruice: seruent in spirit: seruing the Lord,

12 Reioicing in hope, patient in tribulation, continuing in prayer,

13 Distributing vnto the necessities of the Saints: giuing your selues to hospitalitie.

14 Bless them which persecute you: blesessed, say, and curse not.

15 Reioyce with them that reioyce, and weepe with them that weepe.

16 Be of one mind, and of one counsell, as ye haue obtained the mercies of God, where there is one Lord, one faith, one baptism,

17 That ye all agree in the heart, in the Lord, in the word of the Lord, in the service of the Lord, in the sacrifice of the bodye, which is the service of the Lord,

18 Which is the service of the Lord, in the word of the Lord, in the service of the Lord, in the sacrifice of the bodye, which is the service of the Lord,

19 Which is the service of the Lord, in
the word of the Lord, in the service of the Lord, in the sacrifice of the bodye, which is the service of the Lord.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The obedience to the Rulers. 4 VVhy they haue the sword. 8 Charitie ought to measure all our do- ings. 11 An exhortation to innocencie and puritie of life.

1 Let * euery soule be subiect vnto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God: and the powers that be, are ordeined of God.

2 Whosoener therefore resisteth his power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receiue to themselves
 * iudgement.

3 For Princes are not to be feared for gods woikes, but for euil: wilt thou then be without feare of the power? doe well:
 so shalt thou haue praise of the same.

4 For he is the minister of God for thy wealth: but if thou do euill, feare: for he beareth not the woike for nought: for he is the minister of God "to take vengeance on him that doeth euill.

5 Wherefore ye must be subiect, not because of wrath onely, but also for conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause ye paye also tribute:
 for they are Gods ministers, applying themselves for the same thing.

7 * Giue to all men therefore their due:
 tribute, to whome ye owe tribute: custome, to whom custome: tribute, to whom feare:
 honour, to whom ye owe honour.

8 Owe nothing to any man, but to lone one another: for he that loueth another, hath fulfilled the Lawe.

9 For this, * Thou shalt not commit a bulterie, * Thou shalt not kill, * Thou shalt not steale, * Thou shalt not beare false witness, * Thou shalt not couet: and if there be any other commandment, it is by the compasser in this saying, euen in this, * Thou shalt lone thy neighbour as thy selfe.

10 Loue doeth not euill to his neighbour:
 therefore is loue the * fulfilling of the Lawe.

11 And that, considering the season, that it is now time that we shoulde arise from slape: for now is our saluation nerr, e then when we beleued it.

12 The night is past, & the day is at hand:
 let vs therefore cast away the woikes of darkenes, and let vs put on the armour of light,

13 So that wee walke honestly, as in the day: not in * gluttonie, and drunkennes, neither in chambering and wantonnesse,
 nor in strife and enuying:

14 * But put ye on the Joye of Jesus Christ, and take no thought for the flesh, to fulfil the lustes of it.

 taine vnto you, but not * for contras-tories of disputations.

 eateth herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not, iudge him that eateth: for God hath receiued him.

4 * Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant? he standeth or falls to his owne * iustice: pea, he shall be established: for God is able to make him stande.

5 This man esteemeth one day aboute as nother day: and another man counteth euery day alike: let euery man be * fully perswaded in his minde.

6 He that * obserueth the day, obserueth it to the Lord: and he that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not, to the Lord. He not, eateth not to the Lord, and giueth

8 For if whether we liue, we liue vnto the Lord: or whether we die, we dye vnto the Lord: whether we liue therefore, or dye, we are the Lords.

9 For Christ therefore died, & rose againe, and trinned, that he might be Lord both of the dead and the quicke.

10 But why doest thou iudge thy brother?
 or why doest thou despise thy brother?
 for we shall all appeare before the iudge-ment seate of Christ.

13 Which things also we speake, not in the wordes which mans wisdom teacheth, but which the holy Ghost teacheth, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things.

14 But the natural man perceiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is spiritual, discerneth all things: yet he himselfe is not judged of no man.

16 For who hath known the minde of the Lord, that he might instruct him? but we have the minde of Christ.

CHAP. III.

3 Paul rebuketh the scribes & authors thereof. 7 No man ought to attribute his salvation to the ministers, but to God. 10 That they beware erroneous doctrines. 11 Christ is the foundation of his Church. 16 The dignity and office both of the ministers, & also of all the faithful.

17 And I could not speake unto you, brethren, as unto spiritual men, but as unto carnall, even as unto babes in Christ.

18 I gave you milke to drinke, & not meat: for ye were not yet able to beare it, neither yet now are ye able.

19 For ye are yet carnall: for where as there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnall, and walke as men?

20 For when one saith, I am Pauls, & another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

21 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whom ye believed, and as the Lord gave to every man?

22 I have planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase.

23 So then, neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth, but God that giveth the increase.

24 And he that planteth, & he that watereth, are one, & every man shall receive his wages, according to his labour.

25 For we are together as Gods labourers: ye are Gods husbandry, and Gods building.

26 According to the grace of God given to mee, as a faithful master builder, I have laid the foundation, & another buildeth thereon: but let every man take heed how he buildeth upon it.

27 For other foundation can no man lay, than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

28 And if any man build on this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, timber, hay, or stubble,

29 Every mans worke shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire: and the fire shall try every mans worke of what it is. Both his labour and reward.

30 If any mans worke, that he hath built upon, abide, he shall receive his wages.

31 If any mans worke burne, his shall them not save: he shall lose it, but he himselfe shall be saved, yet so as by fire.

32 Know ye not that we are the Temple of the living God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in us?

33 If any man destroy the Temple of God, the simplicity of him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which ye are.

34 Let no man deceive him selfe. If any man among you seems to be wise in this world, let him be a fool, that he may be wise.

35 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in the sight of God: for it is written, We have understood, but we have not understood: we have seen, but we have not seen.

36 And againe, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

37 Therefore let no man glory in men: for all things are yours.

38 Whether it be Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things which are present, or things which are to come, even all are yours,

39 And ye are Chriles, and Christs Gods.

his ministers to his owne glorie and the comfort of his Church.

CHAP. IIII.

1 After that he had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 Seeing they did not acknowledge him such one, 4 He appealeth to Gods judgement. 7 Bearing down their glory which he had shewed to praise that, whereby they were saved in him, 19 He sheweth what he requirerth on their part, and what they ought to looke for of him at his returne.

2 Let a man so thinke of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and disposers intolerable of the secretes of God.

3 And as for the rest, it is required of the true ministers of disposers, that every man bee sounde of faithfull.

4 As touching me, I passe very little to be accounted of you, or of mans judgement: tribute more no, Iudge not mine owne selfe.

5 For I know nothing by myselfe, yet is mee: Am I not thereby, justified: but he that judgeth me, is the Lord.

6 Therefore, I judge nothing before the time. Until the Lord come, who will light ten things that are hid in darknesse, and make the counsels of the heartes manifest: and then shall every man have praise of God.

7 Nowe these things, brethren, I have figuratively applied unto mine owne selfe and Apollos, for your sakes, that ye might learne: by us, that no man glory in his owne wisdom, that fore God none of us will not against another for any manner of iustice is required.

8 For who is separated this? and what hath red, that thou hast not received? if thou hast received it, why receivest thou, as mine office, though thou haddest not received it?

9 By our example, f To wit, from other men & preferre thee.

g John

8 Now ye are ful: now ye are made rich: ye reigne as kings without ye, & woulde to God ye did reigne, that we also might reigne with you.

9 For I thinke that God hath set forth vs the last of olles, as men appointed to death: for we are made a galing stocke vnto the world, and to the Angels, and to men.

10 We are ^bfooles for Christes sake, and ye are wise in Christ: we are weak, and ye are strong: ye are honourable, and we are despised.

11 Vnto this houre we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, & haue no certaine dwelling place,

12 And labour, working with our owne hands: we are reuelled, and yet we bleste: we are persecuted, and suffer it.

13 We are euill spoken of, and we pray: we are made as the filth of the world, the offshooting of all things, vnto this tyme.

14 I wote not these thinges to shame you, but as my beloued childe I admonish you.

15 For though ye haue ten thousande instructors in Christ, yet haue ye not many fathers: for in Christ Iesus I haue begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Wherefore, I pray you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued sonne, and faithful in the Lord, which shall put you in remembrance of my wordes in Christ as I teach euer where in euery Church.

18 Some are puffed vp as though I woulde not come to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, & if the Lord will, and will knowe, not the speache of them which are puffed vp, but the power.

20 For the kingdome of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? shall I come vnto you with a rodde, or in loue, and in the spirit of meekenesse?

CHAP. V.

1 He reproveth sharply their negligence in punishing him that had committed suicide, 3 VVilling them to excommunicate him, 7 To embrace purity, 9 And sheweth that were ought to serue God purely both in bodie, and soule.

1 I am heard certainly, that there is forsignation among you, and such forsignation as is not once named among the Gentiles, that one should haue his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffed vp and haue not rather sorrowed, that ye which hath done this dedde, might be put from among you.

3 For I verely as absent in bodie, but present in spirit, haue determined already as though I were present, that he that hath thus done this thing,

4 When ye are gathered together, and my spirit, in the name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that such one, I say, by the power of our Lord Iesus Christ,

5 We deliuered vnto Satan, for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Iesus,

6 Your reioicing is not good: knowe ye not that a little leaue leaueth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leauen, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are vnleavened: for Christ our Passouer is sacrificed for vs.

8 Therefore let vs keepe the feast, not with olde leauen, neither in the leauen of maliciousnesse and wickednes: but with the vnleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote vnto you in an Epistle, that ye should not companie together with fornicators,

10 And not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the courteous, or with extortioners, or with idolaters: for then ye must goe out of the world.

11 But now I haue written vnto you, that ye companie not together: if any that is called a brother, be a fornicator, or courteous, or an idolater, or a railler, or a drunkarde, or an extortioner, with such one eate nor.

12 For what haue I to doe, to iudge them also, which are without? do ye not iudge them that are within?

13 But God iudgeth them that are without. But away therefore from among you such wicked man.

CHAP. VI.

1 He rebuketh them for going to law together before the heathen. 7 Christians ought rather to suffer. 12 He reproveth the abusing of Christian libertie. 15 And sheweth that were ought to serue God purely both in bodie, and soule.

1 Are any of you, hauing businesse as against another, be iudged vnder the vniust, and not vnder the Saints?

2 Do ye not know, that the Saints shall iudge the world? If the world then shall be iudged by you, are ye unworthy to iudge the smallest matters?

3 Knowe ye not, we shall iudge the Angels? howe much more things that pertaine to this life?

4 If then ye haue iudgements of things pertaining to this life, set by them which are least esteemed in the Church.

5 I speake it to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wise man among you? no not one, that can iudge betweene his brethren?

6 But a brother goeth to Law with a brother, and that vnder the infidels.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Apostle answereth to certain questions, which the Corinthians desired to know. 2 As of single life. 3 Of the duties of marriage. 4 Of discord & dissolution in marriage. 5 Of marriage betweene the faithfull and vnfaithfull. 6 Of vncircumcising the circumcised. 7 Of seruitude. 8 Of virginity. 9 And second marriage.

Now concerning the things wherof we wrote vnto me, It were a good for a man not to touch a woman.
2 Nevertheless to auoide fornication, let euery man haue his wife, and let euery woman haue her owne husband.

3 Let the husband giue vnto the wife * 1 Pet. 7. beneuolence, and likewise also the wife vnto the husb band.
4 The wife hath not the power of her owne body, but the husband: and likewise also marriage. the husband hath not the power of his owne body, but the wife.
5 Defraude not one another, except it be with consent for a time, that ye map giue your selues to fasting and prayer, and as God gaue come together, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.
6 But I speake this by permission, * 4 not by commandement.
7 For I would that all men were euery as I: 5 With the first proper gift of God, one after this maner, and another after that.
8 Therefore I lap vnto the vnmarrid, and vnto the widowes, it is good for them if they abide euery as I doe.
9 But if they can not abstaine, let them marrie: for it is better to marrie then to burne.
10 And vnto the married I command, not I, but the Loyde, let not the wife * 6 depart from her husband.
11 But and if she depart, let her remaine vnmarrid, or be reconciled vnto her husband, and let not the husband put * 7 away his wife.
12 But to the remnant I speake, and not the Loyde, If any brother haue a wife, that beleueth not, if she be content to dwell with him, let him not forsake her.
13 And the woman which hath an husb and that beleueth not, if he be content to dwell with her, let her not forsake him.
14 For the vnbelaueing husband is * 8 *sanctified by the wife, and the vnbelaueing wife is sanctified by the husband, eue were your children vncleane: but now are they * holy.*
15 But if the vnbelaueing depart, let him depart: a brother or a sister is not in subiection in such things: but God hath called vs in peace.
16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt saue thyne husband? O man, whether thou shalt saue thy wife?
17 But as God hath distributed to euery man, as the Loyd hath * 9 called euery one, so let him walke: and so ordeine I in all Churches.
18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not * 10 gather his vncircumcision: is any called vncircumcised: let him not be circumcised.
19 Circumcision is nothing, and vncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandements of God.
20 Let euery man abide in the same vocation he is called in.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? I care not for it: but if per thou maigest be free, vse it rather.
22 For he that is called in the Lord being a seruant, is the Lordes freeman: likes wife also he that is called being free, is Christs seruant.
23 Ye are bought with a price: be not the seruants of men.
24 Brethren, let euery man, wherein hee was called, therein abide with God.
25 Now concerning virgins, I haue no commandement of the Lord: but I giue mine aduice, as one that hath obtained mercie of the Lord to be faithfull.
26 I suppose then this to be good for the present: necessitie: I meane that it is good for a man so to be.
27 Art thou bound vnto a wife? seeke not to be loosed: art thou loosed from a wife? seeke not a wife.
28 But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgin marry, shee sinneth not: neuertheless, such shall haue trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.
29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is short: hereafter that both they which haue wiues, be as though they had none:
30 And they that woe, as though they wept not: and they that reioyce, as though they reioyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not:
31 And they that vse this world, as though they used it not: for the facion of this world goeth away.
32 And I would haue you without care. The unmarried careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord:
33 But he that is married, careth for the things of the world, how he may please his wife.
34 There is difference also betwene a virgin and a wife: the unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but she that is married, careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.
35 And this I speake for your owne commodities, not to tangle you in a snare, but that ye followe that, which is honest, and that ye may cleaue fast vnto the Lord without separation.
36 But if any man thinke that it is vncouenly for his virgin, if she passe the flower of her age, and she neede so require, let him doe what he will, he sinneth not: let them be married.
37 Nevertheless he that standeth firme in his heart, that he hath no neede, but hath

38 So then he that giueth her to marriage, doeth well, but he that giueth her not to marriage, doeth better.
39 The wife is bound by the Lord, as long as her husband * liueth: but if her husband be dead, shee is at libertie to marrie with whome shee will, onely in the Lord.

1 He rebuketh them that vsa their libertie to the slander of other, in going to the idolatrous sacrifices, 9 And sheweth howe much ought to becaue them to vnder such as be weakes.

1 And as touching things sacrificed vnto idoles, we knowe that we all haue * knowledge: knowledge puffeth vp, but loue edifieth.

2 Now, if any man thinke that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing per as he ought to knowe.

3 But if any man loue God, the same is * knowen of him.

4 Concerning therefore meate sacrificed vnto idoles, we knowe that an idole is * nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which are made, is of the Father, of whome are all things, and wee in him: and * one Lord Iesus Christ, by whome are all things, and wee by him.

1 He exhorted them by his example to vsi their libertie to the edification of other. 24 To runne on for to the course that they haue begun.

And I not an Apostle? am not I free? I haue I not Iesus Christe our Loyde? are ye not my worke in the Loyde?

2 If I be not an Apostle vnto other, yet doubtles I am vnto you: for ye are the scale of mine Apostleship in the Loyd.

3 My defence to them that examine me, is this,

4 I haue we not power to eate, and to drinke?

5 I haue we not power to lead about a wife being a sister, as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the brethren of the Loyd, and Epphas?

6 I only and Barnabas, haue not we power? not to worke?

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his owne cost? who planteth a vineparde, and eateth not of the fruite thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?

8 Say I these things according to man? saith not the Lawe the same also?

9 For it is written in the Law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the oxe that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take care for ore?

10 Either saith he it not altogether for our sakes? for our sakes no doubt it is written, that he which eareth should eare in hope: and that he that sitheth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

11 If we haue sown vnto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reape your carnall things?

12 If others with you be partakers of this power, are not we rather? neuertheless, we haue not used this power: but suffer all things, that we should not hinder the Gospel of Christ.

13 Doe ye not know, that they which minister about the holp things, eate of the things of the Temple? and they which waite at the altar, are partakers: with the altar?

14 So also hath the Loyde ordeined, that they which preach the Gospel, should be liue of the Gospell.

15 But I haue used none of these things: neither wrote I these things, that it should be to done vnto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man should make me receiue againe.

16 For though I preach the Gospel, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for necessitie is laide vpon me, and woe is vnto me, if I preach not the Gospel.

17 For if I do it willingly, I haue a rewarde: but if I doe it against my will, notwithstanding the dispensation is committed vnto me.

18 What is my rewarde then? verily that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ free: that I abuse not mine authoritie in the Gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet

haue I made my selfe seruaunt vnto all men, that I might winne the mo.

20 And vnto the Jewes I become as a Jewe, that I map winne the Jewes: to them that are vnder the Lawe, as though I were vnder the Lawe, that I map winne them that are vnder the Lawe:

21 To them that are without Lawe, as though I were without Lawe (when I am not without Lawe as perrepting to God, but am in the Law through Christ) that I map winne them that are without Lawe.

22 To the weak I become as weak, that I map winne the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I doe for the Gospels sake, that I might bee partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not, that they which runne in a race, runne all, yet one receiveth the price: so runne, that ye may obtaine.

25 And euery man that yoneth masters, abstaineth from all things: & they do it to obtaine a corruptible crowne: but we for an vncorruptible.

26 Therefore so runne, not as vncertaine: so fight I, not as one that beatech the aire.

27 But I beate downe my body, and bring it into subiection, least by any meanes after that I haue preached to other, I my selfe should be reprobated.

CHAP. X.

He sheweth them with the examples of the leuues, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God, 14 Exhorting them to flee all idolatrie, 23 And offence of their neighbour.

Moreouer, brethren, I woulde not that ye should be ignorant, that all our fathers were vnder the cloud, and all passed through the sea,

2 And were all baptised vnto Moses, in the cloud, and in the sea.

3 And did all eate the same spirituall meate,

4 And did all drinke the same spirituall drinke (for they drinke of the spirituall rocke that followed them: & the rocke was Christ)

5 But with many of them God was not pleased: for they were ouertrowen in the wilderness.

6 Nowe these are ensamples to vs, to the intent that we should not lust after euill things as they also lusted.

7 Neither be ye idolaters as were some of them, as it is written, The people sate downe to eate and drinke, and rose by to play.

8 Neither let vs commit fornication, as the subtilance of some of them committed fornication, theirs and our Sacraments is all one.

9 Neither let vs tempt a Christ, as some of them also tempted him, and were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11 Now all these things came vnto them for examples, and were written to admonish vs, vpon whom the endes of the world are come.

12 Wherefore, let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you, but such as appertaineth to man: and God is faithful, which will not suffer you to be tempted above that you be able, but will euery giue therewith the temptation, that ye may be able to beare it.

14 Wherefore my beloved, flee from idolatry.

15 I speake as vnto them which haue vnderstanding: iudge ye what I say.

16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we breake, is it not the communion of the bodie of Christ?

17 For we that are many, are one bread, and one bodie, because we all are partakers of one bread.

18 Beholde Israel which is after the flesh: are not they which eate of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idole is any thing: or that that which is sacrificed to idoles, is any thing?

20 Nay, but that these things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not vnto God: and I would not that ye should haue fellowship with the devils.

21 Ye cannot drinke the cup of the Lords, and the cup of the devils. Ye can not be partakers of the Lords table and of the table of devils.

22 Do we provoke the Lord to anger? are we stronger then he?

23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edifie not.

24 Let no man seeke his owne, but euery man anothers wealth.

25 Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, eate ye, and aske no question for conscience sake.

26 For the earth is the Lords, and all that therein is.

27 If any of them which beleene not, call you to a feast, and if ye will goe, whatsoever is set before you, eate, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say vnto you, This is sacrificed vnto idoles, eate it not, because of him that shewed it, and for the conscience (for the earth is the Lords, and all that therein is)

29 And the conscience I say, not thine.

but of that other: for why should my conscience be condemned of another mans conscience?

30 For if I through Gods benefit be partaker, why am I evil spoken of, for that wherefore I giue thanks?

31 Whether therefore ye eate of drink, or whatsoeuer ye doe, do all to the glorie of God.

32 Giue none offence, neither to the Iewes, nor to the Grecians, nor to the Church of God:

33 Euen as I please: all men in things, not seeking mine owne profit, but the profit of many, that they might be saved.

CHAP. XI.

He rebuketh the abuses which were crept into their Church. 4. As touching prayer, prophesying, 18. And ministering the Lords supper, 23. Bringing them againe to the first institution thereof.

BENEFIT the followers of me, euen as I am of Christ.

2 Now, brethren, I commend you, that ye remember all my things, and keepe the ordinances, as I deliuered them to you.

3 But I will that ye knowe, that Christ is the head of euery man: and the man is the womans head: & God is Christs head.

4 Euery man praying or prophesying, hauing any thing on his head, dishonoureth his head.

5 But euery woman that prayeth or prophesieth bare headed, dishonoureth her head: for it is euen one very thing, as though she were shauen.

6 Therefore if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorne: and if it be shame for a woman to be shorne or shauen, let her be covered.

7 For a man ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glorie of God: but the woman is the glorie of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

9 For the man was not created for the womans sake: but the woman for the mans sake.

10 Therefore ought the woman to haue dominion over her head, because of the Angels. Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the Lord.

11 For as the woman is of the man, so the church is of the man: but all things are of God.

12 Iudge in your selves, Is it comely that a woman pray vnto God uncovered?

13 Worth not nature it selfe teachen, that if a man haue long haire, it is a shame vnto him?

14 But if a woman haue long haire, it is, cover her head in signe of subiection.

a praise vnto her: for her hate is giuen

16 But if any man lust to be contentious, we haue no such custome, neither the Churches of God.

17 I shew in this that I declare, I praise you not, that ye come together, not with prouer, but with hurt.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are dissen sions among you: and I beleue it to be true in some part.

19 For there must be heresies enen among you, that they which are appoyued among you, might be knowen.

20 When ye come together therefore in to one place, this is not to eate the Lordes supper.

21 For euery man when they should eate, takeh his owne supper afore, and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 Haue ye not houses to eate & to drinke in: despiſe ye the Church of God, & shame them that haue not: what shal I say to you: that I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I haue receiued of the Lord that which I also haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, that the Lord Iesus in the night that he was betrayed,ooke bread:

24 * And when he had giuen thanks, he broke it, and saide, Take, eate: this is my body, which is for you: broken for you: this do ye in remembrance of me.

25 After the same maner also heooke the cuppe, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood:
this doe as oft as ye drinke it, in remem brance of me.

26 For as often as ye shal eate this bread, and drinke this cup, ye shewe the Lordes death till he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoever shal eate this bread, and drinke the cuppe of the Lord vnto worship, shal be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 * Let a man therefore examine himselfe, and so let him eate of this bread, & drinke of this cup.

29 For he that eateth & drinketh vnto wship, eateth and drinketh his owne dam nation, because hee discerneth not the Lordes body.

30 For this cause many are weak, & sicke among you, and many sleepe.

31 For if we would iudge our selves, we should not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are cha stened of the Lord, because we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eate, care one for another.

34 And if any man be hungry, let him eate at home, that he come not together vnto condemnation. Other things will I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

The diuersities of the giftes of the holy Ghost ought to be used to the edifying of Christs Church, &c. As the members of many bodies serue to the use of one another.

NOW concerning spiritual giftes, by the Lord I would not haue you ignorant.

1 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, and were carried away vnto the dumme doles, as ye were led.

2 Wherefore, I declare vnto you, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, uer callet Iesus excrable: also no man can say that Iesus is the Lord, but by the ho ly Ghost.

3 Now there are diuersities of giftes, but the same Spirit.

4 And there are diuersities of administra tions, but the same Lord.

5 And there are diuersities of operations, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

6 But the manifestation of the Spirit is giuen to euery man, to profit withall.

7 For to one is giuen by the Spirit the word of wisdom: and to another the word of knowledge, by the same Spirit:

8 And to another is giuen faith, by the same Spirit: and to another the giftes of hea ling, by the same Spirit:

9 And to another the operations of great woikes: and to another, i prophesie:

10 And to another, the discerning of spirites: and to another, diuersities of the tongues: and to another, the interpre tation of tongues.

11 * And all these things worketh euery man selfe same Spirit, distributing to euery man severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, which is one, though they be many, yet are but one body: euen so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptiz ed into one body, whether we be Jewes or Gentiles, whether we be bond, or free, and haue bene al made to drinke into one Spirit.

14 For the body also is not one member,
but many.

15 If the foot would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the eie would say, Because I am not the eie, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eie, where were the hearing: if the whole were hea ring, where were the smelling?

18 But now God hath disposed the mem bers euery one of them in the body at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are there many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eie can not say vnto the hand,
I haue no neede of thee: nor the head as we are incorpo rated into Christ.

22 Yea, much rather those members of the body, which saye to be more feeble, are needed by the same Spirit.

23 And therefore whatsoever the diuersity is,
yeer the profit ought to be common, and seruet to the edification of the Church.

24 Whole vie seemeth to be more vile.

25 And therefore whatsoever the diuersity is,
yeer the profit ought
to be common, and seruet to the edification of the Church.

26 Whole vie seemeth to be more vile.

27 And therefore whatsoever the diuersity is,
yeer the profit ought
to be common, and seruet to the edification of the Church.

28 And therefore whatsoever the diuersity is,
yeer the profit ought
to be common, and seruet to the edification of the Church.

29 And therefore whatsoever the diuersity is,
yeer the profit ought
to be common, and seruet to the edification of the Church.

30 And therefore whatsoever the diuersity is,
yeer the profit ought
to be common, and seruet to the edification of the Church.

31 And therefore whatsoever the diuersity is,
yeer the profit ought
to be common, and seruet to the edification of the Church.

are necessarie.

o We are more careful to cover them.

p Every one in his office for the preservation of the body.

Or, every one for his part.
Ephes. 4. 11.
r As Deacons.
f As Elders.
Or, do you shew the best gifts.

a If the Angels had tongues, & I had the vfe thereof, and did not bestow them to profite my neighbour, it were nothing, but vaine babbling.

b Faith is here take for the gift of doing miracles, which the wicked may haue, as Mat. 7. 22. and also for that faith (called historical) which beleueth the mightie power of Christ, but can not apprehend Gods mercie through him: and this deuil haue, Iam. 2. 19. and therefore is separated from charitie, but y faith that iustifieth in effect can not, as 1. Iohn 2. 9.

c Not that it sufficeth it selfe to be abused, but iudgeth others by all loue and humanitie, & Which may be without offence of Gods worde, & Knowledge it selfe shall be perfected in the worlde to come, and not abolished: but the manner of knowing and teaching shall cease, when we shall be before Gods presence, where we shall neither neede scholes nor teachers.

d That is, imperfectly, Or, teach.

e Knowledge it selfe shall be perfected in the worlde to come, and not abolished: but the manner of knowing and teaching shall cease, when we shall be before Gods presence, where we shall neither neede scholes nor teachers.

f That is, imperfectly, Or, teach.

g The mystic of God.

h Because of God hath ordeined some in the Church: as first Apostles, secondly Prophets, thirdly teachers, then them that do miracles: after that, the gifts of healing, helpers, gouernours, diuersitie of tongues.

i All are Apostles: all are Prophets: all are teachers:

k All are doers of miracles: haue all the gifts of healing: doe all interpret tongues: doe all interpret?

l But desire you the best gifts, and I will shew you a more excellent way.

m Because loue is the fountain and rule of edifying the Church, it is set forth the nature, office & praise thereof.

n Though I speake with the tongues of men and Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding brasse, or a tinkling cymball.

o And though I had the gift of prophetic, and knewe all secrets, and all knowledge, pray, if I had all faith, so that I coulde reuolue mountains, and had not loue, I were nothing.

p And though I fede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my body, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

q Loue suffereth long: it is beniuolent: loue enuiereth not: loue doth not boast it selfe: it is not puffed up:

r It disdaineth not: it seeketh not her owne things: it is not psonoked to anger: it thinketh not euill:

s It reioiceth not in iniquitie, but reioiceth in the truth:

t It suffereth all things: it beleeueth all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth all things.

u Loue doth neuer fail away, though that propheticings be abolished, or the tongues cease, or knowledge banish away.

v For we knowe in part, and we prophesie in parte.

w But when that which is perfecte, is come, then that which is in parte, shall be abolished.

x When I was a childe, I spake as a childe, I vnderstode as a childe, I thought as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

y For now we see through a glasse darkely: but then shall we see face to face, now I know in parte: but then shall I knowe euery thing as I am knowne.

z And now abideth faith, hope, and loue, euery these three: but the chiefest of these is loue.

aa Hee exhorteth to loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, and other spirital gifts, but chiefly prophesying.

ab He commendeth women to keepe silence in the Church, and sheweth what good order ought to be obserued in the Church.

ac He sheweth after loue, and couer spiritual gifts, and rather p map prophetic: for he that speaketh a strange tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man heareth him: howbeit in the spirit he speaketh secret things.

ad But he that prophesieth, speaketh vnto men to edifying, and to exhortation, and to comfort.

ae He that speaketh strange language, edifieth himselfe: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the Church.

af I woulde that pee all spake strange languages, but rather that pee prophetic: for greater is he that prophesieth, then he that speaketh diuers tongues, except hee expound it, that the Church may receiue edification.

ag And now, brethren, if I come vnto you speaking diuers tongues, what shall I profite you, except I speake to you, either by reuelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

ah I desire things without life which giue a sonne, whether it be a pipe or an harpe, except they make a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be knowne what is piped or harped?

ai And also if the trumpet giue an vncertaine sound, who shall prepare himselfe to battell?

aj So likewise you, by the tongue, except pee utter wordes that haue signification, how shall it be vnderstand what is spoken? for pee shall speake in the air.

ak There are so many kindes of voyces (as it cometh to passe) in the worlde, and none of them is doime.

al Except I knowe then the power of the voyce, I shalbe vnto him that speaketh, a barbarian, and he that speaketh, shall be a barbarian vnto me.

am Euen so, forasmuch as pee conet spiritual gifts, like that pee may excel vnto the edifying of the Church.

e Christ's death is not effectual, except he rise from death.
f For if Christ be swallowed up of death, there is no hope of life any more.

g As mortification & remission of finnes depend on Christs death: so our quickening and restoring to life stand in his resurrection.
h You are not forgiuen nor sanctified.

* Or, only for this life sake.
Col. 1. 18.
scul. 1. 5.

i As by the offering of the first fruite the whole fruite is sanctified, so by Christ which is the first that is raised, all haue assurance of the resurrection.

k Who rose first from the dead to take possession in our flesh for vs his members.
l To wit, the faithful.
1. Thess. 4. 15.

m Christ as he is man and head of the Church, is said to be subiect to God: but in respect of the world, is king of heauen & earth. This kingdome standeth in gouerning faithfully, & overcoming the aduersaries, & death the chiefest: Which done, Christ being perfected, with all his members, shall as he is man, and head of the Church, with his fellow heites deliuer his kingdome, and be subiect to God, with whom and the holy Ghost in Godhead he is equal. Psal. 110. 1. act. 2. 34, 35. hebr. 1. 3. & 10. 13. Psal. 8. 6. heb. 2. 8.

n We shall perfectly fulfilled with his glorie and felicitie.
o That is, as dead, & because they were but newly come to Christ, would be baptized before they died. p Except these things be true of Christs kingdome, & his subiection, what shall become of them whom the Church daily baptizeth, for to destroy death in them which is the end of baptism, and so they to rise againe?

I am: and his grace which is in me, was not in bame: but I laboured more abundantly then they all: per not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

Wherefore whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and so haue ye beleued.

¶ Nowe if it be preached, that Christ is risen from the dead, howe say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

For if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vaine, and your faith is also vaine.

And were are founde also false witnesses of God: for we haue testified of God, that he hath raised by Christ: whom he hath not raised up, if so be the dead be not raised.

For if the dead be not raised, then is Christ not raised.

And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vaine: ye are per in your finnes.

And so they which are a slepe in Christ, are perished.

If in this life onely we haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.

But now is Christ risen from the dead, and was made the first frutes of them that slepe.

For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die, eue so in Christ shall all be made aliuie.

But euery man in his owne order: the first frutes is Christ, afterward, they that are of Christ, at his coming: shall rise againe.

Then shall be the rade, when hee hath delivered by the kingdome to God, euen the father, when he hath put down all rule, and all authoritie and power.

For he must reigne: till hee hath put all his enemies vnder his feete.

The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

For he hath put downe all things vnder his feete. (And when he saith that all things are subdued to him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put downe all things vnder him.)

And when all things shall be subdued vnto him, then shall the Sonne also himselfe be subiect vnto him, that did subdue all things vnder him, that God may be all in all.

¶ Els what shall they do which are baptized? For dead: if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for dead? Why are we also in jeopardy euery houre?

¶ By our reioicing which I haue in Christ Iesus our lord, I dye daily.

If I haue fought with beasts at Ephesus after the manner of men, what advantageth it mee, if the dead be not raised up? let vs eate and drinke: for to morowe we shall die.

We be not deceived: our speaking is corrupt good manner.

We wake to live rightly, & sinne not: for some haue not knowledge of God: I praye this to your shame.

But some man will saye, howe are the dead raised up? and with what body?

¶ I saie, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it die.

And by which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body: but bare sowe, as it falleth, of wheat, or of some other.

But God quicketh it a body at his pleasure, euen to euery sowe his owne body.

All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and an other of fishes, and an other of birdes.

There are also heauenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the glory of the heauenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

There is another glory of the sunne, and another glory of the moone, and another glory of the starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glory.

So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in corruption, and is raised in incorruption.

It is sown in dishonour, and is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness, and is raised in power.

It is sown a naturall body, and is raised a spirituall body: there is a naturall body, & there is a spirituall body.

¶ As it is also written, The first man Adam was made a living soule: & the last y Christ bringeth vs from the dead.

¶ Howbeit that was not first made which heauenly is: but that which is naturall, and afterward that which is spirituall.

¶ The first man is of the earth earthly: the second man is of heauen.

¶ As is the earthly, such are they that are earthly: and as is the heauenly, such are they also that are heauenly.

¶ And as we haue borne the image of flesh hath this the earthly, so shall we beare the image glory by power of the heauenly.

¶ Thus saie I, brethren, that flesh and blood can not inherit the kingdome of a Both in subiection, neither doeth corruption inherit the kingdome: neither doeth corruption inherit the kingdome.

¶ Beholde, I shewe you a secrete thing, but this naturall body shall not all sleepe, but we shall all be changed.

¶ When the Lorde commeth to iudgement, some of the Saints shall be aliuie, whom he will change euen as if they were dead, so that this change is in stead of death to them.

¶ I saie to witte all my sorrowes wherein I may fully reioyce in the Lorde, that I haue suffered them among you. That shewing regard to this present life, and not to Gods glorie, and to life euertlasting. 1. Cor. 13. 12, 13.

¶ Menander in Th. 2. 6.

¶ There is one substance as touching the flesh both of man and beast, but difference is as touching the soules. ¶ Euen as the Sunne and Moone being of one substance differ in dignitie: so in the resurrection our bodies shall haue different qualities then they haue now.

¶ For what is more vile to looke vnto, than the dead carcase? ¶ Not changing the substance, but made partaker of the diuine nature.

¶ Gen. 2. 7. Adam was made a living soule: & the last y Christ bringeth vs from the dead. ¶ This is attributed to Christ as concerning his diuinitie, not in respect of his humanity, whose nature is fleshly.

¶ This is attributed to Christ as concerning his diuinitie, not in respect of his humanity, whose nature is fleshly.

them well in \S Lord, declaring that albeit certaine wicked persons abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his authority, yet they were necessarie scholings, & sent to him by God for their bettering. And where as they blame his long absence, & come of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inhabilitie and impetition, least contrary to his fatherly affection, he should have bene compelled to use rigour and severity. And as touching his sharpe writing in the former epistle, it came through their fault, as is now evident both in this, that he pardoneth y^e trespasser, seeing he doeth repent: and also in that he was vnquiet in his minde, till he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuch as the false apostles went about to vndermine his authority, hee comforteth their arrogant braggies, and commendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan must have greatly blinded their eyes, which see not the brightness of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnesse of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idolatrie, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorow which engendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercie and compassion towards our brethren: also wisdom to put difference betwixt the simplicity of the Gospel, & the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the truth, fought only to kill their bellies, whereas he contrariwise, sought them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persons slandered him: wherefore at his comming he menaceth such as rebel against his authority, that he wil declare by liuely example, that he is the faithful ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. I.

4 He declareth the great profite that cometh to the faithful by their afflictions. 15. 17 And because they should not vngrate to lightnes, that he deferred his coming contrary to his promise, he prometh his confidence, both by the sinceritie of his preaching, & also by the immutable truth of the Gospel. 21 Which truth is grounded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holy Ghost.

But an Epistle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, and our brother Timotheus, to the Church of God, which is at Corinthus with all the Saints, which are in all Aschaia:

Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 Blessed be God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort.

4 Which comforteth vs in al our tribulation, that wee may bee able to comfort them which are in any affliction by the comfort wherewith wee our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in vs, so our consolation aboundeth through Christ.

6 And whether wee bee afflicted, it is for your consolation, and saluation, which is wrought in the enduring of the same sufferings, which wee also suffer: or whether wee be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hope is steadfast concerning you, in as much as we knowe that as pee are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For brethren, we woulde not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, howe wee were pressed out of measure passing strength, so that we altogether doubted, euen of life.

9 Yea, we receiued the sentence of death in our selues, because we should not trust in our selues, but in God, which rapeth the dead.

10 Ye haue deliuered vs from so great a perill, who are graces wrought in him. I was vicerely resolved in my selfe to die. So manie dangers of death.

death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whome we trust, that yet hereafter he will deliuer vs.

11 So that ye labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for many, thankes may be giuen by many persons for vs.

12 For our reioycing is this, the testimonie of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly purenesse, and not in fleshy wisdom, but by the grace of God we haue had our conuersation in the world, and most of all to youwardes.

13 For we write none other things vnto you, then that ye read, or else that ye acknowledge, and I trust ye shall acknowledge vnto the end.

14 Euen as pee haue acknowledged vs partise, that wee are your reioycing, euen as pee are ours, in the day of our Lord Iesus.

15 And in this confidence we I minded first to come vnto you, that pee might haue had a double grace,

16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be led forth towarde Iudea of you.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I lie lightnes? or minde I those things which I minde? according to the flesh that with me should be, Yea, yea, and Nay, nay?

18 Yea, God is faithful, that our word towarde you, was not Yea, and Nay.

19 For the Doome of God Iesus Christ, who was preached among you by vs, that is, by me, and Siluanus, and Timotheus: was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was Yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are Yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glorie of God through vs.

21 And it is God which stablisheth vs with you in Christ, & hath anointed vs,

22 Who hath also sealed vs, & hath giuen the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

Hee preached nothing vnto them but only Iesus Christ, who is the most constant and infallible truth of the Father. They are made and anointed, and wee are partakers only by him, who is our Amen, in that he hath fulfilled them for vs. Eph. 1. 13. and 4. 30. Eph. 1. 14. chap. 5. 5.

He sheweth his loue toward the. 7 Requiring likewise that they would be fauourable to the inconstant adulterer, seeing he doth repent. 14 He also reneweth in God for the efficacy of his doctrine. 17 Consoling thereby such quarrell pickers, as vnder pretence of speaking against his person, sought nothing but the overthrow of his doctrine.

1 Bide I determined thus in my selfe, that I would not come againe might know the psoe of you, whether ye would be obedient in all things.

them which perissh.

these things?

6 And to exalt his Apostleship against the brag of the false apostles, 7, 11. He maketh comparison betweene the Lawe and the Gospell.

1 Doe we begin to praise our selues as gaine? or as we be as some other, as pistles of recommendation vnto you, and Silanus,

2 Pe are our epistle, written in our hearts,

3 In that ye are manifest, to be the epistle of Christ ministered by vs, and written, before he be re-not with inke, but with the spirit of the liuing God, nor in tables of stone, but a fleshy tablets of the heart.

4 And such trust haue wee through Christ
to God:

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selues, to thinke any thing, as of our selues: but our sufficiency is of God.

6 Who also hath made vs able ministers of the newe testament, not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not beholde the face of Moyses for the gloie of his countenance: which glorie is done away.

8 How shall not the ministration of the spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation was glorious, much more doeth the ministration of righteousnesse excide in glorie.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceeding gloie.

11 For if that which should be abolished, was glorious, much more that which remaineth, be glorious.

we be great boldnesse of speech.

CHAP. IIII.

- 1 He declareth his diligence and roundnes in his office
2 And that which his enemies took for his disadvantage, to wit, the crosse & afflictions, which he endured, he turneth to his great advantage, 11. 17. Shewing vbat profit commeth thereby.

Therefore, seeing that we haue this misterie, as we haue receiued mercie, a we faint not:

- 2 But haue cast from vs the clothes of shame, and walke not in craftinesse, neither handle we the woide of God deceitfully: but in declaration of the trueth we appoyne our selues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God.
3 If our Gospell be then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

In whome the god of this worlde hath blinded the mindes, that is, of the infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospell of Christ, which is the image of God, shoulde not shine vnto them.

- 5 For we preach not our selues, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and our selues pour seruants for Jesus sake.

6 For God that commanded the light to shine out of darkenesse, is he which hath shined in our heartes, to giue the light of the knowledge of the glorie of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

- 7 But we haue this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of that power might be of God, and not of vs.

8 We are afflicted on euery side, yet are we not in distresse: in pouertie, but not in want: come of pouertie.

- 9 We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.

10 Euery where we beare about in our bodie the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus might also be made manifest in our bodie.

- 11 For we which liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Jesus sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortall fleshe.

h Albeit the ministers of the Gospell be contemptible as touching their person, yet the treasure which they cary is nothing worse or inferiour. i Al the faithful, & chiefly the ministers must drinke of this cup, because the world hateth Christ: & also that the members should be conformable to Christ their head, yet by y mighty power of Christ, who ouercame death, they are made conquerors.

- 12 So then death woiketh in vs, and life in you.

13 And because we haue the same Spirit of faith, according as it is writt'n, 'I of beleue, and therefore haue I spoken, we also beleue, and therefore speake,

- 14 Knowing that he which hath raised vs by the Lord Jesus, shall raise vs by also by Jesus, and shall set vs with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that most plenteous grace by the thanksgiving of many, may redounde to the praise of God.

- 16 Therefore we faint not, but though our outwarde man perish, yet the inward man is renewed daily.

17 For our light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth vnto vs a farre more excellent and an eternall weight of glory:

- 18 While we looke not on the things which are seene, but on the things which are not seene: for the things which are seene are temporal: but the things which are not seene, are eternall.

you all, which are both partakers of mine affliction & comfort, may abundantly set forth his glory. Or, be corrupted, a Growth stronger, p Which is called in respect of the euertlasting life.

CHAP. V.

- 1 Paul proceedeth to declare the vilitie that cometh by the crosse. 4 How we ought to prepare our selues vnto it, 5 By what, 9 And for what end, 14. 19 He stretcheth forth the grace of Christ, 20 And the office of ministers, and al the faithful.

For we knowe that if a our earthly house of this tabernacle be destroyed, we haue a building giuen of God, that is, an house not made with hands, but eternal in the heauens.

- 3 For therefore we sigh, desiring to be clothed with our house, which is from heauen.

4 Because that if we be clothed, we shall not be found naked.

- 5 For in this tabernacle, sigh and are burdened, because we would not be vnclothed, but would be clothed vpon, that mortallitie might be swallowed vp of life,

6 And he hath created vs for this thing, is God, who also hath giuen vnto vs the earnest of the Spirit.

- 7 Therefore we are alway bold, though we knowe that whiles we are at home in the bodie, we are absent from the Lord.

8 For we walke by faith, and not by sight

- 9 Nevertheless, we are bolde, and loue rather to moue out of this bodie, and to dwell with the Lord.

10 Wherefore also we couet, that both dwelling at home, and removing from home, we may be acceptable to him.

- 11 For we must all appeare before the iudgement seat of Christ, that euery man may receiue the things which are done in his bodie, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or euill.

12 Knowing therefore the terror of the iudgement, k By our death you haue life: of the fruit of our afflictions commeth to you. l The same faith by the inspiration of the holy Ghost.

Psal. 116. 10. m In deliueing vs from these dangers, which is as it were a restoring from death to life. n That I being deliuered and restored to you againe, may not only my self giue God thanks for this infinite benefite of deliverance, but also a After this body shalbe dissolved, it shall be made incorruptible and immortal.

Olde thinges are passed away: beholde, all thinges are become newe. 18 And all thinges are of God, which hath reconciled vs vnto him selfe by Iesus Christ, and hath giuen vnto vs the ministerie of reconciliation. 19 For God was in Christ, and reconciled the worlde to him selfe, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hath committed to vs the worlde of reconciliation. 20 Nowe then are wee ambassadours for Christ: as though God did beseech you through vs, wee pray you in Christs steade, that ye be reconciled to God. 21 For he hath made him to be sinne for vs, which knew no sinne, that we should be made the righteousnesse of God in him.

2 I speake it not to your condemnation: for I haue laid besyde, that ye are in our hearts, to die and liue together.
3 I vse great boldnesse of speech toward you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.
4 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on euery side, fightings without, and terrors within.
5 But God, that comforteth the afflicted, comforted vs at the coming of Titus:
6 And not by his coming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith he was comforted of you, when he tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your earnest minde to murther, so that I reioycer much more.
7 For though I made you sorie with a letter, I repenteth, though I did repent: for I perceiue that the same epistle made you sorie, though it were but for a season.
8 I now reioyce, not that ye were sorie, but that ye followed to repentance: for ye followed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.
9 For godly sorowe causeth repentance vnto saluation, not to be repented of: but the worldly sorow causeth death.
10 For behold, this thing that ye haue bene godly sorie, what great care hath wrought in you: yea, what clearing of your selues: yea, what indignation: yea, what feare: yea, howe great desire: yea, what a zeale: yea, what a punishment: in all thinges ye haue shewed your selues, that ye are pure in this matter.
11 Wherefore, though I wrote vnto you, I did not it for your cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care toward you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.
12 Therefore we were comforted, because ye were comforted: but rather we reioycer much more for the ioy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.
13 For if that I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I haue not bene ashamed: but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in truth, even so our boasting vnto Titus was true.
14 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, when he remembreth the obedience of you all, and howe with feare and trembling ye receyued him.
15 I reioyce therefore that I may put up confidence in you in all thinges.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the example of the Macedonians, 9 And Christ, he exhorted them to continue in relieuing the poore Saintes, commending their good beginning. 23 After he commendeth Titus and his fellowes vnto them.

WE do pour also to wit, brethren, of the grace of God bestowed vpon a This benediction of God appeared in two things: first, that the Churches of Macedonia, being in so great afflictions were so prompt to helpe others: and next that they would receive the grace, and fellowe being in great ship of the ministering which is toward poeuerie, were very liberal to wards others.
2 And this they did, not as we looked for: but gave their owne selues, first to the Lord, & after vnto vs by the will of God, abundantly.
3 That wee should exhort Titus, that as of riches flowed he had begunne, so he would also account out of their poeuerie, the same grace among you also.
4 Therefore, as ye abound in euery thing, in faith and word, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, even so see that ye abound in this grace also.
5 This say I not by commandment, but because of the diligence of others: thes because they reioyce yee in the naturalnesse of you ceied them of God freely, and so they desired Paul to see to the distribution thereof.
6 For ye knowe the grace of our Lord Ies Christ, that hee being rich, for your sakes became poore, that ye through his poeuerie might be made rich.
7 And I shewe my minde herein: for this is expedient for you, which haue begun not to doe onely, but also to will, a pere agoe.
8 Nowe therefore perfoyme to doe it also, that as there was a readines to will, euen so ye may perfoyme it of which ye haue. but to will, and

CHAP. IX.

- The coming of Titus and his companions coming to them. 6 He exhorteth to giue almes charitably, 7 Shewing what fruite will come thereof.
- 1 For as touching the ministering to the Baintes, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you.
- 2 For I knowe your readinesse of minde, wherof I boast my selfe of you vnto the of Macedonia, and say, that Achaia was prepared a yere ago, and your zeale hath prouoked many.
- 3 Shewe haue I sent the brethren, lest our reioycing over you shoulde be in vaine in this behalfe, that pee (as I haue said) be readier.
- 4 Least if they of Macedonia come with me, & finde you vnprepared, wee I neede not to say, you shoulde be ashamed in this my constant boasting.
- 5 Wherefore, I thought it necessarie to exhort y^e brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appoynted afore, that it might be ready, and come as of beneuolence, and not as of sparing.
- 6 This pe remember, that hee which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and hee that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.
- 7 As euery man witheth in his heart, so let him giue, not grudgingly, of necessity: for God loveth a cheerefull giuer.
- 8 And God is able to make all grace to abound toward you, that pe alwayes haue all sufficiency in all things, map as bound in euery good worke.

- 10 Also hee that sowerth seede to the sower, will minister likewise bread for soode, and multiple your seede, & increase the fruite of your beneuolence.
- 11 That on all partes pee map made rich vnto all liberality, which caneth through by thanksgiuing vnto God:
- 12 For the ministeration of this seruice not onely supplieth necessities of Baintes, but also is abundant by the thanksgiuing of many vnto God:
- 13 (Which by the experiment of this ministeration praise God for your voluntarie submissiōs to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution to them, and to all men)
- 14 And by their prayer for you, desiring after you greatly, for the abundant grace of God in you.

15 Thanks therefore be vnto God for his unspeakable gift.

CHAP. X.

- He toucheth the false apostles & defendeth his autoritie, exhorting them to obedience, 11 And sheweth what his power is, 13 And howe he wisheth.
- 1 Nowe I Paul my selfe beseeche you by the mekenesse, and gentlenesse of Christ, which whil I am present among you, no base, but am bolde toward you being absent:
- 2 And this I require you, that I need not to be bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to be bolde against some, which esteeme vs as though we walked according to the flesh.
- 3 Heretofore, though we walke in the flesh, yet we doe not warre after the flesh, (for the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but mightie through God, to cast downe holdes)
- 4 Calling downe the imaginations, and euery high thing that is exalted against the knowlege of God, and bringing into captiuitie euery thought to the obedience of Christ.
- 5 And hauing readie the vengeance against disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.
- 6 Look pe on things after the appearance? I say man trust in him selfe that he is Christes, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he is Christes, even so are we Christes.
- 7 For though I shoulde boast somewhat more of our autoritie, which the Lord hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I shoulde haue no shame.
- 8 This I say that I map not seeme as it were to feare you with letters.
- 9 For the letters, saith he, are soe and strong, but his bodilp presence is weaker, and his speech is of no value.
- 10 Let such one thinke this, that such as we are in word by letters, when we are absent, such will we be also in deed, when we are present.
- 11 For we dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to the, which praise themselves: but they thus deride not that they measure themselues with them selues, and compare they howe ones themselues with theirs.
- 12 But we wal not reioyce of things, which are not within our measure, but according to the measure of the line, wherof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine euen vnto you.
- 13 For we stretch not our selues beyonde our measure, as though we had not attained vnto you: for euen to you also the brunt, is neane we come in preaching the Gospel of the valiant nor expert?
- 14 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shall increase, to be magnified by you according to our line abundantly.

These wordes his backbiters vsed, thinking thereby to diminish his autoritie, as verse 10. b As though we boasted of our selues by carnall affection

2 He declareth his affection toward them, 5. The excellencie of his ministerie, 9. And his diligence in the same. 13. The fetches of the false apostles. 16. The peruerse iudgements of the Corinthians, 22. And his owne praise.

a He calleth the praising of him selfe dotage, to the which thing the arrogancie of the false apostles compelled him, who fought nothing els, but to ouerthrowe the Church by diminishing the authority of his ministerie.

b To speake in mine owne commendation, c The minister marieth Christ and his church as husband and wife by the preaching of the Gospell, Gen. 2. 4.

d That is, more perfect doctrine concerning Christ Iesus.

e More excellent gifts of the Spirit by other mens preaching.

f They did not preach Christ more purely then I did for in this behalfe I was nothing inferior to the chiefeest Apostles.

g That is, vse no worldly eloquence.

h Other Churches relieved me, i Hee did not onely labour with his hands for his liuing, but in his extreeme povertie preached diligently, without burdening any man, or els waxing slouthful to doe his dutie to euery man. Chap. 12. 13. 1. Cor. 20. 34. k Let not the truth of Christ be thought to be in me, if I suffer my ioye to be shut vp, which I haue conceiued of Grecia. l To slander my ministerie, if I should receiue wages, 19 Would to God, wee could suffer a little more foolihnes, and in derde, we suffer me.

20 For I am ielous ouer you, with godly ielousie: for I haue prepared you for one husband, to present you as a pure virgine to Christ.

21 But I feare least as the serpent beguiled Eue through his subtiltie, so your mindes should be corrupt from the simplicitie that is in Christ.

22 For if hee that commeth, preacheth another Iesus then him whome we haue preached: or if he receiue another Spirit then that which we haue receiued: either another Gospell, then that we haue receiued, we might wel haue suffered him.

23 Verely I suppose that I was not inferior to the deere chiefe Apostles.

24 And though I be rude in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledg, but among you we haue bene made manifest to be vniuol, in all things.

25 I haue committed an offence, because I abased my selfe, that we might be exalted, and because I preached to you the Gospell of God freely.

26 I robbed other Churches, & toke wages of them to doe you seruite.

27 And when I was present with you, and had neede, I was not slothful to the hindrance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto mee, the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied, and in all things I kept and will keepe my selfe, that I should not be grieuous to you.

28 The truth of Christ is in me, that this reioycing shall not be that vp against me in the regions of Achaia.

29 Wherefore? because I loue you not? God knoweth.

30 But what I doe, that will I doe: that I may cut away occasion from them which desire occasion, that they might be founde like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.

i Hee did not onely labour with his hands for his liuing, but in his extreeme povertie preached diligently, without burdening any man, or els waxing slouthful to doe his dutie to euery man. Chap. 12. 13. 1. Cor. 20. 34. k Let not the truth of Christ be thought to be in me, if I suffer my ioye to be shut vp, which I haue conceiued of Grecia. l To slander my ministerie, if I should receiue wages,

For such false apostles are deceitfull as by false workers, and transfigure themselves into the Apostles of Christ.

14 And no maruel: for Satan him selfe is transfigured into an Angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, though his ministers transfigure them selues, as would haue though they were the ministers of righte onnesse, whose end shall bee according to their workes.

16 I say againe, let no man thinke, that I am foolish: or else take meeren as a foole, that I also may boast my selfe a little.

17 That I speake, I speake it not after the Lord: but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting.

18 Seeing that many reioyce after the flesh, I will reioyce also.

19 For I suffer fooles gladly, because that they be wise.

20 For I suffer euery if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a man exalt him selfe, if a man smite you on the face,

21 I speake as concerning the reioyce, as though that we had bene weak: but wherein any man is bolde (I speake foolishly) I am bolde also.

22 They are Ebjewes, so am I: they are Ihesuites, so am I: they are the seede of Abraham, so am I:

23 They are the Ministers of Christ, (I speake as a foole) I am more: in labours more abundant: in stripes aboute measure: in prison more plentifully: in death oft.

24 Of the Jewes I fene times receiued I fourety stripes I saue one.

25 I was thise beateu with roddes: I was once stoned: I suffered thise whipps, I saw worch: night and day haue I bene in the deepe sea.

26 In iourneping I was often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of mine owne nation, in perils among the Gentiles, in perils in the citie, in perils in wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren,

27 In wearinesse and painefulnesse, in watching often, in hunger & thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakednesse.

28 Beside the things which are outwarde, I am climbed daile, and haue the care of all the Churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burne not?

30 If I must needs reioyce, I will reioyce of mine infirmities.

31 The God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which is blessed for euermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In Damascus the gouernour of the people vnder King Aretas, laped watch and such like: in the citie of the Damascens, and would haue caught me.

33 But at a windowe was I let downe in a basket through the wall, and escaped his handes.

CHAP. XII.

1 He reioyceth in his preferments, 5. 7 But chiefly in his humblenesse, 11 And layeth the cause of his boasting upon the Corinthians. 14 He sheweth what good will he beareth them, 20 And promisseth to come unto them.

1 I t is not expedient for me no doubt to reioyce: for I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I know a man in Christ above foure yere paces ago, whether he were in the body, I can not tell, or out of the body, I can not tell: God knoweth which was taken up into the third heauen.

3 And I know such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I can not tell: God knoweth)

4 How that he was taken up into Paradyse, and heard voyces which can not be spoken, which are not possible for man to utter.

5 Of such a man will I reioyce: of my selfe will I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For though I would reioyce, I shoulde not be a foole: for I will lay the crueth, but I reframe, least any man shoulde thinke of me aboue that he saith in me, or that he beareth of me.

7 And least I shoulde be exalted out of measure through the abundance of revelations, there was giuen unto me a picke in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I shoulde not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect through weaknesse. Wep glady therefore will I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguish for Christs sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my selfe: ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue bene commended of you: for in nothing was I inferior unto the very chief Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes, and wonders, and great voyces.

13 For what is it, wherein ye were inferior vnto other Churches? except that I haue not bene sofull to your hindrance: forgiue me this wrong.

14 Beholde, the third time I am ready to come vnto you, and yet will I not be sofull to your hindrance: for I like not power, but I for the children ought not to lay up for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will most gladly bestowe, & will be bestowed for your soules: though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued.

16 But be it that I charged you not: I write from Ephesus to Corinthus, Chap. 1. 15. Which intent being changed, hee went from Macedonia, from whence nowe hee appointed the third time to come vnto them. I Which declareth his fatherly affection. Or your cause, or persons.

per so far as much as I was crafty, I toke k Thus sayd his adversaries, that though he tooke it not by himselfe, yet he did it by the means of others.

17 Did I pill you by any of them whome I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pill you of any thing? walked we not in the selfe same spirit? walked we not in the same stepes?

19 Again, thinke ye that we erre out of selues vnto you? we speake before God in Christ. But we doe all things, dearly beloued, for your edifying.

20 For I feare least when I come, I shall not finde you such as I would: and that I shall be found vnto you such as ye would not, and least there be strife, enuies, wraths, contentions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, and discorde.

21 I feare lest when I come againe, my God abase me among you, & I shall beuile many of them which haue sinned already, & haue not repented of the vnicleanesse, and fornication, and wantonnesse, which they haue committed.

14 Seeing that ye lacke experyence of Christ, that speaketh in me, which toward you is not weak, but is mightie in you.

15 For though he was crucified, concerning his infirmities, yet liueth he by the power of God. And we no doubt are made in him: but we shall liue with him, through the power of God towards you.

16 Whome ye know whether ye are in the faith: examine your selues: knowe ye not your owne selues, howe that Iesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates? But I trust that ye shall knowe that we are not reprobates.

17 Now I pray vnto God that ye doe none euill, nor that we shoulde seeme approued, but that ye shoulde doe that which is honest: though we be as reprobates.

18 For we can not doe any thing against the crueth, but for the crueth.

19 For we are glad when we are weak, and that ye are strong: this also we wish for, even your perfection.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGUMENT.

THE Galatians, after they had bene instructed by S. Paul in the truth of the Gospell, gave place to false apostles, who entering in in his absence corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, and taught that the ceremonies of the Law must be necessarily observed, which thing this Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that he proueth that the granting thereof, is the overthrow of mans salvation purchased by Christ : for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretend, as though they had bene sent of the chiefe Apostles, and that Paul had no authority, but spake of himselfe, he proueth both that he is an Apostle ordained by God, and also that he is not inferior to the rest of the Apostles: which thing established, he proceedeth to his purpose, prouing that we are freely iustified before God without any works or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commoditie: but now they are not only vnprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the truth and the end thereof is come: wherefore men ought now to embrace that libertie, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, and not to haue their consciences snared in the gennes of mans traditions: finally he sheweth wherein this libertie consisteth, and what exercises appertaine thereunto.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul rebuketh their inscience which suffered the feloes to be seduced by the false apostles, who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the Law were necessarie to saluation, 8 And de-ceiteth them that preach any other waye than Christi purely, 13 He sheweth his owne conversation, magnifieth his office & Apostleship, and declareth himselfe to be equal with the chiefe Apostles.

8 But though that we, or an Angel from heauen preach vnto you otherwise, then that which we haue preached vnto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said befoze, so I say nowe againe,
If any man preach vnto you otherwise then that yee haue receiued, let him be accursed.

10 For I nowe preach I mans doctrine, of Gods? or go I about to please men?
for if I should yet please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

11 * Now I certify you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, was not after ^h man.

13 For neither receiued I it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the reuelati-on of Iesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past, in the Jewish religion, how that I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it.

14 And profited in the Jewish religion as bone and marrow of my companions of mine owne nation, and was much more zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

5 But when it pleased God (which had separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace)

- 18 Then after three yeeres I came againe to Jerusalem to visite Peter, and abode with him fifteen dayes.
- 19 And none other of the Apostles saw I, save James the Lordes brother.
- 20 Nowe the things which I write unto you, bebold, I write before God, that I lie not.
- 21 After that, I went into the coastes of Syria and Cilicia: for I was unknowne by face unto the Churches of Iudea, which were in Christ.
- 22 But they had heard onely some say, He which persecuted us in time past, nowe preacheth the faith, which before he destroyed.

CHAP. II.

Confirming his Apostleship to be of God, 3 He sheweth why Titus was not circumcised, 6 And that he is nothing inferior to other Apostles: 11 Test, & that he hath reproved Peter the Apostle of the Iewes. 16 After he cometh to the principal scope, which is to prove that iustification only cometh of the grace of God by faith in Iesu Christ, and not by the works of the Lawe.

- 1 Then fouenteene yeeres after, I went up againe to Jerusalem with Barnabas, & tooke with me Titus also.
- 2 And I went up by revelation, & communicated with them of the Gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but particularly with them that were the chiefe, least by any means I should ruine, or had ruine^a in vaine.
- 3 But neither pet Titus which was with me, though he were a Grecian, was compelled to be circumcised.
- 4 For all the false brethren that crept in: who came in privily to trye out our libertie, which we have in Christ Iesus, that they might bring us into bondage.
- 5 To whom we gave not place by subjection for an houre, that the truth of the Gospel might continue with you.
- 6 And of them which seemed to bee great, I was not taught (what they were in time past), it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no mans person: neither lesse, they that are the chiefe, did communicate nothing with me.
- 7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the Gospel once by uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the Gospel once the circumcision was unto Peter:
- 8 (For he that was mightie by Peter in the Apostleship over the Circumcision, was also mightie by me towards the Gentiles)
- 9 And when James, and Cephas, and John knew of the grace that was given unto me, which are counted to be pillars, they gave to me and to Barnabas the right handes of fellowship, that

- we should preach unto the Gentiles, and they unto the Circumcision.
- 10 * Warning only that we should remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to doe.
- 11 And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I with him went to his sacrefice: he was to be blamed.
- 12 For before that certaine came from James, he ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated him selfe, fearing them which were of the Circumcision.
- 13 And the other Jewes dissembled likewise with him, as much that Barnabas was brought into their dissimulation also.
- 14 But when I saw, that they went not the right way to the truth of the Gospel, I said unto Peter before all men, If thou being a Jewe, livest as the Gentiles, and not like the Jewes, why dost thou strainest thou the Gentiles to do like the Jewes?
- 15 We which are Jewes by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,
- 16 knowe that a man is not iustified by the workes of the Lawe, but by the faith of Iesus Christ: even we, I say, have beene learned in Iesus Christ, that we might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Lawe, because that by the workes of the Lawe no flesh shall be iustified.
- 17 * If then while we seeke to be made righteous by Christ, we our selves are founde sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God forbid.
- 18 For if I build againe the things that I have destroyed, I make my selfe a trespasser.
- 19 For I through the Lawe am dead to the Lawe, and that I might live unto God, I am crucified with Christ.
- 20 Thus I live, yet not I nowe, but Christ liveth in me: and in that that I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith in the sonne of God, who hath loved me, and given him selfe for me.
- 21 I doe not abrogate the grace of God: for if righteousness be by the Lawe, then Christ died without a cause.

- 1 O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you that ye should not obey the truth, to whose likeness Christ before was described in your lively sight, and among you crucified?

3 Are ye so foolish, that after ye haue begunne in the Spirit, ye would now be made perfect by the flesh?

4 Haue ye suffered so many things in vaine? if so be it be euen in vaine.

5 He therefore that ministrith to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it through the workes of the Law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

6 Ye rather as Abraham beleued God, and it was imputed to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 For the Scripture foresaying, that God would iustifie the Gentiles through faith, preached before the Gospell vnto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all the Gentiles be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the fowkes of the Lawe, are vnder the curse: for it is written, Cursed is euerie man that continueth not in all things, which are written in the booke of the Lawe, to doe them.

11 And that no man is iustificd by the Lawe in the sight of God, it is euident: for the iust shall liue by faith.

12 And the Lawe is not of faith: but the man that shall doe those things, shall liue in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Lawe, when he was made a curse for vs: for it is written, Cursed is euerie one that hangeth on a tree.

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Iesus, that we might receiue the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speake as men doe, Though it be but a mans couenant when it is confirmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or addeth any thing thereto.

16 Nowe to Abraham and his seede were the promises made. He saith not, And to the seedes, as speaking of many: but, And to thy seede, as of one, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the Lawe which was foure hundred and thirtie yeres after, can not disannull the covenant that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christ, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the Lawe, it is no more by the promise, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then saith the Lawe? It was added because of thy transgressions, that thou shouldest be iustificd by the Lawe.

ons, till the seede came vnto the which the promise was made: and it was ordained by Angels in the hand of a Mediator.

20 Nowe a Mediatour is not a Mediatour of one: but God is one.

21 Is the Lawe then against the promise of God? God saybid: for if there had bene a Lawe giuen which couide haue giuen life, surety righteousness shoulde haue bene by the Lawe.

22 But the Scripture hath concluded all vnder sinne, that the promise by the faith of Iesus Christ should be giuen to them that beleue.

23 But before faith came, we were kept vnder the Lawe, and shut vp vnto the faith, which shoulde afterwarde be revealed.

24 Wherefore the Lawe was our schooles maister to bring vs to Christ, that we might be made righteous by faith.

 15 What was then your felicity? For I beare you record, that if it had bene possible, ye would haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue given them to mee.
 16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

 18 But it is a good thing, to loue earnestly alwayes in a good thing, and not onely when I am present with you.
 19 My little children, of whome I traualle in birth againe, until Christ be joyined in you.
 20 And I would I were with you now, that I might change my booper: for I am in dout of you.
 21 Tell me, pe that will be vnder the Law, doe ye not heare the Law?
 22 For it is writen, that Abraham had two sonnes, one by a seruant, and one by a free woman.
 23 But he which was of the seruant, was boine after the flesh: and he which was of the free woman, was borne by promise.
 24 As the which thinges an other thing is meant: for these mothers are the two Testaments, the one which is Agar of mount Sina, which gendereth vnto bondage.
 25 For Agar or Sina is a mountaine in Arabia, and it answereth to Ierusalem which now is: & she is in bondage with her children.
 26 But Ierusalem, which is above, is free: which is the mother of vs all.

27 For it is writen, Heiope thou bars ren that bearest no children: break forth, and crye, thou that trauallest not: for the desolate hath many ino children, then she which hath an husband.
 28 Therefore, brethren, we are after the manner of Isaac, children of the promise.
 29 But as then hee that was boine after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the spirit: euen so it is now.
 30 But what saith the Scripture? Put out the seruant and her sonne: for the sonne of the seruant shall not be heire with the sonne of the free woman.
 31 Then brethren, we are not children of the seruant, but of the free woman.
 CHAP. V.
 1 He laboureth to draw them away from circumcision, 17 And sheweth them the battle betwixt the Spirit & the flesh, and the fruites of them both.
 2 Canbe false therefore in the libertie wherewith Christ hath made vs free, and be not mingled againe with the yoke of bondage.
 3 Beholder, I Paul say vnto you, that if ye be a circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.
 4 For I testifie againe to every man, which is circumcised, that he is bound to keepe the whole Lawe.
 5 Ye are abolished from Christ: whosoever are iustified by the Lawe, ye are fallen from grace.
 6 For we through the Spirit waitte for the hope of righteousness through faith.
 7 For in Iesus Christ neither Circumcision auileth any thing, neither vncircumcision, but faith which woyleth by loue.
 8 Ye did runne well: who did let you, that ye did not obey the truth?
 9 It is not the perswasion of him that calletly you.
 10 A little e leauen doth leaue the whole hump.
 11 I haue trust in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you, shall beare his condemnation, whosoever he be.
 12 And brethren, if I yet preach circumcision why doe I yet suffer persecution? Then is the slander of the crosse abolished.
 13 Would to God they were euen cut off, which do disquiet you.
 14 For brethren, ye haue bene called vnto libertie: onely use not your libertie as an occasion vnto the flesh, but by loue serue one another.
 15 For all the Lawe is fulfilled in one woyle, which is this, Thou shalt loue thy neightbour as thy selfe.
 16 If ye bite and deuour one another, take heed least ye be consumed one of another.
 17 Then I say, walke in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lustes of the flesh.

CHAP. VI.

He exhorteth them to use gentlenesse toward the weakes, and to shew their brotherly loue and modestie: also to provide for their ministers, to perseuer, to reioyce in the croste of Christ, to newnesse of life, and last of all to shew to them with the rest of the faithfull all prosperitie.

in him selfe onely and not in another.
5 For euery man shall beare his owne burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the worde, make him that hath taught him, partaker of all his goodes.

7 Be not deceived: God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reape.

8 For he that sower to his flesh, shall of the flesh reape corruption: but he that sower to the spirit, shall of the spirit reape life euermore.

9 Let vs not therefore be wearie of well doing: for in due season we shall reape, if we faint not.

10 While we haue therefore time, let vs doe good vnto all men, but specially vnto them, which are of the household of faith.

11 Ipe see how large a letter I haue written vnto you with mine owne hand.

12 As many as desire to make a faire shewe in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised, onely because they would not suffer persecution for the crose of Christ.

13 For they themselves which are circumcised, keepe not the Lawe, but desire to haue you circumcised, that they might reioyce in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should reioyce, but in the crose of our Lord Iesus Christ, whereby the world is crucified vnto me, and I vnto the world.

15 For in Christ Iesus neither circumcision nor any thing, nor vncircumcision, nor any other thing, nor any creature.

16 And as many as walke according to this rule, peace shall be vpon them, and mercie, and the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ.

17 From henceforth let no man put me to business: for I beare in my body the marks of the Lord Iesus.

¶ Vnto the Galatians written from Rome.

The Epistle of Paul to the Ephesians.

THE ARGUMENT.

While Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entred in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which hee had taught them, by reason whereof hee wrote this Epistle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutation, he assureth them of saluation, because they were therunto predestinate by the free election of God, before they were borne, and sealed vp to his eternall life by the holy Ghost, giuen vnto them by the Gospel, the knowledge of the which mystic he prayeth God to confirme toward them, And to intent they should not glory in themselves, he sheweth them

thus their extreme miserie, wherein they were plunged before they knew Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whom the promises were not made, and yet by the free mercie of God in Christ Iesus, they were saved, and he appointed to be their Apostle, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he desired God to lighten the Ephesians hearts with the perite understanding of his sonne, & exhorteth them like wise to be mindefull of so great benefites, neither to be moued with the false apostles, which seeke to ouerthrow their faith, & treade vnder foote the Gospel, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternal counsell of God: who by this meanes preferreth onely his Church. Therefore the Apostle commendeth his ministerie, for as much as God thereby reigneth among men, and causeth it to bring forth most plentiful fruits, as innocencie, holines, with all such offices appertaining to godlines. Last of al, he declareth not onely in generall, what ought to be the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly, what things concerne every mans vocation.

CHAP. 11.

After his salutation, 4 He sheweth that the chief cause of their salutation standeth in the free election of God through Christ. 16 Hee declareth his good will towards the church, giving thanks and praying God for their faith. 21 The maiestie of Christ.

6 And hath raised vs vp together, and made vs sit together, in the heauenly places in Christ Iesus,

7 That he might shewe in the ages to come, the exceeding riches of his grace, through his kindekinse towards vs in Christ Iesus.

8 For by grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of your selues: it is the gift of God,

9 Not of works, lest any man should boast himselfe.

10 For we are his workmanship created in Christ Iesus vnto good works, which God hath ordeined, y we should walke in them.

11 Wherefore I remember that ye bring in time past Gentiles in the flesh, and called vncircumcision of them, which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with handes,

12 That ye were, I say, at that time without Christ, and were aliens from the common wealth of Israel, and were strangers from the covenants of promise, and had no hope, and were without God in the world.

13 But now in Christ Iesus, ye which once were farre off, are made nere by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hath made of both one, and hath broken the strophe of the partition wall,

16 And that he might reconcile both vnto God in one body by his crosse, and slap hatred thereby.

17 And came, and preached peace to you which were a farre off, and to them that were nere.

22 In whom ye also are built together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

1 He sheweth the cause of his imprisonment, 13 Desires them not to faile because of his trouble, 14 And prayeth God to make them steadfast in his Spirit.

1 For this cause, I stand am the prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 If ye haue heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, which is given me to youwarde,

3 That is, that God by reuelatio hath shewed this myserie vnto me (as I wrote above in fewe wordes,

4 Whereby when ye reade, ye may knowe my vnderstanding in the myserie of Christ)

5 Which in other ages was not opened vnto the sonnes of men, as it is now reueiled vnto his holy Apostles and Prophets by the Spirit,

6 That the Gentiles should be inheritors also, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel,

7 Whereof I am made a minister by the gift of the grace of God given vnto me through the working of his power.

8 Euen vnto me the least of all Saints is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the vnsarcheable riches of Christ.

9 And to make cleare vnto all men what the fellowship of the myserie is, which from the beginning of the worlde hath bene hidde in God, who hath created all things by Iesus Christ,

10 To the intent, that now vnto the principallities and powers in heauenly places might be knowne by the Church the manifeste wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternal purpose, which he wrought in Christ Iesus our Lord.

12 As by whome we haue boldnes and entrance with confidence, by faith in him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faile not at my tribulations for your sakes, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bowe my knees vnto the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

15 (Of whome is named the whole sacrament in heaven and in earth)

16 That he might graunt you according to the riches of his glory, that ye may be strengthened by his Spirit in the inner man,

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith, that ye, being rooted & grounded in loue,

18 May be able to comprehend with all Saints, what is the breadth, & length, and depth, and height:

19 And to know the loue of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled with all fullnesse of God.

20 Vnto him therefore that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we aske or thinke, according to the power that worketh in vs,

21 Be ye able in the Church by Christ Iesus, throughout all generations for euer, Amen.

CHAP. IIIII.

He exhorteth them vnto meekenes, long suffering, vnto loue and peace, 3 Every one to serue and edifie an other with the gift that God hath given him, 14 To be ware of strange doctrine, 22 To lay aside the olde conuersation of greedy lustes, and so to walke in a newe life.

1 Therefore, being prisoner in the Lord, pray you that ye walke worthy of cause.

The Epiſtle of Paul to the Philippians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Paul being warned by the holy Ghoſt to goe to Macedonia, planted firſt a Church at Philippi a citie of the ſame country: but becauſe his charge was to preach the Goſpell vniuſually to all the Gentiles, he trauiſſed from place to place, till at the length he was taken priſoner at Rome, whereof the Philippians being aduertized, ſent their miniſter Epaphroditus with reliefe vnto him: who declaring him the ſtate of the Church, cauſed him to write this Epiſtle, wherein he commendeth them that they ſhould manfully againſt the falſe apoſtles, poſing them in mind of his good will toward them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonment make them not ſhrinke: for the Goſpel thereby was confirmed and not diminished: eſpecially he deſireth them to ſeeke ambition, and to embrace moſteſtie, promiſing to ſend Timotheus vnto them, who ſhould inſtruct them in matters more ample: yea, and that he himſelfe would alſo come vnto them, adding likewiſe the cauſe of their miniſters ſo long abode. And becauſe there were no greater ſchools to the croſſe then the falſe apoſtles, he comforteth their falſe doctrine, by promouing only Chriſt to be the end of all true religion, with whom we haue all thing, and without whom we haue nothing: ſo that his death is our life, and his reſurrection our iuſtification. After this follow certaine admonitions both particular and generally, with teſtification of his affection toward them, and thankfull accepting of their beneuolence.

CHAP. I.

Paul and Timotheus the ſervants of Jeſus Chriſt, to all ſanctified in Chriſt Jeſus which are at Philippi, with the Biſhops, & Deacons:

6 And I am perſuaded of this ſame thing, that hee that hath begun this good worke in you, will perſorme it vntill the day of Jeſus Chriſt.

7 As it becommeth me ſo to iudge of you all, becauſe I haue you in remembrance: that both in my bandes, and in my deſire, and confirmation of the Goſpell you all were partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how I long after you all from the deep heart reote in Jeſus Chriſt.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound, more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement,

12 I woulde per vnderſtand, brethren, that ſuch things what haue come vnto me, are turned rather to the furthering of the Goſpel.

13 So that my bandes in Chriſt are famous throughout all the iudgment hall, and in all other places,

14 In ſo much that many of the brethren in the Lord be boldened through my bandes, and dare more frankly ſpeake the word.

15 Some preach Chriſt euen through my bandes, and ſtrike, and ſome alſo of good will.

16 The old man preacheth Chriſt of contention and not merely, ſuppoſing to adde moſe affliction to my bandes:

18 What then? yet Chriſt is preached all manner waies: whether it be in vnder a pretence, or ſincerely: and I therein ioy: pre and will ioy.

19 For I know that this ſhall turne to my ſalutation through your prayers, & by the helpe of the Spirit of Jeſus Chriſt.

20 As I heare looke for, and hope, that in nothing I ſhall be aſhamed, but that with all confidence, as alwayes, ſo now Chriſt ſhall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

21 For Chriſt is to me both in life, and in deathly advantage.

5 That ye may have abundance of grace in Jesus Christ for me, by my coming to you againe.

6 Only let your conversation be, as it becometh the Gospel of Christ, that whether I come and see you, or els be absent, I may heare of your matters, that ye continue in one Spirit, and in one mind fighting together through the faith of the Gospel.

7 And in nothing feare your adversaries, which is to them a token of perdition, and to you of salvation, and that of God.

8 For unto you it is given for Christ, that not onely ye should believe in him, but also suffer for his sake.

9 Having the same fight, which he saw in me, and now heare to be in me.

him, and given him a Name above every Name.

10 That at the Name of Jesus should every knee bow, both of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things which be under the earth.

11 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is the Lord, unto the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence onely, but now much more in mine absence, so make an end of your owne salvation with feare and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both the will and the deede, even of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmuring and reasonings,

15 That ye may be blamelesse, and pure, and the sonnes of God without rebuke in the midst of a naughty and crooked nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world.

16 Holding forth the word of life, that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not runne in vaine, neither have laboured in vaine.

17 Yea, and though I be offered by upon the sacrifice, and secure of your faith, I am glad, and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also bee ye glad, and rejoice with me.

19 And I trust in the Lord Jesus, to sende Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man like minded, who will faithfully care for your matters.

21 If I for all sake there owne, and not that which is Jesus Christs.

22 But ye know the proofe of him, that as a sonne with the father, he hath served with me in the Gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send asoone as I know how it will goe with me.

24 And trust in the Lord, that I also myselfe shall come shortly.

25 But I supposed it necessary to send my brother Epaphroditus unto you, my companion in labour, a fellowe soldier, even your messenger, so that he ministered unto me such things as I wanted.

26 For he longed after you, and was full of heavinesse, because he had heard, that he had bene sicke.

27 And no doubt he was sicke, very neere unto death: but God had mercy on him, and not on him onely, but on me also, lest I should have sorrowed upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more diligently, that when ye should see him againe, ye might rejoice, and I might be the lesse sorrowfull.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladnesse, and make much of such:

30 Because that for the workes of Christ hee was neere unto death, and regarded not his life, to fulfill that service which was lacking on your parte towards me.

CHAP. III.

3 He warneth them to beware of false teachers, 3 Against whom he lesseth Christ, 4 Likever his himself, 9 And his doctrine, 12 And reprooveth mans owne righteousness.

Moreover, my brethren, reioyce in the loyde. It grieveth mee not to write the same things to you, and for you it is a lute thing.

2 Beware of dogges: beware of euill workers: beware of the concillon.

3 For we are the circumcission, which worship God in the spirite, and reioyce in Christ Iesus, and haue no confidence in the flesh:

4 Though I might also haue confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, much moye I:

5 Circumcised the eight day, of the kindred of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Ebyewe of the Ebyewes, by the lawe a Pharise.

6 Concerning zeale, I persecuted the church:
touching the righteousness which is in the lawe, I was unbreakeable.

7 But the things that were banyage vnto me, the same I counted losse for Christes sake.

8 Yea, doubtles I thinke al things but losse for the excellent knowledge sake of Christ Iesus my Lord, for whome I haue counted al things losse: and doe iudge them to be doying, that I might winne Christ.

9 And might be found in him, that is, not hauing mine owne righteousness, which is of the lawe, but that which is through the faith of Christ, eue the righteousness which is of God through faith.

10 That I map know him, and the vertue of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his afflictions, and be made conformed vnto his death.

11 If by any meanes I might attaine vnto
the resurrection of the dead:

12 Not as though I had already atteined to it, either were already perfect: but I follow, if that I map comprehend that for whose sake also I am comprehended of Christ Iesus.

13 Brethren, I count not my selfe, that I haue attained to it, but one thing I doe: I forget that which is behinde, and endeuour my selfe vnto that which is before.

14 And followe hard toward the mark, for the pyle of the his calling of God in Christ Iesus.

15 Let vs therefore as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if ye be of otherwise minded, God shall reuile euen the same vnto you.

16 Accursed heles, in that wherunto we are come, let vs procede by one rule, what we map munde one thing.

17 Brethren, be followers of me, and looke on them, which walke so, as ye haue vs for an example.

18 For many walke of whom I haue tolde you often, and now tell you weeping, that they are the enemies of the Crosse of Christ.

19 Whose end is damnation, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is to their shame, which minde earthly things.

20 But our commendation is in heauen, from whence also we looke for the glorie, euen the Lord Iesus Christ.

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may bee fashioned like vnto his glorious body, according to the working, whereby he is able euen to subdue all things vnto himselfe.

CHAP. IIII.

He exhorteth them to be of honest conversation, 15
And thanketh them, because of the prouision that they made for him being in prison, 21 And so con-cludeth with salutations.

Therfore, my brethren, beloved and longed for, my joy and my crowne, so continue in the Lord, ye beloved.

2 I map Eudias, & klesche Dymitche, that they be of one accord in the loyde.

3 Psa. and I beseech the faithful pokesels lowe, helpe those women, which laboured with me in the Gospel, with Clement also so, and with other my fellowe labourers, whose names are in the booke of life.

4 Reioyce in the Lord alway, agayne I say, reioyce.

5 Let your patient minde be known vnto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Be nothing carefull, but in all things let your requestes be shewed vnto God in prayer, and supplication with giuing of thanks.

7 And the peace of God which passeth all vnderstanding, shall preserve your hearts and mindes in Christ Iesus.

8 Furthermore, brethren, whatsoeuer things are true, whatsoeuer things are honest, whatsoeuer things are just, whatsoeuer things are pure, whatsoeuer things are peaceable, whatsoeuer things are of good report, if there be any vertue, or if there be any praise, thinke on these things.

9 Which ye haue both learned and recei-ued, and heard, and seen in mee: those things doe, and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 Now, I reioyce also in the Lord greatly, that now at the last ye are reunited again to care for me. Wherein not withstanding ye were carefull, but ye lacked opportunitie.

11 I speake not because of want: for I haue learned in whatsoeuer state I am, therewith to be content.

12 And I can be abased, & I can abound:
every where in al things I am instructed both to be full, and to be hungry, and to abound, and to haue want.

13 I am able to doe all things through the helpe of Christ, which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye haue well done, that ye did communicate to mine afflic-tion.

15 And ye Philippians know also in the beginning of the Gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, to Church communicated with mee concerning the mat-

The Epistle of Paul to the Colossians.

THE ARGUMENT.

IN this epistle S. Paul putteth difference betwene the lively, effectuall and true Christ, and the feined, counterfeit and imagined Christ, whom the false apostles taught, and first he con-firmeth the doctrine which Epaphras had preached, wishing them increase of faith, to esteeme the excellencie of Gods benefit toward them, teaching them also that saluation, and whatsoeuer good thing can be desired, standeth onely in Christ, whom onely we embrace by the Gospel. But forasmuch as the false brethren would haue mixed the Law with the Gospel, he toucheth those flatterers vehemently, and exhorteth the Colossians to stay onely on Christ, without whom all things are but mere vanitie. And as for circumcision, abstinence from meates, external holiness, worshipping of Angels as meanes whereby to come to Christ, he vtterly condemneth, shewing what was the effice and nature of ceremonies, which by Christ are abrogated: so that now the exercises of the Christians stand in mortification of the flesh, newnes of life, with other like offices appertaining both generally and particularly to all the faithfull.

CHAP. I.

- 3 He giueth thanks vnto God for their faith, 7 Con-firmeth the doctrine of Epaphras. 9 Prayeth for the increase of their faith. 13 He sheweth vnto them the true Christ, and discometh the counterfeit Christ of the false apostles. 25 Hee approueth his authoritie and charge. 28 And of his faithfull executing of the same.

And an Apostle of IESVS Christ, by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,
To them which are at Colosse, Saints and faithfull brethren in Christ: Grace be with you, & peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

*a Which was a

- 3 We giue thanks to God euen the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, alwayes praying for you:

b For without Christ there is no faith to be saued by, but onely a vaine opinion

- 4 Since we heard of your faith^a in Christ
Jesus, & of your loue toward all Saints, 5 For the hopes sake, which is laid vp for you in heauen, whereof wee haue heard before by the word of trueness, which is the Gospel.
6 Which is come vnto you, euen as it is vnto all the world, and is fruitfull, as it is also among you, from the day ye heard and truly knew the grace of God.

e Which commeth of the holy Ghost.

- 7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our deare fellow seruant, which is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:

d That is, Gods.

- 8 Who hath also declared vnto vs your loue, which ye haue^e by the Spirit.
9 For this cause wee also, since the day wee heard of it, cease not to pray for you, and to desire that wee might be fulfilled with knowledge of^d his will, in all wisdom, and spiritual understanding,

- 10 That wee might walke worthy of the Lord, and please him in all things, being fruitfull in all good workes, and increasing in the knowledge of God.

- 11 Strengthened with all might through his glorious power vnto all patience, and long suffering with iustifiance.

- 12 Gining thanks vnto the Father, which hath made vs meete to bee partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in light,

- 13 Who hath deliuered vs from the power of darkness, and hath translated vs into the kingdome^f of his deare Sonne,

- 14 In whom we haue redemption through his blood, that is, the forgiveness of sinnes.

- 15 Who is the^g image of the invisible
God, the first borne of euery creature.

- 16 For by him were all things created, which are in heauen, and which are in earth, things visible and invisible: whether they be Thrones, or Dominions, or Principalties, or Powers, all things were created by him and for him,

- 17 And he is before all things, and in him all things consist.

- 18 And hee is the heade of the body of the Church: hee is the beginning, and is the first borne of the dead, that in all things he might haue the preminence.

- 19 For it pleased the Father, that in him should all^h fulnesse dwell.

- 20 And by him to reconcile all things vnto himselfe, and to set at peace through the blood of his crosse both the thinges in earth, and the thinges in heauen.

- 21 And you which were in times past strangers & enemies, because your minds were set in euill workes, hath he now also reconciled,

12 In the body of his flesh through death, to make you holy, & unblameable, and without fault in his sight,

13 If ye continue grounded and stablished in the faith, & be not moved away from the hope of the Gospel, whereof ye have heard, and which hath bene preached to every creature which is under heaven, whereof I Paul am a minister.

14 Nowe reioyce I in my sufferings for you, and fulfil the rest of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh, for his bodys sake which is the Church.

15 Whereof I am a minister, according to the dispensation of God, which is given me unto youward, to fulfill the woide of God.

16 Which is the mystery hid since he world began, & from all ages, but now is made manifest to his Saints,

17 To whom God would make known what is the riches of his glorious mystery among the Gentiles, which riches is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

18 Whome we preach, admonishing every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom, that wee may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus:

19 Whereunto I also labour and strive, according to his working which worketh in me mightily.

CHAP. 11.

1 Having protested his good will toward them, 4 He admonisheth them not to turne backe from Christ, 8 To the service of Angels or any other unnecessary ceremonies of the Law, 17 Which bene finished their office, and are ended in Christ.

1 For I would see knowe what great fighting I have for your sakes, and for them of Laodicea, and for as many as have not seene my person in the flesh,

2 That their hearts might be comforted and they knit together in love, and in all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to knowe the mystery of God even the Father, and of Christ:

3 In whome are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, that any man should beguile you with enticing wordes:

5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, rejoycing, and beholding your order, and your stedfast faith in Christ.

6 As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walke in him,

7 Rooted and built in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have bene taught, as bounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 Beware lest there be any man that spoyle you through philosophy, and vaine deceit, through the traditions of men, according to the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 For in him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily.

10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all Principalities & Powers:

11 In whome also ye are circumcised with circumcision made without hands, by putting off the filthy body of the flesh,

12 through the circumcision of Christ, 13 In ye are buried with him through baptism, in whome ye are also raised up together through the faith of the operation of God which raised him from the dead.

14 And ye which were dead in sinnes, and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, forgiving you all your trespasses,

15 And putting on the hands wiping of ordinances he was against us, which was contrary to us, he even took it out of the way, & fastened it upon the crosse,

16 And hath spoiled the Principalities, and Powers, and hath made a shew of them openly, and hath triumphed over them in the same crosse.

17 Let no man therefore condemn you in meat and drinke, or in respect of an holy day, or of the new moone, or of the Sabbath daies,

18 Which are but a shadowe of things to come: but the bodie is in Christ.

19 Let no man at his pleasure beare rule over you by humbleness of minde, and worshiping of Angels, advancing him selfe in those things which hee neuer laboureth, as he hath put up with his fleshy minde,

20 And holdeth not the heade, whereof all the body is furnished, and knit together by synoviall and bandes, increaseth with the increasing of God.

21 Wherefore if ye bee drade with Christ from the ordinances of the world, why, as though ye lived in the world, are ye burdened with traditions?

22 As, Touch not. Taste not. Handle not:

23 Which all are verily with the using, and are after the commandementes and doctrines of men:

24 Which things shall in due time shewe of wisdom, in voluntarie religion and humbleness of minde, and in not sparring the body: neither have they it in any estimation to satisfie the flesh,

25 into all superstition, and error. 26 Or defraude you of your price, in And appertaine nothing to the kingdom of God. 27 Such as men have chosen according to their owne fantasie. 28 Or, but they are of no value for the filling of the flesh. 29 They pinch and defraud their body to shew them selves greater hypocrites,

CHAP. 11.

1 He sheweth where you should seeke Christ, 5 He exhorteth to mortification, 10 To put off the old man, & to put on Christ, 12 To the which he addeth exhortation, both generall and particular, to cherrie and humilitie.

1 If ye then be risen with Christ, seeke those things which are above, where Christ sitteth at the right hand of God. 2 Set your affection on things which are above, and not on things which are on the earth.

3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ which is our life, shall appeare, then shall ye also appeare with him in glory.

5 * * * * * Mortifie therefore your members which are on the earth, fornication, uncleanness, immoderate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousnesse which is idolatrie.

6 For the which things takes the wrath of God commonly on the children of disobedience,

7 Wherein ye also walked once, when ye lived in them.

8 * But now put ye away even all these things, wrath, anger, maliciousnesse, cursed speaking, filthie speaking, out of your mouth.

9 Be not one to another, seeing ye see have put off the olde man with his workes,

10 And have put on the newe, which is renewed in knowledge * after the image of him that created him,

11 Where is neither Grecian nor Jewe, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Egyptian, bond, free: but Christ is all in all these things.

12 * * * * * Nowe therefore, as the elect of God * holy and beloued, put on tender mercie, kindnesse, humblenesse of minde, meeknesse, long suffering:

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel to another: even as Christ forgave you, even so doe ye.

14 And about all these things * puse on loue, which is the bond of perfectnesse.

15 And let the peace of God * rule in your heartes, to the which ye are called in one body, and be ye amiable.

16 Let the * wordes of Christ dwell in you plentifully in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing your owne selues, in psalmes, and hymnes, and spirituall songs, singing with a * grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 * And whatsoever ye shall doe, in word or dede, doe all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giuing thanks to God even the Father by him.

18 * * * * * Wines, submit your selues unto your husbandes, as it is comely in the Lord.

19 * * * * * Husbandes, loue your wives, and be not bitter unto them.

20 * * * * * Children, obey your parents in all things: for that is well pleasing unto the Lord.

21 Fathers, * provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 * * * * * Seruantes, be obedient unto them that are your masters according to the Lord in all things, not with eye service as men please, but in singleness of heart, fearing God.

23 And whatsoever ye doe, doe it hartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men, 24 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doeth wrong, shall receive the wages that he hath done, and there is no respect of persons.

CHAP. III.

1 He exhorted them to be fervent in prayer, 5 To walk wisely toward them that are not yet come unto the knowledge of Christ. He saluted them, and wished them all prosperitie.

YE masters, doe unto your seruants, that which is iust, & equall, knowing that ye also have a master in heauen.

2 Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving,

3 * * * * * Praying also for us, & God may open unto us the doore of utterance, to speake the myserie of Christ: wherefore I am also in bonds.

4 That I may utter it, as it becometh me to speake.

5 * * * * * Walk wisely toward them that are without, and * redeme the time.

6 Let your speech be gracious alwayes, and powdered with salt, that ye may know how to answer every man.

7 * * * * * Epaphras our beloued brother, and faithful minister, and fellowe seruant in the Lord, shall declare unto you my whole state.

8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose that he might knowe your state, and might comfort your hearts.

9 * * * * * With Onesimus a faithful and a beloued brother, who is one of you. They shall hear you of all things here.

10 Aristarchus my prison fellowe saluteth you, & Marcus, Barnabas sisters sonne (touching whom ye received commandments, if he come unto you, receive him)

11 And Jesus which is called Justus, which are of the circumcision. These * help are my * workefellowes unto * kings dome of God, which have bene unto my consolation.

12 Epaphras the seruant of Christ, which is one of you, saluteth you, and alwayes striveth for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect, and full in all the will of God.

13 For I beare him recorde, that he hath a great zeale for you, and for them of Laodicea, and them of Hierapolis.

14 * * * * * Luke the beloued physician greeteth you, and Demas.

The first Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that the Thessalonians had bene well instructed in the faith, persecution, which perpetually followed the preaching of the Gospel, arose, against the which although they did commonly stand, yet S Paul (as most carefull for them) sent Timothee to strengthen them, who soone after admonishing him of their estate, gaue occasion to the Apostle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be constant in faith, and to suffer whatsoever God calleth them vnto for the testimonie of the Gospel, exhorting them to declare by their godly liuing the purity of their religion, And as the Church ca neuer be so purged, that some cockle remaine not among the wheat, so there were among them wicked men, which by mouing vaine and curious questions to overthrow their faith, taught falsly, as touching the point of the resurrection from the dead: whereof he briefly instructeth them what to thinke, earnestly forbidding them to seeke curiously to know the times, willing them rather to watch, least the sudden coming of Christ come vpon them at vnwares: and so after certaine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, he endeth.

CHAP. I.

1 He thanketh God for them, that they are fassid/fall in faith and good workers, 6 And re. since the Gospel. wish such earnestness, 7 That they are an example to all others.

1 And and Siluanns, 3 Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be with you, and peace fro God our father, & from the Lord Jesus Christ. 2 We giue God thanks alwayes for you all, making mention of you in our prayers

3 Without ceasing, remembryng your effectuall faith, and diligent loue, and the patience of your hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God euen our Father.

4 Knowing, beloued brethren, that ye are elect of God.

5 For our Gospel was not vnto you in word onely, but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye know after what manner we were among you for your sakes.

6 And ye became followers of vs, and of the Lord, and receiued the word in much affliction with a toy of the holy Ghost, so that ye were an ensamples to all that beleue in Macedonia and Achaia.

7 For from you sounded out the woide of the Lord, not in Macedonia & in Achaia onely: but your faith also which is toward God, sheweth aboynd in al quarters, that we neede not to speake any thing.

8 For they themselves shew of you what manner of entering in we had vnto you, and how ye were turned to God from idols, to serue the liuing and true God,

9 And to looke for his sonne from heauen, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus which deliuereth vs from the wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

1 To the intent they should not faile vnder the crosse, 2 He commendeth his diligence in preaching, 12 And theirs in obeying. 18 He exhorteth his absence, that he could not come and open his booke to them.

1 For ye our selues knowe, brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in a baine,

2 But enen after that we had suffered besoyr, and were shamefully entreated at Philippi (as ye know) we were bolde in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospel of God with much striming.

3 For your exhortation was not by deceit, nor by uncleannesse, nor by guile.

4 But as we were allowed of God, that the Gospel should be committed vnto vs, we so speake, not as they that please men, but God, which trieth our heartes.

5 Neither yet did we ruse vs flattering wordes, as ye knowe, nor coloured countenances, God is recorde.

6 Neither sought we praise of men, neither of you, nor of others.

7 When we might haue bene chargeable, as the Apostles of Christ: but we were gentle among you, euen as a nourse cheriseth her children.

8 Thus being affectioned toward you, our good will was to haue dealete vnto you, not the Gospel of God onely, but also our owne soules, because ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For ye remember brethren, our labour and travail: for we laboured day and night, because we would not be chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, & God also, how holisly, & simply, & vnblanderly we behaued our selues among you that beleue.

11 As ye know how that we exhorted you, and comforted, and besought euey one of you (as a father his children)

12 That ye would walke worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdom by gloyp.

13 For this cause also thanke we God without ceasing, that when ye receiued of us the woide of the preaching of God, ye receiued it not as the woide of men, but as it is in verbe the woide of God, which also worketh in you that beleue.

14 For brethren, ye are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Iudaea are in Christ Jesus, because ye haue also suffered the same things of your own comings.

1 And furthermore we beſeeche you,

2 For ye knowe what commandements

18 Wherefore, comfort your selves one another with these words.

CHAP. V.

1 Hee informeth them of the day of judgement and coming of the Lord. 6 Exhorting the to watch.

12 And to regard such as preach Gods word among them.

13 Of the times and seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For ye your selves know perfectly, that the day of the Lord shall come, even as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace, & safety, then shall come upon them sudden destruction, as the travail upon a woman with child, & they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should come on you, as it were a thief.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, neither of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do other, but let us watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleep, sleep in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let us which are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith & love, and the hope of salvation for an helmet.

9 For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtaine salvation by the means of our Lord Jesus Christ.

10 Which died for us, that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 Wherefore exhort one another, and edifie one another, even as ye do.

12 Solve we beseech you, brethren, that ye knowe them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you.

13 That ye have them in singular love for their works sake. Be at peace among your selves.

14 We desire you, brethren, admonish them that are unkindly: comfort the feeble minded: beare with the weak: be patient toward all men.

15 For that none recompense evil for evil unto any man: but ever followe that which is good, both toward your selves, and toward all men.

16 Retoynce evermore.

17 What continually.

18 In all things give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus toward you.

19 Quench not the Spirit.

20 Despise not prophesying.

21 Trye all things, and keepe that which is good.

22 Abstaine from all appearance of evil.

23 Now the very God of peace sanctifie you throughout: & I pray God that your whole spirit and soule and body, may be kept blamelesse unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Faithfull is hee which calleth you, which will also doe it.

25 Brethren, pray for vs.

26 Greete all the brethren with an holy kisse.

27 I charge you in the Lord, that this Epistle be read unto all the brethren the Saints.

28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you, Amen.

The first Epistle unto the Thessalonians written from Athens.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

1 East the Thessalonians should thinke that Paul neglected them, because he went to other places rather then came to them; he writeth vnto them & exhorteth them to patience & other fruites of faith, neither to be moued with that vaine opinion of such as taught that the coming of Christ was at hand, for as much as before 3 day there should be a falling away from true religion, even by a great part of the world, & that Antichrist should reigne in the Temple of God: finally commending himselfe to their prayers, and encouraging them to constancie, he wil- leth them to correct such sharply, as lie idly of other mens labours, whom, if they do not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

3 He thanketh God for their faith, love, & patience. 11 He prayeth for the increase of the same. 12 And sheweth what fruites shall come thereof.

1 And Paul and Silvanus and Timotheus vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God our Father, and in the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We ought to thank the God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the love of every one of you toward another aboundeth.

b The faithful by their afflictions see, as in a cleare glasse the end of Gods iust judgement, while as they shall reigne with Christ which hath suffered with him, and the wicked shall feeble his extreme wrath and vengeance, Jude. 6.

d As God is everlasting, so shall their punishment be everlasting: & as he is most mighty of power, so shall their punishment be most sore.

e The free beneuolence of Gods goodness comprehendeth his purpose, his predestination & vocation: the works of faith cōcerneth our iustification, to the which God addeth glorification: and all these he worketh of his mere grace through Christ. f Faith in Gods wonderfull works in vs.

g As the head with the body.

CHAP. II.

3 He sheweth them that the day of the Lords shall not come, till the departing from the faith come first, 5. And the kingdom of Antichrist, 15. And sheweth to exhorteth them not to be deceived, but to stand stedfast in the things that they have taught them.

b Which are spoken or written, Ephes. 5. 6.

c A wonderfull departing of the most part from the faith.

d This wicked Antichrist comprehendeth the whole succession of the persecutors of the Church, and all that abominable kingdom of Satan, whereof some were beares, some lions, other leopards, as Daniel describeth them, and is called the man of sinne, because he setteth him selfe vp against God. e Who as he destroyeth others, so shall he be destroyed himselfe.

4 For as he our selves receiue of you in the afflictions of God, because of your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye suffer, which are a token of righteous indignation of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for the which ye also suffer.

6 For it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you,

7 And to you which are troubled, rest with vs when the Lord Jesus shall shew himselfe from heauen with his mighty Angels.

8 In flaming fire, rendering vengeance vnto them that do not know God, a which obrep vnto the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 Which shall be punished with a curcellas Ring perdition, from the presence of the Lord, and from the glorie of his power,

10 When hee shall come to be glorified in his Saints, and to be made manifest in all them that beleue (because our testimonye towardes you was belaid) in that day.

11 Wherefore, we also pray alwayes for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of his goodnesse, and the workes of faith with power,

12 That the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and pee in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I tolde you these things: And now ye know what I withholdest, that he might be reuelled in his time. For the myſterie of iniquitie doth already worke: onely he which withholdeth, shall keepe till he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall the wicked man bee reuelled, to whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall aboliſh with the brightness of his coming.

9 Euen him whose coming is by the working of Satan, with all power and signes, and lying wonders,

10 And in all deceauablenesse of unrighteousnes, among them that perily, besetle: they receiued not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And therefore God shall send them strong delusion, that they should beleue lies, 12 That all they might be damned, which brake not the truth, but had a pleasure in unrighteousnes.

13 But we ought to giue thanks alway to God for you, brethren, becauſe of the Lord because that God hath chosen you to saluation, through fore called a sanctification of the spirit, & the faith of myſterie, because it is secret.

14 Whereunto hee called you by our Gospel, to obtaine the glorie of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast & keepe the instruction, which ye haue receiued by word, taught, and by worke, so by our es k meaning the whole time that

16 Now the same Jesus Christ our Lord, and our God euen the Father which hath loued vs, and hath giuen vs graces is limited that lasting consolation & good hope through grace,

17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every word and good worke.

1 He desireth them to pray for him, that the Gospel may prosper, 6. And giueth them warning to reprove the idle, 16. And so reuiveth them all vnto life.

17 Therefore, brethren, pray for vs, that the worke of the Lord may haue free passage, and be glorified, euen as it is with you.

18 And that we may bee deliuered from unreasonable and cattill men: for all men haue not a faith.

3 But the Lord is faithful, which will stablish you, and keepe you from all euill.

4 And we are persuaded of you though the Lord, that ye both doe, and will doe the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord giue you peace, to the lone of God, and the waiting for of Christ.

f Because the false apostles had persecuted after a sort the theſſalonians, that the day of the Lord was nere, and so the redemption of the Church, Paul teacheth them to looke for this horrible diſſipation before: & therefore rather to prepare themselves to patience than to rest & quietnes: for as yet there was a let, that is, that the Gospel should be preached throughout all, Math. 24. 14.

The first Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGUMENT.

IN writing this Epistle Paul seemed not onely to haue respect to teach Timotheus, but chiefly to keepe other in awe, which would haue rebelled against him, because of his youth. And therefore he dooth arme him against those ambitious questionis, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Lawe, disquieted the godly with foolish and vnprofitable questions, whereby they declared, that professing the Lawe, they knowe not what was the chiefe end of the Lawe. And as for him selfe, he fo confesseth his vnworthinesse, that he theweth to what worthinesse grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore he willett prayers to be made for all degrees & sorts of men, because that God by offering his Gospel & Christ his Sonne to them alis indifferent to e-uery sort of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to Gentiles, witnesseth. And for as much as God hath left ministers as ordinarie means in his Church to bring men to saluation, he describeth what manner of men they ought to be, to whom the myserie of the Sonne of God manifested in flesh is committed to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shal sustain, but specially in the latter daies, when as vnder pretence of religion men shall teach things contrary to the word of God. This done, he teacheth what widowes should be receiued or refused to minister to the sick: also what Elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him neither to be halie in admitting, nor in iudging any: also what is the due tie of seruants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of couetousnes, of rich men, and aboue all things he chargeth him to beware false doctrine.

CHAP. I.

3 He exhorteth Timotheus to vvaite vpon his office, namely to see that nothing bee taught but Gods word, &c. 5 Declaring that faith, with a good conscience, charitie, and edification are the ende thereof. 20 And admonisheth of Hymeneus and Alexander.

sus Christ, by the commandement of God our Saviour, and of our Lord Jesus Christ

my naturall sonne in the faith: Grace mercie, and peace from God our Father, and from Christ Jesus our Lord.
- 2 As I besought thee to abide still in Ephesus when I departed into Macedonia, so do, that thou maist continue and some,
that they teach none other doctrine,
- 3 Neither that they giue heede to fables and genealogies, which are endlesse, which breed questions rather then godlidisputing which is by faith.

- 5 For the ende of the commandement is lone out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith vnfaigned.
- 6 From the which things some haue erred, and haue turned vnto vaine tangling.
- 7 They would be Doctors of the Lawe, yet vnderstand not what they speake, neither wherof they affirme.
- 8 And we knowe that the Lawe is good,
if a man vse it lawfully.
- 9 Knowing this, that the Lawe is not gi-uen vnto a righteous man, but vnto the lawlesse and disobedient, to the vnigodly, and to sinners, to the vniholp, and to the prophane, to murderers of fathers and mothers, to manslayers,
- good conscience without faith, nor faith wout the word of God;
so their doctrine which is an occasion of cōtention, is worth nothing. Of the Lawe, Rom. 7. 12. c. Whose heartes Gods spirit doeth direct to doeth that willingly which the Lawe requireth: so that their godly affection is to them as a Law without further cont. d Such as onely delite in sinning.

 3 And they which haue believing masters, let them not despise the, because they are brethren, but rather do seruice, because they are faithful, & beloued, & partakers of the benefits. These things teach and exhort.
 4 If any man teach otherwise, and consenteth not to the wholesome wordes of our Lord Iesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godlinesse,

The ij. Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGUMENT.

THE Apostle being now ready to confirme his doctrine with his blood, which he had professed and taught, encourageth Timotheus (and in him all the faithful) in faith of the Gospel, and

and in the constant and sincere confession of the same: willing him not to shrink for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attend the issue, as do husbandmen, which at length receive the fruits of their labours, and to cast off all feare and care, as souldiers do which seeke only to please their captain: shewing him briefly the summe of the Gospell, which he preached, commanding him to preach the same to others, diligently taking heede of contentions, curious disputations and vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may altogether edifie. Considering that the examples of Hymeneus & Philetus, which subuerted the true doctrine of the resurrection, were so horrible: and yet to the intent that no man should be offended at their fall, being men of authority and in estimation, he sheweth that all that profess Christ, are not his, and that the Church is subiect to this calamitie, that the euill must dwell among the good till Gods trial come: yet he referueth them whome he hath elected, even to the ende. And that Timotheus should not be discouraged by the wicked, he declareth what abominable men, & dangerous times: shal follow, willing him to arme himselfe with the hope of the good issue that God will giue vnto his, and to exercise himselfe diligently in the Scriptures, both against the aduersaries, and for the vtilitie of the Church, desiring 2 him to come to him for certaine necessarie affaires, and so with his and other salutations endeth.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul exhorteth Timotheus to stedfastnes and patience in persecutions, & to continue in the doctrine, that he had taught him, 12 Vnto bonds and stripes: 16 A commendation of Onesiphorus.

Paul an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, according to the promise of life, which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timotheus my beloved sonne: Grace, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 I thanke God, whom I serue from mine ⁶ elders with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day.

4 Desiring to see thee, in default of thy reares, that I may be filled with top:

5 When I call to remembrance the vniuersall faith that is in thee, which dwelleth in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 Wherefore, I put thee in remembrance, that thou ⁷ shurre by ⁸ gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of ⁹ mine handes.

7 For God hath not given to vs the Spirit of ⁸ feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sound minde.

8 Be not therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Loyde, neither of me his prisoner: but be partaker of ⁹ afflictions of the Gospell, according to the power of God,

9 Who hath saved vs, and called vs with an ¹⁰ holpe calling, not according to our ¹¹ workes, but according to his owne purpose and grace, which was giuen to vs through Christ Jesus before the ¹² world was,

10 But is now made manifest by the ¹¹ appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortallitie vnto light through the Gospell.

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and Apostle, and a teacher of the ¹² Gentiles.

12 Yet was honourable and glorious: therefore our mindes ought to be lifted vp from the consideration of worldly things, to contemplate the maiestie thereof. 1 Tim. 2.7.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed: for I knowe whom I haue beloued, and I am perswaded that he is able to keepe that which I haue committed to him against that day.

13 Keepe the true paterne of the whole some wordes, which ¹⁴ thou hast heard of me in faith & loue which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That ¹⁵ wordy thing, which was committed to thee, keepe through the holy Ghost which dwelleth in vs.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia, be turned from me: of which I am ¹⁶ sorry, as Pygelus and Hymeneus.

16 The Lord giue merce vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chaine.

17 But when he was at Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant vnto him, that he may find merce with the Lord at that day: in how many things he hath ministered vnto me at Ephebus, ¹⁹ I knowe verie well.

CHAP. II.

2 He exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abide fast in the vniuersall doctrine of our Lord Jesus Christ, 11 Shewing him the fidelitie of Gods counsell touching the saluation of his, 15 And the marke thereof.

Thou therefore, my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And what things thou hast heard of me, ³ by many witnesses, the same declare vnto faithfull men, which shalbe able to teach other also.

3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Jesus Christ.

4 As man that warreth, entangleth himselfe with ⁵ the affaires of this life, because he would please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

5 And if any man also strine for a wages, he is not crowned, except he strine as he ought to doe.

6 The husbandman ⁷ must labour before he receive the fruites.

7 Consider what I say: and the Lord giue thee vnderstanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ made of the side of Dauid, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospell: wherein I suffer trouble as an euill prisoner, vnto bonds: but the wordes of God are not ⁹ bound.

The Epistle of Paul to Titus.

THE ARGVMENT.

When Titus was left in Creta to finish that doctrine which Paul had there begonne, hee stirred vp certaine which went about not onely to ouerthrowe the gouernement of the Church, but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambition would haue thrust in themselves to be pastors: others, vnder pretext of Moses Lawe brought in many rites. Against these two sorts of men Paul armeth Titus: first teaching him what manner of ministers hee ought to chooseth, chiefly requiring that they be men of sounde doctrine, to the intent they might resist the aduersaries, and amongst other things hee noteth the Lewes which put a certaine holinesse in meates, and such outwarde ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a Christian life, and what things appertene to euery mans vocation. Against the which if any man rebell or else doth not obey, he willett him to be auoided.

CHAP. I.

- 5 He aduertiseth Titus touching the gouernement of the Church. 7 The ordinance and office of ministers. 12 The nature of the Cretians, and of them which serue abroad leuvisch fables & inventions of men.

- 3 But hath made his word manifest in due time through the preaching, which is committed vnto me, according to the commandement of God our Saviour.

to the common faith, grace, merite and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ our Saviour.

For this cause left I thee in Creta, that thou shouldest continue to rebulse the things that remaine, and shouldest ordeine Elders in euery citie, as I appointed thee.

One of these Iudas, even one of their owne prophets said, The Cre- tians are alwayes here, euill beastes, slowe bellies. This witnesseth to true: wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sounde in the faith. And not taking heede to Jewish sa- bles and commandements of men, that turne from the truth. Vnto the pure are all things pure, but vnto them that are defiled, and unbelie- uing, is nothing pure, but euil their minds and consciences are defiled. They professe that they know God, but by wordes they denie him, and are abo- minable and disobedient, and vnto euery good worke reprobate. They professe that they know God, but by wordes they denie him, and are abo- minable and disobedient, and vnto euery good worke reprobate. They professe that they know God, but by wordes they denie him, and are abo- minable and disobedient, and vnto euery good worke reprobate.

CHAP. II.

1 He commendeth vnto him the wholesome doctrine, and telleth him howe hee shall teach all degrees to behaue themselves, 11 Through the benediction of the grace of Christ.

1 I speake thou the things which become a wholesome doctrine.

2 That the elder men be sober, honest, discrete sound in the faith, in loue, and in patience:

3 The elder women likewise, that they be in such behauiour as becometh holines, not false accusers, not giuen to much wine, but teachers of honest things,

4 That they may instruct yong women to be sober minded, that they loue their husbands, that they loue their children,

5 That they be discrete, chaste keeping at home, good, and subject vnto their husbands, that the word of God be not euil spoken of.

6 Exhort yong men likewise, that they be sober minded.

7 About all things shewe thy selfe an ensample of good workes with incorrupt doctrine, with grauitie, integritie,

8 And with the wholesome word, which cannot be reprobated, that he which withstandeth, may be ashamed, hauing no thing concerning you to speake euil of.

9 Let seruantes be subject to their mas- ters, and please them in all things, not answering againe,

10 Neither pickers, but that they shewe all good faithfulness, that they may adorne the doctrine of God our saviour in all things.

11 For the grace of God, that bringeth saluation vnto all men, hath appeared,

12 And teacheth vs that we shoulde denie vngodlinesse, and worldly lustes, and that we shoulde liue soberly, & righteously, and godly in this present world.

13 Looking for the blessed hope, and appearing of the glorie of the mightie God, and of our saviour Iesus Christ, 14 Who gaue himselfe for vs, that he might redeeme vs from all iniquitie, and purge vs to be a peculiar people vnto himselfe, zealous of good workes. 15 These things speake and exhort, and re- buke with all authority, that no man despise thee.

CHAP. III.

1 Of obedience to such as bee in authority. 9 Hee warneth Titus to be ware of foolish and unpro- fitable questions, 12 Concluding with certaine gra- uous matters, 15 And salutations.

1 Be them in remembrance that they be subject to the principallities and powers, & that they be obedient, and ready to euery good worke,

2 That they speake euil of no man, that they be no fighters, but soft, shewing all meekenesse vnto all men.

3 For we our selues also were in times past vnwise, disobedient, deceiued, seruing the lustes and diuers pleasures, liuing in malitiousnesse and enuie, hatefull, and harming one another.

4 But when the bountifullnes and loue of God our saviour toward vs appeared,

5 Not by the workes of righteousness, which we had done, but according to his mercie hee saued vs, by his washing of the new birth, & the renewing of his holy Ghost,

6 Which hee shedde on vs abundantly, through Iesus Christ our saviour.

7 That we, being iustified by his grace, shoulde be made heires according to the hope of eternall life.

8 This is a true saying, and these things I will thou shouldest affirme, that they which haue beleued in God, might be careful to shew forth good workes. These things are good and profitable vnto men.

9 But stay foolish questions, & genealogies, and contentions, & brawlings about the Law: for they are vnprofitable & vaine.

10 Strict him that is an heretike, after once or twise admonition,

11 Knowing that he that is such, is pre- uerbed, and sinneth being damned of his owne selfe.

13 Winge Zenas the expounder of the Lawe, and Apollos on their iourney dili- gently, that they lacke nothing.

14 And let ours also leaue to shewe forth good workes for necessarie vices, that they be not vniuersitall.

The Epistle of Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit the excellencie of Pauls Epistle wonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this Epistle is a great witness, and a declaration of the same. For saue passing the basics of his matter, he thyeth as it were vp to heauen, and speaketh with a diuine grace and maiestie. Onesimus seruant to Philemon both robbed his master, and fled away, whom Paul hauing wonne to Christ, sent againe to his master, earnestly begging his pardon, with most weightie arguments prouing the dutie of one Christian to another, and so with salutations endeth.

4 Here receiveth to heare of the faith and loue of Philemon, y^e Whom he desireth to forgive his seruants Onesimus, and lovingly to receive him againe.

1 I Paul a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our deare friend and fellow helper,

2 And to our deare sister Apphia, & to Archippus our fellowe labourer, and to the Church that is in thine house:

3 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I giue thanks to my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers.

5 (When I heare of thy loue and faith, which thou hast towards the Lord Jesus, and towards all Saintes)

6 That the fellowship of thy faith may be made fruitfull, and that whatsoever good thing is in you, through Christ Jesus, may be knowne.

7 For we haue great ioy and consolation in thy loue, because by thee, brother, the Saintes heartes are comforted.

8 Wherefore, though I bee very bolde in Christ to commaunde thee that which is conuenient, 9 Yet for loues sake I rather beseeche thee, though I be as I am, even Paul aged, & enen now a prisoner for Christ Jesus.

10 I beseech thee for my sonne Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bonds,

11 Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but now profitable both to thee and to me,

12 Whom I haue sent againe: thou therefore收 receiue him, & is mine owne bowels,

13 Whome I woulde haue retained with me, & in thy stead he might haue ministered vnto me in bonds of the Gospel.

14 But without thy minde woulde I doe nothing, that thy benefite should not bee as it were of necessity, but willingly.

15 It may be that hee therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receiue him for euer, 16 Not now as a seruant, but aboute a seruant, euen as a brother beloued, respect to mee: howe much more then vnto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If therefore thou count our things common, receiue him as my selfe.

18 If hee hath hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine accounts.

19 I Paul haue written this with mine owne hand: I will recompense it, albeit I do not lap to thee, that thou owest vnto mee euen thine owne selfe.

20 Yea, brother, let me obtaine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort my bowels in the Lord.

21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt doe euen more then I say.

22 Wherefore also prepare me lodging: for I trust through your prayers I shall be giuen vnto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus,

24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas & Luke, my fellow helpers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, Amen.

The Epistle to the Hebrewes.

THE ARGUMENT.

Forasmuch as diuers, both of the Greeke writers and Latines, witnesse that the writer of this Epistle for iust causes woulde not haue his name knowne, it were curiositie of our part to labour much therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the author thereof, it diminisheth nothing the authoritie, although we know not with what penne he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chief purpose is to persuade vnto the Hebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abide at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redeemer, but also that as his coming all ceremonies must haue an ende: forasmuch as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the Propheties, and therefore not onely Moses was inferior to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and he the Lord, but so Lord, that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himselfe: for he is that eternall Priest, whereof all the Leuiticall Priests were but shadowes, & therefore as his coming they ought to cease, and all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as he proueth from the 7. Chap. vers. 11. vnto the 12. Chap. vers. 18. Also he was that Prophet of whom all the Prophets in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. Chap. vers. 18. to the twentie and siue verses of the same Chapter: yea, and is the King king to whom all things are subiect, as appeareth from that verse 13. to the beginning of the last chapter. Wherefore according to the examples of the olde fathers wee must constantly beleue in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisdom, and governed by his power, we may stedfastly and courageously perseuere euen to the ende in hope of that ioy that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercises that we may both be thankfull to God, and dutifull to our neighbour.

CHAP. I.

a God, who is euer constant, & mercifull to his Church, declared his will in time past, not all at once, or after one sort, but from time to time and in sundrie sorts: but now last of all he hath fully declared all truth to vs by his sonne.

b So that now we may not credit any new revelations after him.

c He entreatheth here of Christ, both as touching his person, which is very Good & very man by whom all things are made & also as touching his office, whereby he is King, Prophet, and Priest.

1 He sheweth the excellencie of Christ 4 about the Angels, 7. and of their office.

T (sundrie times and in sundrie maners) God spake in the old time to our Fathers by the Prophets:

2 In these last dayes he hath spake vnto vs by his Sonne, whom he hath made heire of all things, & by who also he made his world, 3 & who being the brightness of the glory, and the ingraued forme of his person, and bearing up all things by his mighty word, hath by him selfe purged our finnes, and sitteth at the right hande of the maiestie in the highest places.

4 And is made so much more excellent then the Angels, in as much as he hath obtained a more excellent name then they.

5 For vnto which of the Angels said he at any time, Thou art my Sonne, & this day begate I thee: and againe, I will be his Father, and he shall be my sonne?

6 And againe when he burcheth in his first begotten Sonne into the world, he saith, And let all Angels of God worship him.

7 And of the Angels he saith, He maketh the Spirits his messengers, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But vnto the sonne he saith, O God, thy thronous for euer & euer: p. keeper of thy kingdom: a scepter of righteousness.

9 Thou hast sited righteousnesse, and hast iudged iniquitie. Wherefore God, euen thy God, hath anointed thee with the oyle of gladnesse above thy fellows.

10 And, Thou, sayde, in the beginning hast established the earth, & the heauens are the workes of thine hands.

11 They shall perish, but thou shalt remaine: they all shall waxe old as doth a garment.

12 And as a vesture shalt thou folde them vp, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same and thy yeeres shall not faile.

13 Vnto which also of the Angels saide he at any time, Sit at my right hande, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

14 Art thou not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister, for thy sakes which shall be heires of saluation?

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth vs to be obedient vnto the new Law which Christ hath giue vs. 9. And not to be offended at the infirmities and low degree of Christ, 10. Because it was necessary that for our sakes he should take such an humble state vpon him, that he might be like vnto us in brethren.

1 Wherefore wee ought diligently to giue heed to the things which we haue heard, least at any time we should let them slippe.

2 For if the wordes spoken by Angels was stedfast, and euery transgression, and disobedience receiued a iust recompence of reward,

3 Howe shall we escape, if we neglect so great saluation, which at the first began to be preached by the Lord, and afterward was confirmed vnto vs by them that heard him,

4 God bearing witness thereto, both with signes and wonders, and with diuers miracles, and gifts of the holie Ghost, according to his owne will?

5 For he hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the world to come, wherof we speake.

6 But one in a certaine place witnessed, saying, I what is man, that thou shouldst drif be misdeed of him? or of the sonne of man that thou wouldest consider him?

7 Thou madest him a little inferior to the Angels: thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and hast set him above the workes of thine hands.

8 Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feete. And in that he hath put all things in subiection vnder him, hee left nothing that should not be subiect vnto him. But we see that not all things subdued vnto him.

9 But what? Iesus, crowned with glory and honour, which was made a little inferior to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace he might taste death for all men.

10 For it became him, for to whom are all things, and by whom are all things, seeing that he brought many children vnto glory, that he should consecrate the Prince of their saluation through afflictions.

11 For he that suffereth, and then which are sanctified, are all of one: wherfore he is not ashamed to call them brethren.

12 Saying, I will declare thy Name vnto my brethren: in the middes of the Church will I sing praises to thee.

13 And againe. * I will put my flesh in him. And againe. * 12 Behold, here am I, and the children, which God hath given me.
14 Forasmuch then as the children were partakers of flesh and blood, hee also himselfe likewise tooke part with them, that hee might destroy * through death, him that had the power of death, that is the deuil,
15 And that hee might deliver all them, which for feare of death were all their life time subiect to bondage.
16 For he in no sort tooke the Angels, but hee tooke the seede of Abraham.
17 Wherefore in all things it became him to bee made like unto his brethren, that he might be merciful, and a faithful high Priest in things concerning God; that he might make reconciliation for the sinnes of the people.
18 For in that he suffered, and was tempted, hee is able to succour them that are tempted.
19 Forasmuch as he is exercised in our miseries, we may be assured, that at all times in our tentations he will succour vs.

CHAP. III.

1 He requirith them to be obedient vnto the word of Christ, 3 Vnto a more vvorship then Moses, 12 The punishment of such as will haue their hearts, and not believe, that they might haue eternal rest.
1 Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heauenly vocation, * consider the Apostle and high Priest of our profession Christ Iesus:
2 Who was faithful to him that hath appointed him, euen as * Moses was in all his house.
3 For this man is counted worthy of more glory then Moses, in as much as he which hath builded the house, * hath more honour then the house.
4 For euery house is builded of some man, and he that hath builded all things, is * God.
5 Nowe Moses verely was faithful in all his house, as a seruant, for a witness of the things which should be spoken after.
6 But Christ is as the Soune, quier his owne house, whose house we are, if we hold fast the confidence and the reioicing of the hope vnto the ende.
7 Wherefore, as the holp Ghost saith, * To day if ye shall heare his voice,
8 Harden not your hearts as in the temptation, according to the day of the temptation in the wilderness,
9 Where your fathers tempted me, proued me, and saue my workes fourtie yeres long.
10 Wherefore I was greened with that generation, and saide, They are euen in their heart, neither haue they knowen my waies.
11 Therefore I sware in my wrath, * If they shall enter into my rest.

then shall enter into my rest.
12 Take heed, brethren, least at any time there be in any of you an enuill heart, and disobedient, to depart away from the Lord, lest ye come to the punishment of him that hath disobeyed.
13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called * To day, lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sinne.
14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we keepe sure vnto the * ende the beginning, wherewith we are vpholden;
15 So long as it is said, To day if ye heare his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the pronocation.
16 For some when they heard, prouoked him to anger: howbeit, not all as came out of Egypt by Moses.
17 But with whom was hee displeased fourty yeres? was hee not displeased with them that sinned, whose hardenes fell in the wilderness?
18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them, that obeyed not?
19 So we see that they coude not enter in, because of unbelife.

As disobedient, ing God, they in old times were debarred from the quietness of Chanaan: so they which doe not obey Christ, shall not enter into the heauenly rest. Which is all that time wherein God doeth call vs: while he therefore speaketh, let vs heare. Which is by faith to embrace and holde fast the true doctrine of Iesus Christ.

the Lorde, Hebrews 12. 17. Or, bodies and members.

CHAP. III.

1 The word vocation is a vocation, 3 The Sabbath or rest of the Christians, 6 Punishment of unbelievers, 12 The nature of the word of God.
1 Lets feare therefore, least at any time by forsaking the promise of entering into his rest, any of you should come to be deppriued.
2 For vnto vs was * Gospel preached as also vnto them: but the woies that they heard, profited not them, because it was not * nured by faith in those that heard it.
3 For we which haue believed, doe enter into rest, as hee saide to the other, * Ye shall haue sowne in my wrath, * If they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.
4 For he spake in a certaine place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his workes.
5 And in this place againe, * If they shall enter into my rest.
6 Being therefore it remaineth that some must enter thereto, and then to whom it was first preached, entered not therein: vnto whom it was first preached.
7 Against hee is appointed * in vaine a creature, as hee saide, To day if ye heare his voice, harden not your hearts.
8 For if * Iesus had giuen them rest, then would hee not after this day haue spoken of another.
9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.
10 For hee that is entered into his rest, hath also obtained his owne workes.
11 Forasmuch as hee hath cast off his appetites, mortified his flesh, renounced himselfe, and followeth God,

He compareth the preaching of the Gospel, as it were, to wine, whereof if we will taste, that shall beare and vnderstande with profite, we must temper of mixe it with faith. Although therefore God by his rest, after the creation of his workes, signified the spiritual rest of the faithful, yet he sware to giue rest in Chanaan, which was but a figure of the heauenly rest, and dured but for a time. The perfection of Gods workes, and so his rest, signifieth our heavenly rest.

g For it mortally woundeth the rebellious, and in the elect it killeth the old man that they should live unto God.
h Where the afflictions are.
i Which contendeth will and reason.

k As that thing which is clef a-funder even through the middes of the backe, and so is made open, that it may be sene throughout.

l Therefore when we heare his word, we must tremble, knowing thereby that God soundeth our hearts.

o Concerning whom we speak.

l Therefore when we heare his word, we must tremble, knowing thereby that God soundeth our hearts.

a He sheweth that man can have none access to God without an hie priest, because that of himselfe he is prophane and full.

b Which were of things without life.

c As, of bestes, which are killed.

d That is, of sinners.

e Who was both Priest and King.

f When he lived in this world.

g He meaneth most earnest prayer which Christ praied in y garden, where he sweated drops of blood.

h Being in perplexitie, and fearing the horrors of death.

i He digresseth, as he come to the beginning of the chap.

l Therefore when we heare his word, we must tremble, knowing thereby that God soundeth our hearts.

o Concerning whom we speak.

as God did from his.

11 Let vs studie therfore to enter into that rest, least any man fall after the same example of disobedience.

12 For the word of God is lively, & mightie in operation, and sharper then any two edged sword, and pierceth through, even unto the dividing asunder of the soule and the spirit, & of the ioynts, & the marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and the intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature, which is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and open unto his eyes, with whom we haue to doe.

14 Seeing then that we haue a great hie Priest, which is entered into heauen, euen Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs holde fast our profession.

15 For we haue not an hie Priest, which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmitie, but was in all things tempted in like sort, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therfore go boldie vnto y throne of grace, that we may receiue mercy, and finde grace to helpe in time of neede.

17 Let vs therfore go boldie vnto y throne of grace, that we may receiue mercy, and finde grace to helpe in time of neede.

13 For when as concerning the time pe ought to be teachers, yet haue we neede againe that we teach you the first principles of the word of God: and are become such as haue neede of milke, and not of strong meate.

14 But strong meate belongeth to them that are of age, which through long custome haue their wittes exercised, to discern both good and euill.

Or, yea, indeed.

CHAP. VII.

1 He compareth the Priesthood of Christ vnto Melchisedec, 11 Also Christes Priesthode vnto the Leuites.

Gen. 14. 18.

1 For this Melchisedec * was King of Salem, the Priest of the most high God, who merite Abraham, as he returned from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him:
2 To whom also Abraham gaue the tithe of all things: who first is by interpretation King of righte onnesse: after that, he is also King of Salem, that is, King of peace.
3 Without a father, without mother, without kindred, and hath neither beginning of his daies, neither end of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.
4 Nowe consider howe great this man was, vnto whom euen the Patriarche Abraham gaue the tithe of the spoiles.
5 For verily they which are the children of Leui, which receiue p office of the priesthode, haue a * commandement to take, according to the Law, riches of the people (that is, of their byerthe) though they came out of the loynes of Abraham.
6 But he whose kindred is not counted among them, * receiued riches of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.
7 And without all contradiction the lesse is blessed of the greater.
8 And here men that die, receiue riches: but there he receiue them, of whome it is witnessed, that he liueth.
9 And to sap as the thing is, Leui also which receiue riches, payed riches in Abraham:
10 For he was yet in the loynes of his father Abraham, when Melchisedec met him.
11 If therefore perfection had bene by the priesthode of the Leuites: for vnder it the Law was established to the people: what needed it furthermore, p another Priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not to be called after the order of Aaron?
12 For if the Priesthode be changed, then

f. Because there is no mention of his death, of necessitie must there be a change of the Lawe.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth vnto another tribe, wheres of no man serued at the altar.

14 For it is euident that our Lord sprang out of Iuda, concerning the which tribe Moyses spake nothing, touching the Priesthode.

15 And it is yet a moie euident thing, because that after p similitude of Melchisedec, there is risen vp another Priest, which is not made Priest after the Lawe of the carnal commandement, but after the power of the endless life.

17 For he testifieth thus, * Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For the commandement that went as afore, is disannulled, because of the weakness thereof, and impossibilitie.

19 For the Lawe made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope made perfect, wherby we draw nere vnto God.

20 And for asmuch as it is not without an othe (for these are made Priests without an othe):

21 But this, he is made with an othe by him that saide vnto him, * The Lord hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.

22 As for much as Iesus made a suretie of a better Testament.

23 And among them many were made priests, because they were not infused to endure, by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because he endureth euer, hath an * everlasting Priesthode.

25 Wherefore, he is able also perfectly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seeing he euer liueth, to make intercession for them.

26 For such an he Priest it became vs to haue, which is holy, harmeles, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made high then the heauens:

27 Which needed not daily as those he made Priests to offer by sacrifice, * first for his owne finnes, and then for the peoples: for that did he once, when he offered by himselfe.

28 For the Law maketh men he Priests, which haue infirmitie: but the worde of the othe that was * since the Lawe, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

was given: but because the declaration of that eternal othe was then reueiled vnto the worlde.

CHAP. VIII.

6 He proueth the abolishing of the Leuitical Priesthode, as of the old Covenant by the spiritual and euerslasting Priesthood of Christ, 8 And by the newe Covenant.

1 One of the things which we haue spoken, this is the summe, that we haue such an high Priest, that sitteth at the right hand of the throne of the Maiestie in heauens,

And is a minister of the Sanctuaries,

Ppp. i.

g. The Law and the priesthode are both of one condition: so that both Aarons and Moyses office pertaine to Christ, which is Priest and Lamaker, h Which floods in outward and corporal ceremonies, f. al. 110. 4. chap. 5. 6.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to the people, according to the lawe, he took the blood of calves, and of goats, with water and purple wooll and hyssope, & sprinkled both the booke, and all the people.

20 Saying, This is the blood of the testament, which God hath appointed unto you.

21 And Moses, he sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministering vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the lawe purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessarie, that the similitudes of heavenly things should be purified with such things: but the heavenly things themselves are purified with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places that are made with hands, which are similitudes of the true Sanctuary: but is entered into very heaven, to appeare now in the sight of God for us.

25 Not that he should offer himselfe often, as the high Priest entered into the Holy place every yeere with other blood.

26 (For then must he haue often suffered since the foundation of the worlde) but now in the ende of the worlde hath he appeared once to put away sinne, by the sacrifice of himselfe.

27 And as it is appointed unto men that they shall once die, and after that come the iudgement,

28 So Christ was once offered to take away the sinnes of many, and unto them that looke for him, shall he appeare the second time without sinne unto saluation.

CHAP. X.

1 The old leu. had no power to cleanse away sinne, 10 But Christ did it worth offering of his body once for all. 22 An exhortation to receive the goodness of God thankfully with patience and steadfast faith.

2 The Lawe hauing the shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can neuer with those sacrifices, which they offer peere by peere continually, sanctifie the consciences therewith.

3 For would they not then haue ceased to haue bene offered, because that the offerers once purged, should haue had no more conscience of sinnes?

4 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of sinnes euery yeere.

5 For it is impossible for the blood of bulles and goats should take away sinnes.

6 Wherefore when he cometh into the worlde, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not: but a body hast thou ordeined me.

7 In burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou hast had no pleasure.

8 Then I said, lo, I come (In the beginning of the worlde it is written of me) that I should do thy will, O God.

Aboue, when he said, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou wouldest not haue, neither hadst pleasure therein (which are offered by the Lawe)

Then I said, lo, I come to do thy will, O God, he taketh away the first, that he may stablish the second.

By the which will we are sanctified, even by the offering of the body of Iesus Christ once made.

And neuer by the offering daily ministering, and oft times offering one manner of offering, which can neuer take away sinnes:

But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for sinnes, sitteth for ever at the right hand of God,

And from henceforth tareth, till his enemies be made his footstool.

For with one offering hath he consecrated for ever them that are sanctified.

For the holy Ghost also beareth us record: that after that he had said before,

that I should do thy will, O God.

Aboue, when he said, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou wouldest not haue, neither hadst pleasure therein (which are offered by the Lawe)

Then I said, lo, I come to do thy will, O God, he taketh away the first, that he may stablish the second.

By the which will we are sanctified, even by the offering of the body of Iesus Christ once made.

And neuer by the offering daily ministering, and oft times offering one manner of offering, which can neuer take away sinnes:

But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for sinnes, sitteth for ever at the right hand of God,

And from henceforth tareth, till his enemies be made his footstool.

For with one offering hath he consecrated for ever them that are sanctified.

For the holy Ghost also beareth us record: that after that he had said before,

This is my Testament that I will make unto the. After those daies, saith the Lord, I will put my lawes in their heart, and in their mindes I will write them,

And their sinnes and iniquities will I remember no more.

Now where remission of these things is, there is no more offering for sinne.

Being therefore, brethren, that by the blood of Iesus we may be bold to enter into the Holy place,

By the newe and living way, which he hath prepared for us, through the vail, that is, his flesh:

And seeing we haue an high Priest, which is ouer the house of God,

Let vs draw neere with a true heart in assurance of faith, & sprinkled in our hearres from an euill conscience, & washed in our bodies with pure water.

Let vs keepe the profession of our hope, without waivering (for he is faithful that promisseth)

And let vs consider one another, to prouoke vnto loue, and to good woorkes,

Not forsaking the fellowship that we haue among our selues, as the manner of some: but let vs exhort one another, and that so much the more, because we see that the day draweth nere.

For if we sinne willingly after that we haue receiued the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sinnes,

But a fearfulfull looking for of iudgement, and violent fire, which shall consume the abusers thereof.

He that despiseth Moses lawe, & pereth without mercie vnder two, or thre witnesses.

Of how much worse punishment shal we be thought worthy, which treadeth vnder foote the Sonne of God, & counteth Iesus Christ, as Iudas, Scul, Arrius, Iulian the apostate did,

Cor. 15. 51. and 1. thess. 4. 17. g First God must find vs before we can seeke him: then we must seeke him with a pure heart in Christ, who is reueiled in his word: and thereby we learne to beleue Gods free mercie toward vs in his Sonne, through whom we obtaine the reward of his promises, and not of our deserts.*

teth the blood of the Testament as an holpthing, wherewith he was sanctified, and doeth despite the Spirit of grace? 30 For we knowe him that hath saide, Vengeance belongeth vnto me: I will recompense. saith the Lord. And againe, The Lord shall iudge his people. 31 It is a fearefull thing to fall into the hands of the liuing God. 32 shewe call to remembrance the dayes that are passed, in the which, after he had receiued light, he endured a great fight in afflictions, 33 Partly while you were made a gazing stock both by reproches and afflictions, and partly while he became companions of them which were so tolled to and fro. 34 For both he sorrowed with me for my bondes, and suffered with me the spouling of ponne goods, knowing in poul selers howe that he haue in heauen a better, and an enduring substance. 35 Cast not away therefore your confidence which hath great recompence of reward. 36 For ye haue neede of patience, that after ye haue done the will of God, ye might receiue the promises. 37 For yet a litle while, and he that shall come, will come, and will not tarry. 38 * shewe the iust shall liue by faith: but if any withdiawne himselfe, my soule shall haue no pleasure in him. 39 But we are not they which withdiaw our selues vnto perdition, but follow faith vnto the consecration of the soule.

CHAP. XI.

1 What faith is, and a commendation of the same. 9 Without faith we cannot please God. 16 The first faith beleefe of the fathers in the olde time.

NOWE faith is the ground of things, which are hoped for, & the euidence of things, which are not seene. 2 For by it our Elders were well reposed of. 3 * Though faith we vnderstand that the world was obtained by the word of God, so that the things which we see, are not made of things, which did appeare. 4 * By faith Abel offered vnto God a greater sacrifice then Cain, by the which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: by the which faith also he being dead, yet speaketh. 5 By faith was Enoch taken away, that he should not see death: neither was he found: for God had taken him away: for before he was taken away, he was reposed of, that he had pleased God. 6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that commeth to God, must beleue that God is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seeke him.

7 By faith * noe being warned of God of the things which were as yet not seene, moued to reuerence, prepared the Arke to the saving of his household, through the which Arke he condemned the world, and was made here of the righteousnes, which is by faith. 8 By faith * Abraham, when he was called, obeyed God, to go out into a place, which he should afterwarde receiue for inheritance, and he went out, not knowing whither he went. 9 By faith he abode in the lande of promise, as in a strange countrey, as one that dwelt in tents with Isaac and Jacob hirers with him of the same promises. 10 For he looked for a citie hauing a foundation, whose builder and maker is God. 11 Through faith * Sarra also receiued strength to conceiue seld, and was deliuered of a child when she was past age, because she iudged him faithful which had promised. 12 And therefore spang there of one, enemy of one which was dead, so many as the starres of the skie in multitude, and as the sande of the sea those which is innumerable. 13 All these died in faith, & receiued not the promises, but sawe them afarre off, and beleued them, and receiued them thankfully, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. 14 For they that say such things, declare plainly that they seeke a countrey. 15 And if they had bene mindeful of that countrey, from whence they came out, they had leasure to haue returned. 16 But now they desire a better, that is an heauenly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a citie. 17 By faith * Abraham offered by Isaac, when he was tried, and he that had receiued the promises, offered his only begotten sonne. 18 (To whom it was said, In Isaac shall thy seld be called) 19 For he considered that God was able to raise him by euen from the dead: from whence he receiued him also after a sojourn. 20 By faith * Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, concerning things to come. 21 By faith * Jacob when he was a dying, blessed both the sonnes of Joseph, and * leaning on the ende of his staffe, worshipped God. 22 By faith * Joseph when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, and gaue commaundement of his bones. 23 By faith * Moses when he was boyne, was hid three moneths of his parents, because they sawe he was a proper child, neither feared they the Kings commaundement. 24 By faith * Moses when he was come to age, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaos daughter, 25 And chose rather to suffer aduersitie with the people of God, then to enioy the pleasures

CHAP. XII.

1 An exhortation to be patient & steadfast in trouble and aduersities, upon hope of euerslasting rewards. 25. A commendation of the new Testament about the olde.

W Herefore, * let vs also, seeing that we are compassed with so great a cloud of witnesses, cast away euery thing that presseth downe, & the sinne that hageth so fast on: let vs runne with patience the race that is set before vs, looking vnto
Jesus the author and finisher of our faith, who for the ioy that was set before him, endured the crosse, & despised the shame, & is set at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 Consider therefore him that endured such speaking against of sinners, lest ye should be wearied and faint in your minde.

4 Ye haue not yet resisted
vnto blood, striving against sinne.

5 And ye haue forgotten the consolation, which speaketh vnto you as vnto children,
* My sonne, despise not the chastening of the Lord, neither saint whe thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lord loneth,
he chasteneth:
and he scourgeth
euery sonne that he recei-ueth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God offereth himselfe vnto
you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is it whom the father cha-stenerh not?

8 If therefore ye be without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards,
and not * sonnes.

9 Moreover we haue had the fathers of our * bodies which corrected vs, and we gaue them reuerence: should we not much rather be in subiection vnto the Father of spirits, that we might liue?

10 For they verely for a few daies cha-stened vs after their owne pleasure: but he chasteneth vs for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holinesse.

11 Nowe
no chastising for the present seemeth to be painsfull, but afterward it bringeth the quiet fruit of righteousness, vnto them which are thereby exercised.

12 Wherefore lift vp your hands which hang downe, and your weak
knees,

13 And make straight steppes vnto your face, lest that which is halting, be tripped out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

14 * Followe
peace with all men, and holinesse, without the which no man shall see the Lord.

15 Take heede, that no man fal away from the grace of God: let no root of bitter-nesse spring up, which troubleth you, lest thereby ye be defiled.

16 Let there be no fornication, or prophane person as
* Elau, which for a portion of meate solde his birthright.

17 * For ye knowe howe that afterward also when he would haue inherited the blessing,
he was relected: for he found no place to repentance, though he sought the blessing with teares.

18 For ye are not come vnto the * mount that is touched, nor vnto burning fire, nor to blacknesse and darkenesse, and tempest,

19 Neither vnto the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of woodes, which they heard, and they crused themselues, & the word should not be spoken to them any more.

20 For they were not able to abide that which was commanded, *
Pea, though

21 And so terrible was the

CHAP. XLII.

1 He exhorted vs vnto loue, 2 To hospitalitie, 3 To thinke vpon such as be in aduersitie, 4 To mainteine vndelocke, 5 To auoide contentiouse, 7 To make much of the that preach Gods word, 8 To be vnto of strange learning, 13 To be content to suffer rebuke with Christ, 15 To be thankfull vnto God, 17 And obedient vnto our gouernours.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as though ye were bound with them: and them that are in affliction, as if ye were also afflicted in the body.
4 Marriage is honorable among all, and the bed undefiled: but whosoever is an adulterers God will iudge.
5 Let your conuersation be without couetousnesse, & be content with those things that ye haue: for ye haue said, I will not faile thee, neither forsake thee:
6 So that we map boldly say, The Lord is mine helper, neither will I feare what man can do vnto me.
7 Remember them which haue the ouersight of you, which haue declared vnto you the wordes of God: whose faith follow, considering what hath bene the ende of their conuersation.

8 Jesus Christ ⁸ yesterday, and to day, the same also is for euer.
9 Be not carried about in diuers & strange doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be stablished in grace, and not with meates, which haue not profited them that haue bene occupied therein.
10 We haue an altar, whereof they haue no authoritie to eate, which serue in the tabernacle.
11 For the bodies of those beastes whose blood is brought into the Holy place, by the high Priest for sinne, are burnt without the campe.
12 Therefore euen Jesus, that he might sanctifie the people with his owne blood, suffered without the gate.
13 Let vs go forth therefore out of the campe, bearing his reproche.
14 For here haue we no continuing citie: but we seeke one to come.
15 Let vs therefore by him offer the sacrifice of praise alwaies to God, that is, the fruites of the lippes, which confesse his name.
16 To do good, & to distribute forget not: for with such sacrifices God is pleased.
17 Obey them that haue the ouersight of you, and submit your selues: for they watch for your soules, as they that must giue accounts, that they map do it with ioy, and not with griefe: for that is vniprofitable for you.

19 And I desire you somewhat the more earnestly, that ye lo do, that I map be resioyed to you more quickly.

THE ARGUMENT.

Iames the Apostle & sonne of Alphaeus wrote this Epistle to the Tewes which were converted to Christ, but dispersed throughout diuers countreys, and therefore he exhorteth them to patience and prayer, to embrace the true word of God, and not to be partiall, neither to boast of an idle faith,

c He was, is, and shalbe the foundation of the Church for euer.
d Whatsoeuer doctrine is not according to the simple truthes of Gods word, is strange.
e By reprouing them which superstitiously put difference betwixt meates, he condemneth all y seruice which stood in ceremonies, comparing it with the spiritual worshipping, and regeneration.
f They that sticke to the ceremonies of the Lawe, cannot eate, that is, can not be partakers of our altar, which is thanksgiving & liberality, which two sacrifices or offerings are now onely left to the Christians.

them not those things which are needes full to the body, what helpeth it?

17 Euen so the faith, if it haue no workes, is dead in it selfe.

18 But some man might say, Thou hast

the faith, and I haue workes: shew me thy faith out of thy workes, and I will shew thee my faith by my workes.

19 Thou belieuest that there is one God:

thou dost well: the deuils also beleue it, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou vnderstande, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when he offered Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

22 Dost thou not that the faith y wrought with his workes: & though the workes was the faith made y perfect.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which saith, * Abraham beleued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousness:

& he was called the friend of God.

24 Before then how that of workes a man is y iustified and not y of faith onely.

25 Likewise also was not y Rahab the harlot iustified through workes, when she had receiued the messengers, and sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen y the faith without workes is dead.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee forbiddeth all ambition to seeke honour about our brethren. 3 He describeth the properties of the tongue, 15. 16 And what difference there is betweene the wisdom of God, and the wisdom of a be vvorlde.

2

5

My biethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things we y sinne all. * If any man sinne not in word, he is a per-fit man, and able to brydle all the body.

3 Beholde, we put bitres vnto the horses mouthes that they shold obey vs, and we turne about all their body.

4 Beholde, also the shippes, which though they be so great, and are burch of fierre windes, yet are they turned about with a very small rudder, whither soer the gouernour listeth.

5 Euen so y tongue is a little member, and boasteth of great things: beholde, howe great a thing a little fire kindleth.

6 And the tongue is fire, yea, a y world of wickednes: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and y fettereth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For the whole nature of beastes, and of birds, and of creeping things, & thinges of the sea is tamed, and hard bene tamed of the nature of man.

8 But the tongue can no man tame. It is an unruly euill, full of deadly poyson.

9 Therewith blesse we God euen the Father, & therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my biethren, these thinges ought not so to be.

11 Dost a fountain send forth at one place

sweete water and bitter?

12 Can y fig tree y nip biethren, bring forth olives, either a vine figs? so can no foun-

taine make both salt water and sweete.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew by good conuersation his workes in inue-ners of wisdom.

14 But if ye haue bitter enuyng, & strife in your heartes, reioyce not, neither be boast against the trueth.

15 This wisdome descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensuall, and deuillish.

16 For where enuyng and strife is, there is sedition, and all manner of evil workes.

17 But the wisdome that is from aboue, is first y pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to be intreated, full of mercie and good fruites, without iudging, and without hypocricie.

18 And the fruit of righteousness is sowen

in peace, of them that make peace.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Having shewod the cause of all y wrong, and wickednes, and also of all graces and goodwor-ke, He exhorteth them to loue God, 7 And submit themselues to him, 12 For speaking euill of their neighbour, 13 He sheweth how to depende on Gods providence.

3 Pe aske and receive not, because pe aske amisse, that pe might consume it on your lusts.

4 Pe adulterers and adulteresses, knowe pe not that the amitie of the world is the enemie of God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world, maketh himselfe the enemie of God.

5 Doe pe thinke that the Scripture saith in vaine, The spirit that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after enmie?

6 But the Scripture offereth moze grace, and therefore saith, God resisteth the poudre, and giveth grace to the humble.

7 Submit your selves to God: resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw neere to God, and he will draw neere to you. Cleane your hands, pee sinners; and purge your heartes, pee wauersing minde.

9 Suffer afflictions, and sojowne pe, and worpe: let your laughter bee turned into mourning, and your joy into heaviness.

10 Cast downe your selves before the Lord, and he will lift you up.

11 Speake not euill of one another, brethren. He that speaketh euill of his brother, or he that condemneth his brother, speaketh euill of the Lawe, and condemneth the Lawe: and if thou condemnest the Law, thou art not an observer of the Lawe, but a iudge.

12 There is one Lawgiver, which is able to save, and to destroy. Who art thou that iudgeth another man?

13 Go to now pe that say, To day or to morrow we will goe into such a citie, and continue there a pere, and buy and sell, and get gaine.

14 And yet pee cannot tell what shalbe to morrowe. For what is your life? It is even a vapour that appeareth for a litle time, and afterward vanisheth away.

15 For that pe ought to say, If the Lord will, and if wee live, wee will doe this or that.

16 But now pe reioyce in your boastings: all such reioycing is euill.

17 Therefore, to him that knoweth howe to doe well, and doeth it not, to him it is sinne.

CHAP. V.

1 He threatneth the vaunderich men, 7 Exhorteth vnto patience, 12 To beuote of swearing, 16 One to knowlege his fautes to another, 20 And one to labour to bring another to the truth.

1 Goe to now, pe rich men: wepe, and howle for your miseries that shall come vpon you.

2 Your riches are corrupt: and your garments are motheaten.

3 Your golde and siluer is mouldered, and the rust of them shall be as witnesse against you, and shall eate your flesh as it were fire. * Pe haue heaped up treasure for the last dayes.

4 Beholde, the hire of labourers, which haue reaped your fields (which is of you kept backe by fraud) crieth, & the cries of them which haue reaped, are rised into the eares of the Lord of hostes.

5 Pe haue liued in pleasure on the earth, and in wantonnesse. Pe haue nourished your heartes, as in a day of laughter.

6 Pe haue condemned and haue killed the iust, and he hath not resisted you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, vnto the coming of the Lord. Beholde, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruite of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the former, and the latter raine.

8 Be pee also patient therefore and settle your heartes: for the coming of the Lord draweth neere.

9 Iudge not one against another, brethren, lest pee bee condemned: behold, the iudge standeth before the doore.

10 Take, my brethren, the Prophets for an ensample of suffering aduersitie, and of long patience, which haue spoken in the name of the Lord.

11 Beholde, we count them blessed which endure. Pe haue heard of the patience of Job, and haue knownen what ende the Lord made. For the Lord is very pitifull and mercifull.

12 But before all things, my brethren, sweare not, neither by heauen, nor by earth, nor by any other thing: but let your yea, be yea, and your nay, nay, lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is any weep? Let him sing.

14 Is any sicke among you? Let him call for the Elders of the Church, and let them pray for him, and anoint him with oyle in the name of the Lord.

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sicke, and the Lord shall raise him up: and if he haue committed sinne, it shal be forgiven him.

16 Acknowledge your fautes one to another, and pray one for another, that pee may bee healed: for the prayer of a righteous man availeth much, if it bee fervent.

17 Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not raine, and it rained not on the earth for thre yeres and sixe moneths.

18 And he prayed againe, and the heauen gaue raine, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you haue erred from the trueth, and some man hath converted him,

20 Let him know that he which hath converted the sinner from going astray out of his way, shall save a soule from death, and shall hide a multitude of sinnes.

luke 4.35.

The first Epistle generall of Peter.

THE ARGUMENT.

He exhorteth the faithfull to denie themselves, and to contemne the world, that being deliuered from all carnal affections and impediments, they may more speedily attaine to the heavenly kingdome of Christ, wherunto wee are called by the grace of God reueiled to vs in his Sonne, and haue already receiued it by faith, possessed it by hope, & are therein confirmed by holynesse of life. And to the intent this faith should not faint, seeing Christ contemned and reiected almost of the whole world, he declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which tellisse that he should be the stumbling stone to the reprobate, and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithfull: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to goe forward, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After he entreatech particular pointes, teaching subiectes how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and how married folkes ought to behaue themselves. And because it is appointed for all that are godly, to suffer persecutions, he sheweth them what good issue their afflictions shal haue, and contrariwise what punishment God reserueth for the wicked. Last of all he teacheth howe the ministers ought to behaue themselves, forbidding them to vsurpe authoritie ouer the Church: also that yong men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, & to endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

2 He sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God we are elect and regenerate to a liuely hope, 7 And how faith must be tryed, 10 That the saluation in Christ is no meritt, but a thing prophesied of old. 11 He exhorteth them to a godly conuersation forasmuch as they are now borne anew by the word of God.

Peter an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to the strangers that dwell here & there through out Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia & Bithynia.

2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, by the sanctification of the Spirit, through obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Iesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied vnto you.

3 Blessed be God even the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercie hath begotten vs againe vnto a liuely hope by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance immortall and vnde- filed, and that fadeeth not away, reserved in heauen for you,

5 Which are kept by the power of God through faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to be shewed in the last time:

6 Wherein ye reioyce, though now for a season (if neede require) ye are in heau- nes, through manifest tentations,

7 That the reppall of your faith, being much more precious then golde that puri- feth (though it bee tryed with fire) might be founde vnto your praise, and honour and glory, at the appearing of Iesus Christ:

8 Whome ye haue not seene, and yet loue him, in whome now, though ye see him not, yet do you beleue, and reioyce with- out vnspeakable and glorious,

9 Receiuing the ende of your faith, even the saluation of your soules.

10 Of the which saluation the Prophetes haue inquired and searched, which prophesied of the grace that should come vnto you,

11 Searching when or what time the Spirit which testified before of Christ which was in them, should declare the sufferings that should come vnto Christ, and the glory that should followe.

12 Vnto whom it was reueiled, that not vnto them selues, but vnto vs they should minister the things which are now shewed vnto you by them which haue preached vnto you the Gospel by the holy Ghost sent downe from heauen. The which thinges the Angels desire to beholde.

13 Wherefore, I giue by the lapines of your minde: be sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you, by the reuelation of Iesus Christ,

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selues vnto the former lustes of your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you, is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conuersation,

16 Because it is written, "Be ye holy, for I am holy."

17 And if ye call him Father, which with- out respect of personudgeth according to euery mans woike, passe the time of your dwelling here in feare,

18 Knowing that ye were not redeemed with corruptible thinges, as siluer and golde, from your vaine conuersation, re- ceined by the traditions of the fathers,

19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lambe vndefiled, and without spot.

20 Which was ordeined before the founda- tion of the worlde, but was declared in the last times for your sakes,

21 Which by his meanes doe beleue in God that rapled him from the dead, and haue gane him glory, that your faith and hope might

22 Being your soules are purified in obeying the truth through the spirit, to loue brotherly without faim, loue one another with a pure heart feruently,

23 Being boyme a new, nor of moztall fcede, but of immortall, by the woide of God, who lieth and endureth your enen.

24 For all flesh is as grasse, and all the glorie of man is as the flower of grasse. The grasse withereth, and the flower fallet away.

25 But the woide of the Loyde endureth forever: and this is the woide which is preached among you.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorted them to lay aside all vice, 4 Shewing that Christ is the foundation wherupon they build. 9 The excellent estate of the Christians, 11 He praiseth them to abstaine from fleshly lusts, 13 To obey the rulers. 18 How seruants should beate their felues towarde their masters, 20 He exhorted to suffer after the ensample of Christ.

Wherfore, laying aside all malitiousnes and all guile, and dissimulation, and enue, and all enill speaking,

2 As newe boyme babes desire the pure milke of the woide, that ye may growe thereto,

3 If so be that ye haue tasted howe bountifull the Loyd is.

4 To whom ye come as vnto a liuing stone disallowed of men, but chosen of God and precious.

5 And ye as liuelv stones, be made a spiritual house, and holy. Wherewith to offer by spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 Wherfore it is contained in the Scripture, "Beholde, I put in Sion a chiefe corner stone, elect and precious: he that belongeth therein shall not be ashamed."

7 Vnto you therefore which beleue, it is precious: but vnto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 And a stone to stumble at, and a rocke of offence, even to them which stumble at the woide being disobedient, vnto the which thing they were euen ordeined.

9 But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people, that ye should shew forth the vertues of him that hath called you out of darkenes into his marvellous light.

10 Which in time past were not a people, yet are now the people of God: which in time past were not vnder mercie, but now haue obtained mercie.

11 Dearely beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstaine from fleshly lusts, which fight against the soule,

12 And haue pure conuersation honest among the Gentiles, by the which speake the will of him of enill doers, may by your good workes which they shall see, glorify God in the day of the visitation.

13 Submit your selues vnto all manner of ordinance of man for the Lordes sake, whether it be vnto the king, as vnto the superiour,

14 Or vnto gouernours, as vnto them that are sent of him, for the punishment of enill doers, and for the praise of them that doe well.

15 For so is the will of God, that by well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of the foolish men,

16 As free, and not as having the libertie for a cloke of malicioulnesse, but as the seruants of God.

17 Honour all men: loue ye brotherly felowship: feare God: honour the king.

18 Seruants, be subiect to your masters with all feare, not onely to the good and courteous, but also to the froward.

19 For this is thankeworth, if a man for conscience towards God endure griefe suffering wrongfull.

20 For what praise is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faultes, ye take it patiently: but and if when ye doe well, ye suffer wrong, and take it patiently, this is acceptable to God.

21 For herunto ye are called: for Christ also suffered for vs, leaving vs an ensample that ye should follow his steps.

22 Who did no sinne, neither was there guile found in his mouth.

23 Who when hee was reviled, reviled not againe: when hee suffered, hee threatened not, but committed it to him that iudgeth righteously.

24 Who his owne selfe bare our sinnes in his bodie on the tree, that we being deliuered from sinne, should liue in righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For ye were as sheepe going astray: but are now returned vnto the shepheard and bishop of your soules.

Likewise let the wives be subiect to their husbands, as euen they which obey not the woide, may without the woide be wonne by the conuersation of the wordes, 12 For the eyes of the Lorde are ouer the righteous, and his eares are open vnto their prayers: and the face of the Lorde is vpon them that doe euill.

17 For it is better (if the will of God be so) that ye suffer for well doing, then for euill doing.

18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sinnes, just for the vniuersall, that he might bring vs to God, and was put to death concerning the flesh, but was quickened in the spirit.

15 To be ware that no man suffer as an euill doer, 16 But as a Christian man, and so not to be ashamed.

17 As much then as Christ hath suffered for vs in the flesh, arme your selues likewise with the same minde which hath ceased from sinne.

2 That he henceforth arde shoulde line (as much time as remaineth in the flesh) not after the lusts of men, but after the will of God.

3 For it is sufficient for vs that we haue spent the time past of the life, after the lust of the Gentiles, walking in wantonnesse, lutes, drunkennesse, in gluttonie, drunkenings, and in abominable idolatries.

4 Wherein it seemeth to them strange, that ye runne not with them vnto the same excesses of riot: therefore speake they euill of you.

5 Which shall giue accounts to him, that is ready to iudge quicke and dead.

6 For vnto this purpose was the Gospel preached also vnto the dead, that they might be condemned, according to men, in the flesh, but might liue according to God, in the spirit.

7 Now the ende of all things is at hande. Be ye therefore sober, and watching.

8 But above all things haue fervent loue among you: for loue couereth the multitude of sinnes.

9 Be ye harberous one to another, without grudging.

10 Let euery man as he hath received the gift, minister the same one to another, as good disposers of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speake, let him talke as the wordes of God. If any man minister, let him do it as of the abilitie which God ministreth, that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom is praise & dominion for ever, and ever, Amen.

12 Dearly beloved, thinke it not strange concerning the fire triall, which is among you to proue you, as though some strange thing were come vnto you:

13 But reioice, in as much as ye are partakers of Christs sufferings, that when his glorie shall appeare, ye may be glad and reioice.

14 If ye be dailed vpon for the name of Christ, blessed are ye: for the spirit of glorie, and of God resteth vpon you: which on thre 4 part is enis spoken of: but on your part is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or an euill doer, or as a bulle doer in other mens matters.

16 But if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed: but let him glorifie God in this behalf, a Our sanctification standeth in two points, in dying to sinne, and liuing to God.

17 For the time is come, that iudgement must begin at the house of God. If it first begin at us, what shall the ende be of them which obey not the Gospel of God?
18 And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinners appeare?
19 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God, commit their soules to him in well hoping, as unto a faithful Creator.

CHAP. V.

The due tie of Pastour, is to feed the flocke of Christ, & what reward they shall have if they be diligent.
5 Hee exhorteth yong persons to submit themselves to the elders, & to be sober, & to watch that they may resist the enemy.

The elders which are among you, I beseech which am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed,
2 Feede the flocke of God, which dependeth upon you, caring for it not by constraint, but willingly: not for filthy lucre, but of a ready minde:
3 Not as though ye were Lords over Gods heritage, but that ye may be ensamples to the flocke.
4 And when the chiefe shepherds shall appeare, ye shall receive an incorruptible crowne of glory.
5 Likewise ye pounge, submit your selves unto the elders, and submit your selves every man one to another: Becke your selves inwardly in lowliness of minde: for God resisteth the pious, and giveth grace to the humble.

Humble ¹ your selves therefore under the mighty hande of God, that he may exalt you in due time.

² Cast all your care on him: for he careth for you.

³ Be sober and watch: for your adversaries salue the devil as a roaring lion walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

⁴ Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren which are in the world.

⁵ And the God of all grace, which hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a little, make you perfect, confirme, strengthen and stablish you.

The second Epistle generall of Peter.

THE ARGUMENT.

The effect of the Apostle here, is to exhort them which have once professed the true faith of Christ, to stande to the same even to the last breath: also that God by his effectuall grace towards men, moueth them to holynesse of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, and in increasing his gifts in the godly: wherefore by godly life, he beinge now almost at deathes doore, exhorteth them to approve their vocation, not setting their affections on worldly things (as he had oft written unto them) but lifting their eyes toward heaven, as they be taught by the Gospel, whereof he is a cleare witness, chiefly in that he heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed from heaven to be the sonne of God, as likewise the Prophets testified. And lest they should promys to themselves quietnes by professing the Gospel, he warneth them both of troubles which they should sustain by the false teachers, & also by the mockers & contemners of religion, whose manners and trade he lively setteth forth as in a jable: aduertising the faithful not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to beholde presently the day of his coming, and to perseue themselves vsposited against the same.

CHAP. I.

Forasmuch as the power of God hath given them all things pertaining unto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruption of worldly lusts.
10 To make their calling sure with good works, & fruites of faith.
11 He maketh mention of his owne death.
17 Declaring the Lord Jesus to be the true Sonne of God: as he himselfe had scene upon the mount.

Imon Peter a servant and an Apostle of Jesus Christ, to you which have obtained like precious faith with us by the righteousnes of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you, by the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his godly power hath given unto vs all things that pertaine unto life and godlines, ⁴ through the knowledge of him that hath called us unto glory and vertue.

⁵ Whereby most great, and precious promises are given unto us, that by them we should be partakers of the godly nature, in that we flee the corruption, which is in the world through lust.

⁶ Therefore give euen all diligence thereto: to hope moreouer, to vertue with your faith: and with vertue, knowledge:

glorie. ⁷ We are made partakers of the diuine nature, in that we flee the corruption of the world: as Paul writeth, are deade to sinne and are not in the flesh. ⁸ Godly manner.

g The Greeke word signifieth him, that naturally cannot see, except he holdeth neere his eyes. So Peter calleth such as cannot see heavenly things which are farre off, purblind, or fardblind, h Albeit it be sure in it selfe forasmuch as God cannot change: yet we must confirme it in our selues by the fruites of the Spirit, knowing that the purpose of God eleceth, calleth, sanctifieth, and iustificeth vs. i For God will ever vpholds you, k In this body, l Cor. 5. 3, 4. - 7 And with brotherly kindnes, brotherly kindnes: and with brotherly kindnes, loue.
- 8 For if these things bee among you, and abound, they will make you that ye neither shall be idle, nor without fruit in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 9 For hee that hath not these things, is blinde, and can not see farre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his olde finnes.
- 10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make you calling and election sure: for if ye doe these things, ye shall neuer fall.
- 11 For by this means an entering shall be ministered vnto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdome of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.
- 12 Wherefore, I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though that ye haue knowledge, and bee stablished in the present truth.
- 13 For I thinke it mete as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you by putting you in remembrance,
- 14 Seeing I knowe that the time is at hande that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.
- 15 I will endeavour therefore alwayes, that ye also may be able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.
- 16 For wee followed not *deceivable fables, when we opened vnto you the power, and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but with our eyes we saw his maiestie:
- 17 For he received of God the Father honour and glorie, when there came such a voyce to him from the excellent glorie, *This is my beloued Sonne, in whome I am well pleased.
- 18 And this voyce we heard when it came from heauen, bring with him in the holy mount.
- 19 We haue also a most sure word of the Prophets, to the which ye doe wel that ye take heede, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, vntill the day dawne, and the day starre arise in your hearts,
- 20 So that ye first knowe this, that no prophetic in the Scripture is of a private motion.
- 21 For the prophetic came not in olde time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moued by the holy Ghost.

CHAP. II.

He prophesieth of false teachers, and sheweth their punishment.

- 1 But there were false prophets also among the people, euen as there shalbe false teachers among you: which will upbraid you in damnable heresies, eschewing the Lord, that hath bought them, and bring vpon them selues swift damnation.

2 And many shall follow their damnable wayes, by whom the way of truth shall be euill spoken of.

3 And through couetousnesse shall they with faulced wordes make *marchandise of you, whose iudgement long agoe is not farre off, and their damnation shalbe rych.

4 For if God spared not the *Angels, that had sinned, but cast them downe into hel: & deliuered their men chaynes of darkness, to be kept vnto damnation:

5 Neither hath spared he the olde world, but saued *Aoe the right person for a preacher of righteousness, and brought in the flood vpon the world of the vngodly.

6 And *turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorreh into ashes, condemned them and ouerthrowe them, and made them an ensample vnto them that after should liue vngodly.

7 And distressed iust Lot vered with the vncleane comersation of the wicked,

8 (For he being righteous, and dwelling among them, in seeing & hearing, vered his righteous soule from day to day with their vnlawfull doings.)

9 The Lord knoweth to deliuer the godly out of temptation, & to reserve the vniuert vnto the day of iudgement to be punished:

10 And chiefe them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of uncleannes, and despise the gouernement, which are presumptuous, and stande in their owne conceit, and feare not to speake euill of them that are in dignitie.

11 Where as the Angels which are greater both in power and might, giue not rebellion iudgement against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as byrte beastes, led with sensualitye and made to bee taken, and destroyed, speake euill of those things to which they knowe not, and shall perish through their owne corruption.

13 And shall receiue the wages of vnrigheteousnesse, as they which count it pleasure to liue deliciouly for a season. Spots they are and blotches, & deluting themselves in their deceiuing, in feasting with you.

14 Having eyes full of adulterie, and that can not cease to sinne, beguiling vnklaue soules: they haue heartes exercised with couetousnesse, cursed children.

15 Which forsaking the right way, haue gone astray, following the way of *Balaam, the sonne of Beor, which loured the wages of vnrigheteousnesse.

16 But hee was rebuked for his iniquitie: for the dunne asse speaking with mans voyce, forbad the foolishnes of the prophet.

17 These are welles without water, & cloudes caried about with a tempest, to whom the blacke darkenes is reserved for euer.

18 For in speaking swelling wordes of basenitie, they beguile with wantonnesse through the lusts of the flesh them that were but a weep.

Or, in false and vniuert.

a This is evidently seen in the Pope and his Priests, which by lies and ceremonies sell mens soules, so that it is certaine that he is not the successor of Simon Peter, but of Simon Magus.

so these wicked men deliuered of the Spirit of God, only seek to fulfill their sensualitye, as they are vnklaue.

nour Iesus Christ, are yet tangled again them.

unto. 6/ Pho they are which abuse the writings of S. Paul, and the rest of the Scriptures. 18 Concluding vnto eternal shames to Christ Iesu.

THIS second Epistle I now write vnto you, beloved, wherewith I turne by, and to a true pure minde,

2 To call to remembrance the wordes, which were to be of the holp Prophets, and also the commaundement of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Banour.

3 * This first vnderstande, that there shall come in the last dayes, innoers, which will walke after their lustes.

4 And say, Where is the promise of his comming? foi since the fathers died, all things continue alike from the beginning of the creation.

5 Foi this they willingly know not, that the heauens were of olde, and the earth that was of the water and by the water, by the word of God.

6 Wherfoze the world that then was, perished, overflowed with the water.

7 But the heauens & earth, which are now, are kept by d Came to day in foye, & refers ned vnto fire against the day of iudges ment, & of the destruction of vngodly misdemeanors.

8 Dearely beloved, be not ignoant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord, as a thousand yeres, and a thousand yeres, as one day.

9 The Lord is not slacke concerning his promise (as some men count slacknes) but is patient toward vs, and * would haue no man to perish, but would all men to come to repentance.

10 * But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in the which the hea-uens shall passe away with a noyse, and the element shall melt with heate, and the earth with the workes, that are therein, shall be burnt vp.

11 Being therefore of all these things must be dissolued, what manner persons ought pe to be in holy conuersation & godlines,

12 Looking foi, and hastning vnto the com-ming of the day of God, by the which the heauens being on fire, shall be dissolued, and the elements shall melt with heate:

13 But wee looke foi newe heauens, and a newe earth, according to his promise, wherin dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherfoze, beloved, seeing that pe looke foi such things, be diligent that pee may be found of him in peace, without spot and blameless.

15 * And suppose that the long suffering of our Lord is saluation, euen as our beloved brother Paul according to the wis-dome given vnto him wrote to you,

16 As one that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things: among the which some things are harder to be understood, which they that are vniuersal and vni-stable, peruerse, as they doe also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

17 But therefore beloved, seeing pe knowe these things before, beware, least pe be also plucked away by the error of a wicked, and fall from your owne steadfastnes.

18 But growe in grace, & in the knowledge of our Lord and Banour Iesus Christ to him be glorie both now and foi euer more, Amen.

The first Epistle general of Iohn.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that S. Iohn had sufficiently declared, how that our whole saluation doth consist only in Christ, lest that any man should thereby take a boldnes to sinne, he sheweth that no man can believe in Christ, vntill he dothendeuor himself to keepe his commaundements, which thing being done, he exhorteth them to beware of false prophets, whom he calleth Antichrists, & to try the spirits. Last of all he doth earnestly exhort them vnto brotherly loue, & to beware of deceiuers.

CHAP. I.

2 True vnto the end of the world of God. 7 The blood of Christ is the purgation of sinne. 10 No man is without sinne.

ginning, which we haue heard, heard, declare we vnto you, that pe may

Iohn 3. 1.

The fruites of our faith must declare whether we be ioyned in God or no: for God being the very puritie and light, will not haue fellowship with thē which lie in sinne and darkenesse.

e. When the Law was giuen, f. Loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, is the olde commandment taught in the Law: but when Christ saith, So loue one another as I haue loued you, he giueth a new commandment only as touching the forme, but not as touching the nature or substance of the precept. Chap. 3. 14.

our fellowship also may be with the Father, and with his Sonne Iesus Christ. And these thinges write wee vnto you, that your lope may be full.

This then is the message, which we haue heard of him, and declare vnto you, that God is light, & in him is no darkenesse. If we say that we haue fellowship with him, and walke in his darkenesse, we lie, and doe not truelie:

But if we walke in the light as he is in the light, we haue fellowship one with another, and the blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne cleanse vs from all sinne.

If we say that we haue no sinne, we deceiue our selues and truely is not in vs. If we acknowledge our sinnes, he is faithful and iust, to forgive vs our sinnes, and to cleanse vs from all vnrightheousnesse.

If we say we haue not sinned, we make him a liar, and his worde is not in vs.

CHAP. II.

1. Christ is our Aduocate, 10. Of true loue, & how it is tried. 18. To deuoure of Antichrist.

M^a babes, these thinges write I vnto you, that pee sinne not: and if as yett you haue an Aduocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust.

And hee is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of the whole worlde.

And hereby we are sure that we knowe him, if we keepe his commandmentes.

He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandmentes, is a liar, and the truely is not in him.

But he that keepeth his word in him is the loue of God perfect in deede: hereby we know that we are in him.

Hee that saith hee remaineth in him, ought euen so to walke, as hee hath walked.

Wherby, I write no newe commandment vnto you: but an olde commandment, which pee haue had from the beginning: the folde commandment is the worde, which pee haue heard from the beginning.

Againe, a new commandment I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenesse is past, and the true light now shineth.

He that saith that he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkenesse until this time.

He that loueth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasiō of euil in him.

But hee that hateth his brother, is in darkenesse, and walketh in darkenesse, and knoweth not whither hee goeth, because that darkenesse hath blinded his eyes.

Little childyen, I write vnto you, because you sinnes are forgiven you for his Names sake.

I write vnto you, fathers, because pee haue known him that is from the beginning. I write vnto you, pong me, because pee haue overcome the wicked.

I write vnto you, babes, because pee haue known the Father. I haue written vnto you, fathers, because pee haue known him, that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, pong men, because pee are strong, and the worde of God abideth in you, and pee haue overcome the wicked.

Loue not the worlde, neither the thinges that are in the worlde. If any man loue the worlde, the loue of the Father is not in him.

For all that is in the worlde (as the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the worlde.

And the worlde passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that fulfilleth the will of God, abideth euer.

Babes, it is the last time, as pee haue heard that Antichrist shal come, euē now are there many Antichrists: wherby we know that it is the last time.

They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they would haue continued with vs. But this cometh to passe, that it might appeare, that they are not all of vs.

But pee haue an opmitment from him, that is Holy, & pee haue known all thinges.

I haue not written vnto you, because pee knowe not the truely: but because pee knowe it, and that no he is of the truely.

Who is a lyer, but hee that denieth that Iesus is Christ: the same is the Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Sonne.

Whosoener denieth the Sonne, the same hath not the Father.

Let therefore abide in you the same which pee haue heard from the beginning. If that which pee haue heard fro the beginning, shal remaine in you, pee also shal continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.

And this is the promise that hee hath promised vs, euē eternall life.

These thinges haue I written vnto you, concearning them that deceiue you.

But the anointing which pee received of him, dwelleth in you: and pee neede not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all thinges, and it is true, and is not lying, and as it taught you, pee shall abide in him.

And now, little childyen, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, we may be bold, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

If pee know that he is righteous, know pee that hee which doeth righteously, is boyme of him.

CHAP. III.

The singular loue of God toward vs. 7 And beuvs vs a game ought to loue one another.

Behold, what loue the Father hath shewed on vs, that we should be called the sonnes of God: for this cause the world knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

2 Whosoer beloueth, now are we the sonnes of God, but yet it doth not appeare what we shall be: and we know that when he shall appeare, we shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth him self, euen as he is pure. 4 Whosoer committeth sinne, transgresseth also the lawe: for sinne is the transgression of the lawe.

5 And we knowe that he appeared that he might take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whosoer abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoer sinneth, hath not seene him, neither hath known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceiue you: he that doeth righteousness, is righteous, as he is righteous.

8 Hee that committeth sinne, is of the deuill: for the deuill sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose appeared the soune of God, that he might looke the workes of the deuill.

9 Whosoer is borne of God, sinneth not: for his seede remaineth in him, neither can he sinne, because he is borne of God.

10 In this are children of God known, and the children of the deuill: whosoer doeth not righteousness, is not of God, neither he that loneth not his brother.

11 For this is the message, that ye heard from the beginning, that we should loue one another,

12 Not as Cain which was of the wicked, and slew his brother: and wherfore slew he him? because his owne workes were euill, and his brothers good.

13 Maquile not, my brethren, though the world hate you.

14 We knowe that we are translated from death vnto life, because we loue the brethren: he that loneth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whosoer hateth his brother, is a murderer: and we knowe that no murderer hath eternall life abiding in him.

16 Hereby haue we perceiued loue, that he liued downe his life for vs: therefore we ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 And whosoer hath this worlds good, & seeth his brother haue neede, and shutteth vs his compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My little children, let vs not loue in word, neither in tongue only, but in deed and in truth.

19 For hereby we knowe that we are of the truth, and that before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnesse toward God.

22 And whatsoer we aske, we receive of him, because we keepe his commandments, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 This is then his commandment, that we beloue in the name of his Sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as he gaue commandment.

24 For he that keepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, & he in him: and hereby we knowe that he abideth in vs, euen by the spirit which he hath giuen vs.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Difference of spirits. 2 Heuvs the spirit of God may be knowen from the fruits of error. 7 Of the loue of God and of our neyghours.

1 Carely beloued, beloue not euery spirit, but trie the spirits whether they are of God: for many false prophetes are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby shall ye know the spirit of God, Euery spirit that confesseth that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And euery spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spirit of Antichrist, of whom we haue heard, howe that he should come, and nowe already he is in the world.

4 Little children, ye are of God, and haue overcome them: for greater is hee that is in you, then he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world, therefore speake they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God, he that knoweth God, heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby knowe we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue commeth of God, and euery one that loneth, is borne of God, & knoweth God.

8 He that loneth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

9 In this appeared the loue of God to vs, because God sent his onely begotten Sonne into the world, that we might liue through him.

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his Sonne to be a reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

12 As man hath seene God at any time. If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs.

13 Hereby knowe we, that we dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And we haue seene, and doe testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne to be the Sauiour of the world.

15 Whosoer confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

16 And we haue knowen, and beloued the loue that God hath in vs. God is loue, and he that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

Herein is the loue perfect in vs, that we should haue belones in the day of iudgement: for as he is, euen so are we in this world.

There is no feare in loue: but perfect loue casteth out feare: for feare hath painefullnesse: and he that feareth, is not perfect in loue.

We loue him, because he loned vs first.

If any man say, I loue God, and hate his brother, he is a liar: for how can he that loneth not his brother, who he hath seene, loue God whom he hath not seene?

And this commandement haue we of him, that he which loneth God, should loue his brother also.

CHAP. V.

Of the fruits of faith, 14. 20. The office, authority & diuinitie of Christ. 21. Against images.

Whofoener beleeueth that Iesus is the Christ, is a boine of God and receiue one that loneth him which begeth, to nerth him also which is begotten of him.

In this we know that we loue the children of God, when we loue God; and keepe his commandments.

For this is the loue of God, that we keepe his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.

For all that is boine of God, ouercometh the world: this is the victory that ouercometh the world, euen our faith.

Who is it that ouercometh the world, but he which beleeueth that Iesus is the boine of God?

This is that Iesus Christ that came by water and blood, not by water onely, but by water and blood: and it is the spirit that beareth witness: for the spirit is a truth.

For there are three, which beare record in heauen, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost: and these three are one.

And there are three, which beare record in the earth, the spirit, and the water and the blood: and these three agree in one.

If we receiue the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which he testified of his Sonne.

He that beleeueth in the Sonne of God, hath the witness in himselfe: he that beleeueth not God, hath made him a liar, because hee belieneth not the recoide, that God witnessed of his Sonne.

And this is the recoide, that God hath giuen vnto vs eternal life, and this life is in his Sonne.

He that hath the Sonne, hath life: and he that hath not the Sonne of God, hath not life.

These things haue I written vnto you, that beleeue in the name of the Sonne of God, so ye may know that ye haue eternal life, and that ye may beleeue in the name of the Sonne of God.

And this is the assurance, that we haue in him, that if we aske any thing according to his will, he heareth vs.

And if wee knowe that he heareth vs, what seener we aske, we knowe that we haue the petitions that we haue desired of him.

If any man see his brother sinne a sinne, that is not vnto death, let him aske, and hee shall giue him life for them that sinne not vnto death. There is a sinne vnto death: I say not that thou shouldest pray for it.

All vnirighteousnesse is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

We knowe that whofoener is boine of God, sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, keepeth himselfe, and the wicked toucheth him not.

We knowe that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickednesse.

But we knowe that the Sonne of God is come, and hath giuen vs a munde to know him, which is true: and we are in him that is true, that is, in his Sonne Iesus Christ: this same is verie God, and eternal life.

He writeth vnto a certaine Ladie, 4. Reioycing that her children walke in the truth, 5. And exhorteth them vnto loue, 7. And this is the loue, that we should walke after his commandements. This com- mandement is, that as ye haue heard from the beginning, ye should walke in it.

1 I Write vnto the beloued

2 Beloued, I wish chiefly that thou prosperedst and faredst well, as thy soule prospereth.

3 For I reioiced greatly when the bies-vs with malicious wordes, and not but that which is good: he that doeth well, is of God: but he that doeth euil, hath not seene God.

The general Epistle of Iude.

THE ARGUMENT.

Saint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heede of deceiues, which goe about to drawe away the hearts of the simple people from the truth of God, and willett them to haue no societie with such, whom he setteth forth in their liuely colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures, what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally hee com-forteth the faithful, and exhorteth them to perseuer in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

1 I, Iude a seruant of Ie-sus Christ, a brother of James, to them which are called & sanctified of God the Father, and referred to Iesus Christ: Mercie vnto you, and peace and loue be multiplied.

2 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of common saluation, it was needful for me to write vnto you, to exhort you, that ye should earnestly contend for the maintenance of the faith, which was once giuen vnto the Saints.
3 For there are certaine men crept in which were before of olde condemned to this condemnation: wicked men, they are which turne the grace of our God in to wantonnes, and denie God the onely Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

4 I will therefore put you in remembra-ce, forasmuch as ye once knewe this, howe that the Lord, after that he had deliuered the people out of Egypt, dedroped them afterward which believed not.

tion, he hath referred in everlasting chains

THE ARGUMENT.

IT is manifest, that the holy Ghost would as it were gather into this most excellent booke a summe of those prophesies, which were written before, but should be fulfilled after the coming of Christ, adding also such things as should be expedient, as well to forewarn vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, and encourage vs against others. Herein therefore is lively set forth the diuinitie of Christ, and the testimonies of our redemption: what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the ministers, and what things he reprooueth: the providence of God for his elect, and of their glorie and consolation in the day of vengeance: howe that the hypocrites which sing like Scorpions the members of Christ, shall be destroyed, but the Lambe Christ shall defend them, which beare witness to the truth, who in despite of the beast and Satan will reigne ouer all. The liuely description of Antichrist is set forth, whose time and power notwithstanding is limited, and albeit that he is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no farther then to the hurt of their bodies: and at length he shall be destroyed by the wrath of God, when as the elect shall giue praise to God for the victorie: neuertheless for a season God will permit this Antichrist and strumper, vnder colour of faire speech and pleasant doctrine, to deceiue the world: wherefore he aduertiseth the godly (which are but a small portion) to auoid this barious flatteries and bragges, whose ruine without mercie they shall see, and with the heavenly companies sing continual praises: for the Lambe is married: the word of God hath gotten the victorie: Satan that a long time was vntied, is now cast with his ministers into the pit of fire to be tormented for euer, whereas contrarywise the faithfull (which are the holy citie of Ierusalem, and wife of the Lambe) shall enjoy perpetuall glory. Reade diligently, iudge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true vnderstanding hereof.

10 Feare none of those things, which thou shalt suffer: beholde, it shall come to passe, that the deuil shall cast some of you into prison, that he may be tried, and ye shall haue tribulation ten dayes: be thou faithfull vnto the death, and I will giue thee the crowne of life.

11 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches. He that overcometh, shall not be hurt of the second death.

12 And to the Angel of the Church which is at Pergamus write, This saith he which hath the sharpe sword with two edges.

13 I knowe thy woyses and where thou dwellest, euen where Satans throne is, and thou keepest my name, and hast not denieed my faith: euen in those daies when Antipas my faithfull martir was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I haue a few things against thee, because thou hast three that mainteine the doctrine of Balaam, which taught Salathiel to ynt a stumbling blocke before the children of Israel, that they should eat of things sacrificed vnto idols, and commit fornication.

15 Euen so hast thou them, that mainteine the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

16 Repent thy selfe, or els I will come vnto thee shortly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches. To him that overcometh, will I giue to eate of the tree of life, which is in the Paradiſe of God.

giue him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth sauing he that receiveth it.

18 ¶ And vnto the Angel of the Church which is at Thyatira write, These things saith he the Sonne of God, which hath his eyes like vnto a flame of fire, and his feet like fine bayle.

19 I knowe thy woyses and thy house, and thy seruice, and faith, and thy patience, and thy woyses, and that they are more at the last then at the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I haue a few things against thee, that thou sufferest the woman Jezabel, which calleth her self a Prophetesse, to teach and to breede in my seruants, to make them commit fornication, and to eat meates sacrificed vnto idols.

21 And I gaue her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Beholde, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit fornication with her, into great affliction, except they repent of their things.

23 And I will kil her children with death, and all the Churches shall knowe that I am he which search the reins & hearts: and I will giue vnto euery one of you according vnto your woyses.

24 And vnto you I say, the rest of them of Thyatira, as many as haue not this learning, neither haue knowen the deepnes of Satans (as they speake) I will put vpon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye haue already, holde fast till I come.

26 For he that overcometh and keepeth my woyses vnto the ende, to him will I giue power ouer nations.

27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and as the vessels of a potter, shall they be broken.

28 Euen as I receiued of my father, so will I giue him the morning starre.

29 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith to the Churches.

He exhorteth the Churches or ministers to the true profession of faith, & to watching, 12. ¶ It promises to them that perseure.

1 And vnto the Angel of the Church which is at Sardis, These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven starres, I know thy woyses: for thou hast a name þat thou livest, but thou art dead.

2 Be awake and strengthen the things which remaine, that are ready to die: for I haue not found thy woyses perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore, howe thou hast receiued and heard, and holde fast, and repent. If therefore thou wilt not watch,

8 I knowe thy workes: behold, I have set before thee an open doore, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my Name.

14 And unto the Angell of the Church of the Laodiceans write, These things saith the Amen, the faithfull and true witnesse, the beginning of the creatures of God.

15 I knowe thy workes, that thou art neither colde nor hot: I would thou werest colde or hot.

16 Therefore, because thou art lukewarme, and neither colde nor hot, it will come to passe, that I shall spewe thee out of my mouth.

17 For thou saiest, I am rich, & increased with goods, and have made of nothing, and knowest not how thou art wretched and miserable, and poore, and blinde, and naked.

18 I counsell thee, that thou shouldest buy of me golde tried by the fire, that thou mayest be made rich, & white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that thy filthie nakednes do not appeare: and anoint thine eyes with eye salve, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore and amende.

20 Beholde, I stande at the doore, and knocke: If any man heare my voice and open the doore, I will come in unto him, and will suppe with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcommeth, will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I have sate, and sit with my Father in his throne.

CHAP. III.

1 The vision of the maiestie of God. 2 He seeth the throne, and one sitting upon it, 3 And 4 a fire about it with 5 elders sitting upon them, and four beastes praising God day and night.

A After this I looked, and behold, a doore was open in heauen, and the first voice which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me, saying, Come up hither, & I will shewe thee things which must be done hereafter.

2 And immediatly I was raiused in the spirit, and behold, a throne was set in heauen, and one sate upon the throne.

3 And he that sate, was to look upon, like unto a Jasper Stone, and a Sardine, and there was a rainbowe rounde about the throne in sight like to an Emeraude.

4 And round about the throne were foure and twentie seates, and upon the seates I sawe foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, and had upon their heads crownes of golde.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thundings, and voices, and there were seven lampes of fire, burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a sea of glasse like unto crystal: & in the midst of the throne, & round about the throne were foure beastes full of eyes before and behinde.

7 And the first beast was like a lyon, and the second beast like a calfe, and the thirde beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the foure beastes had each one of them six wings about him, & they were full of eyes within, and they ceased not day nor night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God almightie, Which was, and Which is, and Which is to come.

9 And when those beastes gave glory, and honour, and thanks to him that sate on the throne, which lieth for ever & ever,

10 The foure & twentie Elders fell downe before him that sate on the throne, and worshipped him, that turneth for ever more, & call their crownes before the throne, saying,

g It is as cleare as crystal before the eyes of God, because there is nothing in it so litle that is hid from him.

of their works and merits obscure Christ and tread his death under feet. p That is, of the Church. q Of the ministers and teachers, which have not taught as they ought to doe. r These

CHAP. IX.

1 The first and sixth Angel bloweth their trumpets: the fourth falleth from heauen. 2 The locusts come out of the smoke. 3 The fourth Angel bloweth his trumpet, and the three parts of the waters were bound, and loosed, and the third part of men is killed.

a That is, the Bishops & ministers, which for-take the word of God, & so fall out of heauen, and become angels of darkness.

much odours was giuen vnto him, that he should offer with the prayers of all Saints vpon the golden altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saintes, went vp before God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel took the censer, and filled it with a fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth, & there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, and earthquake.

6 Then the seven Angels, which had the seven trumpets, prepared them selues to blow the trumpets.

7 So the first Angel blew the trumpet, and there was hail & fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third part of the trees was burnt,
and all greene grass was burnt.

8 And the second Angel blew the trumpet, & as it were a great mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the third part of the creatures, which were in the sea, & had life, died, and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell a great starre from heauen burning like a torch, and it fell into the third part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the starre is called wormewood: therefore the third part of the waters became wormewood, and many men perished of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third part of the sunne was smitten, and the third part of the moone, & the third part of the starres, so that the third part of the sun was darkened: and the day was smitten, that the third part of it could not shine, and like the night.

13 And I behelde, and hearde one Angel flieing through the middes of heauen, saying with a loude voyce, Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the sounde to come of the trumpet of the third Angels, which were yet to blow the trumpets.

and to him was giuen the ^b kepe of the ^b This authorithere arose the smoke of the pit. as the Pope, in signe of smoke of a great foggage, and the sunne and the ayre were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke ^c Abundance curses vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen ^d power, as the scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was commanded them, that they should not hurt the ^e grass of the earth, neither any greene thing, neyther any tree: but onely those ^f men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them was commaunded that they should not kill them, but that they should be ^g tormented five moneths, and that their paine should be as the paine that commeth of a scorpion, when hee hath stung a man.

6 Therefore in those dayes shall men sleeke death, and shall not finde it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the forme of the locusts was like vnto horses prepared vnto battell, and on their heads were as it were ^h crownes, like vnto gold, and their faces ⁱ were like the faces of men.

8 And they had heare as the heare of women, and their ^j feet were as the feet of lions.

9 And they had habbergions, like to habbergions of pyon: and the sound of their wings was like the sounde of chafetes when many hoises runne vnto battell.

10 And they had tailes like vnto scorpions, and there were ^k stings in their tailes, and their power was to hurt men five moneths.

not destroy the elect, but such as are ordained to perdition.
h That is, the infidels, whom Satan blindeth with the effi-cie of error, and so they are not saved.

i Though the elect be hurt, yet they can not perish. j The elect for a certaine space and at times are in troubles: for the great tribulation enduret from April to September, which is five moneths. l For at the beginning of their affliction, as though as nothing but except they come to the remedie, they perish. m That is, the 27. 10. ch. 9. 10. m Such is the terror of the vntolerating conference, which hath no assurance of helpe, but feeleth iudgement of God against it, when men embrace error, and refuse the true simplicitie of Gods word. n That is, a signe that the Popes clergy shall be proude, ambitious, bold, foule, cruel, rebellious, stubborn, cruel, heretikes, and authors of warre & destruction of the simple children of God. o They pretend a certaine title of honour, which in deede they haue nothing vnto them, as the priests by their crowne and litarge apparel declare. p That is, they pretende great gentleness and love: they are wise, politike, subtil, eloquent, and in worldly craftiness passe all in all their doings. q That is, to delicate, to please themselves to please the carnal senses, signifying their oppression of the poore, and cruelty against Gods children. f Which signifieth their hardness of heart and obdination in their errors, with their assurance vnder the protection of worldly princes. g For as though they had wings, so are they lifted vp about the common sort of men and esteemed most holy, and doe all things with rage and fiercenes.

u To infect and kill with their venomous doctrine.

CHAP. X.

1 I behelde, and hearde one Angel say, Come, and take the book. 2 And I saw another Angel stand by the altar, and he said, Take the book, and eat it: and thy belly shall be bitter, and thy tongue shall be drunken with gall. 3 And I took the book, and I ate it, and my belly was bitter, and my tongue was drunken with gall. 4 And I say vnto them that heare the booke of the prophecy of this booke, if any man shall add vnto these things, God shall add vnto his plagues, and he shall be killed of the same plagues which are written in this booke. 5 And if any man shall take away from the words of the prophecy of this booke, God shall take away his part, and he shall be killed of the same plagues which are written in this booke. 6 And he that testifieth these things, shall say, Amen. 7 And the voice which I heard say, Come, and take the book, was the voice of many Angels, saying, Amen. 8 And I saw another Angel stand by the altar, and he said, Take the book, and eat it: and thy belly shall be bitter, and thy tongue shall be drunken with gall. 9 And I took the book, and I ate it, and my belly was bitter, and my tongue was drunken with gall. 10 And I say vnto them that heare the booke of the prophecy of this booke, if any man shall add vnto these things, God shall add vnto his plagues, and he shall be killed of the same plagues which are written in this booke. 11 And if any man shall take away from the words of the prophecy of this booke, God shall take away his part, and he shall be killed of the same plagues which are written in this booke. 12 And he that testifieth these things, shall say, Amen.

12 One woe is past, and behold, yet two woes come after this.
13 And the first Angel blew the trumpet, & I heard a voice from the four corners of the golden altar, which is before God.
14 Saying to the first Angel, which blew the trumpet, loose the four Angels, which are bound in the great river Euphrates.
15 And the four Angels were loosed, which were prepared at an hour, at a day, at a moneth, and at a peare, to slay the third part of men.
16 And the number of horsemen of warre were twentie thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the number of them.
17 And thus I saw the horses in a vision, and then that sat on them, having fire, habbergions, and of Jacinth, & of hyacinth, & the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions: & out of their mouthes went forth fire & smoke and hyacinth.
18 Of these three was the third part of men killed, that is, of the fire, and of the smoke, and of the hyacinth which came out of their mouthes.
19 For their power is in their mouthes, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, & had heads, wherewith they hurt.
20 And the remnant of the men, which were not killed by these plagues, repented not of the works of their hands that they should not worship devils, and idols of golde, & of silver, & of brasse, & of stone, and of wood, which neither can see, neither heare, nor goe.
21 Also they repented not of their murder, and of their fornicie, neither of their fornication, nor of their theft.

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire prosceedeth out of their mouths, & deuoureth their enemies: for if any man would hurt them, thus must he be killed.

6 These haue power to shut heauen, that it raine not in the daies of their prophesying, and haue power ouer waters to turne them into blood, and to smite the earth with all manner plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they haue finished their testimony, the beast that cometh out of the bottomlesse pit, shall make warre against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their corpses shall lie in the streets of the great Citie, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where our Lord also was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kindreds, and tongues, & Gentiles shall see their corpses three dapes and an halfe, and shall not suffer their carcases to be put in graues.

10 And they that dwell vpon the earth, shall reioyce over them, & be glad, & shall send gifts one to another: for these two Prophets vexed them.

11 But after three dapes and an halfe, the spirit of life coming from God, shall enter into them, and they shall stand vpon their feet: & a great feare shall come vpon them which sawe them.

12 And they shall heare a great voice from heauen, saying vnto them, Come vp hither. And they shall ascend vnto heauen in a cloud, & their enemies shall see them.

13 And some haue said, there be a great earthquake, and the fourth part of the earth shall be shaken, and of the earthquakes shall be done in number from the third vnto the fourth. And the remnant shall be killed.

14 The second voice is heard, saying, The third voice shall come.

15 And the fourth voice is heard, saying, The fourth voice shall come.

16 Then the fourth voice is heard, saying, The fourth voice shall come.

CHAP. XII.

1 There appeareth in heau a woman clothed with the sunne. 7 Michael fighteth with the Dragon, which persecuteth the woman. 11 The victor is gotten to the comfort of the faithful.

And there appeared a great wonder in heauen: A woman clothed with the sunne, and the moone was vnder her feet, and vpon her head a crowne of twelve starres.

2 And she was with childe, and cried traunting in birth, and was pained ready to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen: for beholde, a great red dragon having seven heades, and ten hornes, and seven crownes vpon his heades:

4 And his taile swayed the third part of the starres of heauen, and cast them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman, which was ready to be deliuered, to denounce her childe when she had brought it forth.

5 So they brought forth a man childe, which shoulde rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her sonne was taken vnto God and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God. There she shall be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time.

7 And there was a starre fallen from heauen, and he drave many of the women to drink of the water of the well of bitterness.

8 And there was a voice saying, Blessed are they which keepe the sayings of the book of the prophecy of this.

10 Then I heard a loud voyce, saying, Now is saluation in heauen, & strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 But they overcame him by the blood of the Lambe, and by the voyce of their testimonie, and they loued not their liues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce, ye heauens, and ye that dwell therein. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the devil is come downe vnto you, which hath great wrath, knowing that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast vnto the earth, he persecuted the woman which had brought forth the man child.

14 But to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might flee into wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and halfe a time, from the presence of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth warre after the woman like a flood, that he might cause her to bee caried away of the flood.

16 But the earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed by the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

17 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went & made warre with the remnant of her seede, which keepe the commandmentes of God, and haue the testimonie of Iesus Christ.

1. 8 The beast deceiue the reprobate, 2, 4, 13 And is confirmed by another beast. 17 The prouidence of the beastes marke.

1 And I sawe a beast rise out of the sea, hauing 7 seuen heades, and 7 ten hornes, and vpon his heades were ten crownes, and vpon his heades the name of blasphemie.

2 And the beast which I sawe, was like a leopard, and his feete like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gaue him his power and his throne, and great authoritie.

3 And I sawe one of his heades as it were wounded to death, but his deadly wounde was healed, and all the world wondered, and followed the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gaue power vnto the beast, & they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like vnto the beast? who is able to warre with him?

5 And there was giue vnto him a month, that spake great things & blasphemies, and power was giuen vnto him, to doe two and fourtie moneths.

6 And hee opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blasphemie his departing name and his tabernacle, and them of S. Paul that dwell in heauen.

7 And it was giuen vnto him to make warre with the Saints, and to ouercome them, and power was giuen him ouer euery kindred & tongue, and nation.

8 Therefore all that dwell vpon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the booke of life of the Lambe, which was slaine from the beginning of the world.

9 If any man haue an ear, let him heare. 10 If any leade into captiuitie, hee shall goe into captiuitie: if any kill with a sword, he must bee killed by a sword: here is the patience, and the faith of the Saints.

11 And I behelde another beast coming by out of the sea, which had two hornes like the dragon, but he spake like the dragon.

12 And he did all that the first beast could doe before him, and he caused the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And hee did great wonders, so that he made fire to come downe from heauen on the earth, in the sight of men.

14 And deceiued them that dwell on the earth by the signes, which were shewed vnto him to doe in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make the image of the beast, which had the wounde of a death, and did liue.

15 And it was permitted to him to giue a spirit vnto the image of the beast, so that he should cause that as many as would worship the image of the beast, should be killed.

c Whereby he renounceth Christ-for as faith, the worde and the Sacraments are the Christians marks: so this Antichrist will accept none but such as will approve his doctrine: so that it is not ynough to confesse Christ, & to beleue the Scriptures, but a man must subscribe to the Popes doctrine: moreover their chrismatories, greetings, vowes, othes & shauings are signes of this marke, in so much as no nation was excepted that had not many of these marked beastes. d He that is not sealed with Antichrists marke, cannot be sufficed to liue among men. e Such as may be vnderstande by mans reason: for about 666. yeres after this reuelation, the Pope or Antichrist began to be manifest in the worlde: for these characters x & 6 signify 666: and this number is gathered of the smal number, 4 & 7 & 1906 which in the whole make 666. and signifieth Lateinus, or Latin, which noteth y Pope or Antichrist who vseth in all things the Latin tongue, & in respect thereof he contemneth the Hebrew and Greeke wherein the word of God was first and best written: and because Italie in olde time was called Latium, the Italians are called Latini, so that hereby wee noteth of what country chiefly he should come.

17 And that no man might bpe, o, sell, faue he that had the marke, o, the name of the beast: o, the number of his name.

18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath wit, count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man, and his name is six hundredeth, thye scoy and six.

19 And the third Angel folowed them, saying with a loude voyce, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receiue his mark in his forehead, or on his hand, the same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, & of the pure wine, which is poysoned into the cuppe of his wrath, and he shall be tormented in fire and burnstone before the holy Angels, and before the Lambe.

20 And the smoke of their torment shall ascend euermore: and they shall haue no rest day nor night, which worship the beast and his image, and who soeuer receiue the print of his name.

21 Here is the patience of the Saintes: here are they that keepe the commandmentes of God, and the faith of Iesus.

22 Then I heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto me, Write, & blessed are they that do these things, that they shall not haue the second death, which hereafter die in the second death.

23 And I looked, and beholde, a white cloude, and vpon the cloude one sitting like vnto the Sonne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, & in his hand a sharpe sickle.

24 And another Angell came out of the Temple, crying with a loude voyce to him that sat on the cloude, Thurst in thy sickle, & reape: for the time is come to reape: for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

25 And he that sat on the cloude, thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

26 Then another Angell came out of the Temple, which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

27 And another Angell came out from the altar, which had power ouer fire, & cried with a loude crye to him that had the sharpe sickle, & said, Thurst in thy sharpe sickle, and gather the clusters of the vines: for the time is come to reape.

28 And the Angell thrust in his sharpe sickle, and gathered the clusters of the vines, and cast them into the wine presse.

29 And the wine was pressed in the wine presse, and the blood came out of the wine presse, vnto the knees of the Angels.

30 And I saw the dead, both small and great, stand before God: and the book was opened, and the dead were iudged according to their works.

7 Baping with a loude voyce, I feare God, and giue glory to him: for the hour of his iudgement is come: and worship him that made heauen and earth, and the sea, and the fountaines of waters.

8 And there folowed another Angel, saying, It is fallen, it is fallen, the great citie: for shee made all nations to drinke of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third Angel folowed them, saying with a loude voyce, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receiue his mark in his forehead, or on his hand,

10 The same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, & of the pure wine, which is poysoned into the cuppe of his wrath, and he shall be tormented in fire and burnstone before the holy Angels, and before the Lambe.

1 The nota, & companie of the Lambe. 6 One Angel announceth the Gospel, 8 Another the fall of Babylon, 9 And the thirde vnneth to flee from the beast, 13 Of these blessed ones which die in the Lord, 18 Of the Lords haruest.

1 Then I looked, and loe, a Lambe stood on mount Zion, and with him an hundredeth, fourtie & foure thousand, hauing his fathers name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voyce from heauen, as the sound of many waters, & as the sound of a great thunder: & I heard the voyce of harpers singing with their harpes.

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, & before the foure beasts, and the Elders, & no man coulde learne that song, but the hundredeth, fourtie and foure thousand, which were bought from the earth.

4 These are they, which are not defiled with women: for they are virgins: these follow the Lambe whithersoever hee goeth: these are bought from men, being the first fruites vnto God, and to the Lambe.

5 And in their monthes was founde no guile: for they are without spot before the throne of God.

6 Then I sawe another Angell flie in the middes of heauen, hauing an euerglasting Gospel, to preach vnto them that dwell on the earth, and to euery nation,

1 This is a certain place appointed, & not in the heaven. 2 By this similitude he declareth the horrible confusion of the tyrants & infidels, which delight in nothing but warres, slaughters, persecutions and effusion of blood.

CHAP. XV.

1 Seven Angels have the seven last plagues. 2 The song of them that overcome the beast. 3 The seven vials full of Gods wrath.

1 And I saw another ^{signe} in heaven, great and marvellous, ^{seven} Angels having the seven last plagues: for by them to be fulfilled the wrath of God. 2 And I saw as it were a glassie sea, mingled with fire, and them that had gotten victorie of the beast, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, stande at the glassie sea, having the harpes of God,

3 And they sing a song of Moyses the servant of God, and the song of the Lambs, saying, Great and marvellous are thy workes, Lord God almighty: and true are thy ^{wordes} ^{king} of Saints.

4 Who shall not feare thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy name: for thou only art holy, and all nations shall come and worship before thee: for thy judgements are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and beholde, the temple of the tabernacle of testimony was open in heaven.

6 And the seven Angels came out of the temple, which had the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having there ^{breast}es girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the seven beastes came unto the seven Angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, which lieth for execution.

8 And the Temple was full of the smoke of the gloire of God, and of his power, and no man was able to enter into the Temple: the seven plagues of the seven Angels were fulfilled.

9 As ready to execute the vengeance of God, ^f By the four beastes are meant the creatures of God, which willingly serve him for the punishment of the infidels. ^g God giueth vs full entrie into his Church by destroying his enemies: for the Saints can not clearly know Gods judgements before the full ende of all things.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Angels pour out their vials full of wrath. 2 And what plagues follow thereof. 3 A monition to take heed and wraeth.

1 And I heard a great voyce out of the Temple, saying to the seven Angels, Goe your wayes, and pour out the seven vialles of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his viall upon the earth: and there fell a noise, and a greivous ^{so}re upon the men, and upon the beasts which beare the marke of the beast.

which had the marke of the beast, & upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the seconde Angell poured out his viall upon the sea, and it became as the blood of a dead man: and euery living thing died in the sea.

4 And the thirde Angell poured out his viall upon the riuers and fountaines of waters, and they became blood.

5 And I heard the Angell of the waters say, Woe, thou art mist, which art, and which wast, and holp, because thou hast iudged these things.

6 For they shed the blood of the Saints, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou given them blood to drinke: for they are worthy.

7 And I hearde another out of the Sanctuary say, Even so, Lord God almighty, true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth Angell poured out his viall on the sunne, and it was given unto him to torment men with a heat of fire,

9 And men boiled in great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues, and they repented not, to give him gloire.

10 And the fift Angell poured out his viall all upon the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was dark, and they ^{grew} their tongues for sorrow,

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven for their paines, and for their sores, and repented not of their workes.

12 And the sixt Angell poured out his viall upon the great riuers Euphrates, and the water thereof dried up, that the way of the Kings of the East should be prepared.

13 And I saw three ^{uncleane} spirits like frogges come out of the mouth of the dragon, & out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, to goe unto the Kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battell of that great day of God almighty.

15 Beholde, I come as a thiefe. Blessed is he that watcheth and keepeth his garments, least hee walke naked, and men see his shewell.

16 And they gathered them together into a place. They shal shew their furie, rage and blasphemie against God, when the light of his Gospell shal shine. 1 By Euphrates which was the strength of Babilon, is meant the riches, strength, pleasures & commodities of Rome the second Babilon, which the faithfull which are the true kings & priests in Christ, haue taken away by disclosing their wicked deceit. 2 That is, a strong number of this great devil the Popes ambassadors which are euery crying and crouking like frogges and come out of Antichrists mouth, because they should speake nothing but lies, and vse all manner of craftie deceit to maintaine their rich Euphrates against the true Christians. 3 Albeit they call themselves spiritual and holy fathers. 4 For in all kings courts the Pope hath had his ambassadors to binder the kingdomes of Christ. Chap. 3. v. mat. 24. 44. Luke 12. 39. p. Of righteousness, and holiness, whereunto we are cladded through Iesus Christ.

b This is like to the first plague of Egypt, which signifieth all kinds of pestilences and contagious diseases. c That is, corrupt and infect. d The first plague of Egypt was like vnto this.

e He bringeth forth these two Angels: the one which is governor of the waters, and the other from vnder the altar, as witnesses and commenders of Gods iust judgements.

f For as much as thou destroyest the rebels, and preferrest thine.

g Signifying famine, drought, and hote diseases which proceede thereof.

h The wicked were hard hearted & stubborn, when God punished them.

i This answereth to the ninth plague of Egypt, which signifieth that the Popes doctrine is an horrible plague of God, which keepeth men flat in darke ignorance and errors.

q As if he would say, the craftines of destruction when as Kings and princes shall warre against God, but by the craft of Satan, are brought to that place where they shall be destroyed.
r This is the last judgement when Christ shall come to destroy the wicked and deliver his Church.
f Meaning the whole number of them that shall call themselves Christians, whereof some are so in deede, some are Papists, and vnder pretence of Christ serve Antichrist, and some are Neuters which are neither on the one side nor of the other. t Signifying all stranger religions, as of the Iewes, Turkes and others, which then shall fight with that great whore of Rome, and be tormented in eternall paines. Text 25.5.

CHAP. XVII.

3 The description of the great whore. 8 Her sinnes and punishment. 14 The victorie of the Lambe.

a Which was Christ Iesus who will take vengeance on this Romish harlot.
b Antichrist is compared to an harlot, because he seduceth the world with vain words, doctines of lies, and outward appearance.
c Meaning diuersions and countreits.
d The beast signifieth the ancient Rome: the woman that sitteth thereon, the new Rome, which is the Papistrie, whose crueltye and bloodshedding is declared by scarlet.
e Full of Idolatrie, superstition and contempt of the true God.
f This woman is the Antichrist, that is, the Pope with the whole body of his filthy creatures, as is expounded, ver. 18, whose beauty onely standeth in outward pompe and impudencie, and craft like a trumpet. g Of false doctines and blasphemies. h Which none can know to auoide, but the elect.

place called in Hebrews Arma-gebon.
9 And the seventh Angell powred out his viall into the aere: and there came a loud voice out of the Temple of heauen from the thron, saying, It is done.
10 And there were voyces, & thundrings, and lightnings, and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were vpon the earth, euen so mightie an earthquake.
11 And the great citie was deuised into thre partes, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to giue vnto her the cuppe of the wine of the fiercenes of his wrath.
12 And euery ple fled away, and the mountaines were not found.
13 And there fell a great haile, like talents, out of heauen vpon the men, and men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the haile: for the plague therof was exceeding great.

14 And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdom, but shall receiue power, as kings at one houre with the beast.
15 These haue one minde, and shall giue their power, & authoritie vnto the beast.
16 These shall fight with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall ouercome them: for hee is Lord of Lords, and King of Kings: and they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithful.

17 And hee saide vnto mee, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

18 And the ten hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burne her with fire.
19 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his wil, and to do with one consent, for to giue their kingdom vnto the beast, vntill the wordes of God be fulfilled.
20 And the woman which thou sawest, is the great citie, which reigneth ouer the kings of the earth.

21 And breake them to shivers as a potter pott. 1. Tim. 6. 15. chap. 19. 16. p Diuers nations as the Gothes, Vandales, Huns and other nations, which were once subiect to Rome, shall rise against it, and destroy it. q That in steade of doing homage to Christ Iesus, they should be cast into a reprobate sense to serue Antichrist, & to dedicate themselves selues, and theirs wholly vnto him.

CHAP. XVIII.

3 The losers of the world are sure for the fall of the whore of Babylon. 4 An admittance to the people of God, to flee out of her dominion. 5 But they that be of God, haue cause to reioyce for her destruction.

1 And after these things, I saw another Angel come downe from heauen, hauing great power, so that earth was lightened with his gloire.
2 And he cried out mightily with a loud voice, saying, It is fallen, it is fallen, the great citie, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of all foule spirits, and a cage of euery uncleane and hatefull bird.

of Babylon, b He describeth Rome to be the sinke of all abomination and diueltishnesse, and a kinde of hell.

i This is the Roman empire, which being fallen into decay, the whore of Rome vsurped authoritie, and proceeded from the deuil, and thither shall returne.

l For after that the empire was decayed in Nero, Galba, Otho, Vitellius, Vespasian and Titus, and then in Iulius, fourteen yeres, and reigned in Kings: Domitian then reigned, and after him Cocceius Nerva, which was the seventh.
m He meant Traiane the Emperour, who was a Spaniard, and adopted by Nero, but because he persecuted the faithful, he goeth also to perdition.
n He signifieth the horrible persecutions which haue bene vnder the empire of Rome, and in all other realmes subiect to the same.

1 The greatest part of y world hath bene abused and seduced by this spiritual whoredome.

2 When God thremeth the wicked, he euer comforteth and consolleth his what theyought in doe, that is, that they doe not communicate with the lines of the wicked.

3 The Greeke word is, that her lines so follow one another, and thus one after another, they growe so such an aspe, that as they touch they are very heauie.

4 Medis is he that can repaie in the where the like is writte Michy, 1. 2. 14. 17.

10 That is, the things which he would sit

10 For all nations have drunken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, and the marchants of the earth are waxed rich of the abundance of her pleasures.

11 And I heard another voyce from heauen say, Go out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers in her sinnes, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

12 For her sinnes are come by vnto heauen, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

13 Herwards her, euen as she hath rewarded you, and giue her double according to her workes: and in the cuppe that she hath filled to you, fill her the double.

14 In as much as she glorified her selfe, & liued in pleasure, so much giue pee to her torment and sorrow: for the saith in her heart, "I sit being a Queene, and am no widow, and shall see no mourning."

15 Therefore shall her plagues come at one hap, death, and sorrow, and famine, and she shall be burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God which will condemn her.

16 And the kings of the earth shall bewaile her, & lament for her, which haue committed fornication, and liued in pleasure with her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning.

17 And shall stand a farre off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great citie Babylon, the mighty citie: for in one houre is she iudged.

18 And the marchants of the earth shall weepe and waille ouer her: for no man buyeth her ware any moie.

19 The ware of golde & siluer, and of precious stone, and of pearles, and of fine linen, and of purple, and of silke, and of charlet, & of all manner of Cygne woodes, and of all vessels of purpoe, and of all vessels of most precious wood, and of byasse, and of pyon, and of marble,

20 And of cinnamon, and odours, and opintments, and frankincense, and wine, and oyle, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheepe, and hoxies, and charrets, and seruants, and soules of men.

21 And the apples that the soule lusted after, are departed from the, and all things which were fat and excellent, are departed from the, and thou shalt finde them no moie.

22 The marchants of these things which were waxed rich, shall stand a farre off from her, for feare of her torment, weeping and wailing,

23 And saying, Alas, alas, the great citie, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and charlet, and guilded with golde, and precious stone, and pearles.

24 For in one houre so great riches are come to desolation. And curst thymanster, & all the people that occupie ships, and shipmen, and whosoeuer traile on the sea, shall stand a farre off,

25 And cry, when they see the smoke of her burning, saying, What citie was like vnto this great citie?

26 And they shall cast dung on their heads, and crye weeping, and wailing, and lap, Alas, alas, the great citie, wherein were made rich all that had shippes on the sea by her custome: for in one houre she is made desolate.

27 Heauen, reioyce of her, and yee holp Apostles, and Prophets: for God hath giuen your iudgement on her.

28 Then a mighty Angel tooke vp a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, With such violence shall the great citie Babylon be cast, and shall be founde no moie.

29 And the voyce of harpers, and musiciens, and of pipers, & trumpeters shall be heard no moie in the, and no craies man, of whatsoeuer craft he be, shall be founde any moie in the: and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no moie in the.

30 And the light of a candle shall shine no moie in the: and the voyce of the bydes groine and of the byde shall be heard no moie in the: for the marchants were the great men of the earth: & with thine inchantments were deceived all nations.

31 And in her was found the blood of the Prophets, and of the Saints, and of all that were slaine vnto the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Praises are giuen vnto God for iudging the whore, and for awenging the blood of his seruants.

2 The Angel vnto not be worshipped, 17 The foules and birds are called to the slaughter.

3 And after these thinges I hearde a great voyce of a great multitude in heauen, saying, Hallelu-iah, salutation, and gloie, and honour, and power be to the Lord our God.

4 For true and righteous are his iudgements: for he hath condemned the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath awenged the blood of his seruants shed by her hand.

5 And againe they said, Hallelu-iah: and her smoke rose vp for euermore.

6 And the foure and twentie Elders, and the foure & beastes fell downe, and worshipped God that sate on the thron, saying, Amen, Hallelu-iah.

7 Then a voyce came out of the thron, saying, Praise our God, all ye his seruants, and ye that feare him, both final & great.

8 And I heard like a voyce of a great mul- titude, & as the voyce of many waters, and as the voyce of strong thundrings, saying, Hallelu-iah: for our Lord God almightie hath reigned.

9 Let vs be glad and reioyce, and giue glo- rie to him: for the marriage of the Lambe God made is come, and his wife hath made herselfe ready.

10 And to her was granted, that she should be arrayed with pure fine linen and thus saying: for the fine linen is the righteous- nesse of Saints.

11 Then he saide vnto me, Write, "Blessed when we fed are they which are called vnto this: they shall be joyoned with our head." That is, Angel, Mar. 22. 2. cha. 14. 23. hWh5 God of free mercy calleth to be partakers of his heavenly graces, and deliwereth from the filthy pollutions of Antichrist.

Chap. 22, 8, 9.

Who am charged to tell of this vision, which am partaker of the same Gospel and faith.

He sheweth that none ought to be worshipped but onely God: and that he is of their number whome God vseth to reueile his secretes by, to the Prophets, that they may declare the same to others, also if we must beleue no other spirit of prophetic, but if which doeth testify of Iesus, and lead vs to him.

Whereby is signified that Iesus Christ our iudge shall be victorious, and shall triumph over his enemies.

He meaneth Christ, so that the wicked shall tremble before his face.

To shewe that he was ruler of all the world.

That is, none can haue so full reuelation how Christ is very God, eternall, infinite, and almighty, as he himself.

Whereby is signified his victory, and the destruction of his enemies.

Signifying that Iesus Christ, which is the worde, is made flesh, and is our Lord, our God, and the iudge of the quicke & dead.

This declareth that his Angels shall come with him to iudge the world.

Which driueth the wicked into eternall fire.

Which declareth his humilitie, wherein he is Lord of all, and shall iudge the world.

This signifieth that the day of iudgement shall be cleare and euident, so that none shall be hid: for the trumpet shall blowe aloud, and all shall vnderstand it.

For the Pope & the worldly princes that fight against Christ, euen vntill this last day.

The ouerthrow of I. I. & his, which shall be chiefly accomplished at the second coming of Christ.

Lambes suppre. And he saide vnto me, These wordes of God are true.

And I fell before his face * to worship him: but hee saide vnto me, & thou do it not: I am thy fellow seruant, and one of thy brethren, which haue the testimony of Iesus.

Worship God: for the testimony of Iesus, is the Spirit of prophetic.

And I sawe heauen open and behold, a white horse, and hee that sat vpon him, was called, Faithfull and true, and hee iudgeth and fighteth rightcouly.

And his eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crownes: and he had a name writen, that no man knewe but himselfe.

And he was clothed with a garment dypt in blood, and his name is called, THE WORD OF GOD.

And the warriors which were in heauen, followed him vpon white horses, clothed with fine linen white and pure.

And out of his mouth went out a sharpe sword, that with it hee shoulde smite the heathen: for hee shall rule them with a rod of iron: for he it is that treadeth the winepresse of the fiercenesse and wrath of almighty God.

And he hath vpon his garment, and vpon his thigh a name writen, THE KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

And I sawe an Angel stand in the sinne, who cried with a loud voice, saying to all the foules that did flie by the words of heauen, Come, and gather you selues together vnto the supper of the great God.

That he may eate the fleshe of Kings, and the fleshe of his Captaines, and the fleshe of mightie men, and the fleshe of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the fleshe of all free men and bondmen, and of small and great.

And I sawe the beast, and the Kings of the earth, and their warriors gathered together to make battell against him, that sat on the horse, and against his souldiers.

But the beast was taken, and with him that false prophete that wrought miracles before him, whereby hee deceiued them that receiued his beastes marke, and them that worshipped his image. These both were alive cast into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

And the remnant were slaine with the sword of him that sitteth vpon the horse, which cometh out of his mouth, & all the foules were filled full with their fleshe.

CHAP. XX.

Satan being bound for a certaine time, 7 And after let loose, vexeth the Church grievously. 10. 14 And after the world is iudged, he and his are cast into the lake of fire.

And I sawe an Angel come downe from heauen, hauing the key of the bottomlesse pit, and a great chaine in his hand.

And hee tooke the dragon that olde serpent, which is the deuill and Satan, and he bound him a thousand peres,

And cast him into the bottomlesse pit, and he shut him by, and sealed the doore vpon him, that he shoulde deceiue the people no more, till the thousande peres were filled: for after that tyme must be loosed for a litle season.

And I sawe seates: and they sat vpon them, and iudgement was giuen vnto them, and I sawe the soules of them that were beheaded for the witness of Iesus, and for the worde of God, and which did not worship the beast, neither his image, neither had taken his marke vpon their foreheads, or on their handes: and they lived, and reigned with Christ a thousande peres.

But the rest of the dead men shall not line againe, vntill the thousande peres be finished: this is the first resurrection.

Blessed and holy is he, that hath part in the first resurrection: for on such the second death hath no power: but they shall bee the Priestes of God and of Christ, and shall reigne with him a thousande peres.

And when the thousande peres are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison.

And shall goe out to deceiue the people, which are in the foure quarters of the earth: euen Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battell, whose number is as the sand of the sea.

And they went by vnto the plaine of the earth, which compassed the tentes of the Saints about, and the beloued citie: but fire came downe from God out of heauen, and deuoured them.

And the deuill deceiued them, was cast into a lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast & the false prophete shall bee tormented euery day for euermore.

And I sawe a great white throne, and one that sat on it, from whose face fled away both the earth and heauen, and their place was no more found.

And I sawe the dead, both great and small stand before God: and the bookes

Christ in true faith, and to rise from sinne in newnesse of life. The death of the soule, which is eternall damnation, & shall bee true partakers of Christ and of his dignity. I. That is, he euer. m. After that the chaine is broken and the triumphe of Gods wordes corrupt. n. Which was Christ, prepared to iudgement with glorie and maiestie. p. Euery mans conscience is as a booke wherein his deedes are written, which shall appeare when God openeth the books.

This Angel representeth the order of the Apostles, whole vocation and office was from heauen: or may signifie Christ, which shoulde tread downe the serpents head. b. Hereby he meaneth the Gospel whereby he is that vnto the faithful, and Satan is chained that he cannot hurt them. c. & the ministers hereby opene to the world, but through their impu- & flut-bowery. c. 14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire: this is the second death.

15 And whosoener was not found written in the booke of life, was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAP. XXI.

3. 24 The blessed estate of the godly, 3. 27 And the miserable condition of the wretched. 1 The description of the heavenly Ierusalem, and of the wife of the Lambe.

1 And I sawe * a new heauen, & a newe earth: for the first heauen, and the first earth were * passed away, and there was no more sea.

7 And I John sawe the * holy citie newe Ierusalem come * downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride trunimed for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voyce out of heauen, saying, Behold, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and hee will dwell with them: and they shall be his people, and God him selfe shall be with them.

4 * And God shall wipe * away all teares from their eyes: and there shall bee no more death, neither sorrow, neither crying, neither shall there be any more paine: for the first things are passed.

5 And he that saie vpon the thron, saide, * Beholde, I make all things newe: and he saide vnto me, Write: for these wordes are faithfull and true.

6 And he saide vnto me, It is done, * I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning & the end. I will giue to him that is thurst, of the * well of the water of life free.

7 He that ouercometh, shall inherite all things, and I wil be his God, and he shall be my sonne.

8 But the * fearefull and unbelieuing, and the * abominable and murderers, and whozomongers, and forcerers, and idolaters, and all liars shall haue their part in the lake, which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is in the second death.

9 And there came vnto me one of the seven Angels, which had the seven vialles full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come: I will shewe thee the * bride the Lambes wife.

10 And he caried me away in the spirit to a great & an high mountaine, and he shewed mee the great * citie, holy Ierusalem, * descending out of heauen from God.

11 I sawe mine to drinke of the * liuely waters of this euerlasting life. I sawe mine to drinke of the * liuely waters of this euerlasting life.

12 They which feare man more then God, I. He which mocketh with faith. K By this description is declared the incogneizable glory, which the heavenly copany do enjoy. I It is said to come downe from heauen, because all the benedicts that the Church receiue they acknowledge it to come of God through Christ.

11 Having the gloire of God: and her shining was like vnto a stone most precious as a * Jasper stone cleare as crystal.

12 And had a great * wal and fire, and had twelue * gates, and at the gates twelue Angels, and the names written, which are the twelue tribes of the children of Israel.

13 On the East part there were three gates, and on the Northside three gates, on the Southside three gates, and on the Westside three gates.

14 And the wall of the citie had twelue foundations, and in them the names of the Lambes twelue * Apostles.

15 And he that talked with me, had a golden reede to measure the citie withall, and the gates thereof, and the wal thereof.

16 And the citie lay foure square, and the length is as large as the breadth of it: and he measured the citie with the reede, twelue thousand furlongs: & the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wal thereof, an hundred and foure cubits, by the measure of man, that is, of the Angell.

18 And the building of the wal of it was of Jasper: and the citie was pure golde like vnto cleare glasse.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the citie were garnished with all manner of precious stones: the first foundation was Jasper: the second of Saphire: the third of a Chalcedony: the fourth of an Emesem: the fifth of a Sardony: the sixth of a Sardonius: the seventh of a Chrysolite: the eighth of a Serpil: the ninth of a Topaze: the tenth of a Chrysolopasus: the eleventh of a Iacint: the twelfth an Amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearles, and euery gate is of one pearle, and the scire of the citie is pure golde, as shining glasse.

22 And I saw no Temple therein: for the Lord God abunghrie and the * Lambe are the Temple of it.

23 * And the citie hath no neede of the sunne, neither of the moony to shine in it: for the glory of God did light it: and the Lambe is the light of it.

24 * And the people which are saued, shall walke in the light of it: and the * Kings of the earth shall bring their glory and honour vnto it.

25 * And the gates of it shall not be shut by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And the glory, and honour of the * Saints shall be brought vnto it.

27 And there shall enter into it none vnscleane thing, neither whatsoener woorketh abomination, or lies: but they which are written in the Lambes * Booke of life.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The river of the water of life, 2 The fruitfulness & light of the citie of God. 6 The Lord which euery soules yearning of things to come. 9 The Angels which be worshipped. 18 To the word of God may nothing be added nor diminished thereof. 21 And

m Ever greene and flourishing. 18 Signifying that the faithful shall be surely kept in heauen.

o That is, place enough to enter for els we know there is but one way & one gate, eue Iesus Christ. p For the Apostles were means whereby Iesus Christ the true foundation was reueiled to the world.

q This declareth that Christ is God inseparable with his Father. Isa. 60. 19. 1/1. 60. 3. 5.

r Here we see as in infinite other places, y Kings and princes (66 trarie to that wicked opinion of the Anabaptists) are partakers of the heavenly glory, if they rule in the feare of the Lord.

1/1. 60. 11. Phil. 4. 3. ch. 3. 2. 20. 12.

He alludeth to the visible paradise, to let forth more sensibly the spirital land thus agreeeth that which is wrytten, Ezek. 47.1.

b Meaning, that Christ who is life of his church is common to all his, & not peculiar for any one sort of people.

c For there are all things present & full of all contentation continually.

d Which sometime were vn-pure & entiles, but now are purged & made whole by Christ I/a. 60. 19, 20.

e The light shall be vnchangeable, and shine for ever.

Chap. 19. 10.

f Nowe this is the second time that he suffered himself to be carried away with the excellencie of the person: which is to admonish vs of our infirmities and readinesse to fall, except God strengthen vs miraculously with his Spirit.

g This is not then as the other prophecies which were commaunded to be hid till the time appoynted, as in Daniel 12.4. because that these things shoulde be quickly accomplished, and did now begin.

And hee shewed me a riner of water of life, cleare as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the lambe.

In the middes of the strates of it, and of either side of the riner, was the tree of life, which bare twelue manner of fruites, and gaue fruite euery moneth: and the leaues of the trees serued to heale the nations with.

And there shalbe no moie curse, but the throne of God and of the lambe shall bee in it, and his seruants shall serue him.

And they shal see his face, and his name shalbe in their foreheads.

And there shall be no night there, and they neede no candle, neither light of the sunne: for the loyde God giueth them light, and they shall reigne for euermore.

And he saide vnto me, These words are faithfull and true: and the loyde God of the holp Prophets sent his Angell to thewe vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

Behold, I come shortly. Blessed is he that keepeth the wordes of the prophecy of this booke.

And I am John, which sawe and heard these things: and when I had heard and seene, I fell downe to worship before the feete of the Angel, which shewed me these things.

But hee sayde vnto me, See thou doe it not: for I am thy fellowe seruant, and of thy brethren the Prophets, and of them which kepe the wordes of this booke: worship God.

And hee sayde vnto me, Seale not the wordes of the prophecy of this booke: for the time is at hand.

But that is vniust, let him be vniust still: hee that is vniust, let him be vniust still: except God strengthen vs miraculously with his Spirit.

and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still, and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

And behold, I come shortly, and my rewarde is with me, to giue euery man according as his worke shalbe.

I am Alpha & Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

Blessed are they, that do his commandments, that their right map bee in the tree of life, & may enter in through the gates into the cite.

For without shalbe dogges and enchan- cers, and wholemongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loueth or maketh lies.

I Iesus haue sent mine Angell, to testifie vnto pon these things in the churches: I am the roote and the generation of David, and the bright morning starre.

And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, Come. And let him that is athirst, come: and whosoever wil, take of the water of life freely.

For I protest vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of the prophecy of this booke, If any man shall adde vnto these things, God shall adde vnto him the plagues, that are written in this booke.

And if any man shall diminish of the wordes of the booke of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of the holp cite, and from those things which are written in this booke.

He which testifieth these things, saith, I surely, I come quickly, Amen. Even so come, loyde Iesus.

The grace of our loyde Iesus Christ be with you all, Amen.

but we must beware we esteeme not the length nor shortness of the Lords coming by our owne imagination, 1. Pet. 1. 10. This declareth the earnest desire of the faithful haue to be deliuered out of these miseries, & to be ioyned with their head Christ Iesus,

The ende.
